Horse in a Well.
 Mr. Durcan from north of town was in one day last week to borrow Jesse E. Edwards' hay ropes to use in fishing one of his horses out of Ed. Robinson's well. The horse did not come up at the usual time and the pasture was searched in vain for it. The well was finally examined and the lost horse was discovered thirty feet below the surface of the ground dead. The well is six feet deep and has thirty feet of water in it. Moral—Make steps to your wells if you intend for your horses to go down after water.

LAST WEEK we received a valuable book from the History company of San Francisco, containing biographical sketches of the life of Lincoln from the pens of such prominent men as E. B. Washburn, D. R. Locke, Snyler Colfax, Henry Ward Beecher, Ben. Pearly Poore and many others. We never tire of reading anything in regard to the public life of "Honest Abe" and this work gotten up by the editor of the North American Review is one of the best we have ever seen. It tells just about what the ordinary reader wants to know without going into tiresome details. It is a valuable book.
Accidental Shot.
 One day last week James Newmans little boy five or six years old was accidentally shot while out hunting with his older brother Bertie. When out a short distance from the house a pheasant was seen and the little fellow was left behind while Bertie followed the bird into a thick undergrowth of vine maple. He must have finally turned about for when he shot at the pheasant he shot directly in the direction of the little fellow and was only forty-one steps from him. One shot struck him in the back of the hand and another at one side of the bowels. The latter shot had spent its force so that it did not hurt, while the other lodged between two bones of the hand and made rather a painful wound for a few days but is all right now. It was purely an accident that might happen with any man, as the birds were so thick the boy could not be seen, but this is another instance that should serve to warn everybody to handle fire arms with great care. Only a few days ago we saw a group of boys fooling with a shot gun on the streets, carelessly pointing it about and gazing into the muzzle. It was "not loaded" of course and this is the kind that blows boys heads off.
Contract Let.
 The directors of the Bank of Newberg met Monday afternoon and opened the bids for the contract for their new building at the corner of First and Meridian streets. None of the bids have been made public, the directors preferring to let those making the bids give the amount of their bids to the public if they desire to do so. F. H. Howard was awarded the contract for putting up the brick work, while the contract for the carpenter work goes to W. P. Heacock. O. O. Hodson of McMinnville will put on the iron roofing and the galvanized iron cornice. We are pleased to note the fact that our home contractors will get to do all the work of the kind that they are prepared for here. F. H. Howard has had several years experience as a contractor and builder and worked on some of the best buildings in Chicago and other large cities. W. P. Heacock has been here a year and a half and his work shows for itself. Work will commence on the building at once and it will be completed as soon as possible. We understand that a contract has already been signed with J. Hammett for furnishing the brick, the number being about 150,000, and this will keep still more of the money at home. The directors inform us that the building when completed will cost just about $5000.

Hall of Y. M. C. A., Newberg, Oregon, Aug. 5th 1890.

The following named persons were received as active members of the Y. M. C. A. Viz: Milton J. Hampton, Edgar Hampton, E. L. Holt, D. P. Stratton, Walter Stratton, Herbert Stratton, O. J. Holson, Joseph Morris, Amos Stanbro, Solomon Haworth and Cragen Haworth and John Larkins as an associate member.
 W. S. REECE, Sec'y.
 P. S. The following named persons were proposed for membership viz: Granville Everest and D. W. Heston.
 Resolutions adopted at the Y. M. C. A. at Newberg Oregon Aug. 5th, 1890, and directed published in the Newberg Graphic and also be it resolved in order to vindicate our principles a copy of the same be sent to the editor of the West Shore who occupies the responsible position as number of popular sentiment, to remind him that at least a few of its readers appreciate the use of such language believing it to be opposed to morality and the spirit of progress.

Whereas, the editor of the West Shore in an article referring to the position the Y. M. C. A. of Chicago took in opposition to the Columbian Exhibition being open to the public on Sundays, says that "Y. M. C. A." might be interpreted as meaning the young men's congregation of Ass., or the Young Men's Mental Chasm Association.
 Therefore, Resolved that the Newberg Association expresses its disapproval of such language believing it not to be in harmony with taste of cultured readers, that it is unbecoming and beneath the dignity of a paper having any regard for its moral tone or literary merit. Whether the Brotherhood of Chicago assumed the correct position or not, we believe they were prompted by a spirit of reform and a Christian desire to benefit mankind and that such an attack upon that body of zealous reformers should be resented, not in the spirit of spiteful revenge, but a desire to maintain in the dignity of our profession.
 W. S. REECE, S. HOBSON, President, Sec'y.

Struck it Rich.
 A successful boring for honey has been made in north Tennessee. For many years swarms of bees have been noticed by boatmen on Fox Bluff, on the Cumberland River, near Franklin, Ky. The bluff is 170 feet high and the river's channel runs directly under it. The bees have been observed about a big fissure near the center of the bluff, and the opening could not be reached from above or below without great danger of being stung to death. As the bees had never been robbed, it was believed a large amount of honey was stored in the cliff. Recently a well borer visited the bluff and was at once impressed with the idea that he could reach the wonderful honey storehouse with his drill. After some coaxing he persuaded a number of farmers to undergo the expense, and a three inch hole was bored from the top of the bluff. At a depth of eighty-five feet the drill struck the honey. Barrels and tubs by the score was filled and carried off to neighboring farms, and the syndicate has sent to Louisville for more receptacles.—Ex.

Some Reasons for Divorces.
 The Pennsylvania labor report for 1889 in its divorce chapter treats of the peculiar kinds of cruelty practiced by 45,731 husbands against their wives and 6,122 wives against their husbands. One woman was granted a divorce because her husband persisted in coming home at 10 o'clock at night and keeping her awake talking. This she called mental cruelty, and the court agreed with her. Another woman secured a divorce because her husband cut off her bangs by force, and still another because her spouse refused to cut his two nails. One wife's feelings were lacerated to the point of legal separation because her husband would not wash himself, thus causing her great mental anguish. Some of the cases of cruelty practiced by wives upon their husbands were equally heartrending. One wife refused to sew on her husband's buttons, a witness testifying to have seen him with but one button to his vest. To add to his anguish and the sympathy of the Court this cruel wife restrained her loving husband from going to fires at night. Another wife charged her husband with being no man at all, which so wrung his heartstrings that nothing short of a divorce would allay his anguish. A wife who pulled her husband out of bed by his whiskers was adjudged by the court fit only to travel in single harness unless she could find another man who didn't mind having his whiskers pulled. A wife who weighed 100 pounds broke her husband's ribs with a stove lid, and another lost her husband because she cruelly and maliciously beat him with her basket.—Ex.

Wheat and Oats.
 The temperature has been below the average for the week, and has ranged from 45 to 50 degrees. Except a few local sprinkles along the coast and a sprinkle at Walla Walla on July 31st, no rain is reported to have fallen in the state. The days have been cloudy or partly cloudy in the mornings, the afternoons have been cloudless.
 Crops.
 The cool partly cloudy weather was very favorable to harvesting operations which have continued during the week. The weather conditions have also been favorable to the crops not yet matured and to the ripening of fruit.
 The wheat and oats are generally yielding better than was expected. The hay crop was much larger than was expected. The hops continue to be most promising. As was expected the peach crop poor, the apple yield will be fair. The cool thin mists has done considerable injury. Pines and prunes will be especially plentiful. The grapes give promise of an abundant yield and vineyards are reported to be in a healthy condition and thriving. The yield of corn will not be up to the average on account of the dry weather when seeded and cool nights during growing season.
 Wheat yields of 40 bushels per acre are reported from various localities. Senator E. T. Hatch, McCoy, Polk Co. reports, "I had thirty three acres which yielded 40 and one half bushels per acre. This may be considered an indication of what summer-fallow wheat will average in this locality."
 From the Willamette valley general reports as to yields have not been recorded. The number of bushels per acre from Eastern Oregon will average well. Washington, Sherman, Gilliam and Morrow counties have very satisfactory crops. In Umatilla to the west of Pendleton the wheat is poor. Some will not yield over 10 bushels per acre. The north and east of Pendleton it will average fully 35 bushels per acre. Union Co. will average from 20 to 40 bushels per acre. The most satisfactory reports are received from all counties.

Hopeland.
 In speaking of Hopeland colony that is being formed opposite Champego, we stated several weeks ago that we would give the details of the project later. Below the information will be found which is authentic as it is signed by Rev. J. Sellwood the founder.

Hopeland!
 A Christian Settlement
 Bearing that name is now being formed on the West bank of the Willamette river, nearly opposite Champego.
 A person of industrious habits having only a very small capital, by renting a few acres of land there, and keeping poultry, pigeons, rabbits and bees, and raising small fruits and vegetables, could earn a comfortable living and have a home for life.
 Blocks contain ten acres each. At present a whole block can be obtained at a very low rental and no advance will be made however many years the tenant may continue to reside on it.
 No person need apply for residence there who is not of good moral character, strictly temperate in all things, and will regularly attend Divine Worship in Hope Church, Hopeland. The property will be under the control of the Protestant Episcopal Church. No portion ever to be sold.
 Apply to J. Sellwood, Millwaukie, Oregon.

RULES TO BE OBSERVED BY ALL THE RESIDENTS OF HOPELAND, OREGON.

No divorced persons nor married persons who cannot agree to live together as husband and wife are wanted at Hopeland.
 It is to be distinctly understood that Hopeland is intended to be a Christian Settlement. It is expected therefore that the Residents be persons of good moral character and conduct themselves in every respect as Christians ought to behave. No quarrelling.—No improper language.—No taking the name of God in vain.—No swearing.—No evil speaking, lying or slandering.—That they regularly attend Divine Worship in Hope Church—and keep holy the whole of the Lord's Day.—That they abstain from the use of opium in every shape and form.—No gambling.—No lascivious conduct.—Nothing tending to drunkenness.—No theft of any kind.—No trespassing on the property of others.—No dancing parties.—No theatrical representations.—No serenading of newly married persons.—No bathing in the river on Sundays nor at any time without having first put on in private a decent bathing suit.—No opium, intoxicating drinks or tobacco to be sold or bartered or kept or exposed for sale.—No horses, cattle, swine, goats or poultry of any kind to run at large. Pigeons to be confined within wire netting.
 It is the earnest wish of the founder of this settlement, that all its inhabitants would keep in remembrance and practice the words of our Blessed Saviour: "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you do ye even so to them," and also the words of the Apostle Paul: "Whether ye eat or drink or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."
 In such case, peace and harmony will be maintained among them, and they could confidently expect to enjoy the favor, the protection, and the blessing of Almighty God.
 I have read (or heard read) the foregoing Rules to be observed by all the Residents of Hopeland and I hereby engage, the Lord helping me, to keep them during the period of my residence in Hopeland, and also further to use my influence that other Residents keep them likewise.
