A large number of genuine Oregon pheasants are brought over on the Oregon Pacific train from Yaquina daily and shipped to Portland. Out in the valley these pheasants, which only a few years ago were abundant, are nearly extinct. It is supposed that the Mongolian pheasants, which are getting plenty, have driven the native pheasants to the north.

The timber-stealing cases against the contractors for the Great Falls and Canada railroad came to an end in the United States Court at Helena, Mont., after a very short trial. The defendants were charged with unlawfully taking timber valued at $20,000 from government land on the North and South canyons of the Teton between February 15 and April 17 of this year.

During the thirty-four days that the Spokane exposition was open fully 53,000 visitors from every State of the Union beheld the products from the Northwest. The receipts reached about $25,000, enough to pay running expenses and a little more. The plant cost $100,000, leaving a deficit yet of about $5,000 to be met by the enterprising proprietors.

Miss Ella M. Smith, who died at Portland, bequeathed $40,000 to the Boys and Girls' Aid Society, $5,000 each to the Women's Union, Ladies' Relief Society and the Unitarian Church, all of that city, about $20,000 to various persons, and the residue of her estate for the erection and maintaining of a building for the use of the Portland Library Association. This last bequest will amount to about $150,000.

Indications are favorable for a boom in the John Day country. A person representing the Union Pacific has lately examined the coal fields of that section and reported favorably thereon. The Union Pacific people have had an eye on that section for some time. The building of the Sumpter Valley railroad is generally supposed to be backed by them, and it is reported that the road will be extended to the John Day at an early day.

Allan Weir, Secretary of State of Washington, who is Insurance Commissioner, has issued an order providing that all local insurance companies, which are required by law to maintain a fixed minimum net-up and undiminished capital and allowed credit upon the same in approved securities, shall be required hereafter to keep such securities in a responsible banking or safe-deposit institution, subject to order of the Commissioner.

The largest purchase of wool from any one shearer in the Southwest took place at Albuquerque, N. M., one day last week, and consisted of nearly 200,000 pounds of the product of Merino sheep and of the finest texture. Sixty-three wagons, drawn by four oxen to each wagon, brought the wool in, and before it was taken from the wagons the owner and purchasers paraded the principal thoroughfares of the city. The procession was a grand one and fully a mile long.

TOO BIG A HURRY.

Advice to City People—The Craze for Rapid Transit.

Rapid transit! So that is what you want? Well, you don't want anything of the kind, taking time to mean, does properly it does.

Home will be "others" at 5:30 p. m. just as surely as at 5:25.

For every beating pulse we tell Lovers but the number less.

So long a very pious and truthful versifier of the last century.

WHERE TEA IS PRODUCED.

INDIA WILL RIVAL CHINA IN THE SUPPLY OF THE FUTURE.

Tea Came First from Java and Not from China—Enormous Prices Charged for the Drug at First—China's Exports Are Falling Off—Cheap Labor.

Contrary to the popular impression, we did not receive our first supplies of what was then known as "chaw," and drink out of "silver porringers," from China, but from Java, which, until the Dutch obtained possession of the island, was an English settlement.

The tea trade was a very profitable one, being mainly a monopoly in the hands of the East India company. It was when the consumption increased enormously, while the business of supplying the demand was not too much subdivided, that it became a more common article.
