Local Events.

—Salem is to have a large cannery.

—Good hay selling for $25 per ton in Portland.

—All voters should attend the school-meeting next Monday.

—The dam at Tarrant's mill has been repaired and the mill is again running.

—Miss Mary Miles and Mrs. Anna Bell returned from a trip to Portland Wednesday.

—Miss Leah Cook is getting along nicely with her school at Webfoot south of Dayton.

—Mrs. Judd's youngest boy "Allie" is quite sick. He has not been well since Christmas.

—A letter from N. C. Maris to his family says he arrived safely at his old home in Indiana.

—Miss Emma Deskins who has been attending school at Monmouth for some time is at home again.

—Rev. Houghton is so well pleased with our town he is looking around with the prospect of investing in real estate here.

—J. L. Hoskins has nine ewes that are caring for fifteen lambs. At this rate of increase he will soon have a large flock of sheep.

—County Superintendent L. H. Baker is holding an examination for teachers at McMinnville this week. Miss Reece is attending.

—We have hardly ever heard Houghton's ability for description equaled. Those who failed to hear him missed a rare treat.

—Jim Jones goes to Winlock to work in the new saw mill. The Grange will follow him and keep him posted about home matters.

—J. W. Hobbs our genial county clerk came down this week and has been shaking hands with his many friends here for a day or two. We are always glad to see him come.

—The "rise and fall of our wood pile" will be the subject of the next poem to be issued from this office if the present cold snap continues.

—Mr. Sanders of Champco was in town Wednesday trading. People are beginning to learn where to come to buy goods cheap for cash.

—Rev. W. A. Willson, pastor of the Presbyterian church writes to the membership here that their youngest daughter Annie has passed from earth.

—Miss Ella Hadley who is teaching on Dayton Prairie is enjoying her vacation visiting friends in Newberg. Her school commences again in two weeks.

—Christenson Bros. are opening up a nice line of farming implements at their new store rooms on main street. Read their new ad in this week's issue.

—Emor W. Hall has bought six lots on River street and ten acres of land west of town of All Moore. He is thinking of moving out to his ten acre tract in the spring.

—One of the engines on the P. & W. V. railroad was attached Tuesday by a Sheridan party who had suffered loss by the killing of some cattle in a wreck some time ago.

—Mr. Wilson from Full Quarts Landing was in town Monday. He says the railroad company has had a party of surveyors at Rays Landing for some time working on the survey for the bridge across the Willamette.

—Dave Holloway and Asbury Haworth are home on a furlough, the steamer Orient having tied up until the locks are open at Oregon City, which will be two or three weeks yet. The boys say they like steamboating very well.

—Mary L. Hoskins sends two copies of the Grange to friends in the east. Go thou and do likewise and while the readers of the paper will appreciate the kindness the proprietor will bestow a smile as the coin jingles in his pocket.

—Wm. Lawrence stopped over Sunday with Mr. Kirk near town. Mr. Lawrence is an old friend of Mr. Kirk from Iowa. He bought some lots in Central addition before returning to Portland where he has been stopping for some time.

—At different places in town it is no uncommon thing to see two fellows almost anytime in the day seated, sleepily gazing at a chess board as if fame and fortune was silently gliding away with each move made.

—A package of seeds reached us this week from J. C. Vaughan of Chicago. Anyone who would like a nice seed catalogue for 1890, will receive one by dropping a card to the above named gentleman. Lock Box 633.

—There will be a class in surveying next term at the Academy. Prof. Morrison will have charge of the class and during the warm weather he and the boys will no doubt hunt a cool shady retreat and run lines in a circle to avoid the hot sun.

—The Presbyterians will hold services in the Evangelical church next Tuesday March 4th at 2 and 7:30 p. m. All persons interested in the organization of a church will please be present. Rev. W. A. Willson or some other minister will preach.

—Merchants would be thankful if loafers would refrain from planting themselves on the counters like turkey buzzards. Groceries that are expected to be eaten are sold from these counters and it is embarrassing to make apologies to customers.

—S. Hobson the picture man went up to photograph the public school last week. Teachers and children were seated in line and when all was ready Pat Lawson stood on his head with his heels pointing upward as straight as a shingle. The picture is said to be a good one.

—Who the candidates for the vacancies on the school board will be, we do not know, but we have heard the names of Mr. Buckman and Mr. Pickett spoken of as two at least that would probably be voted for to fill the office of director, and the name of J. L. Hoskins for clerk.

—Martin Cook's house was broken into last Sunday while they were at church, and all the trunks and bureau drawers ransacked. Nothing of much value has been missed. A young man who has a reputation for such work was seen going in that direction, by one of the neighbors, and the guilty party is no doubt spotted.

—N. M. Snodgrass writes from Columbus Kansas that he is preparing to set a large orchard at that place in the spring almost all of which will be apples of late keeping varieties. Nate got filled with inspiration in the fruit business while here and believes there is money in it. Apples are worth a dollar per bushel in Kansas.

—Powell and Shipley commission merchants located at the corner of Front and Jefferson streets in Portland have placed an ad with us. These gentlemen are both well and favorably known in this country having been residents of Dayton for a number of years. We can cheerfully recommend them as honest business men and any thing placed in their hands will be promptly attended to.

—Rees & Hunt shipped another car load of drain tile this week. The draining is only in its infancy in this country. When farmers and fruit raisers learn to appreciate the value of a proper system of drainage, the manufacture of tile will be an important industry in this country. In the Mississippi valley thousands of acres of land have been more than doubled in value in the past fifteen years by proper drainage.

—Mr. Thompson says he had a letter from the John Day country east of the Cascades, this week which stated that there would hardly be enough stock left in that country for seed. Straw is worth $14 per ton and can only be had in a few places at that price. The loss to the owners is bad enough but the suffering of freezing, starving dumb brutes is even worse. And yet stock men will run just the same risks over and over again.

—Drop in at our office and deposit fifty cents and the Grange will visit you regularly for four months. This will give you time to judge of the merits of the paper and if at the end of that time you think you have failed to get the worth of your money your fifty cents will be refunded. We are making no effort to rival the Oregonian as a newspaper, but we are trying to build up a respectable local paper that the community will not be ashamed of.

—A copy of an illustrated catalogue descriptive of Texas has been received at this office through the kindness of T. A. Wilkinson Commissioner of Immigration. The illustrations are the finest of any that we have yet seen in any of the many booklets sent out. Before Texas was brought into the union of states all the horse thieves and cut throats in the country went there if they were likely to be caught. We suppose the people are bidding for the better element now.

—Women are as much interested in public schools as the opposite sex and often much more than some who wear trousers and are called men. Under the laws of Oregon, women who hold property in their own name are entitled to vote at school meetings, and such women are not exercising their rights, or performing the duty that devolves upon them if they fail to attend the school meeting next Monday and by their votes help to elect proper persons to positions on the school board.

—We hear that a gentleman from Iowa has bought Joseph Everest's residence on Main street and that Mr. Everest will build another house in town. It is also stated that the same gentleman has bought a lot for a drug store in David Everest's addition on First street, and that a blacksmith shop will be put up in the triangle corner where the Dayton road turns off from First street. Let the good work go on until the staring vacancy between the two extremes of town is all filled in with houses.

—Mr. Scott the husband of the old lady who was lately murdered near Wheatland last week has been arrested and lodged in jail on a charge of murdering his wife. It is a terrible thing for a man to murder his wife but if it is the guilty party the proof may be found. Our county is fast making an enviable reputation for murder cases. The expense attached to the prosecution of these cases is no small item to be considered, but the fact of having such cold blooded murders committed in our county is the worst of all.

—Did you know that lots in Central Addition are coming to the front. The demand and feeling among all was never better than now. We will continue to sell until Monday 10th at $100 for inside and $125 for corner lots, after that date

TON Desk won the laurels at the Salem public school, the contract price being $4 etc. per Desk higher than the price quoted by the Victor agent, and all other competitors were knocked out in the first round. This was the strongest contest in the state, lasting five days between the Victor and FASHION. The wood and iron of the FASHION Desk are united together throughout by the patent T head fastening, which has been acknowledged to be the strongest union of wood and iron known—the seat hinge is strong and capable of sustaining an enormous weight. The Desk is finished in a first class manner and has the largest sale of any Desk in the Willamette valley.

Public School Items.
(February 25th 1891.)

William Hobson gave us a call, since our last writing.

St. Valentine's day was well enjoyed in our school. Two boxes were nicely filled and we had "heap fun" even if some of the valentines were not so pretty as they might have been.

Mr. Reece is having grand success in his school. Two of his pupils Robert Bell and Robert McKinney were promoted to the Principals room.

Samuel Hobson has some very fine pictures of the school which he took last week.

Cora Judd visited our school all day Monday.

Friday afternoon quite a number came in to witness the exercises. A good programme was prepared and all seemed well pleased. One of the most interesting features of the afternoon was the tableau of George Washington and his estimable lady Martha, who, although a little changed since we last saw them, looked quite familiar as they took their seats amid silent applause, while "America" was sung.

Anna Aus in will take the examination at McMinnville.

Mr. Reece will attend the Teachers examination Wednesday and Thursday. His school will be dismissed during that time.

Carol Kirk is on the sick list this week.

Mamie Maris who has been quite sick is well again and was at school Friday.

The A. J. class of 1st department will prepare literary exercises, for Friday March 10th 1891.
