Local Events.

Laundry goes Tuesday. A. T. Hill, Ab. Hoskins is again able to be about. Spraying machines at J. H. Townsend's. For a first class shave or haircut go to J. L. Myers. All kinds of farm implements at J. H. Townsend's. Charley Trice of Middleton, was in town Tuesday night. Try W. P. Heacock for nails and builder's hardware. Mr. Todd spent the most of the week in McMinnville. A. M. Hadley returned from Monmouth Wednesday. Charley Moore went to Portland on the Manzanilla Thursday. Jesse Hobson and family, of Portland, were in town over Sunday. Before you go east it will be to your interest to call at the Graphic office. Sidewalk lumber $8.00 per thousand. DORRANCE BROS. James Hamnett is shipping about forty thousand, or eight car loads, of brick to Sheridan. Nate Wiley looked in on the Democratic convention at McMinnville, last Tuesday. F. A. Morris went to the city on business last Tuesday by way of the steamer Manzanillo. Rev. E. S. Craven is the proud possessor of a well matched pair of black buckgrassers. The steamer Manzanillo will bring salmon up on Thursdays of each week. Remember the dates. Some of the tennis lovers are fitting up a court across the canyon at Samuel Hobson's. It is a fine one. Ab. Hill, our genial post master, contemplates a visit to his old home at Carthage, Indiana, soon. Bert Weesner spent Sunday and Monday with his friends in Newberg, returning to Monmouth Tuesday. S. Hobson, the photographer went up on the Red Hills last Friday to get a bird's-eye view of Newberg. Before you start east to grow up with the country, call at this office and get rates over the Northern Pacific. Will we have a walk from the limits of the corporation on River Street to the boat landing? What do you say? Miss Laura Bales returned last Saturday from a visit of two weeks with her sister at Scotts Mills in Marion County. Mrs. Alair, of Eugene, and Mrs. Gavo, of Portland, were in town over Sunday visiting their sister Mrs. J. H. Townsend. Dell Cox has had an offer of a position as clerk in a grocery store at Long Beach, California, which he will probably accept. The Newberg nursery presents quite a lively appearance now, a good force of hands being necessary to keep the weeds down. Capt. O. S. Waud and Purser A. Fuller of the Manzanillo, together with a small company of Oregon City people, visited Newberg Sunday. For neat job printing the Graphic office is in the lead. The large amount of job work turned out in the past few weeks is evidence of this fact. See the ad. of Carter & Christenson in this issue. They have just received an immense stock of seasonal goods, and are offering some real bargains. Harvey Dorrance is giving good measure in lumber this week. He is feeling very happy over the appearance of a fine girl baby at his house on April 27th. Amos Stanbrough returned Saturday from Aurora, and will again take up his abode among us. He and Eli Haworth will run a well boring machine this summer. An examination of the fruit trees about town reveals the fact that neither the cold rains nor the late frosts have seriously injured even the tenderest varieties of fruits. J. M. Tice is ready for all kinds of work in his line, including painting, staining, graining, paper hanging, etc. All work guaranteed first class or no pay. Prices reasonable. Mr. C. S. Phillips, of eastern Oregon, a brother-in-law of John Atkinson, bought Rev. E. S. Craven's town property last Monday, and will make his home in Newberg hereafter. The best spring medicine is a dose or two of St. Patrick's Pills. They not only physic but cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists. Master Uda Waldrop, of Portland, was in town Monday making arrangements for one of their popular concerts some time next week. He is the youngest advance agent that ever struck this town, but he is all business. As N. C. Maris is not an Old Fellow, and as he was in Indiana at the time of the Old Fellows' celebration at Lafayette last week the Dayton Health man got a little off in his announcement of the marshal of the day. J. C. Colcord is probably the man he was after.

Land plaster for sale by W. P. Heacock. Have you seen F. E. Hobson's sorrel driving horse? B. S. Cook of Salem was in town a day or two last week. Save money by buying seeds in bulk at J. H. Townsend's. Allen S. Craven and wife were up from Middleton last Tuesday. Jim Rees has the work well along on the Misses Hibbs new house. Dunbar Bros. have put up a stable on their lots in the west end of town. Mr. Gates of McMinnville was in town last Friday posting election notices. Mrs. Vannie Martin returned last Friday from a visit among friends at Salem. Mitch Dorrance, who has been in Portland for some weeks past, returned Monday.

Come and see that new lot of pocket cutlery, the best ever brought to Newberg, at Mount's. Mrs. Anna Christenson is building a neat cottage just across the street from her son H. L. Road Supervisor Macy has been filling in some of the bad mudholes on First Street, this week. Dunbar Bros. received a large shipment of wagons and buggies direct from the east last week. The continued rains have made it very difficult for supervisor Macy to finish work on the roads. If you think of going east you will find it to your interest to call at the Graphic office for information. Fred Lashier, of the Whiteson Leader, was in town Monday with the usual smile on his countenance. J. L. Myers is making arrangements to put in a stock of barber's supplies at his shop on Main street. There is no street in town that has made more marked improvement during the past year than River Street. David Crosby, a young man of Scotts Mills, Marion County, was here over Sunday and stopped with B. C. Miles. Doors and windows, all sizes and thicknesses, either sugar, pine or cedar. DEPOT LUMBER YARD. Our friend E. H. Skinner, who was so unfortunate as to sprain an ankle some time ago, is able to hobble about on crutches. W. P. Heacock is driving a big trade in doors, windows and mouldings of late. Parties came from near McMinnville last week to buy doors and windows. Newberg's milliners appear to be doing a better business than any one else in town. Some beautiful headwear may be seen in the show windows about town. The attendance at the regular Sabbath services of the Y. M. C. A. has grown so large that new rooms are needed. The reading table is also being quite liberally patronized of late. With the number of fine poultry raisers there are about Newberg we shall expect to see some of them get a part of the $1000 in premiums to be given at the next State poultry show. A small amount of money would put in a walk from the end of River Street to the boat landing, and what could we invest in that would benefit the town more? Who will take the lead? Miss Mabel David, who has been spending her time at Astoria for the past few months, came home last week in company with Mrs. Maud Patton, who made a short visit with relatives here. Jim Martin, of Lafayette, was in town Wednesday. In the future the Graphic will visit the popular livery firm of Martin & High. The boys drive the best teams that come to Newberg and they are liberally patronized. The stockholders of the Newberg Fair Association met last Monday and elected as a board of directors, H. Cooper, N. C. Maris, J. H. Townsend, J. M. Wright and E. C. Armstrong. Mr. Cooper was elected president, J. M. Wright secretary, J. H. Townsend treasurer and Armstrong and Maris vice-presidents. Jim and Sam Cummins, Henry Cook and a brother-in-law named Thomas, have rented a seven-hundred acre wheat farm in Sacramento valley for three years, and will start for California next week. They are to return to their homes in Oregon when they grow rich. The Graphic wishes them the best of success. John Henley, of Richmond Indiana, who is making a tour of the coast, spent a few days here the first of the week, the guest of J. H. Townsend. He viewed the valley from Chehalis's lofty heights on Tuesday in company with Cyrus Hoskins, and was much pleased with the sight. With a glass they saw a couple of buildings burning on the prairie on the east side. Mrs. Helen B. Harford addressed the people in Dundee and West Chehalis the first of the week. She spoke in Dayton Thursday evening and goes to McMinnville for Friday and Lafayette for Saturday evening. She speaks for the W. C. T. U. in Salem, Albany and Corvallis next week and then into Polk county for a week. At the regular meeting of the city council last Monday night, it was decided to take immediate steps for the drainage of all places within the town limits where standing water is liable to prove detrimental to the health of the people. The good work will begin this week. The improvement of Third street, in Hobson's addition, was ordered. The opening and grading of Hancock street, from Main to Meridian streets, and Meridian street from First to Ninth streets was also authorized. The report of the city surveyor was received and approved, and voters appointed to assess damages and benefits arising from the proposed widening of First street, and opening and grading of Sheridan street. This will give Newberg some decent streets if the work is properly done, and save the people of the town hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills besides.

The W. C. T. U. meets next Thursday at 3:30 P. M. in the Y. M. C. A. hall. Picture frames, mouldings, brackets and many other articles at cost for a short time only, at S. M. Calkins. At the prohibition caucus held in this town last Saturday, Samuel Hobson was nominated for Justice and Chas. Judd for Constable. Prof. Hartley's bear was killed and turned over to the butchers last Friday evening. Dell Cox and a Winchester rifle did the killing. The second quarterly meeting of Friends' church will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 13, 14, and 15th. Program next week. Judge Shaw, of Salem, democratic nominee for Judge of this district, and W. R. Bilyeu, of Albany, democratic nominee for prosecuting attorney, were in town Wednesday, and paid the Graphic a pleasant call. The weather was so unfavorable for farm work during the greater part of April, owing to the continued rains, that farm work has been greatly delayed. For the next few weeks it will be busy times for the farmers. Frank Wood has returned to Oregon again after several months stay in California. He was one of the passengers in the railroad accident on the Southern Pacific near Myrtle Creek April 28th. None of the passengers were injured. Don't forget that Delphina E. Ellis still keeps Stationery and Notions for sale, also pretty sea-moss and shell bouquets and Oregon coast foliage bouquets, fifteen varieties in each box. Call and see them at one of the cottages near Friends' boarding hall, Newberg, Oregon. Last of uncalled for letters in the Post Office at Newberg. Miss Mary Chase, Chas. Denison, James Howell, Jens. Kraenare, Hans Jensen, Jax Lancaster, W. G. Madden, John D. Palmer, J. H. Powell, Taah Tahabasan, Mr. Taut, Pomeroy Vanderpool. A. T. Hill, P. M. Dr. Cornell will castrate colts or stallions of all ages when brought to him at barn and in surrounding country when five or more can be got together. $1.00 per head will be the charge. He has had ten years experience and does first class work and has located at Newberg and you that want to support a veterinarian in your community, give him your work when you have any to do. For Sale. A good fresh milk cow and first class timothy hay. H. C. PAULSEN. Notice to Property Owners. Property owners in the town of Newberg are hereby notified to gather up all boards, rails and other trash in the streets upon which their property is situated, on or before Wednesday, May 11th. After date mentioned I shall proceed to collect and burn all boards, rails, and rubbish of whatsoever nature to be found in any of the streets of the town. A. C. Cox, Street Com. Vindicated. The court of inquiry appointed by the G. A. R. to investigate the charges of disloyalty to the government and the flag, brought against F. L. Harford, after a careful and thorough investigation, find that it was not "treason," and that there was no real cause for such a charge. And we find that it likely grew out of remark made by the way of a joke, which was perhaps misunderstood. On behalf of Com. N. G. KING, Chairman.
