Laundry goes Tuesday. A. T. Hill. Spraying machines at J. H. Townsend's. For a first class shave or hair-cut go to J. L. Myers. All kinds of farm implements at J. H. Townsend's. Try W. P. Heacock for nails and builders hardware. Pres. Newlin preached at Dundee last Sunday night. Kay & Todd's is the cheapest clothing house in the Valley. Go to Myers' barber shop for shaving, shampooing and hair-cutting. Go and see the Nobby line of Furnishing Goods Kay & Todd have. Before you go east it will be to your interest to call at the GRAPHIC office. Sidewalk lumber $8.00 per thousand. DOBBS & CO'S. Henry Votaw, of Tacoma, has been here during the week visiting his relatives. R. J. Spencer, of Portland, spent last Sunday in town and was the guest of John Brown. Before you start east to grow up with the country, call at this office and get rates over the Northern Pacific. John B. Fuson of Dayton, came down last Tuesday to visit Joseph Hoskins who has been sick for several weeks. C. N. Scott formerly receiver for the Oregonian railroad who is now working real estate, was in town last week. The boys now have the ball ground in good shape, and are only waiting for an opportunity to wallop some visiting club, or vice versa. Charley Spaulding, of Newberg has purchased the J. J. Wood's place, one mile south of Dayton on the Wheatland road.—Herald. For neat job printing the GRAPHIC office is in the lead. The large amount of job work turned out in the past few weeks is evidence of this fact. C. H. Powell has purchased the east side meat market of W. A. Lyon, and invites you to call and see him when in need of anything in his line. Spencer Haworth's wife and children arrived here from eastern Washington last week, and they are now settled in their new home on Wynooki street. John Wright informs us that the Sons of Veterans will run an excursion boat from Portland to Astoria to attend the celebration of the discovery of the Columbia. J. M. Tice is ready for all kinds of work in his line, including painting, staining, graining, paper hanging, etc. All work guaranteed first class or no pay. Prices reasonable. The best spring medicine is a dose or two of St. Patrick's Pills. They not only physic but cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists. Steps are being taken to widen First street to eighty feet. This is a step in the right direction. We hope to see First and Main streets put in a condition that will make travel easier in the winter season. The card of Dr. H. J. Littlefield will be found in this issue. The young doctor graduated at the head of his class a short time ago, and bids fair for keeping up the reputation of the family for successful physicians. A gentleman named Jackson, from Minnesota, was here yesterday with a friend of his from Portland named Ornduff, looking at the country. Mr. Jackson is an old friend of A. I. Rhodes, who lives out north of town. Harrison Crater returned the first of the week from a trip of nearly three months time, to Southern California. This is Mr. Crater's second trip to this sunny clime and he is much pleased with the climate in the winter. H. A. Cornell, a nephew of L. A. Cornell of our town, is here from Seattle. Being a veterinary surgeon, he announces that he will be at Rogers' livery stable for a short time where he may be consulted by stock owners. Samuel Holson received some Wyandotte eggs from Pleasant Plain, Iowa, last week and is expecting some Plymouth Rock and Partridge Cochins eggs from the same place. Sam already has some fine chickens but he is never satisfied without the best. The delegates who attended the State Horticultural meeting at Grants Pass last week report a very pleasant trip and a profitable meeting. They failed to find any better location for fruit raising however than we have in Chehalis Valley. Such a place will be hard to find on the Pacific coast. The two young men who lately went from Dayton to Newberg to take a couple of their lady acquaintances to a dance, were set back when they were informed that the young ladies had joined the church. Instead of going to the dance they attended church with the young men. 'Tis well.—Herald. Revival services have been in progress at Friends' church during the week. Able sermons have been preached by Rev. J. H. Douglas each afternoon and evening and considerable interest is being manifested. The meetings will be continued until further notice. A general invitation is extended to all to attend. Thomas Duncan is going down to the river below Portland in a few days to fish for cat fish and if he is as successful as he was on his last trip he will bring back a wagon load to sell out. He says that while it has only been two years since they were put in the river, the water is alive with them and it only takes a very short time to catch a tub full. Tom has been contracted with to bring up a lot of live ones to put into the river here, and the way they multiply we will soon have excellent fishing at home.

Land plaster for sale by W. P. Heacock. Boys and mens hats at three-fourths value at Barries. G. W. Mitchell and lady went to the city last Tuesday. Save money by buying seeds in bulk at J. H. Townsend's. Gauze and merino underwear and umbrellas at Barries. Boys and mens unlaundred shirts, 30 and 40 and 60 cents at Barries. Blank books and stationery, slate and lead pencils at half price. Barrie. Jewelry in large variety, at bed rock prices. J. BARRIE, Bank Bldg. Mens and womens jewelry, watches and fine gold pens and cases, cheap at Barrie. Come and see that new lot of pocket cutlery, the best ever brought to Newberg, at Mount's. Elmer Washburn and a schoolmate of his named Boebee of Portland were up last week. Miles Reece was surveying for Amos Nelson of West Chehalis last Friday and Saturday. If you think of going east you will find it to your interest to call at the GRAPHIC office for information. Rev. J. H. Douglas went to Salem last week to attend the monthly meeting of Friends' Church in that city. Doors and windows, all sizes and thicknesses, either sugar, pine or cedar. DEPOT LUMBER YARD. A prohibition speaker from Seattle, Calderwood by name, spoke at Armory hall on Monday night. These fine bright days make business rather dull in town, as our country cousins are too busy with spring work to come in except on urgent business. F. A. Morris and lady contemplate an extended visit to relatives in Indiana and Illinois, in about a month. They will probably be gone for several weeks. Rev. Powell of the Christian church closed his services last Sunday night after a very successful series. In the future services will be held in Maris' hall. F. E. Hobson, Warren Robertson, Mrs. Mount, Lon Hill and Carl Stanley went to Portland Tuesday afternoon to hear the Marine Band, of Washington City, play. Charley Moore has gone into the profile business. His first impression was taken Wednesday morning in front of Wilson's grocery. A change of clothing was necessary. Elder Dallas, of the Christian church, will preach in Maris' hall Sunday April 24th, at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 3 o'clock. All are cordially invited. Prof. Hartley attended the teacher's institute at Sheridan last Saturday and reports a very interesting time. He remained over Sunday and held services during the day and evening. Tax payers who have failed to settle with the sheriff had better look a little out as the hour hath arrived when forbearance ceases to be a virtue. The delinquent list is being prepared. Rev. Curran, a student of LaFayette seminary, who will finish the course this year, is now located here as pastor of the Evangelical church. We understand he will make his home with John Hasis. Fishing for the musical frog, in front of the post office, has been a favorite pastime during the past week. We hope road master Macy will open up the ditches soon and let the stagnant water seek a lower level. The next regular meeting of the prohibition club will be held Saturday evening, April 23, in G. A. R. hall. Matters of importance to be considered. Let there be a full attendance. COMMITTEE. Richard Haworth, of Quaker Point, Indiana, a brother of Justin Haworth, arrived here last week. Mr. Haworth is a graduate of Earlham college, being one of the class with Miss Lorena Townsend last year. We understand he comes with the intention of making Oregon his home. G. I. Sargent, secretary of the state horticultural society came up Wednesday, and will spend about a week in this vicinity in the interest of the state commission as fruit inspector. We hope everybody will assist Mr. Sargent in every possible way so that he may do effective work while here. Miss Maggie Inglis opened a kindergarten school last Monday morning in the building formerly occupied by C. F. Moore & Co. Miss Inglis is a very successful teacher in this kind of work and parents need have no fears of putting their darlings in her care. About thirty little tots are already in attendance. The columns of the GRAPHIC have always been open for church and Sunday school notices and programs of various kinds, but some people forget that matter for a newspaper can't all be set up the last hour before going to press. In the future, programs must be furnished us not later than Wednesday noon, or no go. Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of the state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Mr. Brownell of Oregon City delivered a speech, from a Republican stand point, last Friday night, at Armory hall.

Samuel Gause, Calvin Dixon, and Mr. Elliott bought thirty acres of fruit land east of town, this week, of the Yamhill Land Co.

Don't forget that Delphina E. Ellis still keeps Stationery and Notions for sale, also pretty sea-moss and shell bouquets and Oregon coast foliage bouquets, fifteen varieties in each box. Call and see them at one of the cottages near Friends' boarding hall, Newberg, Oregon.

A number of members of Friends Church, who live out north-east of town, are arranging to build a church this season. John Brown has donated a building site on the north end of his farm, which is a very slightly location and well located for the convenience of the members. We are glad to see this step being taken.

Pacific College has made such a growth during the past year, that all the buildings are now wanted for school purposes, including the hall, which has been used for church and Sunday school. This with the large increase in membership makes the building of a new church this season an absolute necessity. Jesse Edwards, Andrew Pickett, B. C. Miles, Mrs. Mary L. Hoskins and E. H. Woodward have been appointed as a building committee. The size and cost the building has not been determined, but it will be the largest and best church building in the county.

For Sale, Land. 5 acre tracts. One mile north of Bank. G. A. PRENTISS.

Wanted. A drain tile factory wanted. Thriving town. Farmers anxious and well assisted. For particulars inquire at home of L. A. Dennick, one mile southeast of Corvallis, Oregon.

For Sale. 46 acres of land, two miles from Newberg. Good house and barn and good water. 15 acres in orchard of prunes, peaches and apples. Splendid soil. Or will rent to a reliable party. A. K. COOPER & CO.

To the Public. Family washing 25 cents per dozen, washing and ironing 30 cents, fine shirts 10 cents, single garments 5 cents. Thanking you for past favors we ask a continuance of your patronage. MARY J. HOBSON.

Sudden Death. Susan McCollum, wife of William McCollum, died suddenly at their home north of town last Monday evening about five o'clock. She had been an invalid for several years, her sufferings being most intense at times. They had built a home lately on a piece of land near their son-in-law, Andrew Pickett, and the day of her death were making preparations to move to their new home. The funeral took place at Friends' church on Tuesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Prof. Hartley.

Last Thursday Justice Baxter and the following jury, J. Turner, L. Fryer, H. D. Ponney, O. Hatfield, J. Baxter, Z. Spangle, were engaged in hearing the case of the State against W. T. Pillman, who was charged with burying a colt near a well used for domestic purposes. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty, and Mr. Pillman was discharged. Attorney J. H. Flower appeared for Mr. Pillman. The verdict was a surprise to many, as the defendant admitted burying the colt at the place named; and afterwards digging it up and putting it up in the loft of his barn and covering it with straw.—Herald.

Notice to House Movers. Parties who are prepared to move buildings will do well to confer with the Trustees of Pacific College immediately.

G. A. E. Attention. There will be a special meeting of Kilpatrick Post, G. A. R., on Wednesday, April 27. Business of importance is to be considered, and all members are requested to be present. C. L. BALLARD, Adjutant.

Easter Surprise. Through the columns of the GRAPHIC we wish to extend to our many friends in Newberg, our heartfelt thanks for the beautiful supply of groceries sent us on Saturday evening and Sunday morning. May God reward you for your timely kindness in our prayer. SUSANMAI ELLIS AND FAMILY.

Sad Accident at Elk Rock. A sad accident occurred at Elk Rock on the Oregonian railroad last Wednesday morning in which an elderly gentleman named Dressler, residing in the vicinity of Oswego, lost his life. As the mail train which leaves Portland at 9:40 in the morning was rounding the point at Elk Rock trestle, the engineer sighted a footman on the trestle. He blew the whistle and reversed the engine but before he could stop the train, the engine was upon the man and he was crushed and ground to pieces by the engine and one or two cars that passed over him. The remains were gathered up and carried to Oswego on the train where the body was identified as that of one Mr. Dressler. The opinion prevails that the unfortunate man lost his presence of mind, when he saw the train approaching, as it would have been easy for him to have stood on the timber at the side of the railing if he had tried.

A Half Hour with the Heathen by Six Children in Costumes Representing the Different Countries. The Alaska Homes. Mahala Weesmer. Recitation, showing the Condition of India's Daughters, by Edith Ellis in India Costume.

Recitation showing how the Condition of India's Daughters may be relieved, by Gertie Craven. Recitation, Counting the Pennies, by a little boy. Select Reading. Melinda Craven. An Appeal in Behalf of mite boxes, M. E. K. Edwards.

Closing Song. ANNA D. STADLER, Pres. County W. C. T. U. Convention. The annual convention of Yamhill Co. W. C. T. U. convened at Carlton on the 12th and 13th of April, with the president Mrs. Edwards in the chair. After a sesson of very profitable devotional exercises the work of the convention was taken up. The reports showed nineteen delegates present, which number was soon increased to twenty-four. The nine unions of the county (with a membership of three hundred) were all present but two, and one of those sent in a report. The department work was taken up and discussed by madames Harford, Unruh, and Edwards. Others also made remarks on the subjects of health and heredity, prison and jail work, fairs and public gatherings, narcotics, mothers meetings, impurity in literature and art, social purity, juvenile work, Sabbath observance, and Sabbath School work. It was stated that there were several kinds of deadly poison in cigarettes of which the abominably vulgar pictures with each package were by no means the least. It was also stated there is opium in chewing gum, and whiskey in candy. Parents were warned to be on the alert for these things, and also for the obscene literature that is being scattered broadcast among the children to their ruin, by the emissaries of Satan. It was stated that forty-three tons of said literature had been destroyed in one city. Surely it is needful for mothers to combine to fight these monsters who are threatening to invade the homes of the nation in one common ruin. Devotional exercises at the opening session Tuesday afternoon, were led by Mrs. McClachlin of LaFayette; Wednesday morning, by Mrs. Blair of Newberg, and at the afternoon session by the writer. Mrs. Edwards was re-elected president, and Miss Inglis of Newberg, was elected secretary, and Mrs. Fox Whiteson, treasurer. Resolutions were adopted condemning the whiskey traffic, and rum rule in the nation, and impurity in literature and art, and favoring woman suffrage. The public meetings were very interesting, and of welcome to the president of Carlton union, Mrs. Shelton, was excellent, also the response by Mrs. Unruh. On the last evening the addresses of Mrs. Harford and Mrs. Unruh were able and well received, their frequent telling hits and witticisms, bringing down the house with laughter, hand-clapping and stamping. The singing by the children was delightful and inspiring. The writer only learned the name of one of them, Master George McCutcheon, the little son of the Baptist minister of the place, whose singing deserves special mention. He looks every inch a gentleman. We think he is "the kind of stuff men are made of" and predict a bright future of usefulness for him. The W. C. T. U. of Carlton gave the convention a royal welcome and the best of entertainment. May God bless their big hearts and willing hands. The closing address by Mrs. Edwards was sublimely beautiful. Gentle reader if you have lost faith in humanity and felt that life is not worth living, just go to a W. C. T. U. convention and get filled up with inspiration and good cheer, and go to work with fresh zeal for God and home and native land. Mrs. CYRUS BULL, Co. Press Rep., Sheridan, Ogn.
