A ride over the roads from here to McMinnville last Saturday, revealed the fact that some very efficient work is being done on the roads under the new system. Let the good work go on.

Parties wanting stock bills printed in the spring will do well to call at this office and see what a large display of cuts we have to select from. We will be glad to show samples of our work.

Don't be a sheep and wear hot clothing in these torrid days and blood thinning evenings. Get some of Kay & Todd's Light Weight and very stylish clothing that they are selling so cheap.

Austin & Thomas moved to their new bakery on First street last Tuesday. Everything is in ship shape at the new stand. They intend running a restaurant in connection with the bakery.

A brother of S. W. Calkins, the furniture dealer, arrived here last Friday evening from Nebraska. He comes for the purpose of sizing up our country with a view of making his home here if he is satisfied with the outlook. Hope he may not see through a glass darkly.

Z. J. Jagger, with his wife and son, who have been sojourning with us the past year left for their home at Gothenburg, Nebraska this week. We would have been glad to have them make a permanent home here and still hope they may conclude to return to Newberg.

At the republican county convention held at McMinnville, on last Saturday, the following named gentlemen were elected to attend the state convention to be held in Portland April 28, viz: Cephas Maris, Newberg; Fred Crawford, Dayton; P. P. Gates, LaFayette; Lee Laughlin, North Yamhill; J. W. Hobbs, North McMinnville; J. E. Magers, South McMinnville; J. J. Henderson, South Yamhill; T. Graves, Sheridan.

The A. O. U. W. of this place organized an Honor or Ladies' degree lodge last Wednesday evening with a strong membership. Mr. Newton Clark, of Portland, a prominent Workman, came up to set them to going in good order.

Harlon Ong returned from Portland the first of the week with a complete model of his motor. He was fortunate enough to get one made in Portland which saved him the trouble and expense of going to Chicago. It works to perfection.

Parties are figuring on putting in a steam laundry in town. Seeing there is considerable laundry work sent to Portland, it looks like an enterprise of this kind ought to succeed here from the start. Wash and be clean, is a text that is always appropriate.

Daniel Blair, of New Providence, Iowa, arrived here last week with his family. He rented his Iowa farm for two years and comes to see Oregon as it is. Hope his anticipations will be fully realized. Mr. Blair is a brother of Enos and Marcus Blair west of town.

The services of E. P. Leavitt, who has so long been a sufferer from rheumatism, have been recognized at last by Uncle Sam, in the shape of a pension. To no one could it have been more welcome, nor do we know of anyone in town more deserving than Mr. Leavitt.

"Merchandise qui plat est a demi vendue." That's French, it means Well. Its our belief too. What is it? Goods which please "are already Half Sold." If we did not keep buying, we would never have but half a Stock. According to this, our goods please, that's why.

KAY & TODD. Mrs. S. R. Davis, the Main street milliner, has a fine new stock of spring millinery which she invites the ladies of Newberg to call and inspect. She feels assured that a careful inspection of her stock will convince you that she is able to offer you the very latest novelties at the very lowest price.

A young gentleman named Robinson was here Monday from Portland, making a delivery of R. L. Polk & Co's Gazetteer and Business Directory for 1892, for Oregon, Washington and Idaho. They are a little off on the statement regarding Newberg when they state that the bonded indebtedness is $2,000. The fact is Newberg don't owe a cent.

Carter & Christenson have just bought from an eastern drummer, one of the finest stocks of dry goods, dress goods, etc., ever brought to Newberg. They will be here in about 20 days. You should wait and see them before making your spring purchases, as you will be pleased and save money besides.

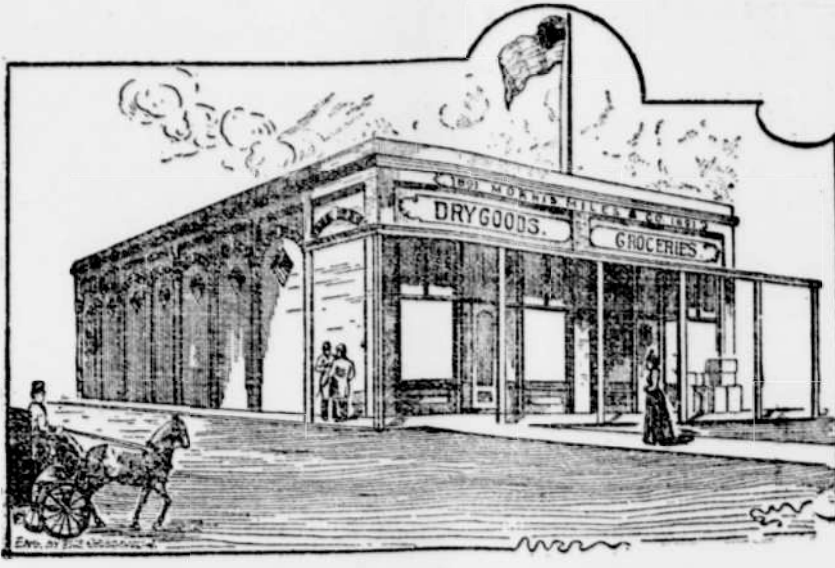

CARTER & CHRISTENSON. D. Tallman showed us a sample job of plastering done by him on his new house on Wynoski street this week, which he says will not crack, even in our Oregon climate. It seems to be thoroughly dry and hard, with not a crack to be seen. Mr. Tallman has had considerable experience in this line, and expects to put in his time at it the coming season.

For Sale. 46 acres of land, two miles from Newberg. Good house and barn and good water. 15 acres in orchard of prunes, peaches and apples. Splendid soil. Or will rent to a reliable party.

A. K. COOPER & CO. From Amity. AMITY, March 27, '92.—The members and friends of the W. C. T. U. of Newberg will be glad to hear of the success attending the meetings of their townsman and co-worker, Mrs. Cox.

She captured all our hearts at Amity and the good seed she has sown is already bearing fruit. Six honoraries from among our substantial citizens, and three young boys, donned the White Ribbon. Several whose feet had become entangled in the net have escaped and others are awakened and see the snare in which they are taken and we are hoping and praying that they too may break the chains which bind them.

Mrs. S. A. McKee.

Messrs. Wollenberger and Huckins, the prohibition speaker and singer, were greeted by a full house at Armory hall last Thursday evening. Mr. Wollenberger is a very pleasant and forcible talker, giving his views on the liquor question from a party prohibition standpoint in a clear and forcible manner. Prof. Huckins, with his songs, added materially to the life of the meeting.

On account of a sudden illness, Rev. C. M. Hill was obliged to leave the meetings he was holding in the Baptist Church, and return to Portland last week. The meetings were then carried on by Miss Voss until Monday night, when they closed, as Miss Voss had to fill an appointment in Portland this week. Much interest was taken in these meetings and great good was done.

D. W. and E. W. Dunbar, old friends of Alex. Acheson and family, arrived here last week from Janesville, Wis. They brought with them a stock of farm implements, wagons and harness, and have opened up for business in H. L. Christensen's building on Main street. E. W. was here last summer, and bought ten acres of Mr. Cobb's fine young orchard. The GRAPHIC bids them a hearty welcome.

Messrs. Cago & Sherman, of Alexander, Texas write us regarding a remarkable cure of rheumatism there as follows: "The wife of Wm. Pruitt, the Postmaster here, had been bed ridden with rheumatism for several years. She could get nothing to do her any good. We sold her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and she was completely cured by its use. We refer any one to her to verify this statement." 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists.

For Sale. Sarah Ann Hodson, was the oldest child of Matthew and Hannah Hodson, and was born in Clinton County, Ohio, July 20th, 1822. She died at her family residence near Newberg, Yamhill County Oregon, March 23rd, 1892, being 69 years 7 months and 22 days of age. She was married to Joseph Hoskins, September 27th, 1841, and resided for many years near the place of her birth. They moved to Indiana in 1861, where they resided fifteen years, removing to Oregon in 1879. She was the mother of three sons and one daughter, the latter having preceded her to the higher life in early womanhood. She with her venerable husband, surviving children and numerous friends and relatives joined in celebrating their Golden Wedding on the 27th of September last. She has now left husband, three sons, one brother, one sister and a large number of other relatives and friends, who with united voice, speak the love they bear her and rejoice to realize that in higher life the mortal has put on immortality and entered into rest to go no more out forever. J. M. Hodson.

Announcement. Bishop W. M. Stanford of Harrisburg, PA., will preach in Yamhill county at the following places:—Newberg, April 1st, evening. Hewitt school house, Apr. 2nd, Pleasant Dale, Apr. 3rd, at 10 a. m. Dayton, Apr. 5th, at 3 p. m. LaFayette, Apr. 3rd, at 7:30 p. m.

REV. M. J. BALLANTYNE, LaFayette, Or.

Another Church Dedicated. As per announcement in last week's GRAPHIC the new M. E. Church was dedicated last Sunday, the 27th. The dedication services began at 11 a. m., before which hour, every foot of room was occupied. Rev. Harrington of Portland, delivered a very interesting and practical sermon, replete with good advice to christian people. Rev. E. S. Craven then made a statement of the cost of the building and grounds, which amounted to $1,000. $700 of this had been raised in various ways, leaving only $300 to raise to enable them to dedicate the church free from debt. To raise this amount it was decided to divide this sum into sixty shares of $5.00 each. This was quickly and easily raised, aside from the collection which was taken. Rev. Fishburn offered a dedicatory prayer, asking God's blessing upon the church, and success in its mission of doing good. The trustees then presented the church for the final services of dedication which was performed by Rev. Harrington according to Methodist custom. Thus our little town can boast of another house of worship, dedicated to the service of God. The church membership who find here a home, numbers about sixty, and embraces some among the best people of our town. The reason the church cost more than was at first anticipated is that it was decided to build a spire, which when completed necessitated the purchase of a bell, and a few other minor expenses usually overlooked at such a time. It is one of the neatest, most homelike churches in town, well lighted and ventilated, and altogether one of which the Methodists may well feel proud. Rev. McLaughlin, the pastor, serves the people here free of charge for one year as his donation. The church will be known as the Elizabeth M. E. Church, of Newberg, having been named by a lady member who gave quite liberally to the building fund. A Sabbath school will be organized next Sabbath, to meet regularly hereafter. Rev. Fishburn an evangelist, has been conducting revival services in the new church during the week. So it is plain to see that it is here for work in dead earnest. The GRAPHIC wishes it the success it merits in all good work.

James Mitchell, who is farming the Arthur McPhillips place, has a ewe that is the mother of four lambs, all in a thriving condition. The birth of three lambs is quite common, but four is an unusual occurrence.—Reporter.

NATIONAL REMEDY CO. David W. Martin, general agent for the National Remedy Co. wishes to announce that he now has two agents in Newberg for the sale of his medicines. Mrs. Mary Hodson, on South Meridian street, near the fair grounds, and Mrs. Cox, on First street, one door west of Presbyterian church, are his only authorized agents, who have and will hereafter keep on hand a full supply of the above named remedies. sep19m2d1m
