Call at Mrs. Hoskins' green house on River Street, for pot plants.

Lin Parker and Lettler Hill went to McMinnville Wednesday. Eh?

Yellow Fir is the best for building. Sold at DEWOT LUMBER YARD.

A band of bunch grass horses stopped over in town Wednesday night.

A good fresh cow for sale. Call on J. P. JOHNSON, three miles north of town.

Jesus Edwards attended church both at Middleton and Smockville last Sunday.

Sam Moffitt is now handling lumber at the depot lumber yard again, and is happy.

W. P. Heacock went to Portland Monday on business connected with the lumber trade.

The Cummins boys have been at La Fayette during the week, operating their well auger.

Charley True was up from Middleton last Saturday, to take part in the memorial exercises.

Mrs. Stabler addressed the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday afternoon, on the subject of systematic giving.

Livingston Beauty tomato plants, strong and healthy. For sale by GEO. STABLER.

Rustic, V. rustic, or double V. rustic, as cheap as the cheapest for first class work, at Mitchell & Clark's.

Chas. Renne was over from Middleton buying farm implements Monday. He is becoming a veritable granger.

The Ferris family, who have been living in a part of the Newberg House, moved to Portland the first of the week.

Mr. Savage has been busy during the week fitting up his bakery and will soon be ready to turn out first class bread.

Miss Carman, who is teaching at Middleton, was up last Saturday and Sunday visiting her brother Dr. Carman.

Lumber is being placed on the ground for Mr. Clemenson's new dwelling. Mr. Christenson has the contract for putting it up.

Miss Anise Brown came down from Salem last week to see her sister Florence, who has been sick for some time from a release of a gripe.

Have your house spotted now while you can, but before doing so call at the new tinshop and see the patent cave trough maker, hangers etc.

Col. Bain, the silver tongued orator, of Kentucky, is coming. The privilege of hearing him will be an opportunity of a lifetime and you can't afford to miss it.

A gentleman named Hanback, of St. Paul, Minnesota, was here last week, looking at the strag pen Tuesday for $15. The boys say the mare has a great future behind her.

You save your paint, preserve your foundation and add to the beauty of your house by having it properly spotted. For all repairing and job work call at the new tin shop.

In this issue our readers will find an article on drainage and irrigation of home grounds that is full of interest to those who are anxious to make their homes beautiful and attractive.

Tice & Tibodeo are prepared to do all kinds of work in their line, such as painting, graining, calcimining, paper hanging and decorating. They also guarantee all work first-class or no pay. Give them a trial.

Clarence Edwards, who attended the Y. M. C. A. convention at Albany last week, reports a very pleasant time and a profitable convention. The ladies of Albany, entertained the delegates right royally.

Why not the mayor call a public meeting of the citizens to agitate the question of putting a fast passenger boat on the river? The times demand it and we ought to have it. It is a good time to strike right now.

A young man named Cash, lately from England direct, is stopping with E. Robinson, north of town. He made a quick trip only being on the road two weeks. He says he is very highly pleased with what he has seen of our country.

Jerse Hobson came up from Portland Wednesday evening to look after his interests at Dundee. He brought a lady artist with him who he has employed to paint a birdseye view of the valley, from the high point back of the Reed farm.

The college excursion to Latonrell Falls and the upper Columbia will take place on Friday, the 10th. This announcement is not made at this early date for the benefit of the old folks, but for the youngster who is anxious to speak for his best girl before the other fellow gets there.

A boat that would make the round trip from here to Portland and return the same day, and give passengers four hours in the city, would be well patronized. With the present rate of two dollars by rail we predict that it will not be long until there will be a light passenger boat put on this line. The only reason our people are not traveling by the river now, is that the heavy freight steamers are too slow to suit the public.

Mr. Carpenter, of La Fayette, and Mr. McRymal were in town the first of the week.

David Stratton has had his house repainted the past week. Lin Parker did the work.

At the Depot Lumber Yard you can get everything used in building. Call and get prices.

J. H. Ross has a number of small girls employed to assist in picking his strawberry crop.

Dr. Clark is at Champeog and St. Paul this week, extracting painful molars for the castles.

Strawberries sold in town Monday at twenty cents per quart but fell to eight cents the day following.

The weekly meetings of the Christian Endeavor have been changed from Sunday to Saturday evening.

They had a very heavy hail storm on the mountain last Saturday. But little damage was done however.

Born - To Mrs. Beandray, at the home of her brother Riley Smith of this place, on Monday June 1, a daughter.

Mrs. Charles went up to McMinnville Wednesday, where she will engage as nurse to take care of some of the fever patients.

F. H. Storey has been awarded the contract for putting the tin roof on Morris, Miles & Co's new store. He is having a big run of work.

Begin to lay plans to take advantage of the opportunity of the season to have a big day and enjoy yourself. Remember the date, Friday, June 19.

Dorrance Bros. have concluded that they have too much invested at the mill to take any unnecessary risks, so one of the boys will root there hereafter to guard against fire.

Mrs. Nan Hadley will please accept the thanks of this office for some extra fine samples of strawberries, of the Big Bob variety. They were properly sampled and awarded first premium.

By an oversight we neglected to mention in our last issue that A. B. Westerfield, of the Ledger was in town and gave us a pleasant call. We are always glad to see the face of a Yanhill editor on our streets. Come again brother W.

Stabler & Edwards were in Portland last week, looking after cans and other necessary articles for their cannery. They expect to have the establishment running, ready for the peach plum crop which will ripen not very many weeks hence.

Uncle William Hobson, although quite feeble, still takes pride in showing the products of the country. A few days ago he sent to town a sample of barley that was raised on his farm this year, which was nearly five feet in height and well filled.

The Yamhill Land Company now has entire control of Mr. Harley's land, both his addition to Newberg and the land adjoining town. This is very desirable property and investors will find it to their interest to call at the companies office near the depot for information regarding the sale of it.

Mr. Bowman reports that a large fire near his home north of town was struck by lightning last Saturday. If the Kansas immigrant continues to come to this country loaded with thunderbolts gathered from the plains of his native state, the lightning rod man may yet become a burden.

Calvin Dixon and J. W. B. Cook each kindly remembered us this week with some very fine samples of strawberries. After several years experience it is with great confidence that we recommend ourselves as first class samples of fine fruits and berries. Samples tested and opinions given without delay.

T. N. Graves, of Sheridan, was in town last Monday. He informed us that he was so unfortunate as to have his dwelling destroyed by fire a short time ago. The loss was $1500, but mostly covered by insurance. Mr. Graves was here looking after brick for a new house.

Mrs. Nova Estep and Miss Minnie Rogers have opened a dressmaking establishment at Mrs. S. E. Smith's millinery store, and are prepared to do all work in their line in the latest styles. They have had long experience in dressmaking, and will be sure to please you. See their card in connection with Mrs. Smith's millinery ad. in this paper.

A. Bowman's team concluded to exercise themselves by running away with a load of wood Wednesday. Pieces of the wagon were strewn from the Judd place to town, where the horses were stopped by stepping into a hole and falling down in the orchard back of the bank. Beyond slight injury to the wagon, and a few bruises for the horses, no damage was done.

Bain, the Kentucky Orator.

Col. Bain, of Kentucky, the only orator of the day that ranks with John B. Gough as a platform speaker will lecture at Friends' church on Wednesday evening, the 10th. The people of our town have never had the opportunity to hear a lecture by one of Col. Bains ability and we predict that an immense crowd will be out to hear the great orator. The subject will be announced in the posters later. The ladies are trying to arrange to have him deliver his lecture, "Boys and girls; nice and naughty," in the afternoon of Wednesday and we hope they will succeed as this is said to be one of his best. Attend the lecture by all means and don't fail to take a liberal supply of cash along to drop in the collection box to assist the ladies who have the matter in charge.

We still have a few copies of our extra edition of last week that can be had for five cents a copy. Send a few to your friends in the east.

A gentleman was here last week from Tacoma, representing The Northwest Commission Company of that city. He was looking after the fruit prospect in this locality with a view of getting supplies during the season from this place. He expressed himself as being much better pleased with our country than he had expected, and said our town certainly had a bright future before it. That is just what strangers invariably tell us.

If some first class cabinet maker would manufacture collars and caskets in Newberg he could sell at a good profit, and then sell at one-third less than they are sold at by those who belong to the Northwest General Directors' Association. This thing of selling a coffin for $50 that is only worth $25 or $30, is nothing short of robbery. The fact is, the way a funeral outfit costs in this country it is cheaper to live here than it is to die.

The Mills brothers and George and Wm. Morris arrived home from the coast Monday evening. They report a very pleasant trip. While at the beach they secured flags that were taken from the wreck of a vessel that was lost last winter. The two Mills boys had were of the list of the international code of signals, numbered "H" and "M" respectively, but without the full number that were displayed at the time the vessel was abandoned it would be impossible to tell what signal was given. Some signal of distress, no doubt.

Emil Polier a young German, who came here a short time ago died last Saturday after a short illness, at the residence of Mr. Graff a German who bought some of the Wynoski land. The funeral services were held at the Evangelical church on Monday afternoon and were conducted by Mr. Deitrich. We are informed that a young lady is now on the road here from Michigan, and will probably reach here before this appears in print, who left her eastern home for the purpose of marrying the deceased on her arrival here. This makes the death of the young man a very sad one and the young lady will receive the sympathy of the public here.

We notice that W. I. Westerfield, of La Fayette, advertises that he has received a stock of undertaker's goods direct from the east, that he will sell at from $20, to $25, cheaper than the same stock is sold at by those who handle the goods of the Northwest General Directors' Association. This will be good news to many people who have been shocked on learning the price this association charges for the most common coffin. The fact is this is a combination that has long been bleeding the people simply because they have had it in their power to do it. We predict that Mr. Westerfield will be well patronized.

Notice of Sale.

Notice is hereby given that on the 20th day of June, 1891, I will sell to the highest bidder the Wynoski warehouse. A credit of five months time will be given, purchaser giving note with approved security. Sale will take place at said Wynoski warehouse. By order of Board of Directors. J. C. NELSON.

ONLY $20 PER ACRE.

72 acres 3 miles from Newberg—1 mile from Hoskins' station, on south slope of Chehalis mountain, between B. Heater and J. B. David. Also 40 acres adjoining N. E. corner of J. B. David's place. One half cash, balance on easy terms. Land adjoining west sold for $170 per acre. RREED & HONSON, 108 2nd St., Portland, Ore.

The Big Excursion.

The date for the grand excursion up the Columbia river to Latonrell Falls has been fixed for June 19th. This will give our many citizens who have never seen the locks and the Falls of the Willamette at Oregon City, the lower Willamette and the great Columbia river, a big day for sight seeing. Those who have seen Latonrell Falls say that this is the grandest sight to be seen of all the magnificent scenery of the Columbia, and a ride up the river by boat is alone worth four times the cost of this trip. The price per ticket will probably be $1.50 for the round trip, children 5 to 12 half fare. Passengers can take their lunch baskets with them and enjoy an old fashioned picnic. A refreshment stand will be aboard to supply good things. Invite your neighbors to go with you and have a good time.

Memorial exercises held here on last Saturday were attended by a large crowd. Kilpatrick post G. A. R. met at Armory hall at 1:30 p. m. and marched down First street to the grave back of the Bank building. They were followed by the Sons of Veterans and the members of the Women's Relief Corps and headed by the S. of V. drum corps. After the ceremonies by the G. A. R., usual on such occasions the members each deposited a wreath of flowers in memory of the fallen comrades of the regiment to which they belonged. Rev. Eccleston pastor of the Presbyterian church followed with an excellent address in which he paid just tribute to the memory of those who faced danger in the defense of our country. At the close of the exercises the procession was formed to march to the cemetery. After the drum corps, came a wagon nicely decorated drawn by four gray horses. This was filled with little girls dressed in white who carried the flowers for decorating the soldiers graves. Next came the members of the post with those of the auxiliary orders followed by the citizens in attendance. The graves of the soldiers were each remembered by bouquets of beautiful flowers, after which the company marched back to town and dispersed.

WOMAN'S COLUMN.

MRS. F. A. MORRIS, Editor.

State W. C. T. U. Convention.

The ninth Annual meeting of the State Woman's Christian Temperance Union convened in the Tabernacle at Portland May 25 and 26. A praise and thanksgiving service having been held on the Saturday previous. Monday morning devotions were conducted by Miss Eaton, President of Sherman Co., and were impressive. Committees were appointed on Credentials, Resolutions, Plan of Work, Finance and Courtships.

Pending the report of committee on Credentials a number of visitors from other states were introduced and made brief remarks. Among others we noticed the president and corresponding secretary of California, Mrs. Peet and Mrs. Spencer, also Mrs. Pitt Stevens of the same state, Mrs. Adams of Ohio, Mesdames Oaruk and Cox late of Kansas, and Mrs. Eaves of Illinois, all of whom were called to the platform and responded most happily.

A reporter was appointed from every county to prepare reports of the proceedings of the convention for the papers of their respective counties. The ladies from the East showed the discipline of experience. They were veterans flushed with victory and spilling for another fight, said Mrs. Addison, and as the forces of Oregon are marshalling in line of battle, it is expected to see actively all along the line. Mrs. Hoxter, Forest Grove, responded to the address of Welcome by Mrs. Addison. Noonite prayer and adjournment to the First Congregational church where the ladies of that and the Christian church had prepared an elaborate collation. After afternoon devotions the report of the corresponding secretary was read which showed much arduous work on the part of Mrs. Brown as well as of workers over the state. This report showed 1728 active and 690 honorary members, 218 Loyal Temperance Legions, and 15 columns by W. C. T. U. workers in newspapers throughout the state. Mrs. Huxley, of Indiana, was introduced and made a happy speech. A summarized report of the treasurer showed the finances to be in a prosperous condition. Miss Fannie Gotshall reported for the Oregon White Ribbon, the official organ of the state, and Miss Minnie Proctor gave the financial report of the same. Mrs. White Kinney spoke in most an encouraging manner relative to this paper, and five minutes was allowed in which to get subscriptions. Mrs. Bain, formerly for six years president of the Kentucky State Union, was received with the Chautauqua salute, and made a brief address. The evening session began with the usual devotions and exercises, after which the president read her annual address, a paper full of thought, comprehensive in its scope both of review and future outlook. Two flags were presented to unions showing the highest percentage of increase for the year. Sunnyside local, and Multnomah county Unions were the happy recipients of these rewards. Devotions Tuesday morning were conducted by Mrs. Edwards of Newberg. The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year—president, Mrs. Anna R. Rogers. Recording secretary, Mrs. Anna R. Rogers. Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Foster. Treasurer, Mrs. Bolyen. The report of Sabbath school work was read, followed by Mrs. Kinney's school of methods, also the report of Mrs. Nash, press superintendent. A letter of sympathy was sent Mrs. Sicafora, Portland, on account of her illness. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Strong Kinney, of Astoria, welcomed the delegates from other states to the Conference, and was followed by responses from some of these. Mrs. Spencer, of California, gave an address full of excellent points—keen, sharp and forcible—that the points were well taken was apparent by the frequent applause which greeted the speaker. Mrs. Spencer said, "The cause that lies back of intemperance is what we are striking at." "We shall not make a poultice to ease the cancer that is eating out our nation, but sharpen the instruments by which it may be cut out."

Mrs. Stubbs, of Washington, read a well prepared paper on "Work Among Sailors on the Northwest Coast." The Waldrop children sang a very pretty song and recited a hearty evener. Mrs. Cox conducted the devotional meeting Wednesday morning in a pleasing manner. The unions pledged for 1,000 copies of the minutes of this convention. Mrs. Brown, corresponding secretary, informed the convention that she received but four reports from Y. W. C. T. Unions this year. Delegates were elected by the executive committee to attend the Pacific Coast Conference. The convention adjourned at 10 o'clock by singing the temperance doxology. At 10:30 o'clock the Pacific Coast Conference was opened with devotion, led by Mrs. Stubbs, of Washington. Mrs. Sturtevant Peet, president of Cal. State Union, was elected chairman, and Mrs. Hilden, president of Western Washington, was elected secretary pro tem. The report of the committee on credentials showed delegates present from Idaho, Utah, California and Washington. There were several National workers present. Mrs. Caroline Bawl, National corresponding secretary, and Miss Es her Pugh, National treasurer, were among the number present. It lends an inspiration to be privileged to look into the faces of these noble women. Owing to rush of business several of the reports of superintendents were not read in convention, but referred to the executive committee, and will be published, together with those read, in the State minutes. The address of Col. George Bain, Kentucky's silver-tongued orator, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, were most excellent, and received with hearty applause. The Conference adjourned at noon Friday and attended a reception at the home of the State president from 2 to 5 p. m. In honor of Col. Bain and wife, and other visiting delegates. The Tabernacle was artistically decorated with flag bunting and silk banners, while the stage and pulpit were thickly covered with choice roses.

Among other mottoes we observed these at the rear of the stage.

"Our Country in Peril!"

"From Sabbath Desecration"

"From the Liquor Traffic"

"Woman to the Rescue."

The lunches served by the ladies of various churches in the City were prepared and served in elegant style, and in every way the Convention and Conference were most royally entertained.
