Drop in at the City Restaurant when you want a good dinner. WANTED—A few hundred pounds of stock carrots. Call at this office.

O. M. Coffin is back from Salem, not having succeeded in getting a job. County surveyor Branson has been surveying in Deskins addition this week.

Sam Hobson has been getting some nice outdoor views the past few weeks. Bring your produce of ALL KINDS. MORRIS, MILES & CO.

Next Tuesday, March 3rd is the beginning of the spring term at the academy. Quite a number of our people attended the dedicatory services at Smockville Sunday.

J. I. Knight, the real estate man who was on the sick list last week, is able to be out again. Allen Smith is building a new house 14x24, instead of an addition as was mentioned last week.

Japan rice, something new, try it. MORRIS, MILES & CO. J. E. Haston the blacksmith, received a lot of new tools and material last week preparatory to spring work.

Miss Leah Cook, who has been teaching in the McMinnville public schools, is having a tussle with the measles. Mr. Longley, who sold his farm north of town a short time ago is making arrangements to go to California.

Joe Estep, of Woodburn, will work in Doc Young's meat market this Summer, and will make Newberg his home. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin George of Dundee, are the happy parents of a brand new girl. Congratulations are in order.

D. B. Rossner and Charley Cavil came up on the train from Middleton Saturday night and spent Sunday in Newberg. For a square meal call at the City Restaurant on Center street. Single meals 25 cts. D. E. Holloway proprietor. Address C. W. Wentworth Dayton Oregon for Stanley's Darkest Africa.

In order to reduce my stock of 1x8 and 1x10 lumber I will offer it until Mar. 1st at $10. per thousand. At NEWBERG LUMBER YARD. Rolled oats, oat meal, germea, sago. MORRIS, MILES & CO.

Mr. Holt, who has done most of the work on the new church at Smockville, came home Saturday night having finished the job. We understand that the land between town and the river, owned by Joel Bean, of San Jose, California, will be put on the market soon.

Mrs. G. W. Browning, of Portland, and Mrs. F. J. Botsford and son, of Seattle, are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Haskell. Henry Austin stands behind the grocery counter in Morris, Miles & Co's store, ready to deal out salt and pepper and other staples.

D. E. Holloway has opened a restaurant on Center street, and is prepared to furnish the traveling public with the good things of this life. The F. P. A. has developed some very excellent literary talent as has been demonstrated by the recent exhibitions given by the students.

The protracted meeting still continues at the Union church east of town under the leadership of Martin Cook. Considerable interest manifested. J. T. Smith and Morris, Miles & Co have changed back to their former methods and now both firms are handling stocks of general merchandise.

Armory hall, we learn, is to be seated with rustic chairs, manufactured by Frank Jones. This will be quite a novelty in hall furnishings, and as nice as novel. Table fruits, like peaches, pears, etc. MORRIS, MILES & CO.

For a short time I will sell 1x8 and 1x10 inch lumber at $10 per thousand at Newberg Lumber Yard. W. P. HEACOCK. Dell Cox received a letter from his parents the first of the week saying they would start for Oregon about the 10th of March. Several other parties are talking of coming with them.

Ben Lewis, A. M. Peery and Fred Crawford of Dayton, met at the bank Wednesday morning on their way out north of town to view out a new road petitioned for by J. R. Wilson and others. Mr. Heath, who has a job for the summer at McMinnville in a brick yard was called there a few days ago to go to work, but the work was suspended indefinitely on account of our March weather.

Hon. J. W. Maxwell, of Netarts Bay, was visiting with M. M. Edwards west of town the first of the week. Mr. Maxwell is quite anxious to get his children here to have the advantages of the Academy. Early in March I shall hold an auction sale of my farm stock, tools, wagons and harnesses, hay, oats, potatoes, household furniture, etc. Particulars later. III S. LONOLEY.

G. M. McCullough, the artist has returned from a trip to Centralia and other points in Washington and is having his room in the bank building fitted up with nice carpets and other fixtures ready for business. We notice that Sam Hess has a petition in the Hillsboro Independent which is numerously signed which will be presented to the commissioners of Washington county, March 4th asking for a license for a saloon in Cedar Creek Precinct. Crisp and fresh—our crackers. MORRIS, MILES & CO.

Standard brands of flour.

MORRIS, MILES & CO. Don't forget the entertainment to-night. School meeting next Monday. Remember the date. If you want good flour ask for Tarrant & Son's brand and take no other. F. A. Morris went to Portland the first of the week to lay in a new stock of goods. Dry Rustic, Flooring, Ceiling &c. at NEWBERG LUMBER YARD.

Marion items and the ladies column crowded out this week for want of space. Eugene Hoskins is agent for the book "Barred Cities Recovered" referred to by Mrs. Hartley in her lecture Sunday night. For Sale. 5 acres of fruit land near town for sale. 1000w12 JAS. LEWELIN.

O. M. Coffin went to Salem to-day to take a position in Croniser's job printing office. He has our best wishes in his new position. Hon. F. C. Moore, of St. Helens, was in town yesterday looking after the interests of his sons who are here attending the Academy.

Prof. Davis' music class will give an entertainment to-night at Friends' church. Admission 15 cents. A musical treat is expected. Don't fail to attend. Syrups, Sugars, Hams, Bacon. MORRIS, MILES & CO.

Lon. Hill and his brother arrived fresh from the land of "hog and hominy" last Wednesday and have been busy shaking with old friends. They report several other "Hoosiers" coming soon. For Sale. Fifteen tons of clover and timothy hay for sale, also several stands of bees at $3.50 to $4.00 per stand. J. SAUNDERS, Champeoz, Or.

Jim Reese, who has been engaged to put in screens on top of the bank counter, went to Portland Monday for supplies. Cashier Votaw desires additional protection against the "James brothers" or other hasty visitors who may have business at the bank.

29 acres of very choice fruit land in a healthy, pretty location. Small payment down, and balance on easy terms with privilege of working out a good amount of the after-payments. For particulars call at the GRAPHIC office. Remember fresh new groceries. MORRIS, MILES & CO.

Miss Pearl Woodruff, of Werner, Washington, which is on the Sound, came over from Vancouver Washington last Saturday where she has been attending Providence Academy which is a Catholic school. She will enter the Academy here at the beginning of the spring term.

Jonathan and Jane Votaw returned last week from their visit to Alder, Willowa county, where they went early in the winter to assist in caring for a sick daughter. They say they had considerable snow and cold weather up there during the winter, the mercury being below zero a part of the time. A fine assortment of queensware. MORRIS, MILES & CO.

The annual school meeting will be held next Monday. For director we have heard the names of J. L. Hoskins, Lin Parker and John Atkinson mentioned. For clerk we have heard no one spoken of except N. C. Christenson the present incumbent. There may be others mentioned that we have not heard of.

A son of Cephas Maris of our town and also a daughter and her husband named Calkins, arrive here last Saturday night, from northern Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Calkins brought a little Calkins along, which was a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Maris the grand-parents, who were ignorant of the advent of the little fellow into this world. They were delayed in starting a week longer than they expected by a fearful blizzard that raged in that country, blockading the railroad for a hundred and fifty miles.

"Had to put in Groceries again didn't you?" "Yes sir." "I told my folks that you would." "Well we have—and got a finer stock now than ever. Come see us." "We will. Shall we bring our eggs and stuff like we used to?" "That's the ticket. We'll do it."

Melvin G. Winstock, representing the "Northwest News and Literary Bureau" is in town getting all the information he can in regard to fruit culture in this section, and especially with reference to the special adaptability of this particular locality to the successful cultivation of the prune. He only desires such statements from fruit growers as they are willing to put their names to and in this way our place will get a write up that will be authentic. He comes with no advertising dodge that the people are expected to pay for and consequently we hope the people will give all the reliable information possible. Mr. Winstock is an old newspaper man having been on the editorial staff of the Oregonian for three years.

It may surprise you, but the newest and most complete stock of staple and fancy Groceries will be found at our store. MORRIS, MILES & CO. A Bargain. See Wm. Hobson's lot of 23 acres north of Joseph and Lewis Hoskins farm, 200 fruit trees set last year—indications for some fruit this year. This is a rare chance for some well to do man who wants to live within a mile of Newberg. $2900. cash will buy it. For Rent. Residence property opposite Post office, in Newberg. Inquire of J. L. VICKERY La Fayette Ore., or at GRAPHIC OFFICE.

School of Botany.

In connection with the regular class in Botany in the Academy during the spring term, we can give instruction to any who wish to pursue this line of study. The object will be to become acquainted with the elementary principles of botany, and then analyze and classify, as nearly as possible all the wild flowers of the surrounding neighborhood. It will be the intention for each member of the class to collect specimens, press them, and arrange them in an herbarium. This will afford an opportunity for a number of persons residing in town to engage in this interesting line of study. A person can enter this class, without entering the regular course of study. Instruction in this class will be given at the rate $1.25 per month.

The Sawmill and No Fake. Charley Spaulding returned from Salem yesterday and says the Dorrance brothers who were here last week, looking for a site for their sawmill, have fully decided to come, and have already hauled a large part of the mill to the steamboat landing ready for shipment. They expect to land the mill here on next Tuesday or Wednesday, and will commence at once to put it up. Charley says they have a good mill and will be prepared to do good work. He has contracted with them to do their logging and will go to work at once getting out logs. They hope to have the mill running just as quick as possible, and will make things sing. Hip, hip, hurrah!

Mrs. Hartley's Lectures. Those who failed to attend the lecture last Sunday evening by L. Ella Hartley missed a rare treat. Her subject was "Archaeology" or evidences of the authenticity of the Bible as produced by the unearthing of ancient mummies and other relics of Bible times at Ninevah and other buried cities. Mrs. Hartley is one of the most—and if it was left to us to say we would not put it, the most pleasant and entertaining speaker we have in Newberg. She has a faculty for saying something both instructive and entertaining when she speaks and was never known to make a failure in this respect when appearing before an audience. On this occasion she spoke for three quarters of an hour and pleased everyone with her fund of information. She showed a picture of the mummy of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, as found a few years ago by relic hunters, which shows the old man to have been kept in a good state of preservation. Prof. and Mrs. Hartley have promised to continue the subject at some future time. All who desire to spend an evening with pleasure and profit will do well to watch for dates.

Horicultural Meeting. The regular meeting of the Chehalis Valley Horticultural Society, was held at the public school house last Saturday. George Mitchell gave an account of the State Horticultural Meeting recently held at Portland which was quite interesting though short. Dr. A. Mills then read a paper on spraying, giving remedies for destroying the codlin moth and green and white aphids. He said spraying should begin when the apple or pear was about the size of a pea, and should be kept up at intervals of from one to two weeks until the fruit is grown and out of danger. N. G. Kirk and Cyrus Hoskins followed with remarks of interest. Cyrus Hoskins read an article written by a California fruit grower advising caution in shipping fruit trees from the east on account of the liability of getting new enemies to our fruit introduced into the country. This is a very important question to be considered and it is doubtful if it will pay to run the risk at all. About fifteen names were taken as members of the State Horticultural Society. A petition was circulated and signed, asking the State Horticultural Society to hold its July Quarterly meeting at Newberg. This if granted will be a good advertisement for our town and community as there will be practical fruit men here from different parts of the state.

Closing Exercises. The winter term of school at the academy closed this week with the usual puzzling examinations that test the memory of the students. Everything seems to have run smoothly so far this year and it is conceded that the school has done more thorough work than ever before. The students are getting down to solid work in a way that evinces a bright future for themselves and an enviable reputation for the school. We hear expressions of delight among them at the prospect of having a college established at home where they can finish a thorough education. On Saturday night of last week the Senior and Sophomore classes gave a literary entertainment and on Tuesday night of this week the Junior class gave an exhibition. As the school grows older we are pleased to see a marked improvement both in the arrangement of the programs and in the character of the performances. Originality of thought now takes the place of the declamation and the dialogue. The performers all did well without an exception and the professors have reason to feel elated over the success of each evening's work. The music, which was good, showed that the students have been in the hands of a competent instructor both in instrumental and vocal music. We give both programs below.

SENIOR and SOPHOMORE EXHIBITION. Instrumental Music—"Tripping with the Fairies."—Kate Glen. Oration—"The Westward Movement."—Amos Stanbrough, '91. Oration—"Row, and not Drift."—W. F. Edwards, '93. Song—"Sing Unto The Lord."—C. J. Edwards, '91. Oration—"Rise and Fall of Nations."—C. J. Edwards, '91. Oration—"A Purpose."—Lillie C. Smith, '93. Instrumental Music—"The Witches' Carnival."—Mary Cook.

Oration—"Building Walls,"

—Robert Samms, '93. Song—"Sweet is the Work."—Junior Exhibition. Song—"Land of Freedom."—O. J. Hobson. Oration—"True Merit Wins."—Lillie C. Smith. Instrumental Music—"Heavenly Thoughts."—Lillie C. Smith. Oration—"An Aim."—I. R. Stanley. Song—"Star of Bethlehem." Oration—"Be Yourself."—Dessie M. Stanley. Instrumental Music—"Silvery Waves."—Mary Longley. Oration—"Hot Boxes."—Pearl M. Hatley. Song—"The Trumpet's Voice." District Schools. County superintendent Baker is publishing an account of his operations in regard to the condition of the schools of the county as he has viewed them in his annual visits. Below will be found what he says regarding those in this part of the county. Mr. Baker has his figures too high on the price of land in Dist. No. 9. We doubt if there is any land in that district that is worth more than $75 per acre. The lack of interest in school matters is one thing that has kept the price of land below that of land in Dist. No. 29. No. 3.—Situated near Dundee. J. G. Lewis taught the spring term and Elmer Washburn the fall term. The building was for some time one of the poorest in the county, but has been repaired recently so it is possible. It is poorly furnished with apparatus. No. 9.—In striking contrast with the above is No. 6. Situated in the rich and beautiful Chehalis valley, where land ranges in prices from $75 to $200 per acre, stands by the road side amid the oak and fir, unpainted and unfenced one of the poorest, if not the poorest, school house in the county. The interior is even worse than the exterior. With poor desks, poorer black-board and no furniture or apparatus, the appearance is indeed uninviting. But I am glad to say the proposition to build is being considered, and I hope in my report of the coming year's work to be able to chronicle the building of a house, rivaling Nos. 6 and 8. Miss Mary Clemmenson taught the spring term and Chas. Hanson the fall term. No. 10.—Situated in the heart of the Chehalis valley is No. 10. During my spring campaign I found W. T. Vinton in charge, and making a call late in the fall I found him still wielding the birch. This district has a good building with ample grounds and one of the prettiest localities in the valley. The house has been lately furnished with single desks of the very best pattern. Some apparatus is yet needed. The directors have signified their willingness to furnish such supplies as are needed. No. 21.—Is situated on Wanato Lake, near the boundary line between Yamhill and Washington. Here too until recently was a wretched building in an unsightly place, but there is now a fairly good building beautifully located on a small hill nicely shaded by oak trees. The house is partly furnished with necessary apparatus. I found Mr. E. L. McCormick in charge of the school. No. 23.—Known as Unity district is near Dundee. The house is entirely too small for the number of pupils in attendance. At each visit during the year I found Miss Ida Lemley in charge of the school, and at my last visit, January 6, 1891, I found 35 pupils enrolled and seating room for but 30. The room is well supplied with apparatus including a fine slated blackboard. In point of time, this district heads the list. As shown by the clerk's report for the school year ending March 1, 1890, there were more months of school taught in this district the past year than any other district in the county. No. 29.—Compared with other districts in the county, has in the last few years, had a phenomenal growth. About the year 1878 this district was without a house, and a certificate was granted to Mrs. D. J. Wood to teach about twelve small children in her own house. Visiting the school in this district in January 1891, I found a large building of four rooms well filled with pupils of all ages, while a number of resident pupils in the town (Newberg) are attending the academy. The number of persons of school age, as shown by the district clerk's report for the year 1890, is 274. The present year's report will no doubt show an enrollment of over 300, that is of school age. The question in the near future for this district will be what shall we do for more school room? The building was erected with that idea in view and the problem can be easily solved. The building is in good condition and admirably located with ample grounds. The principal's room and that of the vice principal are furnished with the latest and best single desks. The second assistant's room is not so well seated, while the primary room should be re-arranged. The school is well supplied with apparatus, and in addition, the principal's room is supplied with an organ, purchased by the pupils. Prof. M. Reese is principal, Mrs. V. Martin first assistant, Miss Emma Deskins second assistant, and Miss Martha Mitterer teacher of the primary department. Educational matters receive prompt and earnest attention in district No. 29.

No. 32.—Known as the Brutscher district, has a fairly good house if the walls were caulked. The floor, however, is very poor. The desks are also old and should be replaced by new ones as soon as possible. The school is well supplied with apparatus but is much in need of an Unabridged Dictionary. The grounds are ample and well fenced. No. 34.—Is a joint district of Yamhill and Clackamas counties. It has a good new house with home made desks and partly furnished with apparatus. A teacher's desk and chair is much needed. Miss Emma Vestal was teaching at the time of my visit in November.

SMOCKVILLE ITEMS.

The dedication of the church was postponed on account of bad roads and inclement weather. John Brook moved to Portland the last of last week. A machine arrived last week to make terra-cotta tile, also the machine to make plastic brick. The trial kiln of brick was opened last Saturday and brick were far superior to any expectations. Quite a number of Newberg Friends are here helping in the meetings. A good interest is manifested. The press brick company are loading cars with brick as fast as possible. J. H. Douglas, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Marion George, of Salem, and Mrs. Winslow, of Marion, are holding meeting here. Mr. Bally's family, of Portland, came out last week and are living in Mr. Brook's property. LaFayette Items. The beautiful snow has come and we are having genuine Oregon weather. Mrs. Willison has been very sick for the last week or two and Rev. Willison has resigned as Pastor of the Presbyterian church. Ethel McCain is dangerously sick with inflammation of the stomach. Mr. McCain has had a great deal of sickness in his family this winter. The legislature has adjourned and Senator Gates has got home. The corporate limits of La Fayette have been extended and the saloon license will in the future be $400.00. So much better for the legislature. Sam Hess contributed $10.00 to the city treasury last Saturday. To much tangle foot. There has been two life insurance agents in town for a week. One insuring men and the other insuring horses. They are plowing and harrowing up the solitary lot with a view of seeding it to grass this spring. J. E. Hubbard has been under the weather for several days and is still confined to the house. Next Monday is school election and the text will be tax or no tax to build an addition to the public school building. Last Saturday there was a well dressed stranger found a handkerchief at Mrs. Joe Hembe's notion store and threw down a $10 piece and while she was changing it he found the right change in his pocket and threw it down and took up his $10 and $5 of Mrs. Hembe's change and skipped, but Mr. Hembe got him by the neck before he got out of town and made him disgorge. POSEY.

WON BY AMERICANS. The Leading Prizes Come to the United States. In the Queen's last word contest Dr. Edmund T. Stevens, of Buffalo, N. Y., won the first prize of a free trip to Europe and $200 in cash, and Annie B. Turner, of Deposit, N. Y., secured the special prize of a handsome, Shetland pony. The publishers of this well-known Magazine have decided to offer one more competition, and to the persons sending them the largest lists of English words (of not less than four letters) constructed from letters contained in the three words, "Dominion of Canada" they offer many useful prizes, including $750 in cash, Shetland ponies, China Dinner Sets, Gold Watches, French Music Boxes, Portiere Curtains, Silk Dresses, Mantle Clocks, etc., all to be awarded strictly in order of merit. An elegant Silver Tea Service (value $30) will be given each day to the persons from whom the largest list is received that day from the State in which they reside. The object of this Special Daily Prizes for each State is to increase the interest in The Queen's Competitions in every locality in the United States. Those desiring to contest for one of these valuable prizes may start on their list at once, but send six U. S. 2c. stamps, and receive last number of The Queen with full particulars before forwarding your list. Address The Canadian Queen, Toronto, Canada.

EXCITEMENT. Runs high at C. F. Moore & Co's drug store over System Builder, as everybody is using it for catarrh of the stomach, dyspepsia, constipation and impure blood and to build up the system. It certainly possesses wonderful merit when all speak so well of it. Dolphina E. Ellis (the invalid) keeps a supply of stationery and notions, such as suspenders, celluloid collars, handkerchiefs, combs, lace, pins, needles, gloves, etc., also arranges Oregon specimens for sale, at one of the cottages near Friends' boarding hall. She solicits the patronage of Newberg and vicinity and requests patrons to call in the afternoon.

WORSE THAN LEPROSY. Is catarrh, and there is but one preparation that cures that disease, and that is the California Positive and Negative Electric Linctament. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co. It also cures neuralgia, rheumatism, headache, sprains, burns, and all pain. Try it and tell your neighbors where to get it.

ONLY ONE IN THE U. S. Out of 1377 cough syrups manufactured in the U. S., but one has been found to be entirely free from opiates and that is the California Positive and Negative Electric Cough Cure, which is the best on earth for coughs, colds, croup, etc. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.
