John Sizemore made the county seat a visit the first days of this week.

Claus Asmus was down from his homestead the fore part of the week.

Mrs. A. M. Drake and A. L. Goodwillie were in Prineville Saturday.

Rev. O. H. Triplett and family returned to their home in Prineville Monday.

James Hunter and J. N. Hunter transacted business at the county seat Monday.

J. W. Taggart and wife, of Wisconsin are in the city, the guest of J. F. Taggart.

Dan Heising and family are again living in our city having left the ditch camp.

A. W. Pope went to Prineville Sunday to be present during court time. He returned Tuesday.

W. Brock was away several days this week as a witness in some matters before the district court at Prineville.

John R. Brock left for Prineville Sunday and spent several days at that place on business and in visiting with his daughter.

The ladies of the Baptist Union Sunday School are arranging for an entertainment and social to be given in the near future.

White and Hill received two loads of vegetables Monday, being brought over from Haystack.

A surprise party was given to Miss Marion Wiest Wednesday evening by a party of young people. Games were played and light refreshments served.

A. H. Kennedy fished on the Deschutes Sunday with his usual good luck. He captured 82 fish in half a day and then spent the remaining time visiting friends.

C. L. Brock was in attendance at the session of the county court in Prineville this week. The county court transacted no business but met and adjourned until next week Tuesday.

E. F. Batten left for Portland Monday, whence he will move his family to this place. Mr. Batten is a share holder in the Bend Mercantile Company and he will be connected with that company hereafter in some capacity.

W. E. Guerin, Jr., arrived from Portland early this week and will spend some time inspecting the D. I. & P. Co.'s works. The Oregon Journal announced that Mr. Guerin would introduce this country to the automobile craze but he came to town in the conventional manner.

W. H. Staats and son Prince were at the county seat early this week.

E. Griffin returned Saturday from a business trip to Silver Lake and Paisley.

Civil Engineer Sherman, of Portland, is in the city working for the D. I. & P. Co.

B. C. Low left Tuesday for Shaniko for freight for his own and the New York Cash Stores.

C. E. Lovell was at Prineville the latter part of the week in the D. I. & P. Co.'s interest.

Charles Cunningham, of Umatilla county plead guilty before the federal court on a charge of fraudulently procuring land and was fined $5000. Two of the alleged dummies also pleaded guilty and were fined $100 each. One woman was dismissed.

W. E. Guerin, Jr., and Geo. C. Steinemann have established headquarters here for the sale of irrigated lands under the D. I. & P. Company ditch. No water rent will be charged for water used this season in order to encourage the cultivation of the lands.

J. E. Johnston, general manager of the D. I. & P. Co. demonstrated the possibility of automobile travel in this country by coming to town in the Company's automobile. This is the first automobile to make its appearance in Crook county. Mr. Johnston came in by way of Trail, and was at times hampered by the sagebrush getting into the machinery, but made the trip in fourteen hours.

White and Hill have found it necessary to procure additional help in their business this week. Great amounts of meat and vegetables are required for the ditch camps, hotels and private homes and Mr. Hill is forced to persistently scour all parts of the county for his needs. The Deschutes shop is now getting a better grade of meat and provisions and selling more than any other shop in Crook county.

Judge W. L. Bradshaw, District Attorney Menefee and Stenographer Dufar, all of The Dalles, have been here this week, holding down circuit court. Judge Bradshaw is a candidate for re-election, and we wish we had as good a chance to get $20,000 as he has to hold down the circuit court bench for the next four years. There isn't a man in the district who can beat Judge W. L. Bradshaw, be he democrat or republican.—Review.

Notice to Voters.

Now is the time to register. You have only up till 5 P. M. on May 15 to register, and it is imperative that registration be accomplished as speedily as possible. Be sure and have your location—lot and block, or number of room when in hotel, or section, township and range when out of town. This is to facilitate registration and is equally a time-saver to the voter and the county clerk.

This registration is for two years and covers the coming presidential election.

Remember and bring your location, as the clerk cannot take time to look up plats or records, as there will be several hundred voters to register in the next two months.

J. J. SMITH,
County Clerk.

CONTEST NOTICE.

U. S. Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon.
March 21, 1901.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by William P. Vandeventer, contestant, against desert land entry No. 189, made Oct. 4, 1897, for N 1/2 SW 1/4, and S 1/2 NW 1/4, section 22, Township 11 N. E. S. Range 12 E. by James C. S. Tabor Contestee, in which it is alleged that during the next year after making said entry said contestee wholly abandoned and neglected to expend the sum of $1 per acre, or any part thereof, either in improvements or labor or in the cultivation of said tract that during the first year after making said entry that is, between October 4, 1897, and October 4, 1898, or at any time thereafter, said claimant failed and neglected to file proof of labor performed upon said tract as required by law; that said tract has been wholly abandoned by the said James C. S. Tabor; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on May 21, 1901, before J. M. Lawrence, U. S. Commissioner, at his office at Deschutes, Oregon and final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on May 31, 1901, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed March 21, 1901, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice could not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
MICHAEL T. NOLAN, Register.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon.
February 26, 1901.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 2, 1878, relating to the sale of the public lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory, as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892,
Charles S. Edwards of Deschutes county of Crook, state of Oregon, has on July 9, 1900, filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2569, for the purchase of the SW 1/4 section 22, in township 11 N. E. S. Range No. 12 E. W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before J. M. Lawrence, U. S. Commissioner, at his office at Deschutes, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 11th day of May, 1901.
He names as witnesses: J. N. Hunter, Glenn Marsh, Richard King and James Hunter, all of Deschutes, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 11th day of May, 1901.
MICHAEL T. NOLAN, Register.
