

LOCAL NOTES.

Scarlet fever is prevalent at the Meadows.
Theophile St. Michel was in town yesterday.
James Overton was a Prineville visitor Tuesday.
Rene West is having a residence built for himself at Lytle.
Sam Collins, of Prineville, was in town last Tuesday night.
Ed Swalley was a visitor in Prineville the first of the week.
W. H. Staats took the Hutchinson party to Prineville yesterday.
Dr. W. W. Taggart came in from Prineville on Thursday night's stage.
Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Weisz and John McKeown left today for their homesteads.
Shaw & Brosterhous' building at this place was purchased by W. H. Staats Thursday.
Arnt Aune and Oliver Johnson made commutation proof on their homesteads yesterday.
J. R. Benham returned Tuesday from Prineville where he had spent several days on business.
The boys at the P. B. D. Co.'s ditch camp indulged in a general good time last Sunday night.
J. E. Ryan came in from Prineville Wednesday night and left next day for his ranch up the river.
Chas. Cottor is acting as guide for Messrs. Turney and Elliott on a duck hunting expedition at the Meadows today.
O. J. Gray, the timber cruiser, came in from Portland Wednesday. He left the same afternoon for Silver Lake on a business trip.
C. M. Donkel has purchased Chas. Brock's interest in the "Jolly Corners" and will hereafter conduct it in company with Rene West.
John and Lizzie Aldridge, of Prineville, passed through Deschutes Wednesday on their way to Silver Lake where they will reside in the future with their grandmother.
J. A. Ingram, Fenton, Mich., J. C. Murray, E. M. and H. H. Holland, of Portland, passed through town last Monday on their way to Silver Lake to make proof on their timber claims.
The upper floor of Hotel Staats is being partitioned off into rooms this week. Wm. Stephens is doing the work. Work will soon start on a 20x50 addition to this popular hostelry as it is felt necessary on account of the rapidly increasing patronage.
Frank Glass returned Tuesday from the Willamette valley where he had spent over a month attending to business matters and visiting relatives. Mr. Glass says that it is mighty nice to get into a dry climate again after a sojourn among the Webfooters.
Upon interviewing Mr. Sisemore we learned that negotiations had never been entered into between he and Mr. Kitchen for the transfer of the Farewell Bend property. Mr. Sisemore says that some people seem to know more about his business affairs than his own self.
Rev. W. O. Forbes, traveling missionary of the Presbyterian church with headquarters in Portland, has been conducting a series of evening meetings at this place during the week. Rev. Comberford, of Prineville, assisted him during the fore part of the week. Rev. Forbes will remain and conduct services tomorrow (Sunday) morning and evening.

Shaw & Brosterhous started work on their new saloon building opposite the Pilot Butte Inn last Wednesday.
Chester Hollingshead, of the Meadows, was down to the masquerade ball at Sizemore's hall Thursday night.
H. F. Smaus, of Spokane, Wash., passed through Deschutes Wednesday on his way to Silver Lake to prove up on his timber claim.
C. B. Allen was down from his ranch the first of the week. He continued on to Prineville for the purpose of getting a load of supplies.
Mr. and Mrs. B. F. White, of Watervliet, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rummery, of Sumpter, and Mrs. Pauley, of Minneapolis, were registered at Hotel Staats last Monday night. They left next morning for Silver Lake.
M. E. Carson, of Bemidji, Minn., came in Monday and left Wednesday for Portland where he will visit for some time. He was unable to find one of his witnesses to make proof of his timber claim and was compelled to readvertise.
Messrs. C. C. Hutchinson and J. G. Kelley, of Portland, H. D. Turney and W. E. Guerin, of New York, and Major R. H. Elliott, of Birmingham, Ala., spent several days in Deschutes this week looking over Mr. Hutchinson's irrigation project.
J. B. Secombe, of Minneapolis, was in town the first of the week looking over the irrigation work of this region. Mr. Secombe is a successful railroad contractor and it is said that he is seriously contemplating taking up the work in this section of the country.

The Award is Refused.
For his fine discriminating powers in ascertaining the value of Truthful James' character, P. B. Gile, however, refused to accept it as he says that he wasn't a very earnest competitor and he further holds that there are not enough disinfected in Oregon to queer the stanch of the Bulletin sufficiently so that a gentleman would place his hands on it. As for Mr. Gile's estimate of Truthful, no one is more familiar with it than that dignitary himself—he got it direct.

The Country's Best.

For doctor's fees won't be necessary when you are attacked with colds at this season of the year. Just get a bottle of "GREEN RIVER" or "HARPER," and take it in the form of a hot toddy. Your cold will leave you and you won't suffer from the effects of "cheap" whiskey. SHAW & BROSTERHOUS have lots of "GREEN RIVER" and "HARPER," and they want to "show you."
