Lee Stanley went to Portland Wednesday.
 Prof. Hartley spent the Sabbath in Portland.
 Charles Moore went to the city Tuesday on business.
 Turned posts, brackets, etc. at
 DEWOT LUMBER YARD.
 The painters are changing the color of Allen Smith's new house.
 Frank Moore has been here during the week visiting his brothers.
 Screen doors, way down, at
 DEWOT LUMBER YARD.
 Frank M. Barr is building a new house in the west end of town.
 Martin Cook held services at Riverside, above Sheridan, last Sunday.
 Book agents have been quite numerous in town the past week or two.
 Wilbur Round went to Oswego the first of the week to deliver an invoice of books.
 Cabbage plants for sale at my place east of the park. E. W. WESSNER.
 The dark rainy weather has been unfavorable for the strawberry and cherry crop.
 Reece Mendenhall, of Sheridan, passed down to Portland on Tuesday morning's train.
 At the Depot Lumber Yard you can get everything used in building. Call and get prices.
 Hi Fox is running the west end meat market for Mr. Lyon. Hi is an old hand at the business.
 All Moore let a contract to Noah Heator last Monday, to build a new barn on his place west of town.
 Pleasant Johnson and Son, from near Tacoma, Wash., spent a few days in town the first of the week.
 J. H. Roes has been sick during the week, and Pearly Mitchell has been driving his strawberry wagon.
 Geo. Stabler and Clarence Edwards went to Portland Tuesday, to look after the machinery for the cannery.
 F. H. Storey, the new timer, has moved into Oliver's building on First street, nearly opposite the Dayton road.
 The horse market was very brisk the first of the week. Mr. Clemenson and Lon. Hadley can tell you more about it.
 Will Heston came down from Marion the last of the week to secure a gang of hands to pick peas for the cannery at Salem.
 The Yamhill Land Company has taken a new partner into the firm in the person of Mr. J. Hanback, a capitalist from St.
 Paul, Minnesota.
 Mr. J. Stewart, of McMinnville, is fitting up the building formerly occupied by Dr. Iyle as an office, and will open a photo gallery therein.
 Some men are fools by birth and education while others make fools of themselves by pouring whiskey down their throats to take away their reason.
 Have your horses spayed now while you can, but before doing so call at the new tinsmith and see the patent castrator through maker, hangers etc.
 MARRIED—At the residence of the brides parents, June 17, 1891, Milton Parish to Jennie Parrott, daughter of James Parrott.
 Rev. Jesse Edwards officiating.
 The Yamhill Land Co. is organizing a company for the purpose of setting the Hanson farm of 300 acres, situated in the upper part of the valley, in fruit.
 Will Macy, who is teaching at Riverside, between Sheridan and Willamina, is doing very satisfactory work we hear.
 He has organized a Sunday school.
 Roy Woods has a half-dozen Mongolian pheasants that were hatched from eggs placed under a hen. These young pheasants bring a good price in Portland.
 J. L. Davis, from up the valley, was in town Tuesday, in company with a cousin of his of the same name, who is in the banking business at Milton, this state.
 Several old settlers from the upper part of the country went down on Tuesday morning's train, to attend the meeting of the Pioneer association at Portland.
 Thanking our many friends for their past favors, we solicit your further patronage to help us over our loss.
 MITCHELL & CLARK.
 Quite a number of our people attended the Sabbath school picnic at Sherwood, Saturday. Despite the unfavorable weather a very pleasant time is reported.
 Will Edgerton, who came out from Indiana some weeks ago, returned home Friday. We shall expect to see him back in Oregon with his family ere many months.
 The long talked of excursion to Lafour-nell Falls, will take place to-day and we predict that the excursionists will have a day full of pleasure. We will tell you all about it next week.
 When you visit the various new buildings that are going up in and around town don't fail to tell the builders where they are making mistakes in their plans. This is a good and well established custom.
 Smokerville is no more—that is, the name is no more—a petition having been granted by the authorities at Washington to change the name to Sherwood, and it will be known by that name hereafter.
 The musical concert given by the "old folks" of La Fayette, at Armory Hall last Saturday night, was said to be good, although the attendance was slim. Unfortunately a night was chosen when many of the young people were engaged in another entertainment.
 It looks now like the golden moments for making the necessary preparations for the annual fair at Newberg are going to slip by unimproved. We predict that not many weeks hence there will be a demand long and loud for a fair by those who are unwilling now to turn a hand over to help the thing along, and after it has become too late to make the necessary preparations.

Frank Moore was in town a day or two this week.
 Buildings grow in Newberg this season.
 No boom.
 Thad Townsend was up from Portland Monday on a land deal.
 J. B. David visited Portland and Oregon City the first of the week.
 Remember the musical Cantata at Armory hall tomorrow night.
 Two lots for sale cheap if sold in the next 30 days. Inquire at this office.
 Yellow Fir is the best for building Sold at DEWOT LUMBER YARD.
 Wood choppers will notice that J. I.
 Knight wants forty men to cut cord wood.
 Prof. Hartley has been making some improvement about his house and grounds recently.
 Preaching by Rev. L. C. Davis in the Presbyterian church June 21st at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.
 Newberg will be very lonesome to-day after the Undine carries her load of excusionists away.
 Perhaps you hadn't noticed it, but the new sign for the Y. M. C. A. rooms has been put in place.
 The gentleman who is to knead the dough at Savage's bakery, is on hand ready for business.
 Young men who make a business of playing base ball on Sunday, deserve to be defeated in every game.
 Another brick business house to go up on First street immediately. The tide has set in and it is irresistible.
 Bert Wesmer and Eugene Hoskins who are working at Sherwood, on the brick yard, came up Wednesday.
 Miss Gertrude Lamb's school closes today. A good program has been prepared, and a pleasant time is expected.
 J. Saunders, opposite Champeog, has cherries for sale that will be ready to pick by the middle of next week.
 The brick work on Morris, Miles & Co's new building is completed and the plaster-ers and carpenters are at work now.
 Laura and Blanch Propst have been over from Champeog, visiting their little friends of Newberg, during the week.
 Yellow fir lumber delivered to any part of town at a reasonable price by MITCHELL & CLARK.
 WANTED—At Dundee 40 men to cut wood at 85 cts. per cord, without cording.
 Apply to J. I. Knight, Newberg Ore.
 Mr. Brown, of Bridal Veil, Ore., was a caller Wednesday. He was looking over our town with a view to locating amongst us.
 E. X. Harding, of McMinnville, who is running for U. S. D. D.'s implement house at Portland, was in town Wednesday.
 Remember that the old Wynooki warehouse will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder tomorrow at one o'clock.
 John Davis, having built a house on his lots on south Meridian street, will proceed to do the vine and fig tree act hereafter.
 Lewis Hoskins has a prospect of taking a trip with his family either to the coast or to Mount Hood before long, for rest and recreation.
 The council will for the present hold meetings in the back room of the bank building, this room having been rented for that purpose.
 Miles Reece has been chosen business manager of the Y. M. C. A. He will have general oversight of the business affairs of the association.
 A cow got on the railroad track down the road yesterday, and knocked the engine off. Very good stinking qualities the old cow had and what a beef she would have made for an Oregon market.
 The Tillamook Headlight advises its readers to give tramps "a cold shoulder." This, together with a few slices of bread, ought to be enough to suit the most fastidious.
 Dave Gulser, who has many friends here was over from Winlock, Washington, the first of the week. He reports business very dull over there. So much so that their big saw-mill has been shut down for the past month.
 Clarence Edwards has entered into partnership with Geo. Stabler for the purpose of engaging in the cannery business in place of his father, who at first talked of the business. We wish the new firm the greatest success.
 The traveling public pays no attention whatever to the notices on the long bridge warning people to walk their horses.
 If the road supervisor will make an example of one or two it will have a good effect. Fast driving over a bridge will rack it out of shape in a short time.
 The public exhibition of drunken rowdy-ism seen on our streets Monday evening, ought to be a warning to some of our young men who are lazing with drink. The principal actor in that scene was once a lad, who thought he could take a drink and let it alone as he pleased.
 A fellow from the country comes into town and gets on a high and is fined $10.
 A resident of the town does the same, only he tries to clean out the town and he is fined $7.50. The extra $2.50 levied in the first instance is for being so unfortunate as to fall from the country. This is justice (?)
 John Brown, who returned from Illinois and Indiana last week, says he got quite well acquainted with Prof. Newlin while visiting his brother at Spiceland.
 John says he never saw a young man who was more popular, and he thinks a wise choice has been made in the selection of Prof. Newlin for president of the new college.
 Prof. Rook, who is making a tour of the valley in the interest of the Farmer's Alliance, spoke here to a small audience one night last week. He was disappointed on account of the town and country not being billed for his lecture as some North Yamhill man had agreed to do this for him.

The school directors were urged to put in a walk on the west side of the public school grounds more than a year ago, which they did, with the understanding that the walk would be extended on past the dryer to the depot. It would be interesting to know why the extension has not been made.
 One of our citizens spent a few hours in the lock up last Monday, and paid a fine for being drunk and disorderly. A few lessons of this kind have long been needed in Newberg, and when this class of men learn that they will be promptly landed in the cooler the number of these disgraceful scenes on our streets will be lessened.
 Those who attended the children's day exercises at the Evangelical church last Sabbath, report an excellent program, well executed. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns and evergreens, and the little folks appeared to enjoy themselves thoroughly. Lack of room was the only drawback, many having been unable to find seats.
 We have no harsh words for those who let strong drink get the better of their manhood, but at the same time it looks a little bit strange that men who claim that they are anxious to throw off the habit, will seek the company of those who will place the temptation before them, rather than the company of those who are anxious to help them over these rough places.
 It would be a wise move for the city fathers to put a rough bunk with sufficient bedding to keep prisoners warm into the lockup. When drunks are put in they get to be comfortably provided for and then let there long enough to have time for reflection. This thing of "playing jail" like children and letting a man out before he gets sober will never have the desired effect.
 There are young men in this community who are forming the appetite for drink, who would consider it an insult if they were told they would be confirmed drunkards and outcasts of society in a very few years. And yet thousands of young men have gone down under the curse who started out with just as bright prospects as any of these. Young men, you are taking great risks. You can't afford to do it.
 The last number of the Pacific Academician is out. The young men at the head of the paper have done excellent work, and they deserve the encouragement of all who are interested in the welfare of the college. Subscribers are asked to pay up their subscriptions, and a hearty response should be given. Remember that the young men, while doing good work for the school, work for nothing and board themselves.
 Marsh Woods took in a couple of drunks one day last week, who hailed from the Wapato lake country. Recorder Howard let them off with a fine of $10 each. One of them made an earnest request that his name be withheld from public print as he said he had a very good wife. Strange that old gray headed men like him didn't respect the feelings of their good wives earlier in life and refrain from forming habits that disgrace themselves and all their friends.
 Another Brick to Go Up.
 Good news is always welcomed by the public and this is the kind we delight in giving our readers. Lin Parker, who is always to be found in the front ranks of the procession has bought lots on the corner of the hotel property on First street, opposite the bank building, and will immediately commence the erection of a brick business house. The building will be 42x60 feet, one story high and will be divided into two business rooms. Work will begin at once and the building pushed to completion as fast as possible, as Mr. Parker will occupy one room with a business of his own, which will not mention at present, and the other room is already rented by other parties who are anxious to occupy it as soon as possible. This is only another evidence of the faith far seeing business men have in Newberg as a good business center, and every move of this kind serves to strengthen those who are inclined to be doubtful or suspicious of every new move. People begin to feel now that the procession is headed in the right direction and other good business houses will follow. Before the building season of 1891 is over, New-berg will have her good clothes on, ready for comparison with any other town in the Willamette valley of the same age and several others that are almost as hoary with age as Mount Hood, Yamhill county towns not excepted. It is safe to say in common street parlance Newberg is in it and no flies are on our live business men this season.

LA FAYETTE ITEMS.
 W. R. Derby has bought the Ungerman property opposite the Presbyterian church, consideration $1,000. Mr. Derby will move to town in September.
 J. M. Ketty has sold his drug business to a Mr. Guiss, from Woodburn. Mr.
 Guiss has moved the drug store to Old Fellow's building, where he is prepared to fill prescriptions or sell pills at any time, day or night.
 There are new buildings going up in all parts of town now and the boom has hardly commenced yet.
 Dr. Michaux was called to Tennessee two weeks ago on account of the serious illness of his father, who has since died.
 The Dr. will be home in about ten days accompanied by his mother.
 Mrs. J. L. Vickrey has been very sick, but is a little better at present.
 J. W. Long has two very sick children with something like meningitis.
 About fifteen or twenty of the boys of this place attended I. O. O. F. lodge at Dallas last Saturday night, and report a fine time.
 The Evangelical camp meeting is going on in the grove near St. Joe but the weather has been rather unfavorable for out door exercises so far.
 The La Fayette cornet band will give an entertainment on Thursday night, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the band. This band is improving nicely and will soon be able to play for public gatherings.
 Charles Dunn died of dropsy, at the home of his father in this city last Tuesday morning.
 Mr. M. O. Lonsdale was thrown from his cart and severely hurt this evening while driving in from his farm. Dr.
 Calbreath has been telegraphed for.
 POSEY.
 Go and see those new washing machines, just in, at Monnt's.
 For Sale.
 One span of horses at my place one mile and a half west of Newberg.
 FRED BARRELL.
 Notice of Sale.
 Notice is hereby given that on the 20th day of June, 1891, I will sell to the highest bidder the Wynooki warehouse. A credit of five months time will be given, purchaser giving note with approved security. Sales will take place at said Wy-nooki warehouse, at 1 o'clock p. m.
 By order of Board of Directors, June 1, 1891.
 J. C. NELSON.
 ONLY $20 PER ACRE.
 72 acres 3 miles from Newberg—1 mile from Hoskins station, on south slope of Chehalis mountain, between B. Heater and J. B. David. Also 40 acres adjoining N. E. corner of J. B. David's place. One half cash, balance on easy terms. Land adjoining west sold for $170 per acre.
 REED & HOBSON, 108 2nd St., Portland, Ore.
 Delphina E. Ellis (the invalid) keeps a supply of stationery and notions, such as suspenders, celluloid collars, handkerchiefs, combs, brushes, pins, needles, gloves, etc., also arranges Oregon specimens for sale, at one of the cottages near Friends' boarding hall. She solicits the patronage of Newberg and vicinity and requests patrons to call in the afternoon.

Municipal Notice.
 NOTICE is hereby given that a petition has been filed with the common council of the town of Newberg, asking for the vacation
