The roof is being put on the Deschutes Lumber Company's mill this week.

J. E. Reed is spending a few days in Lytle from his ranch near Bull creek.

There will be a grand ball given by W. H. Staats on Christmas night, the 25th.

W. P. Vandervert, of Lava, is in Deschutes this week looking after business matters.

Miss Marion Wiest gave a Thanksgiving dinner in honor of her friend Miss Iva Donkel.

H. J. Palmer and father left this week for Portland where they expect to make their home in the future.

Ballard Gile has gone to Prineville after shingle mill, which he expects to have in running order soon.

Cort Allen, of Lava, stopped here on his way home from Prineville where he had been for his winter's supplies.

C. Ackerman, Ben Rife and Chris Zelman were here this week from North Dakota making proof on their timber claims.

Miss Bandle and Miss Stenberg are training the children at their rooms over their store for the Christmas entertainment.

J. F. Taggart and M. LePage returned Thursday from a trip to Silver Lake, where Mr. Taggart filed on some timber land.

Maxem LePage Wm. Stewart and family and Theophile Michel are on their homesteads busily engaged in making improvements.

C. C. Hutchinson came in last Sunday, accompanied by a couple of capitalists. It is the intention to commence extensive work for his company.

The dance at J. I. West's hall on Thanksgiving night was one of the best of the season. Taylor's orchestra furnished the music. There was a large turnout.

Rev. O. W. Triplett held services at the school house last Sunday where he was greeted by a large congregation. He also kindly superintended the Sunday school in the afternoon.

On Monday morning Robt. McFarland began the survey for a ditch line for Mr. Hutchinson's Company. The new line leaves the Deschutes river at Lytle just above the sawmill.

W. P. Vandervert was in town the first of the week from Lava. He reported considerable of the fleecy and a modicum of cold weather the week before, but said both had left for parts unknown when he came in. At no time, however, was the stock at any trouble in getting plenty of grass.—Review.

Timbers for the Crooked river bridge are on the ground ready for the carpenters, and the steel work is expected almost any time now. It will be a structure to which our citizens can point with pride. As soon as the city can afford it let our city dads emulate the example of the county and have steel bridges crossing both the Ochoee and old Crooked river. Both the old bridges are covered with gray whiskers and should be renewed before any accident happens to remind the council of the fact.—Review.

The all important question is, how is your liver? Oregon Liver Regulator is the greatest blessing for a torpid liver, sour stomach, sick headache and dyspepsia. If it does not cure it costs you nothing. Guaranteed by W. H. Staats dealer in Drugs and General Mdse. Deschutes.

It is not time that the surgeons were able to throw a little light upon that dreadful plague, appendicitis? Patients are being operated upon daily in our state, for this modern-named malady and yet the doctors themselves don't appear to know a great deal about it. Not being hereditary it must be attributable to some cause, and possibly a simple one and the country would owe a great deal to anyone who could make this discovery.—Pendleton Tribune.

Forestry Agent Kent who is engaged in making further investigation into the Warner Mountain Reserve withdrawals, is working to the south of Lava. Reports from persons whom he has interviewed would seem to indicate that he considered territory, where 60 per cent of the land was taken, as unavailable for reserve purposes. Black pine land he seemed to think might conserve the water supply some what. He is also disinclined to reserve lands on streams suitable for homesteads. From the nature of his inquiries it is more than likely that he will recommend that a large part of the territory be thrown open for entry. Mr. Kent will shortly complete his work.
