

NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

ISSUED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING. E. H. WOODWARD. EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 1908.

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Newberg, Oregon.

THERE ARE 313 convicts in the state penitentiary. Stop the selling of whiskey and the number would be reduced one half to two thirds at least.

A MAN who will shade himself behind a prescription counter to sell whiskey deserves the contempt of the people if any difference more than a man who comes out boldly and asks for a license to sell gin.

PRESIDENT HARRISON evidently believes that there is at least one woman who can keep a secret as it is said he entrusted the copying of his message to Congress to his lady type writer when he would trust no man with it.

It is said that the captain of the Little Salem will make the attempt when the water is high in the upper Willamette this winter to go as far as Eugene City for a load of freight. This has not been attempted for several years.

COLVILLE, a county seat town in Washington has seven saloons, one brewery and no church. We have a man or two in this town who ought to go there. They would have clearer sailing than they are likely to have in Newberg from this time on.

A CERTAIN man in town sent in last week and wanted his paper stopped short off. After mature deliberation we have concluded to continue publishing the paper for a while any way without the afore-said subscriber. Hope our neighbor will borrow the GRAPHIC from his friends and read it as it will do him good.

HON. GEO. H. WILLIAMS of Portland has been secured for the third lecture in the Star lecture course. His subject will be "The Divinity of Christ." Mr. Williams is one of the most profound thinkers as well as the foremost lawyer of the state. He was Attorney General under Grant and while representing Oregon in the United States Senate he framed the reconstruction bill which was passed at the close of the war. Mr. Williams was converted under Moody's preaching at Portland last winter and has been doing a noble work since that time. Every one should hear him.

SAD. A young man named Warner who came here from Kansas last spring with the family of Mr. Groff was taken before county Judge Langhary Monday at Mc Minnville for examination. He was committed to the insane asylum at Salem where the doctors think he will improve under careful treatment so he can come home in a short time. Only a short time ago Mr. Warner was married to Miss Hash, daughter of our neighbor, John Hash which makes the misfortune more sad. The family has the sympathy of the entire community in their trial.

Oak Fir Orchard. Mr. L. Samuel the West Shore man who owns the Oak Fir fruit farm west of town continues to improve his place. The Mitchell brothers put in several rods more of tiling for a short time ago and Mr. Gamm who has charge of the place set 433 more fruit trees making in all 2000 trees on the farm. Mr. Samuel and Mr. Gamm are making preparations to go into the poultry business on an extensive scale in the spring. They have contracted with Mr. Garrison of Forest Grove for 100 dozen Wyandotte eggs for spring hatching. This looks like business.

"It Hurts Them." The author of the above is again in trouble. He came with a flourish of trumpets, even as an army with banners. For a time he flourished as a green bay tree. He "painted the town red" with advertisements of "J. Charles Mosberg's great grocery and crockery house, 180 Main st." Then the town was made redder still by the mysterious burning of the "great crockery house" and three other buildings. For some time past it seems that the afore-said J. Charles has been connected with a saloon opposite the International Hotel in Portland. The first of the week he was arraigned in court on a charge of purloining from the pocket of a drunken customer $300 in money, but we hear he pulled through without conviction. Behold how the mighty have fallen!

W. O. Martindale. This is the man who is engaged in the manufacture of spring beds, spring chairs, spring seats etc. We called at his shop near the depot the other morning and found Mr. Martindale busy as a bee. He manufactures thirteen different kinds of coil spring beds and lounges and is certainly able to please anyone in his line. He makes his own coil springs, makes his own frames, in fact manufactures the whole mattress in his own shop ready to place on the bed. He makes a spring bed with invalids head rest that is certainly a complete success. Then he has a folding cot suitable to fold up and take along on a camping trip. His work makes a neat appearance and is substantial. Mr. Martindale has come among us to make a home and home manufacture ought by all means to have encouragement. We only say go and see for yourselves. It will be time well spent.

NEWBERG AROUSED.

$30,000 STOCK COMPANY being formed to fight the WHISKEY INTERESTS. Newberg in the past has enjoyed the reputation of being a strict moral, educational and temperance town. Families of the very best class of citizens have constantly been moving here to get the advantages of good society, good schools and to get their children away from the influence of the accursed rum traffic. The fact is this more than anything else, has been the cause of the phenomenal growth of Newberg in the past few years. By maintaining our reputation our town will not only be the pride of the people here but of all temperance people of the Willamette valley.

The time was when a drunken man was never seen on our streets, but within the past year the devil and a few of his angels have been endeavoring to get in their work. Last summer a man from Nebraska undertook to run an open saloon in town not realizing which way he had got into. The Nebraska man was promptly closed out and has since sought greener fields in nasturtium. But the devil when he can't get in his work openly and above board shades himself behind a prescription counter and gets in his deadly work. This he has done in Newberg.

Drunken men have sealed up and down our streets, they have gone out along our country roads howling like Comanche Indians, terrorizing our children until they have been afraid to go to school. While this has been going on a chuckle has been heard from a certain quarter that "we will burst up this community if it takes $4000."

Forbearance has at last ceased to be a virtue and the good law abiding people of this town and surrounding country say that this thing must and shall be stopped. They are enlisting for the war and propose that any man no difference where he sets up a shop or where he comes from, who undertakes to ruin our boys and our good reputation by violating the law in selling intoxicating liquors shall be made to suffer the full penalties of the law.

Our plan is this. The different churches have united and ask all other good people to join them in forming a stock company of $30,000, so that money will be back of the temperance sentiment to get evidence and prosecute. The shares in the stock company are $25 each. It is not expected that there shall be any paid up capital, but when there is a prosecution an assessment will be made pro rata on the stock held by the individual to meet the expense of prosecution. Representatives from the different churches met Tuesday evening. A committee consisting of Frank P. Baum, G. W. Mitchell and Cephas Maris was appointed to continue to solicit subscription to the stock company. Another committee composed of Hinckman Cooper, L. C. Washburn, Rev. Beaumont and Prof. Hartley was appointed to draft articles of incorporation.

A temperance mass meeting was arranged for to be held at Friends church Friday night Jan. 11th. At this meeting R. V. Logan of the Christian church will deliver a lecture. His twelve year old daughter said to be the youngest W. C. T. U. lecturer in the world will also speak. At the close of the object of the stock company will be explained and the organization will be completed.

We understand that the whiskey men are already saying that they intend asking aid from the "Beer Association" of Portland. We hope they will give this assertion a wide circulation for if they do, it will be easy work for the temperance people to increase their stock to $40,000. Brethren you had just as well understand now as later on that the law and order loving people of Newberg are enlisting for the war and we hope you will make your strong fight from the start as the battle will the sooner be over. This is to be a battle in which all the better element of society will be arrayed on one side and a mere handful of the other element on the other side. Citizens of Newberg which side do you propose to take in this matter? Now is the time to decide. Come out to the mass meeting and place yourself on the side of the home against the whiskey power.

As we go to press, stock to the amount of $18,000 is already subscribed.

STANLEY HAS COME!

THE HERO OF AFRICA. A New Book of His Wonderful Adventures. Henry M. Stanley stands now as the greatest explorer and adventurer the world has known. He is the hero of the most remarkable discoveries in all the records of daring and explorations. Emin Pasha was wandering somewhere in the tropical wilderness, and struggling to hold the country of which he was ruler. Stanley hastens to the rescue. He vanishes from the sight of the civilized world; months and seasons pass, and still no news from Stanley. After untold privations and amazing triumphs, he emerges from the wilds of the Dark Continent accompanied by Emin Pasha. In his last great triumph he has put the climax upon all his previous explorations and victories. His adventures and discoveries have been grand, wonderful and marvellous. The full and authentic accounts will be related in the new genuine Stanley book, from his first entrance into Africa, and richly illustrated with over 400 of the grandest and most wonderful new engravings and colored plates ever seen in a book of travels. The History Company, 723 Market Street San Francisco, Cal., are the publishers. The book will be sold by subscription only. Agents are wanted to sell the book, to whom most liberal inducements will be offered on application. We call attention to the advertisement in another column.

There is but one prisoner in jail, H. F. Johnson, who it is alleged made an independent exposure of himself at Newberg. He

"For God and Home and Native Land." Mrs. F. A. Morris, County Superintendent of Press Work.

Business meeting of the W. C. T. U. next Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m.

Three hundred new members were lately added to the W. C. T. U. in eleven days in Nevada.

More than 10,000 pages of literature referring especially to the relations of temperance and labor were distributed by the W. C. T. U. last year.

The Y. W. C. T. U., of Las Vegas, New Mexico, at the last territorial fair distributed more than 4,000 pages of literature, and realized 40,000 from its dining hall.

The city of Boston appropriates $8,254 yearly for salaries of police matrons. Since more than five thousand women have been arrested in Boston every year, nine-tenths of them for drunkenness, these matrons have plenty to do.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of good women in St. Louis are developing remarkable efficiency. Their report at the state convention just closed were among the best features of the program. Among other enterprises they conducted an orphanage for colored children which has handled $1200 this year in a very careful manner, and they are now contemplating the establishment of a home for the aged of their own race.

Twelve years ago we had some 2,571 saloons in Chicago. Our license then was $52 a year for the saloonkeeper. Some of our temperance brothers said: "Now we will increase the license and that will close up the saloons." As many of you know, the license was increased from $25 to $50. Did it decrease this great, this mighty, this crying evil of the age? Alas, no! It is on the increase and we have to-day in Chicago 4000 saloons and are doing awful damage.—MARTHA E. CARSE.

While women enjoyed all the rights of citizenship in Washington the tone of the administration of public affairs was materially improved, the courts were more vigorous and more satisfactory in results than without them. Public evil which had defiled society, particularly in the city of Seattle, were routed when woman spoke. That this voice, so powerful for good, should be silenced by a popular majority is as astounding as that a state should deliberately vote to keep the saloon in operation within its borders.

The Knights of Labor committee of investigation reported to the recent general at Atlanta, that in thirty-three cotton factories in the state of Georgia, there are employed 2,000 white children between the age of seven and twelve years, only seventeen of whom can read and write their names. The lowest number of hours worked by these children is sixty-eight a week, fourteen hours longer than is worked by the operatives in the same industry in Great Britain. The wages paid are from twenty cents a day for the infants and sixty cents a day for women and girls. A statement of this condition of affairs was presented to the state legislature, but that body declined to consider it on the ground that a discussion of the subject would expose the illiterate condition of the State to its disadvantage, and consequently it would be impolitic to agitate it. The legislature has now adjourned sine die, after failing to pass a bill that was before the house prohibiting the employment of children under the age of ten years.

ENGLISH VERSUS AMERICAN WOMEN.

Great Britain from which all our political and social progress, from our very birth in the cabin of the "Mayflower," has come will probably reach woman suffrage before us. She is certainly much nearer it at present. In England women of the upper classes are already nearly as much interested in politics as men are; it is second to no interest with them, whether of fashion or of culture. In society the leaders of either sex, are also leaders in their respective political parties; women "work" in society and in every relation of life for the triumph of political principles and do it without affectation or frivolity, because they have now for generations been accustomed to it, as even the novels of contemporary English society show.

In the most cultivated parts of this country, women have not reached any such abiding interests in public affairs. A few leaders in reform and religious work have done wonders in organizing women's societies, so full of zeal and activity that it sometimes seem as though the whole sex were enlisted.—The Boston Transcript.

Effects of Smoking.

If one is going to smoke at all, it is not boys but tough men, that can withstand the effects of tobacco burned in paper. The adult smoker, who makes his own cigarettes, out of tobacco he knows all about, may or may not injure himself according to his constitution and to the amount of his smoking. The boy who buys cigarettes is sure to injure himself. Now, I will take the most favorable case of all, and the rarest. Suppose a smoker has a lot of good cigarettes, and smokes a few of them every day. Is there any injury in that? I can tell you, for I have had such boys for patients. Such smoking, even in so-called moderation—as if there were any such thing as moderation in stimulants for the young—will do three things for him:
