A VISIT TO THE "UNIVERSAL PRO-VIDER" OF LONDON.

One of the Wonders of the World of Trade-The Famous Bon Marche of Paris Outdone-A Whole Congeries of Whiteley's establishment is one of the conders of the world of trade. Comparatively few Americans visit it, as it is far away from what is known as the Ameriaway from what is known as the American beat—i. e., from the Langham hotel to the Metropole. Compared to the trade kingdom over which a single proprietor, William Whiteley, rules, such mere overgrown dry goods stores as the Louvre and the Bon Marche in Paris are but simple affairs. Whiteley's is not a store, but a whole congeries of stores, each as accessible to but as distinct from the other as the dining room is from the parlor on a floor with folding from the parlor on a floor with folding doors. What in the usual run of dry doors. What in the usual run of dry goods stores occupies a counter or at most but a room—such as the silk department, the linen department, the costume department, etc.—has at Whiteley's a large and imposing store to itself. The jewelry store is a superb establishment, the furniture house is magnificent; china, glass, ironmongery, dressmaking, sewing machines, coiflures, toys, Japanese and Indian curios, each and all have stores devoted exclusively to themselves, large openings giving communication through the entire series of establishments.

ADDITIONAL ESTABLISHMENTS

ADDITIONAL ESTABLISHMENTS. This would be wonderful enough, but there are surprises at Whiteley's; a pro-vision store of extensive dimensions ad-joins an excellent restaurant, the restau-The Siberian Pacific railroad has not yet been commenced, and already a new Siberian railway is projected. It will be called after the river Ohi. Its connection with the bed of that stream and with a suitable port to the west of Walgatz island will open a double new road to Siberia by land and by water. It is professed to "circumvent" the mouth of the project of the covers may be given, or ordered for any covers may be given, or ordered for any river Obi, the peninsula of Yalmal, and the Kara sea, which are difficult of access, owing to the masses of drifting ice. The new route will only be 400 versts long, taking a northwesterly direction from the mouth of the river Obi to the Walgatz sea, in a bay of which a harbor is to be built. The site chosen for this harbor is sheltered from the wind by the Pae-Choi mountains.

The country being level and well studded with forests, the construction of the line will offer little difficulty. The entire cost, including the harbor, is estimated at 20,000,000 rubles. Under existing conditions the transport of merchandise to Barnaul, via Tlumen, Perm and St. Pe ditions the transport of merchandise to Barnaul, via Tlumen, Perm and St. Petersburg to London takes three months, whereas by the new line two months will be saved. Western Siberia produces annually 30,000,000 Russian poods of wheat. The opening of the Obi line will materially increase commercial intercourse with the west, and be the means of supplying the European market with wheat at a considerably lower price than that produced at home.—Paris Cor. fie Revolts Against Cruelty. It is rather in others and for others that be an accurate observer of nature, and yet here we have him writing of the new Pirst Train Robber - What train did you stop last night? Second Robber - Overland express, goin' west. First Robber - Git much? Second Robber - Naw, chock full o moon as having been 'lately arisen,' when in fact it must have been just about set ting. But this is not all. By a sort of double barreled blunder he makes the people comin' home from the eastern summer moon as he describes (say two days cld;"must have been, not merely invisible, but midway between setting and rising.—F.
