FOR SALE—A good, five room house and four lots. May be had at a bargain. Call at GRAPHIC office.
Two ladies named Hibbs, sisters of Mrs. J. H. Bowerman, arrived here Wednesday from Pleasant Plain, Iowa.
The friends of Henry Austin begin to feel anxious about him. He has only been in town once since his marriage.
For a rousing mass meeting to declare against the saloon business we will put Newberg against any town in Oregon.
Edmund Robinson shot a large hawk the other day that measured four feet five inches across the wings from tip to tip.
Parties wanting ditching done, will do well to call on ELIAS & HAWORTH, newish Newberg, Oregon.
Howard Williams, who is again driving a team for the Oregon Transfer Co. at Portland, has been in town during the week.
Our population would be very materially increased in a short time if we could assure people that they could find houses to rent.
Warren Robertson, who has been working on the railroad bridge at LaFayette for some time has been in town during the week.
Mr. Todd, Ed Holt and Bart Cox went on a duck hunt last Tuesday, prepared to exterminate every feathered tribe on Wapato lake.
F. H. Howard's jewelry store now sits alongside of Kay & Todd's store on First street. Milt Nicholson had charge of the moving of it.
Munson Mulford who has been clerking for J. T. Smith for some time left for his home at Pasadena, California, last Wednesday morning.
The potato crop was good this season but many are mourning over the fact that they failed to get their crop dug during the dry weather.
Miss Lela Wilson has been unable to take her place at the case in the GRAPHIC office during the past week, owing to temporary illness.

James Hunter, who is a friend of Geo. Stabler arrived here last Monday from near Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Stabler had contracted for a job for him before he came, at the Newberg cursery.
"Oregon on Wheels" is what they called the car of products that was sent east a short time ago. Well we see piles of Oregon on the wheels of every vehicle that passes now, very much as we used to see in old Hooislerdon.
The man who has been making ungentlemanly remarks about the ladies who visited the saloon last Friday afternoon is not the kind of a man we would prefer for a neighbor. These ladies are angels in comparison to such men. The people of this town will do well to let such fellows hunt some other place for work.

New stoves at Mount's.
E. X. Harding, of McMinnville, was in town Wednesday.
"500 Miles on Horseback through the Holy Land," next Monday night.
If from any cause you fail to get the GRAPHIC, notify us and we will be glad to supply you.
Rainy weather don't check the building boom much. Several new buildings are in course of erection, and about all our carpenters are busy.
Grant Wiley says he found there was little money to be made running a shooting gallery in Newberg and consequently sold out his interest in the business.
The teachers of the public school have secured at some expense a fine wood cut of the school building, and will have some letter heads printed for use among the pupils.
Rev. W. B. Sherrodd, traveling agent for the S. B. Medicine company was in town Tuesday and called at the GRAPHIC office. He is an old acquaintance of Solomon Haworth.
Dr. A. Mills arrived home from the east the first of the week, bringing a company of ten with him. The state immigration board had better employ Dock to rustle for them.
O. V. Allen came down from LaFayette Tuesday to rent a house for his father who he expects here from Kansas in a few days. He secured the house now occupied by Dr. Clark.
It is not to be supposed that the election news had any undue influence, but the flag pole erected during the last presidential campaign, came down with a crash a few days ago.
Rays ferry, three miles above town at Rays Landing is said to have been established by the Hudson Bay company in 1826, it being the first to be established on the Willamette river.
Attorney O. H. Irvine, of McMinnville, was in town Wednesday administering legal advice to the city authorities. Irvine is a jovial good fellow and we are always glad to see him in town.
John Younger, a jeweler who came here a short time ago from Sheldon, Iowa, has located for business in Bales' shoe shop, as he announces in this issue. He has rented the Jo Woods house in Hobson's addition.
William Allen, of Hesper, Kansas, husband of Mrs. Allen who has been here visiting for some time, has sold his farm, and with his sons will come on here in a few days with the expectation of making Oregon his home.
Rev. Brown, of Hillsboro, gave a very interesting lecture on temperance at the Evangelical church last Saturday night. His coming was not well advertised and the audience was small. He deserved a much better house.
Cephus Maris has the frame partly up for his new harness shop. The building is 20x40, two stories high and will make a neat appearance. The upper story will be occupied by the G. A. R. post, Sons of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps.
Elizabeth Miles fell on the walk at her home Wednesday and in trying to protect herself from the fall fractured one of the bones of the arm near the wrist. Dr. McConnell set the limb and the patient was resting easy when last heard from.
Eugene Hoskins is back again and entered the college yesterday. He has been working in a boarding house in Idaho for some time and we would infer that the feed was good as he is as fat as a bear. The boarders are yet to hear from how-ever.
A gentleman from Connecticut named Peck was here Wednesday wanting to buy a pruned orchard in bearing. The man who sets an orchard of prunes and takes care of it will have no trouble in disposing of it at a good profit if he so desires.
Brother Conover, of the Dayton Herald while in town last Saturday, made a pleasant call at this office. He informed us that Dayton had a prospect for another newspaper soon. Dundee and Rays Landing will probably bid for the next papers to be started in Yamhill.
Chas. H. Merryman, of Philomath, advanced agent for Bishop Becker, of the United Brethren church, who is lecturing at college towns in the state, was in Newberg last Thursday and Friday. He arranged for a lecture here on next Monday night. Subject, "500 Miles on Horseback through Palestine."
Bishop H. J. Becker, of the United Brethren church will deliver a lecture at Friends' church next Monday night on his travels through the Holy Land. Admission 15 cents, children under 12 years 10 cents. Bishop Becker, who is from Akron, Ohio, is said to be one of the best lecturers in the field. Don't fail to hear him.

A. T. HILL, P. M.

"Our holiday stock will make friends, outline rivals, please everybody, and sell itself on its merits. Don't wait, the beautiful display is ready, call and see novelties, new ideas, varieties, oddities, original designs, useful things, beautiful gifts for all people and all ages. Prices bound to please." C. F. MOORE & CO.
If anybody thinks the people of Newberg are going to fold their hands and let a couple of bad characters ruin the reputation of the community they are very much mistaken. Lawyers fees divided among the people come light compared with the depreciation of property values. School houses without saloons is the motto Newberg has adopted and we propose to stick to it.
A man named Rosecrans was arraigned the other day at Hillsboro for trespassing on another man's land, found guilty and fined $30. He repeated the offense the next day, and was arrested and fined $50. This last fine is being paid out with the sheriff. There is a general complaint among land owners about town of hunters trespassing. A few lessons like the above will have a very wholesome effect.
The necessity of confining the crazy man taken on our streets last Saturday brought fresh to the knowledge of the people of this town the almonable condition of that institution which we call the city jail. A lunatic or a law breaker even, has some rights which we should respect, and this community cannot afford to let this matter drop, without taking some means to remedy the condition of things there.
Mrs. Philander Gard was a pleasant caller Wednesday. She has our thanks for a beautiful bouquet cut from her garden. Among them are two varieties of roses, one geranium, variegated myrtle, immortelles, chrysanthemums, marigold, dahlias and verbenas. This for the benefit of those of our readers in the east, who are shivering with cold, and covering up their house plants with every night to keep them from freezing.
There is a man who don't live many thousand miles from Newberg, who when he has anything to say on the gin question, is always on the wrong side. We are sorry to say it, for we deplore the situation, but the chances are that he will have good cause to regret his course in the near future. The face of that man's boy is already beginning to show the effects of strong drink. Facts are sometimes very stubborn things.
About the best thing we have heard yet (and it comes so straight that we can give the authority if necessary), is that a number of fellows around town agreed to stand by the saloon men if they would start business here, but they found it was so unpopular that they have gone back on their agreement. The GRAPHIC said long ago that the saloon business was unpopular in Newberg. Our friends, the enemy had better read up and find the pulse of the people before they go into any rash agreements.
There was quite a breeze of excitement on our streets last Saturday, caused by the appearance in town of one Win. Chenoweth, a lunatic, who had escaped from the asylum at Salem. The home of the unfortunate man is in Willowa county, where he has a good farm and a fine family. His insanity was caused by over beating himself last harvest handling wheat. He is an old friend of Jonathan Volav and no doubt is what brought him here. He was confined in the city jail by marshal Woods during the afternoon and on Sunday. On Saturday night he was given a bed over J. T. Smith's store while marshal Woods and others watched below. During the night he became very violent and demolished all the windows in the room and broke a heating stove into smithereens, beside doing other damage. An attendant arrived from the asylum on Sunday afternoon and took him away.

For diarrhoea or summer complaint in any form, there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mrs. Nancy Berry, of Adams, Lawrence Co., Kentucky, says one dose cured her of an attack of diarrhoea. Two or three doses will cure any ordinary case. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co.
Notice to Tax Payers.
Notice is hereby given that the assessment roll of the town of Newberg has been placed in my hands for collection and can be paid at the Recorders office. Such assessment will become delinquent 60 days from the date in this notice mentioned. Given under my hand this 13th day of October, 1891.

Marshal of the town of Newberg.
PUBLIC SCHOOL ITEMS.
Lucy Scott, Charles Rittenhouse, Albert George and Willie Hess are the new pupils registered in Mrs. Martin's room this week.
We think that the rainy weather could be well spent by those who are shut in from their work, by visiting the school. Visitors are always welcome.
Elsa McCrea, Edie and Millie Moffit have returned to school, after being absent for some time.
The school will give an entertainment at the close of the term, before the holidays.
Mr. Cook and Pete Younger visited the school last Tuesday.
Miss Winnie Kauffman was a visitor in Prof. Hodson's room last Tuesday.
Mrs. Martin's and Prof. Hodson's rooms adjourned last Monday in order to attend the mass meeting.
A Robbery Committed.
Mr. Kauffman, who came here a short time ago, and who is a friend of Elsie Smith, was robbed of his ready cash at the Newberg House Tuesday night. The door opens into his room at the head of the stairs and the bed stands with the head to the right of the door. Mr. Kauffman says he did not lock his door on going to bed, thinking it unnecessary, but threw his pants across the head of the bed. In the morning his pants were found at the bottom of the stairway, minus his purse, which contained two dollars and a two and a half piece all in gold. He says this is the first time he has ever been robbed and in a place where he would least expect it. The robbery was no doubt committed by some one acquainted with the house and knew where to go, and we think the proprietor of the hotel, Mr. Woods, has grave suspicions that he would not care to disclose at present at least.
We understand that Mr. Kauffman is a practical hotel man and that he has been negotiating for the Arlington hotel.

Anti-Saloon Mass Meeting.
On last Friday afternoon about forty ladies gathered at the Presbyterian church to consider the saloon question. After due consideration they went to the saloon and had a talk with the proprietors but as might have been expected without accomplishing anything. On Saturday it was decided to call a mass meeting, which was accordingly announced for Monday at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. At this hour on Monday, although the rain was an old fashioned down pour, the church was filled with a throng of people gathered on the walk.
On motion, the crowd changed to Friends' church, where more room could be had. Three hundred and fifty people, with determination plainly written on their countenances, were soon quieted and George Christenson chosen chairman. Mr. Christenson asked to be excused and Miles Reece was chosen in his place. O. C. Emery was elected secretary. J. H. Bowerman stated that he had interviewed the saloonists and they agreed to sell out their stuff and leave if the people would buy. Such a proposition from the saloon men was read, they proposing to leave the valuation to arbitrators, and after discussion, a committee composed of N. C. Christenson, J. T. Smith and N. G. Kirk was appointed to visit the saloon and go into contract to buy the stuff they had on hand, binding them to refrain from starting another grog shop within five miles of Newberg. J. M. Tice was unanimously chosen as arbitrator for the meeting and instructed to go with the committee. While the committee was gone, Mrs. Cox delivered a very interesting lecture, reviewing her experiences in fighting whiskey in Kansas. In course of a one hour the committee returned and announced that the saloon men wanted $250 damages for malicious prosecution. From that moment the meeting dropped all thought of negotiations and started in to fight it out on a different line. An injunction suit to close the thing as a public nuisance was next considered which met with approval by the majority and a petition to that effect was circulated and signed. A committee composed of Jesse Edwards, Aaron Bray, N. C. Christenson, Samuel Holson, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Lyle was appointed to look after the prosecution. The meeting was harmonious throughout the whole two and a half hours and if anybody was there through curiosity alone they were certainly convinced that the people are thoroughly in earnest in this matter.

Mr. Thomas Batte, Editor of The Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co.
NATIONAL REMEDY CO.
David W. Martin, general agent for the National Remedy Co. wishes to announce that he now has two agents in Newberg for the sale of his medicines. Mrs. Mary Holson, on south Meridian street, near the fair grounds, and Mrs. Cox, on First street, one door west of Presbyterian church, are his only authorized agents, who have and will hereafter keep on hand a full supply of the above-named remedies.
