—A number of the Newberg people went on the excursion to Vancouver Thursday. The weather was a little disagreeable in the morning but the afternoon was very pleasant. The steamer Multnomah arrived at the Newberg dock on time at 10 P. M. All report a pleasant trip.

—Miss Bertha Truelove, formerly of this place, died at her home in Portland, at 2 o'clock a. m. Thursday, and was buried at the Friends Cemetery in Newberg, Friday at 2 p. m. She was well known here and loved by all. The GRAVE with her many friends, mourn the loss.

—The Ice-cream and Strawberry festival at the old church last Monday evening was a success. A large crowd of young people was present, and after supper the time was spent in marching playing games &c. About one o'clock the merry crowd dispersed, apparently well pleased with the entertainment.

—The Y's parlor social was held at the residence of N. E. Britt. The time was spent in the way characteristic of those occasions; that of genuine enjoyment to all present. On the way home several of the boys were lost in the woods and did not get out till the next morning. The next social will be held at the residence of G. W. Williams.

—Our mail bag from the south has been coming in with no mail. This is due to the strike on the upper end of the Narrow Gauge. All hands have quit work, themselves, and say no one else can run trains until they have received their back wages. It is rough on the men to work for a Railroad company that is too poor to pay them wages, and they cannot be blamed for a strike, but when it comes to stopping the mail we kick.

—Among those who visited Mrs. Martin's school Friday the 24th, were Mrs. Nannie Hadley, Mrs. Ella Bray, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Christenson and Mrs. Foster. At half past one o'clock the children formed into lines and marched to a secluded shady nook a few rods distance from the school house, where seats had been arranged the day previous. This was the day for the B division to perform. All were prepared but two. Lizzie Kirk and Levert Bray, two of the visitors favored the school with recitations in a way that would have done credit to older persons. The exercises were varied with songs and a question box. Some of the compositions deserve especial mention. Those upon the subject of "Father making" by the girls and one upon the "Dangers of Coasting" by a little boy. At the close all thought it much nicer than to have remained in the schoolroom.

Special Notice. All persons knowing themselves in debt to me will confer a favor by calling in and settle as early as possible for it takes money to buy goods.

Everybody Should go. Prof. Rank of Salem will lecture in the Gymnasium next Tuesday evening June 4th. Prof. Rank comes to us highly recommended and has had a wide experience as a teacher and lecturer in the east. Everybody should hear him.

A Bad Accident. David Lamb of the firm of Austin, Ford and Co., met with quite a serious accident last Saturday while trying to bring in a cow from Mr. Davids. He roped her and was trying to "snub" her to a post when he caught his thumb between the rope and post tearing the flesh loose from the bone for some distance. He was brought into town and had the wound dressed and was carefully cared for, but the warm weather and the extent of the wound were against him and on Monday night had to have his thumb taken off. Drs. Moore and Mills performed the operation. At last report he was no better. The "Graphic" sympathizes with him in his trials and hopes for his speedy recovery.

A profitable market has been found, says a contemporary, for the poor, despised American red oak, that has been considered of no value at all. American dealers are buying up all they can get hold of and shipping it to Liverpool. There the lumber is manufactured into fancy furniture and shipped back to New York, where it is sold to wealthy people as the real English oak, and at pretty still prices too.—E.

Seventh Annual State Convention. This convention met in the city of Salem May 22nd, continuing three days, with a larger number of delegates present than at any previous convention held in Oregon. Devotional meeting conducted by Mrs. A. R. Riggs, state President. Business session at 9 o'clock. First on program was the appointment of committees. While waiting for the report of the committee on Credentials, Mrs. Narcissa White Kenney, of Astoria, formerly National Organizer from Pennsylvania, was escorted to the platform, and made some appropriate remarks. The speaker said that the very elements favor prohibition; that she brings good cheer from other states. When on this coast three years ago she did not intend to make this her home, and now that she has become a citizen of Oregon, she feels an unusual interest in the work here. The speaker was cheered enthusiastically. The committee on credentials gave a partial report, but before the close of the convention more than sixty delegates were reported in attendance. Reporters were appointed for all the leading newspapers in the state. The report of the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Henrietta Brown, of Albany, was then read. This report showed 44 Unions organized, and mostly in a good condition. Thirty-three sent full reports, five partial reports, and six no reports. Number of members 790 active, 208 honorary. Eleven papers have W. C. T. U. columns, 782 Local Temperance Lecturers, 49 schools teaching scientific temperance. There has been 95 public lectures. A vote of thanks was tendered the Corresponding Secretary for her care in making out her report. Noonday prayer was observed, and the convention adjourned to meet at 1:30 p. m. Afternoon devotions conducted by Mrs. Rev. Newell, of Salem, then came reports of District Presidents. The 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th districts gave reports, 5 and 6 not heard from. Reports of superintendents of departments were then taken up and continued at intervals throughout the remainder of the convention. The state has taken up twenty-six lines of work out of forty adopted by the National W. C. T. U. A large audience assembled in the evening to hear the annual address of the President, Mrs. A. R. Riggs. The president gave a review of the work, its aims etc. There is not space for a synopsis of this address, here, but the address will be published in the State minutes, which will be out in a few weeks. The devotional meeting Thursday morning was conducted by Mrs. M. E. Edwards. At the opening of the business meeting the convention was seated in districts. On motion a telegram of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Hines, former state president, who is now unable to be out; also to Mrs. Smith French of The Dalles, whose husband is dangerously ill. The report of the state treasurer showed that the sum of $895.48 has been received in the past year, and $577.15 paid out, leaving a balance in the treasury of $118.33. A letter was read from Mrs. M. L. Diggins, of Oregon City, regretting her absence from the convention, and donating to the convention the money that would have been expended by her attending, which the convention accepted with a unanimous vote of thanks. Mrs. Mattie J. Towns, of Portland, read the report of the Home for Erring Women. This report showed an appropriation of $2500 by the Legislature. The "Home" is under the supervision of a good and very efficient matron, and is prospering. Miss Weeden presented the claims of the Temperance Temple, Chicago. Miss Weeden said that Solomon reared a temple to Baal, every body contributed to this very expensive structure, and that we, by no considerable effort build this temple to represent the National work. Applause. Afternoon devotions conducted by Rev. Mrs. Spangler, of Corvallis. First on program after opening of business was report of superintendent of Conference with Influential Bodies, Mrs. N. J. Wallace. Report of plan of Work committee was then read. The committee read 1st. Organization. 2nd. State fund for organization purposes. 3rd. That districts be abandoned and the work taken up by the different counties, so as not to have so much machinery. Report accepted. The finance committee then reported. Report of literature showed 150,000 pages distributed at State fair. Mrs. Rankin's report on unfermented wine showed 79 churches using unfermented and 23 using fermented wine. The evening session was addressed by Mrs. White Kinney. Mrs. Kinney's address showed the falacy of high license, and was given in her usual easy and graceful manner. Friday morning came the election of officers, which resulted in the almost unanimous re-election of the same officers with the exception of Miss Elizabeth Irvine, Albany, for treasurer, who declined to serve, and Mrs. J. E. Blyden, of Eugene, was chosen in her stead. The name Sabbath Desecration was changed to that of Sabbath Observance. In her report on Hygienic Reform and Heredity, Dr. Owens & Co. recommended the use of porridge with milk, for breakfast, and said that this constitutes the principal part of the morning meal of Oregon people. An invitation to the convention to visit the State prison, from the Superintendent of that institution was read, and Mrs. Haworth, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Miller were appointed to visit the prison. Report of Nominating Committee was read in the afternoon and reports from several superintendents. 800 copies of the minutes were ordered to be printed. The new treasurer was escorted to the platform, by the treasurer. It was decided that the next convention should be held at Portland. A collection of $10.00 was taken to assist in paying for the State minutes. The last evening, Friday, was devoted to the Y's, and was, as usual, the close of the convention. The State Superintendent, Miss Warren, of Astoria, delivered a good address, which was followed by a beautiful solo by Mrs. Mary Strong Kinney, of Astoria. Several recitations and papers were read by young ladies, and some excellent music rendered. Miss Kate Dorris of Eugene sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul." We would not forget to mention the reception given for the convention by Mrs. and Mrs. N. J. Wallace, who have one of the most elegant homes in the State. Refreshments were served, and the hours from 4:30 to 7 p. m. were spent pleasantly by almost one hundred guests.
