VOL. 3. NEWBERG, YAMHILL CO., OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1891.

THE PACIFIC COAST.

A Pot-Pourri of Occidental Occurrences.

Considerable Talk at Colfax, Wash., Over the Fraudulent Proving Up on Government Land.

John Miles, one of the Spokane Falls cattle thieves who was shot by Sheriff Pugh, is dead.

L. M. Wagner, a jeweler at Los Angeles, claims to have been mysteriously robbed of $12,000 worth of diamonds.

After February 1 the "curlew" ordinance will be enforced in Vancouver, and all boys on the street after 8 p. m. will be arrested.

United States Senator Mitchell seems to have had but little opposition to his report to Congress at the hands of the Oregon Legislature.

Mrs. M. A. Gunther of Hanford, Cal., has been allowed $2,800 by the government for depositions committed by the Southern Utes in 1885.

Two prisoners escaped from the Olympia jail last week. The jailer discovered the break just in time to prevent other prisoners from escaping.

Counterfeit 25-cent pieces bearing the name of F. M. C. A., are in circulation at Albuquerque, N. M. The spurious coin stands the test of acid, but the ring is very dead.

The property of the defunct Los Angeles Tribune sold for $1,200. The price was not bid on. Not enough was realized to pay the printers and reporters.

Rosaline Amy Lewis has brought suit against the Puget Sound Shore railroad for damages for killing her husband while he was working along the track November 3, 1889.

C. L. Mast of Horseshoe Bend, Mariposa county, Cal., has built a foot bridge over the Merced river. It is 300 feet long, and wire cable one and one-half inches in diameter.

The abandonment of Fort Lowell, seven miles east of Tucson, has been ordered by the Secretary of War. The citizens of Southern Arizona see trouble ahead for the Indians if the order is executed.

Six 5¢ counterfeit gold coin pieces were presented at the postoffice in Spokane Falls one day last week. The counterfeit is not well made, and can be detected by an examination of the figures upon them.

While men were discharging the cargo of a small steamer at Seattle, a man fell into the water and drowned. Four men are known to have been killed.

There is considerable talk at Colfax, Wash., over the fraudulent proving up on government land. One case is positively known where final proof was made on a pre-emption claim by a party who had not taken out his naturalization papers.

The fruit growers around Riverside, Cal., have decided to organize a co-operative association for the purpose of picking, packing and shipping their own fruit. The decision was reached after a meeting of the packers at Riverside combining to regulate the price to be paid for fruit.

Captain Lavender of the sealing schooner Henry Dennis has sued the owner of the vessel at Seattle for $2,125. The captain and crew were to receive one-half the furs, and after paying for the vessel the captain was to have a fourth interest in the schooner. This is that he now sues for.

It is reported at the office of the geodetic survey at San Francisco that Mr. Russell of the Frank Leslie's Alaska exploring party will return to Alaska in the spring and make explorations with a party of fifty persons, subdivided into the service demands. It is also reported that E. J. Glave, who made the descent of the Alsek river last season in Alaska, will come to the States and make further explorations in the region of Mount St. Elias.

E. J. Baldwin's suit in the United States Circuit Court at Los Angeles against the Southern Pacific railroad for damages caused by the burning of his wheat crop by a spark from a locomotive was decided against him, it being shown that the spark was from a Santa Fe locomotive. A motion for a new trial on the ground that if the fire was caused by the lessee the lessee is liable was refused. The position of counsel for the railroad company that the lessee was not liable for the acts of the lessee unless the relationship and acts are pleaded was sustained.

A published statement is made that John C. Hall, formerly of the law firm of Hall & Rodgers of San Francisco and trustee of the estates of John Hawley and Marvin A. Baldwin, deceased, has confessed to the embezzlement of sums aggregating about $150,000, which he lost in various ways by means of false abstracts of title on property of his already mortgaged, and that other parties were victimized by similar abstracts and other means to the extent of from $1,000 to $7,000. It is stated that he resolved to commit suicide, but was persuaded to await trial on the charges which may be brought against him.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company has decided to place the steamer Alki on the route between San Francisco and Puget Sound, with the object of carrying only freight and coal, such as coal and oil, leaving the Steamer, carrying passengers to the latter place. On the conclusion of that trip the Alki will relieve the company's steamer Yaguna, that route between Seattle and Tacoma. The latter change is occasioned by reason of the fact that the demand for coal in Alaska is very great, and the Yaguna has not the same carrying capacity as the Alki. While the latter steamer is running to Alaska with coal, arrangements will be made by the company so that one of their steamers running from San Francisco to the Sound will call at Bellington Bay for passengers and freight.

Commander Reiter, who was chief officer of the United States vessel Ranger, at the time of the Barrandea, and who was severely rebuked by Secretary of Navy Tracy for his conduct on that occasion, demands a trial before a naval court. Reiter was detached from the Ranger when it was discovered that he had advised the surrender of Barrandea.
