LOCAL NOTES.

The shingle mill is now in operation.

Millinery Bargains at New York Cash Store!

Wm. Stephens came in from his homestead Thursday.

The party at Low's place last night was a very enjoyable affair.

Chas. Cotter was a visitor at the county seat the first of the week.

Mrs. Chas. Brock and baby are over their recent attack of scarlet fever.

Blanche Tewksbury is rapidly recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.

A very attractive assortment of holiday goods and toys at New York Cash Store!

N. P. Weider and Paul Kramer were visitors at the Griffin homestead last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Weisz and Mr. Rowan visited at the Stephens homstead Thursday.

The New York Cash Store will receive a full line of the latest styles in gentlemen's hats next week.

If in need of warm winter underwear, gloves, shoes, etc., don't fail to see our line at New York Cash Store.

Carlyle Triplett is preparing to build a cottage for his family a short distance up the river from the postoffice.

The condition of John Steidl, who has been laid up for the past three weeks with typhoid fever, has changed some for the better.

You can buy an appropriate present for either your brother, sister, parent or wife—yes, even your mother-in-law—at the New York Cash Store.

Irvin and Levern Reed will soon begin the erection of houses on their respective homestead claims which lie a short distance to the south and east of the Sisemore place.

Mrs. W. P. Vandevert and family returned to their home at Lava last Monday after having spent Christmas at this place. While here they were guests at the home of H. W. Reed in Lytle.

Irvin Reed had the misfortune to poke a stick into the corner of his right eye while at work lacing a belt at the Deschutes Lumber Company's mill Thursday. No serious damage was done.

Anton Erickson, of Bemidji, Minn., purchased lot 13, block 11 in the townsite of Lytle Wednesday. Mr. Erickson has made up his mind to return to this place in the sping to engage in business.

J. T Unseth left the first of the week for Portland where he will remain on business for several weeks. Mr. Undseth will probably take a trip to his old home in North Dakota before he returns to this place.

A surplus of $9.50 remained after all expenses of the Christmas entertainment had been paid, which amount was turned over to the treasurer of the Baptist Union Sunday School according to the terms of subscription.

Anton Erickson and Olia Olson, Bemidji, Minn., visited at this place Wednesday with Louis Nelsen. They left next day for Silver Lake to make proof on their timber claims. Mr. Erickson is thinking seriously of locating at this place next spring.

Harry Broker has severed his connection with the Bend Mercantile Company and leaves Monday for Prineville. Harry will be greatly missed by his many friends at this place.

The Baptist Union Sunday School will have a new organ about Jan. 15th.

Prince Staats is spending his vacation at Prineville, visiting at the home of his uncle, Sam Collins.

A party consisting of F. J. West, Lucy West, Alberta R. Buck, George L. Buck and Jasper A. Martin passed through Deschutes Thursday on their return from Silver Lake where they had made proof on timber claims. John Elder was their driver.

Charles Cotter's family has about recovered from the scarlet fever that victimized all the children during the past two weeks. The little ones were visited during their confinement by Santa Claus who made them happy with a small Christmas tree and candy bags.

We present to our readers this week the largest amount of paid commercial advertising that has ever been printed in THE ECHO since the paper was established. Another indication of the paper's standing among the people who really do the business of this community.

Dr. C. L. Ransom, of Salem, was in the city Tuesday on his way home from Silver Lake. The doctor had gone to the latter place with the intention of establishing himself there but after thoroughly investigating the field concluded that there was not a sufficient population in the surrounding country to support a physician.

We advertise the three best hotels on the road from Shaniko to Silver Lake. Patronize them on your travels and you will never have cause to kick yourself or have a kick coming on the country simply because you got into a bad hotel. Remember them as you come in; the Columbia Southern, The Prineville and Hotel Staats.

On account of an engagement at Haystack, Rev. O. W. Triplett will not be able to hold servies at the school house on the first Sunday in January as was anticipated. He will arrive, however, very shortly thereafter and will hold several evening meetings. The time will be announced later. Everybody is invited to attend these meetings
