murder in the first degree at Sacramento.
He was connected with the conspiracy to rob and murder R. Allen for his money. Smith's co-conspirators are under sentence for murder in the second degree.

Every report says that such an acreage of wheat and barley as is now in the ground has never before been planted in this section of California. Thousands of acres in San Bernardino county have never produced anything but sagebrush have been planted to barley because of the high market there has been for that grain this season.

Marcus Pollasky's surveyors have started by the Mud River route to examine the country between Eureka and Red Bluff, Cal., for the proposed railroad construction. There is a division of opinion at Eureka as to the earnestness of Pollasky and his backers in this move, and the general disposition is to aid the undertaking and give it a trial.

J. E. Gaiden, a brakeman, found specimens of quartz-bearing free gold in the Truckee river recently.
There is considerable excitement at Truckee over the find, for it is in the direction of the old mining town of Knoxville, which formerly numbered hundreds of inhabitants. In early days it was known that a ledge existed, but it could not be found. Gaiden and his friends have located claims.

The North American Commercial Company is establishing a coaling and supply station at Dutch Harbor, Alaska.
The barkentine C. G. Frank has sailed for that place, laden with lumber and a miscellaneous cargo and eight workmen, who will construct a wharf for the accommodation of the whaling fleet and escort cutter. The ship America, now at San Francisco, will proceed to Nainaino and load a cargo of 1,200 tons of coal for temporary use at Dutch Harbor. There are some excellent coal mines near that place, which the company proposes to develop next summer. It is the intention to make Dutch Harbor the remains for whaling vessels, where general supplies can be furnished. The revenue cutter and war vessels will probably take their fuel at that point.

PERSONAL MENTION.

King Humbert of Italy to Visit England—P. deowski the Recipient of a Silver Wreath.

Ignatius Donnelly has enphered out a new theory about the grip. He thinks it is caused by star dust through which the earth passes.

President Harrison gets up his State papers in a legal and red-tape style, just as if he were preparing briefs. They are neat, compact and concise.

General Gourka, Governor-General of Russian Poland, is a hale and vigorous soldier of 64 years, and he is not going to resign his place as has been reported.
The czar knows his value too well.

Rev. J. C. Scherwin, a Congregationalist minister, who died last week at Eau Claire, Wis., was a noted hunter, and was for many years generally considered the best rifle shot in the Northwest.

The birthday anniversary of the Emperor of Russia, who is 47 years of age, is also the wedding anniversary of the Prince of Wales, who has now been the husband of the Princess Alexandra for twenty-nine years.

King Humbert's approaching visit to England is said to be due to the gratitude he feels when he recalls that Queen Victoria was the first of the European sovereigns to recognize the young kingdom of Italy thirty or more years ago.

The only survivor of the brave band of Texan patriots who signed the Declaration of Texas Independence at Washington on the Brazos river March 2, 1836, is W. C. Crawford, who now at the age of 86 is living in destitution at Alvarado.

Paderewski has been presented by his Boston admirers with a beautiful wreath of laurel in silver. They were considerate enough not to insist that he should wear it as the Roman conquerors wore theirs. They did not want to disarrange his hair.

Prince Bismarck may flatter himself that he has thousands of admirers in this country, but the fact that America is the only nation on earth that has not contributed to his monument fund would indicate that German-Americans are not very urgent in showing their respect for him.

The Empress of Germany is in the habit of writing for a few minutes daily in her diary. Nobody ever sees the contents of her diary—not even the Emperor. At the close of the year a new diary is opened, and the old one, which has a locked cover, is consigned to the iron safe containing her Majesty's domestic correspondence.

M. C. Creedy, the owner of the Last Chance and Monarch mines at the new is a native of Illinois, who settled in Colorado in 1870. He is a man slightly above medium height, lean and of a sandy complexion, and is 50 years of age, although he looks much younger. After prospecting for twenty years all over the State he now finds himself a millionaire.

Some of the most scholars delight in the collection of pamphlets. Indeed there are pamphlets which attracted little notice at the time of their publication a century ago that are now worth a hundred times the price they asked for them. Dr. Edward Everett Hale is one of the pamphlet collectors. He keeps his in a series of baskets suspended by ropes at a distance from the beams in the ceiling of his study.
