PORTLAND MARKET.

But little record of any business transactions of magnitude has leaked out during the week for obvious reasons. Local trade was principally confined to gum boots, in which line it assumed abnormally larger proportions, the market being fairly well supplied as far as the knees. The movement of merchandise was of exceedingly large proportions, mainly upward and onward, however, like Pharaoh's host across the Red sea and alike emphatically suggested by the enormous elements.

But little complaint is heard, the temporary suspension notwithstanding, and the brisk demand in all lines, which we are justified in anticipating, will no doubt substantially reimburse all but the serious-lossers.
