Ice cream sold at C. F. Moores. Friends monthly meeting today. Strawberries are down to twenty cents a gallon. Strawberries are very plentiful and of a fine quality. Jesse Edwards went to Tacoma this week with J. H. Douglas. Lin Parker was auctioneer at Dave Holloways sale Wednesday. Memorial services of the G. A. R. last week were well attended. John Brown was up from Portland a day or two this week. Dr. Young is building a residence west of the public school grounds. Hon. J. C. Nelson has been in rather poor health for some time. The beautiful stars and stripes floated over the city on election day. These hot days call at C. F. Moores and get a nice dish of ice cream. Lin Parker commenced this week to repaint all of Cyrus Hoskins buildings. Miss Lizzie Woodward went to Portland this week to visit friends in the city. Road Supervisor Vantress, is pushing the work on the bridge north west of town. Several of our citizens went to McMinnville Tuesday, to get the result of the election. Levi Gilbert is likely to get the position of industrial teacher at Klamath Indian Agency. Every young man in town ought to join the Young Mens Christian Association. George Christenson is preparing to build a residence in the northwest part of town. A large crowd attended the G. A. R. Memorial services on the fair grounds last Friday. Prof. and Mrs. Hartley are now keeping house in one of the cottages west of the Academy grounds. J. Quincy Hoskins and wife of Champeo, spent Sunday with their son-in-law Dr. J. B. Moore. Emmor Hall has sold his town residence to Chas. F. Butler, and is building on his land west of town. C. B. Haworth is prepared to furnish burial outfits on short notice. See his ad. in another column. A. T. Blair has been at McMinnville this week attending court as a Juror at the special term of court. A. T. Haworth who is running an engine for Russell & Co in Portland, moved his family to the city this week. A gentleman representing a building and loan association of Minneapolis Minn. has been in the city during the week. Merchant of North Yamhill passed through town Tuesday with a nice drove of mutton sheep for the Portland trade. Cephas Maris and A. M. Hoskins went up to McMinnville Tuesday, to get election news and were caught up on a Jury. A knock down took place on Main St. Monday evening. No arrests of course everybody has ceased to expect anything of the kind. The sound of the mower will soon be heard in the land, and the sweet scented breath of the new mown hay will be borne on the breezes. The sale of the stray horses that have been in the pound for some time took place last Saturday. Mr. Cone bought one and Grover Hagee the other. It is about time that we begin to talk up the Fair for this fall. Superintendents of departments ought to be appointed early so that they can work up an interest. Nice ripe cherries are coming into market. The crop is probably not as large as it has been at some other times but there will be an abundance for all necessary purposes. Jesse Hobson who has been working for the Oregon Land company for some time, has formed a partnership with a Portland man, and opened a Real Estate office in Portland. J. T. Smith has a new ad. in this weeks issue. The live business man who intends to keep abreast with the times lets the public know what he has for sale by judicious advertising. Mrs. Graham and a lady friend who had been out gathering wild strawberries and wild flowers last Monday, remembered the Grange force with a beautiful bouquet of wild snow-balls. If the strawberry grower who claims to have the largest berry yet produced this year will bring a sample around we will measure a few of the largest for him, and charge nothing for the effort. Jas. Martin of LaFayette, the defeated candidate for Sheriff was in town Thursday. He says that all the powers of money and whiskey were used against him in the upper part of the county. Benj. Miller, U. S. Indian inspector for the government attended Friends church last Sunday. His home is in Maryland and he is a member of Friends church. He went to Salem with Dr. Minthorn Sunday evening where he will inspect the Indian school. The item last week stating that Mrs. Trueblood and two daughters were up from Portland was partly an error. When there is only one boy in the family and that one named Benjamin Harrison it is almost an insult to the family to have him published as a girl. May the little chub live long, and climb to the Presidential chair. E. H. Howard the Jeweler has been elected by the town council to serve as city Register in place of Frank P. Bann, who resigned. The selection we think is a good one and Justice will be meted out according to law and evidence. Let the Marshal do his duty and we think the peace and good name of the town will be properly guarded. Prof. Morrison writes from Bloomingsdale his old home in Indiana that he has been enjoying himself very much since leaving here but is anxious to get back to work again. He will return with his bride in two or three weeks. They will build a cottage in town and settle down to the steam realities of life. Their many friends will be glad to welcome them back. Road supervisor Vantress has placed notices at the end of the long bridge across the canyon warning travelers to walk their horses across the bridge. A $10. fine will be imposed on those who fail to take warning. This is a wise step that should have been taken long ago. Bridges cost money and ought to be protected as fully as possible. The Jury in the Scott murder case, is made up of Isaac Lambright, Wm. Nelson, Henry Hopkins, W. E. Davis, John Redmond, W. F. Ralston, John Parrott, A. M. Hoskins, C. Maris, B. F. Sparks, Geo. Bryan and A. M. Detmairng. District attorney Howitt is assisted by Judge Langhary in the prosecution. Magers, Fenton and J. F. Caples of Portland are for the defense. J. W. Hobbs in the race for re-election for county clerk leads the ticket with a majority of over three hundred and twenty. This is an endorsement of his past two years work that he has good reason to feel proud of. His efficiency coupled with the kind treatment he has extended to all who had business at the office has made him a host of friends. List of letters uncalled for at the P. O. Newberg Ore. May 31st. 1893. Fred Benn. Fred Epler. Sam Eby. Wm. Gellian. Mary Morris. H. S. Looey. Mrs. Nettie Stoydell. Mrs. H. W. Reed. C. E. Moore. P. M. The election passed off quietly in Newberg without much excitement. But little pulling and hauling was done. In the afternoon the tariff question was discussed on the street by a couple of warm blooded party men much to the amusement of the crowd of bystanders who went away greatly enlightened no doubt. It is well that election day comes once in two years in order that the patriotic voter may give vent to his pent up feelings. W. V. Hodgkin the census enumerator for this precinct is busy taking the census and you need not feel at all shocked if you are interrogated as to your color—that is whether you are white, black, seal brown, navy blue, pea green, sky blue, old gold or mouse color. The questions are legion and although Mr. Hodgkin is not responsible for the questions, he need not be surprised if he is denominated the "senseless" enumerator, many times before he is through. On Friday of last week Henry Livengood's team was standing in front of Morris, Miles & Co's store when the thunder storm came up. A keen clap of thunder frightened the horses and they started to run, turning across the street and bringing the wagon up against the hitching rack, breaking both axles. Thunder is so seldom heard in this country that horses don't know what to make of it. Electricity is all right when hitched to a street car but when it undertakes to come down in such a hurry it is not wanted in this country. The chief of the Umatilla Indians was in Portland last week laboring in behalf of the Indian who is in jail under sentence of death by hanging, for the murder of an Indian woman last fall. The chief, who is said to be very wealthy was dressed in gaudy clothing made of richly colored blankets, with a head dress made of a fine fox skin ornamented with a single hawk feather. He carried a cane the work on which showed wonderful ingenuity on the part of the faithful "siwash." He leisurely strolled up and down the streets of the city as if in deep meditation, evidently musing on the many improvements made in the country by his pale faced brothers. The chief is stoutly built, looks hale and hearty and appears to be good for many more years. J. H. Rees and lady who have been delivering strawberries in town the past two weeks, drove up in front of the Grange office Wednesday morning and noticing a hungry look on the countenances of the inmates they handed out a box of berries that were immense. The berries were all large and one that we measured was four by eight inches in circumference. They were properly sampled and pronounced x-l-nt. and everyone about the office was happy all day. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Rees and a hope expressed that they might live long in the land. They have an acre in berries that has proven very profitable this year. Go and do likewise—that is put an acre in berries and at the proper time remember the poor and needy. Remember the ice cream and strawberry festival to be given by the Womens Relief corps at the Fair pavilion next Tuesday evening. Take your wife, or your sister, or if you haven't either, take some other fellows sister. The ladies will have a good supper for they never do anything by halves. Residents here who are acquainted at Mooreville, Indiana have probably noticed in the Oregonian the name of a base ball pitcher in the New York team as being Russ. This Mr. Russ is a son of Jake Russ of Mooreville well known to many here. D. B. Reasoner was elected Commissioner in Washington county with a rousing majority. In his own precinct he received all but eighteen votes out of two hundred and twenty-six. A good endorsement to get at home. J. M. Wright desires to inform the public that the Goodrich subdivision of the Duskins land has been placed in his hands for sale. This land is nicely located and ought to find a ready market. The Chehalis Valley Board of Immigration have a new ad. in this weeks is-

sne. Maris & Colcord managers have valuable Astoria property, in addition to farm and fruit land in the valley. Allen Craven will move to his farm at Middleton in a short time. The people of that place will find Mr. Craven and family to be first class citizens and well worthy of confidence. Milt Hanson who lives on Nestucca Bay came out over the mountains the first of the week and is visiting relations in town. He reports the roads good over the mountains. Harrison Crater called Wednesday and ordered the Grange sent to a friend in Kansas. We would be glad to accommodate a number of others in the same way. J. W. Hobbs for county clerk was the popular candidate on the county ticket. A majority of over three hundred is very satisfactory to his many friends. We are requested to announce that Rev. W. A. Willson will preach in the new Presbyterian church, tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Sunday school at 11 o'clock. The circle from which our merchants are drawing trade is constantly enlarging. Small profits and square dealing based on the cash system is what does it. J. H. Douglas preached three sermons in Portland last Sunday and had a full house each time. His sermons were highly appreciated by his hearers. Dave Holloway sold part of his personal property at public sale last Wednesday. Lin Parker was auctioneer. Dave talks of going to Salem to team. Rejoice with those who rejoice. The Democrats jubilated extensively Wednesday night over the election of Penneyer by the firing of anvils. Charley Moore bought a road cart at the sale Wednesday. Any one who has a very fast horse might find a buyer by applying early. Howard Williams who is working for the O. T. company in Portland showed his patriotism by coming home to vote. The Y. M. C. A. meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all young men to attend. The new Presbyterian church is enclosed and the work along so that services will be held there tomorrow. Mrs. Mary A. Hobson went to Portland last Saturday and visited friends in the city until Wednesday. Charley Trus of Middleton called at the Grange office Thursday and renewed his subscription. John Hancock is teaming for the Pressed Brick Manufacturing company at Snooks. FESTIVAL. The Kilpatrick Womens Relief Corps will give a strawberry and ice cream festival at the Fair Grounds, Newberg, Or., next Tuesday night June 15th. Supper twenty-five cents. Everybody invited. EMMA BELL, Pres. FRANCIS RARR, Sec'y. Married. At the residence of J. O. Gustin the father of the bride, on Chehalis mountain June 5th, 1890 at 2 p. m. Geo. T. Brickell of Washington county, and Maggie J. Gustin. Rev. Martin Cook officiating. Mr Gustin is a highly respected citizen and the many friends of the family wish the young couple a long and happy journey through life. LaFayette Items. The election is over, now the defeated candidates can retire for two years more. The Republicans have made a clean sweep this time and elected every county officer. There was a Democrat Judge elected, but the Republicans of McMinnville elected him. McMinnville has betrayed the confidence placed in them by other parts of the county, in slaughtering at the polls, a man they helped to nominate at the convention. Gentlemen you may look out in the future, so says a number of the strongest precincts in the county. Hermann and the balance of the state ticket except Governor was elected by a handsome majority and both Houses of the Legislature will have a two thirds Republican majority. James McCain is defending old man Scott, who is on trial for the murder of his wife last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Sniter have just returned from their visit east and report having a very pleasant trip. Senator Gates is painting his house roof, building a picket fence, and otherwise improving his residence property. J. L. Vickrey has had his residence painted up in good shape which adds much to its appearance. Prof. Davis is preparing to build a residence on his lots bought of Mr. Fletcher on Piety Hill. The LaFayette Choral Society will give a concert on Monday evening the 9th, in Littlefields hall, to all the lovers of vocal music. This will be a treat as it will be under the management of Prof. Davis, one of the finest vocalists in the state. J. E. Hubbard has undertaken the task of taking the Census, which he says is rather a tedious job. No new cases of measles to report, Pete Olds being the last victim. Uncle Jim Johnson and wife have returned from their trip east of the mountains where they went to visit their children. Jim Martin says he has lots of company up Salt Creek and the boat is manned by a full Democratic crew. All Clear Sir! Is Newberg going to celebrate the 4th? If so let us know it through your columns. FOSLEY
