

Local Events.

Riley Smith has added a fine pair of high top boots to his stable.

Call at Mrs. Hoskins' green house on River Street, for pot plants.

4in. crown and bed moulding 1 ct. per running foot at Depot lumber yard.

Mr. Long is happy, his family having arrived from Kansas City this week.

George Stabler's house, when completed, will be one of the finest in town.

James Vestal now occupies the house recently purchased from A. B. George.

Rev. Hinshaw, of Marion, addressed the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday afternoon.

Cabbage plants for sale at my place east of the park. E. W. Wessner.

Thad. Townsend and wife, of Portland, attended services here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mills, of Portland, visited with Miles Reese's family last Saturday and Sunday.

The glorious "Fourth" is coming and the momentous question to be decided is, will we celebrate?

There days are too long and the nights too short. Too many hours for work and not enough for sleep.

Durand Bros. are now making things hum at the mill, and are getting quite a lot of lumber on the yard.

Elwood Vestal, a stock buyer of Portland, was in town Tuesday on his way up the country to buy sheep.

Rustic, V. rustic, or double V. rustic, as cheap as the cheapest for first class work, at Mitchell & Clark's.

The ding-dong of the cow bell still has that same lonesome far away sound as in the days long gone by.

Eggs—about 40 cases or 1470 dozen eggs were shipped to the buyers here yesterday. A busy day for the hens.

Nate Wiley and wife are happy and the cause thereof is a daughter of diminutive size. She has been with them since last week.

Mr. Stewart, a photographer, who formerly worked at McMinnville was in town in company with his father last Tuesday.

Mrs. Harbough, of Portland, who bought the Harrison Crater place, came up Tuesday with her father, to look after her farm.

El Barnett, a son-in-law of Joseph Cook, came down from Marion to attend quarterly meeting. He is just from Louisiana.

Lee Smith has traded his store building on Main street to Lewis Jones, and is now sole owner of that fine span of sorrel horses.

There are more poor horses seen about town this spring than good "horse sense" would commend if the horses could speak their minds.

Sauk says that flour at $2.70 per hundred is too high and he will be compelled to go back to rice if the price advances any more.

Mr. Cooper says he sold over $500 worth of trees from his nursery without solicitation last Wednesday. The delivery will be made this fall.

Mr. W. D. Wright veterinary surgeon, of McMinnville, was in town last Saturday on business in connection with the practice of his profession.

Mrs. Stabler will hold services at the Hoskins school house next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A good audience will no doubt be in attendance.

Since mention has been made of the prospective steamboat excursion up the Columbia, many inquiries have been made and much interest is manifested.

The Fruit Land Co., of Whitson, have sold their interests there to a Portland syndicate, realizing, we learn, very handsomely on the investment. It pays to advertise.

We refer those who are thinking of investing in bicycles for pleasure or profit to the advertisement in this issue, of the well known bicycle dealer in Portland, Fred T. Merrill.

Tice & Tibode are prepared to do all kinds of work in their line, such as painting, graining, calcining, paper hanging and decorating. They also guarantee all work first-class or no pay. Give them a trial.

A gentleman named Jones, who is a prominent attorney of Dayton, Ohio, was here in company with Dr. Minthorn's family of Salem, in attendance at quarterly meeting of Friends' church last Saturday and Sunday.

All friends of the academy are invited to attend the literary exercises next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Good programs are arranged for both evenings and a very pleasant time is expected on both occasions.

Mr. Dunston, of Dundee, was in town Tuesday. He set a large orchard on the Full Quartz place last fall and was here making inquiries in regard to the proper method of pruning. He likes our town better than any he has seen since coming west.

B. C. Miles, July Bowerman and Mr. Cobb have been spraying their fruit trees this spring to destroy the green aphid. Others may have been doing the same but these gentlemen are the only ones we have heard of that have followed the advice of the State board.

The Southern Pacific people are arranging to put in a new steel bridge across the Yamhill river, at La Fayette, and it will no doubt be of standard gauge size. They are also arranging to put up a new depot building at that point which is a much needed improvement.

When you see a small boy industriously spading in the back lot these nice afternoons and you are inclined to wonder at the degree of industry he displays, just remember that angle worms are plentiful now and that fishing for chubs is quite good along the Willamette.

Sash weights at Portland prices at the Lumber Yard near depot.

Will Heston, of Marion, has been down on a visit during the week.

Wm. Stratton is getting the material on the ground for his new house.

J. I. Knight reports the sale of a large part of the Bond place beyond Dundee.

A college excursion to Latourell Falls, on the Columbia. What do you think of it?

Jesse Hobson and family, of Portland, were up to attend Quarterly meeting of Friends' church.

Preaching by Rev. L. C. Davis, at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Abner George and wife moved to Marion last Friday, at which place they will make their home in the future.

Abner Hadley and wife, of Mooreville, Indiana, have been here during the week, visiting old Indiana friends and relatives.

Miss Abbie Miles was very justly commended for her rendering of "The Shunamite" at the conference Saturday evening.

For the information of eastern readers we will say that there are in this place other business firms than those represented in the GAZETTE.

J. T. Smith has pie plant of enormous proportions in his garden. We measured one leaf that was 28 by 30 inches exclusive of the stem. Who can beat it?

Mr. Clark wants it distinctly understood that he no longer belongs to the leading class, but is now a full fledged, hard fisted granger of the first water.

When you want tin spouting on that new house you are building, remember Mr. Storey, the tinsmith, who has lately located in our town. All he asks is a fair trial.

MAURAND: On May 11, 1891, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson, of Newberg, Mr. Hans O. Hanson to Miss Jennie Johnson, Rev. W. E. McCutcheon officiating.

Mrs. Hartley's original poem recited at the conference Saturday night, showed deep Biblical research as well as the ability she possesses for making rhyme worthy the name of poetry. It was excellent.

George Christenson has fitted up for draying from the depot to all parts of town, and is ready to accommodate all who want such work done. For the present he is using a farm wagon, but he has ordered a first class truck, which will be on in about sixty days.

There are a number of old orchards around town which in their present condition are simply breeding grounds for fruit pests. The owners of them ought to dig up the old worthless trees and prune out the rest and clean them up and give them such a series of spraying as will effectually clean out all pests.

Mr. Savage, who moved here lately from Tualatin, has lumber on the ground for a bakery, which he will put up at once on a lot opposite Whitmore & Son's feed store.

LATER:—Mr. Savage has traded his lumber to A. M. Hoskins for his shoe shop and will turn it into a bakery.

A gentleman from Nebraska named Jagger, arrived here Monday with his wife, and has rented J. B. Mount's house. He says the mercury was as high as 94° when he left Nebraska, and the wind blowing at the same time so hard that a man could hardly work out. Oregon is good enough for the ordinary mortal.

Jesse Hobson has the Reed farm at Dundee, bonded for a term of three years and will have it surveyed in a short time and laid out in tracts to suit the trade. Whether it is to be Reeds or Hobsons addition to Newberg we are not informed but it is safe to say that Newberg will be named in connection with it in order to make it go.

Granville Everest has painted a sign for the Y. M. C. A. with the full name "Young Men's Christian Association" in gilt letters with a dark back ground, which makes a very nice appearance. In this work the young artist shows an aptness for the use of the brush that justifies the cultivation of the talent he possesses. We wish him the greatest success.

Yes, of course you are anxious that the July meeting of the State Horticultural Society, which will be held here, should be a success, so far at least as the preparation on the part of our people is concerned. Well, if this is important, just consider that it is quite as important that you attend the meeting Saturday afternoon and assist in planning for it.

The closing day of the academy for this year's work will be on next Thursday. The Willard Literary Society composed of the young ladies of the school will give an exhibition on Wednesday evening and on Thursday evening a literary entertainment will be given by the graduates in the academic and grammar school courses. All the friends of the school are invited to attend.

We hear some parties about town speaking of what appears to be a blight of some kind on the limbs of pear trees. We advise such persons as have trees thus affected to take cuttings from the trees to the horticultural meeting Saturday and have them examined as that is the program for the next meeting. Persons who find pests of any kind are expected to take specimens to the meeting and get all the information possible by comparing notes. We look for a very profitable meeting if people take an interest as they should.

Charleston, three miles north-east of Newberg on the Narrow Gauge R. R. has been platted and laid out and we now take great pleasure in placing this fine property on the market. Having secured exclusive control of it we now offer to home seekers and investors from a fifty foot lot to a ten acre tract in and adjoining this place. We are now making arrangements with the R. R. Co. for a side track and other accommodations for the general public. See this beautiful and healthy location before you buy elsewhere.

YAMHILL LAND CO.

Letter heads printed at this office on the best of pure linen in neat style. Call and see samples and get prices. No need of going to Portland to get first class work.

A traveling artist has been doing the town this week and the class of people who much prefer to send their money out of town have given him money. Never spend a nickel on a home industry if you can get an opportunity to send it away.

The next regular meeting of the Horticultural society will be held to-morrow in the public school house at 2 p. m. prompt. Let every one come and help to make an interesting meeting. Programme: Reports from all the members what they are doing or intend to do for the destruction of fruit pests. It is requested that specimens of as many kinds of fruit pests be brought to the meeting as can be procured.

Don't forget the horticultural meeting Saturday at two o'clock. Remember that the July meeting of the state society will be held here, and it is very important to all that extensive preparations be made to show our place up to the best advantage. This should not be left to be done by individuals, but business men, real estate rustlers, and all, should attend the meeting Saturday, and show their willingness to assist.

There has been an unprecedented sale of new property around town during the past six months, and the encouraging feature of the sales made is the fact that in nearly all cases the purchasers have bought either for permanent homes or for fruit land. Every stamp taken out and every fruit tree set, adds value not only to the owner of that particular property but to every acre adjoining. Let the good work go on.

The Newberg band, while on its way to the May day picnic at Amity on Friday, stopped in front of R. L. Harris' drug store and discoursed some excellent music. The people of Newberg may well feel proud of their band.—Dayton Herald.

You are just right brother, our band boys are getting there in good shape tooting their horns and are able to make music. Plente and other parties desiring band music will do well to remember them.

Many of our readers say they send almost every copy of the GAZETTE to friends in the east to keep them posted in regard to the growth and prosperity of Newberg and surrounding country. We hope to be able to make each and every number of the GAZETTE worth the money it costs our readers and are glad to know that they appreciate it sufficiently to take the pains to send it to their friends. This stimulates us to strive to improve in the make up of the paper.

There are parties not a thousand miles from Newberg, who lost stock this spring by actual starvation. Just think of such a thing in a land of plenty. In the first place, it is the poorest economy in the world to keep more stock than you have feed to keep well, considered from a financial view, and then to think of having stock around you that is actually starving to death, is certainly enough to disturb the sleep of any ordinary mortal. A society for the prevention of cruelty to animals is in order.

F. H. Storey, of McMinnville, a practical tin smith, has located in our town, and for the present has opened a tin shop near the post office. Mr. Storey, who is a young man comes well recommended as a first class workman and those in need of work in his line will do well to call on him. He has worked with Manning & Ungerman, of McMinnville, for three or four years which is evidence of ability in his profession. In about a month he will occupy a new building on First street, which Mr. Oliver will put up.

It is not just the thing for people who move in here to get the benefit of our schools and other advantages that are secured by sacrifices made by our business men, to rush off to Portland to spend their money in fitting up for house-keeping, especially when they can do just as well trading with home merchants. The chances are that those who are doing this will go to our merchants in less than two months after treating them in this way and ask favors of them. This is what we would call an abnormal growth of what in common street parlance is termed cheek.

Quarterly Meeting of Friends' Church.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Friends' church, held at this place last Saturday and Sunday, was well attended, the meetings at Middleton, Smockville, Portland, Dundee, Salem and Marion, being well represented. The most important business transacted was the granting of a request for a new quarterly meeting to be held alternately at Salem and Marion, to be known as Salem quarterly meeting. This request will be forwarded to the yearly meeting, to be held at Okaloosa, Iowa, this fall, and if granted, as it no doubt will be, the meeting will be established and opened yet this season.

This meeting will have a membership to begin with of something more than a hundred, and will leave Newberg quarter with between five and six hundred members. The Sabbath school conference held Saturday evening was of great interest to the Sabbath school workers of the church, there being many matters of interest, regarding the work thoroughly discussed.

The congregation in attendance at the morning meeting on Sunday was a very large one, there being between six and seven hundred present. Mrs. Round and Mrs. Stabler preached excellent sermons. An interesting program was carried out at the missionary meeting in the afternoon and a good collection taken to forward the mission work among the Plate Indians, undertaken by Mrs. Lillie Kalamia, a Warm Spring Indian woman.

Tax Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the school tax in Dist. No. 29, Yamhill county, Ore., is now due, and unless paid by June 2, 1891, will be deemed delinquent and turned over to the county clerk for collection. By order of School Board.

N. C. CHRISTENSEN, Dist. Clerk.

Die!

Our town was shocked yesterday morning to learn of the sudden death of Dr. D. W. Lyle, caused by some heart trouble.

The doctor has been a resident of Newberg for some time, and has many friends and acquaintances to whom his sudden death comes as a warning of the uncertainty of life. Funeral services today, at 2 o'clock at the Evangelical church, conducted by Kilpatrick past, G. A. R.

G. A. R. Attention.

You are requested to meet at Armory Hall on Friday, May 15, at 12:30 p. m. to make arrangements for the burial services of Comrade Lyle.

J. D. BELL, C. L. BAILLARD, Adj. Com.

A war of extermination is being waged in certain directions around Newberg. Not against individuals, but against unsightly stumps and weeds that cover the land which certain persons are holding on to, and paying taxes on without getting any returns; and beside this the land is becoming more and more expensive to clear every day. The expense may be offered by the owners that they are not able to live the land cleared. Better sell a part of your holdings at a reasonable price and spend the money in putting what you have left in condition to make you something. Beside this the party you sell to will improve what he gets in a way that will add several dollars to the value of yours. Any one holding a large tract of unimproved land is simply a clog in the way of the onward march of development and improvement in the community in which he lives and the sooner this class can be led to see their mistake, the better for themselves and everybody else around them. The survival of the fittest is greatly to be desired in certain localities. In some cases it takes a funeral to bring about the desired results.

Excursion up the Columbia.

The steamboat excursion of last summer was such a complete success, and so well enjoyed by those who took advantage of the opportunity to spend a day pleasantly on the river, that a similar one is proposed for this season. While the plans are not yet fully matured, it is proposed by the academy board to charter a first class boat that will be able to carry all who may want to go, and take a trip down the Willamette and up the Columbia, either to Latourell or Multnomah falls. By leaving Newberg promptly at six o'clock in the morning, considerable time can be had for pleasure and sight seeing at either of the above named points, and return the same evening. Those who have been up the Columbia by boat, and have looked upon the wonderful heights on either side of the river, rising mountain high from the water's edge, are aware that there is no scenery in the world that surpasses it. The Newberg band will be secured to enliven the trip with first class music. The proceeds of the excursion will go toward repainting the academy buildings. Watch for dates and full details, and govern yourself accordingly.

W. C. T. U. meeting to-morrow at 3 o'clock p. m.

It is hoped that every woman who can will attend at least a part of the State Convention and Pacific Coast Conference to be held in Portland commencing May 23rd. Col. Bain, the silver tongued orator from Kentucky will be there May 28 and 29. And it certainly will be worth the while for every one who can to hear him.

Typographical errors are the despair of pen-holders, so said Frances Willard when in mild quotation she wrote, "Tis only strength makes gentleness sublime," and the types said, "Tis only strength makes 'gentlemen sublime.'" Again she wrote, "The souls of some sit on the ends of their nerves; type declared that the 'souls of some sit on the ends of their fingers.'" A friendly journalist in Boston declared of her that she was a believer in immortality; but type echoed, immortality, and so on and on and the end is not yet. Misery loves company," you know, and it is a source of encouragement to me to know that even Frances Willard is sometimes misinterpreted by the types. But I would not add the indication of attributing to her pen what was hurriedly jotted down by myself. I credit the "GAZETTE" with making comparatively few of these errors, though occasionally a blunder is discovered that makes me appear to have less gumption than I really have. I was very much displeased on picking up the "GAZETTE" last week to see an extract from that wonderful speech of Miss Willard before the National Council of women held in Washington D. C. and to which I appended her name, closely joined to a little scribbling of my own on an entirely different topic. I am sure that lady would not be pleased to have her name annexed to a rambling essay of that sort, and in vindication of her I beg that you allow us a little wider birth, granting us at least a line between chapters.

Delphine E. Ellis (the invalid) keeps a supply of stationery and notions, such as suspenders, collared shirts, handkerchiefs, combs, hives, pins, needles, gloves, etc., also arranges Oregon specimens for sale, at one of the cottages near Friends' boarding hall. She solicits the patronage of Newberg and vicinity and requests patrons to call in the afternoon.

Notice.

All persons are hereby warned against buying a certain note for $10.00, due sometime in October, given by me to one Jack Smith. The property for which it was given was not represented, and I positively refuse to pay the note.

WORSE THAN LEPROSY.

Is established, and there is but one preparation that does cure that disease, and that is the California Positive and Negative Electric Linctment. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co. It also cures neuralgia, rheumatism, headache, sprains, burns, and all pain. Try it and tell your neighbors where to get it.

ONLY ONE IN THE U. S.

Out of 100 cough syrups manufactured in the U. S., but one has been found to be entirely free from opiates and to be the California Positive and Negative Electric Cough Cure, which is the best on earth for coughs, colds, croup, etc. Sold by C. F. Moore & Co.

EXCITEMENT.

Runs high at C. F. Moore & Co's drug store over system Builder, as everybody is using it for catarrh of the stomach, dyspepsia, constipation and impure blood and to build up the system. It certainly possesses wonderful merit when all speak so well of it.
