

Local Events.

They do say the town is growing north. Mr. Heath moved to McMinnville last week. Jesse Hobson came up from Portland Tuesday evening. Milt Gumm was down from Salem, Saturday and Sunday. G. W. Cutts and family are expected on tomorrow's train. Tennie Minthorn spent Sunday with her parents in Salem. Sash weights at Portland prices at the Lumber Yard near depot. Call at Mrs. Hoskins' green house on River Street, for pot plants. SOMETHING NEW—S. & W.'s Tinted Lead at C. F. Moore & Co's. aplott The Tibodo boys, and J. M. Tice went down to Portland yesterday. See the new line of paint brushes at aplott C. F. Moore & Co's. A. A. Lashier is teaching school in the Westfall district north of town. Go to C. F. Moore & Co's, headquarters for paints, oils, brushes, etc. aplott The price of flour has gone up owing to the rise in the price of wheat. Cabbage plants for sale at my place east of the park. E. W. WEENNER. Mr. Tice will do the painting and decorating on Dr. McConnell's new office. If Lin Parker keeps on he will soon have one of the prettiest homes in town. John Davis and E. O. Hobson are clearing up their lots in the south part of town. C. F. Moore has moved this week, and again sits beneath his own vine and fig tree. HI Fox took a raft of logs to Oregon City for Spaulding & Hodgkin the first of the week. Old Mr. Hanson is building a dwelling house in the western part of town near the brick yard. Rustie, V. rustie, or double V. rustie, as cheap as the cheapest for first class work, at Mitchell & Clark's. G. W. Young, who sold his farm to Mr. Cutts last week, has moved into the Christensen house on West First street. Heston & Bierman are making well augers this week. They have a contract for two augers for parties in this town. Will trade good Newberg property for a good driving horse. YAMHILL LAND CO. W. P. Heacock is building picket fence and otherwise improving the appearance of his residence property near the depot. Dave Holloway is fixing up his property in the eastern part of town, and expects to quit the restaurant business soon. Window stops, parting strips, O. G. battens and moulded casings at Mitchell & Clark's at less than half Portland prices. O. V. Allen and wife of La Fayette took in the celebration last Saturday and remained over Sunday with Mrs. Allen's parents. E. H. Woodward has taken possession of his five-acre homestead, where he will be handy to superintend the building of his new house. Six subordinate lodges, two encampments and one Rebekah degree, participated in the Odd Fellows celebration here last Saturday. Hoover Kingery, of McMinnville, was in town the first of the week and visited at the academy. There must be some attraction down this way. Joseph Wilson has bought the corner lot west of Hill's barber shop, and we learn that a good business house will be built there this summer. Ode Hatfield and Alva Macy, of Dayton, with their wives and babies were here last Saturday and Sunday, also Miss Lydia Macy from the same place. John Rush, of Goldendale, Washington, made himself happy by buying a farm northeast of town Wednesday. He will move here with his family in the fall. Jesse Hobson shipped all his household goods to Portland the first of the week. Sorry to see it, as it looks like he might lose him and his family entirely. People are beginning to learn that their recorder Howard don't sit on the bench simply for his health and are conducting themselves as the ordinances require. We have repeatedly warned our young men about letting young chaps from other places carry off our young misses and yet another one was captured last week. After next Sabbath, M. E. services will be held in the Evangelical church until the M. E. people erect a new one, which they hope to be able to do some time this summer. A. C. Cox has moved into Mr. Heath's house in the eastern part of town. Mr. Long now occupies Miss Hadley's house in which Mr. Cox has lived the past winter. Rev. Howard, M. E. pastor, informs us that after this conference year, which ends in June, he expects to make Newberg his home. Tally one more good man for temperance and right. A Nebraska sheriff and Portland deputy arrested a Nebraska man at Dundee yesterday. He is charged with defrauding the railroad company in some way, and will be taken back for trial. It is about time to hear from the fair committee again if we have a fair next fall. The last day in the evening is a poor time to mature plans for an undertaking of any importance. Simon says, thumbs up. Vincent Brothers, Middleton's enterprising saw mill men, were in town Wednesday, and made this office a call. See their ad. elsewhere in this issue, and remember them when in need of anything in their line. The card of W. P. Heacock, contractor, will be found in this issue. Mr. Heacock is too well known to need any endorsement from us, and if you contemplate building this summer see him before you close your contract.

Remember the lecture next Monday evening. O. K. Edwards is a rustling bicycle agent. Newberg is going to have a building boom this season. Miss Myrtle Reece went down to Portland Wednesday. Ben Cook has been in town a day or two this week. Mr. Long bought an acre tract in Little Homes yesterday. It rained the first of the week. You may have noticed it. Marcus Blair's wife arrived from Alki, Washington, last week. J. L. Hoskins has been on the sick list during the past week. Dave Lamb has the position of engineer at Dorrance Bros. saw mill. Friends' quarterly meeting will be held in this place May 9th and 10th. G. W. Grayson is just completing a large addition to his livery stable. Mrs. M. Rees and children returned from their visit to Salem last Saturday. Frank Hobson has sold his bicycle and contemplates the purchase of a finer one. Remember that Newberg is to have a first class college by another school year. Mr. Cummings lately from Kansas has rented the Ella Hatley property on River street. Woe to the fellow who attaches a tin can to the romance of Mrs. Mount's dog "Boxer." O. O. Hodson and lady of McMinnville last Sunday. Arvine and Joe Estep are working for Spaulding & Hodgkin at their logging camp across the river. Miss Florence Brown came down from Salem last week, and will make her home with her uncle, J. H. Rees, for a time. The live business men of Newberg advertise in the Gazette. Go and see them when you want to make purchases. Emmor Hall and Alf. Moore have made extensive improvements on their places west of town during the past few months. There was a large attendance at the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Sunday, to hear Rev. Powell's address, which was very well received. Dr. McConnell has let the contract for building his new office building on First street, to W. P. Heacock. It will be, when finished, the finest office in town. C. F. Butler and Charley Maris went to Portland Wednesday to make some arrangements in connection with a Sons of Veterans entertainment to be given here soon. If you desire a good location to raise your family where there are good schools, live churches and first class society, try Newberg and you will never have cause to regret it. Henry Morris has sold his tract in the Goodrich subdivision to a Mr. Madden, of Portland, who is a practical cabinet maker and carpenter, and who will make Newberg his home. If the school board would place a tax notice in the Gazette, those interested would be much more likely to read it than when nailed up along with soothing syrup posters. The time for holding the regular monthly meeting of the Friends' church has been changed from ten o'clock to two o'clock in the afternoon the first Saturday in each month. Jacob Grauer, who recently arrived here from Iowa, and who is a brother of Mrs. W. C. Kruger, has bought a small house in the western part of town and is building an addition to it, expecting to make Newberg his home. Ab and Luther Hill are improving their block on north Meridian street and we presume the next move will be to each build a barn to take their families into in order to be up with the times. Miss Gertie Lamb opened a subscription school at the public school building last Monday, with an attendance of over thirty pupils. She will undertake to keep the little ones out of mischief for a couple of months. Miss Lulu Burnett, returns this week to her home at Corvallis. She has many friends in this city who will be greatly pleased to welcome her back, should she ever conclude to spend another winter with us. In making a running switch at the depot Saturday the train hands had quite an interesting experience. A brake failed to work and a box car was knocked into kindling wood, and a brakeman pretty badly jarred up, as a result. Jim Jones has the contract for building a large barn for a farmer above Dayton. It is to be sided with rustic and will be finished in first class style, making a fine appearing building. Jim will do the job in a workmanlike manner. Senator P. P. Gates of La Fayette, representative R. H. Langhlin of North Yamhill and county superintendent L. H. Baker and county clerk Hobbs of McMinnville were here last Saturday celebrating with the Odd Fellows. Mr. William Smith, of Vermillion county, Illinois, a friend of R. L. Thompson, is here on a visit, and expects to stay long enough to see some of the beauty of Oregon summer weather. He expresses himself well pleased with the country. Buy an acre tract in Deskin's subdivision, only three blocks from the depot, and three blocks from the public school. 17 tracts sold in thirty days—only 8 remaining unsold. Sold on easy terms by YAMHILL LAND CO. Mr. A. C. Churchill, of the Newberg Orchard Association, was a caller last Tuesday. He has unbounded faith in the bright future for Newberg and vicinity. He was accompanied by a Mr. Haskins, another Portland capitalist, who is also a member of the association.

F. C. Mills, who went to Payallap, Washington, two weeks ago with a car load of fruit trees for A. K. Cooper & Co., has not returned yet but writes that the people over there say it is the best lot of trees that has ever been shipped into that country. Mr. Chas. Renne, the friend of Mr. Ballou, who came out from Wisconsin two months ago, has purchased the Round place east of town. We think he has secured a fine place, and will never have occasion to regret it, and we are pleased to see him locate so near Newberg. H. F. Lashier, who has been building an addition to his home in the western part of town, met with quite a painful accident one day last week. While standing on a trestle his foot slipped, and he fell, striking the end of the trestle on his side and breaking two ribs. He is up and about again, but hardly able for business yet. Mr. Desbrough, a former Yamhill county man, but who for two or three years past has been in Illinois, arrived here Friday with his son-in-law, H. Dalley. They expect to make this vicinity their home, having brought their household goods, and some stock with them. Among other things they brought two very fine high grade draft teams. A gentleman named Long arrived here from Kansas City, Mo., last week and is so well pleased with the country that he has rented property and sent for his family. A friend of his from Kansas City has the contract for putting up the big union depot in Portland and he has the promise of a job there. He will leave his family here however. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society meets on Tuesday afternoons from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock at the F. P. A. Studio, for the purpose of sewing carpet rags, piecing quilts, etc., to aid in missionary work. Can you not give two hours per week toward spreading the Gospel among the Indians. All interested in this cause are cordially invited to attend and contribute material. Cows For Sale. Mr. J. Madison has three fresh milk cows for sale. Card of Thanks. In behalf of the members of the I. O. O. F., I desire to thank the Newberg Glee club, also all others who contributed in any way toward the anniversary celebration of April 25. G. T. BURNETT, Chairman. Attention G. A. R. Benjamin Harrison, president of the United States will visit Portland on May 5. All G. A. R. men and old soldiers of Newberg and vicinity that intend visiting Portland on that occasion are invited to fall in with Kiplatrik Post G. A. R. at Army Hall at 7 o'clock a. m., May 5, for the morning train. C. L. BALLARD, J. D. BELL, Adjutant, Post Com. Lecture. On Monday evening next, May 4th, our people are promised one of the greatest treats of the season. Rev. L. R. Janney M. A., returned missionary of the M. E. church, who has spent nearly eleven years in India, will deliver his popular lecture "Life among the Hindoos," at Friends' church on that date. Mr. Janney was sent to India in 1876 under direction of Bishop William Taylor, and during long years among these people eminently qualified him to speak on this subject. He will bring with him a number of brass idols presented him by an East India king. The proceeds of the lecture will be used by the M. E. Foreign Missionary Society. Tickets 25 cts. and 10 cts. on sale at J. T. Smith's store and at the Arlington House. The Odd Fellows. The celebration of the seventy-second anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America, by the different lodges in Yamhill county, took place in this city last Saturday. Although the day was somewhat rainy there was a good crowd, and Armory hall was packed to hear the exercises of the occasion. Mr. G. H. Burnett, Grand Master, delivered the principal address, which was one of the best of the kind we have ever heard. He showed himself to be a man of thought, and one could note, running through the entire length of his address, a touch of that human sympathy that makes men brothers, even outside the precincts of the lodge room. Mrs. Galloway, of McMinnville, delivered an address, showing the growth of the order, and setting forth the moral and elevating influences of true Odd Fellowship. One or two short speeches and a recitation, aside from the music, ended the program. The vocal music was furnished by the La Fayette glee club, and the glee club of this city, both of which rendered some very fine music. The Newberg coronet band did themselves proud as usual, in furnishing instrumental music for the occasion. Taken all together, the celebration was a success, and was greatly enjoyed by many who were not Odd Fellows. Notice. All persons are hereby warned against buying a certain note for $15.00, due sometime in October, given by me to one Jack Smith. The property for which it was given was not as represented, and I positively refuse to pay the note. F. W. STEINER. Delphina E. Ellis (the invalid) keeps a supply of stationery and notions, such as suspenders, collared shirts, handkerchiefs, combs, laces, pins, needles, gloves, etc., also arranged Oregon specimens for sale, at one of the cottages near Friends' boarding hall. She solicits the patronage of Newberg and vicinity and requests patrons to call in the afternoon. For Rent. 20 acres of good grain land. Also 10-20 or 30 acres of land just set to trees and in good condition which we will let some one plant in vegetables and have all they can make off it for cultivating the trees in good manner. A good chance for you. Inquire Immigration Office. MADE & COLONED.

COOK Legislation and Petition.....AMANDA M. WOODWARD Why We Wear the White Ribbon. Many people wonder why the W. C. T. U. adopted the white ribbon as its badge. This is easily explained when we consider that white light is supposed to contain all the colors of Spectrum. The W. C. T. U. may be compared to white light, and the more than forty departments of work it has taken up to the re-frangibility of its various colored constituents. Every one of these departments is a line of reform; then what a power for the education of the people of America and the World is the organization. Take for instance the Department of Heredity and Health, which is designed to teach people the simple laws regarding the proper care of the body, such as clothing, food, ventilation, exercise, and the effect not only upon the individuals disregarding these laws, but also upon unborn generations. Were it possible to give a resume of the work done in a single year in the various departments, you would not wonder that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union close as its badge, the little unassuming white ribbon. A habit fostered by the W. C. T. U. is to lift a prayer for the extermination of the liquor traffic every time a saloon is passed. Another habit, not understood by some, is noontide prayer, which it is expected that every woman belonging to the organization will observe every day at 12 o'clock. Scientific Temperance Instruction. We are glad to know that there has been placed upon the statute book of the State of Oregon the following law. Sec. 3. "It shall be the duty of the teacher to labor during school hours to advance the pupils in their studies, to create in their minds a desire for knowledge, principle, morality, politeness, cleanliness, and the preservation of physical health; and it is hereby made the duty of every teacher to give, and of every board of directors to cause to be given, to all pupils suitable instruction in physiology, and hygiene, with special reference to the effect of stimulants and narcotics upon the human system. This law does credit to the state, and if properly carried out, will eventually, in the great battle of truth against evil, bring victory to the rising generation. The introduction of this law marks an important era in the history of the state, for by the application of it, there will not only be impressed upon the receptive minds of the young the appalling effects upon the human system of alcoholic stimulants, but also the baneful influence of the narcotic, tobacco—which by analysis is found to contain two active principles, an acrid alkaloid, and an essential oil, both of which are prompt and powerful poisons. The first named principle is said to act directly upon the heart, frequently causing death; also upon the digestive organs, causing derangement of the stomach, loss of appetite etc. The other property as shown by analysis is the oil from which nicotine, that deadly poison, is derived, one drop of which placed upon the tongue of an animal has been known to cause instant death. Children on getting it from pipe-stems have died suddenly from its effects. The concentrated testimony of eminent physicians is that it produces many of the diseases seated in the nerves; damages the finer texture of the brain, and consequently undermines the power of resistance, and that it takes hold upon the forming tissues of the young, and does its injurious work by stunting the growth, and blunting the sensibilities. The habit of smoking is the most rapid means of conveying this poison into the system, for in this way the lungs become filled and it is absorbed the more readily into the blood. Prominent educators have taken pains to gather statistics respecting school boys addicted to the habit and those who are not, and the average per cent runs much lower with the tobacco users, than with those free from the habit, because the numbing influence upon the brain produces a tendency to idleness. The law recently enacted forbidding the sale of tobacco to minors, witnesses the fact that public sentiment is being aroused to put forth efforts to cut off this fruitful source of disease to both body and mind. These things augur better days, and point to a blissful future when the pure air of Heaven shall not be adulterated with the poisonous gases arising from the fumes which King James the First, of England, described as "most nearly resembling the stygian smoke arising from the pit that is bottomless;" when railroad cars free from the pollutions that shock the sensibilities of the refined, shall be places of inviting cleanliness; when the earnest, persistent efforts of the teachers of the state to create a desire for "cleanliness, and the preservation of health"—according to the law on Scientific Temperance Instruction,—there shall forever be divorced from the minds of the young the idea, that to be manly one must resemble a walking volcano. When the deleterious effects of this narcotic have been made known by thorough scientific instruction in the public schools, the number will certainly be lessened who will persist in the use of that which is suicidal to their best interests.—L. ELLA HARTLEY, in Academics.

SACRAMENTO ITEMS.
