Local Events.

Mohair bought at Kay & Todd's. Laundry goes Tuesday. A. T. Hill. For fine paints and oils, see J. H. Townsend. For a first class shave or hair-cut go to J. L. Myers. Have you seen W. T. Macy's new stock of furniture? Only a few more onion sets at J. H. Townsend's. Try W. P. Heacock for nails and builder's hardware.

W. T. Macy's furniture store is where you get the worth of your money. Before you go east it will be to your interest to call at the GRAPHIC office. W. T. Macy has the finest line of furniture that can be bought in Portland. Read the "ad." of W. M. Mitchell, the new blacksmith, in another column.

Judge Ramsey, of McMinnville, was in town last Monday on legal business. Mr. Todd visited the city Tuesday to replenish the stock in the clothing store. Ice is a fine thing in hot weather. C. F. Moore & Co. have some in their soda fountain.

J. H. Townsend sells Clark's Cutaway Harrow. Nothing like it for orchard cultivation. Men, Boys' and Children's straw hats just arrived at Kay & Todd's. All the latest styles.

Loads of lumber from Mitchell & Clark's mill are arriving in town daily now to fill up their lumber yard. Don't wear yourselves out riding horse-back, when you can get a carry cart for $16.00 out of J. H. Townsend's.

Rev. Powell will preach a Memorial sermon Sunday, May 29th, at the Baptist church, at eleven o'clock a. m. Joseph Hoskins is improving as fast as could be expected now and he says he proposes to cast one more ballot.

Kay & Todd have the neatest and cheapest Summer Suits ever offered on the Coast. Go and get their prices. Slab wood a dollar a cord delivered—dry a dollar and a half.

DORRANCE BRO'S. Misses Celinda Haynes, Jennie Larson, and Emma Deskins received first grade certificates at the last teacher's examination.

Bad Mills, who has been nursing a broken arm for several weeks, has discarded the sling in which his arm has rested so long.

The young people who serenaded Prof. and Mrs. Hartley last Saturday night, say they failed to get sight of all the professor's "wild animals."

Miss Nellie Bruce, a Portland artist, is visiting with the family of Dr. Burgen. She is canvassing the town with a view of getting up a class in painting.

Rev. Davis, pastor of the Baptist church, will address the prohibition club at their hall Saturday evening, May 28th. All are cordially invited. COMMITTEE.

"E. M. I." wishes to correct a mistake made in the article "A Model College Girl." In the twelfth line from the last, read "seven" for "eleven." The word was changed by a mischievous school-mate.

In addition to those mentioned last week, John Brown, Wm. Reeco, and Misses Effie May and Matt Baldwin attended Salem Quarterly Meeting of Friends Church last week. They report a splendid time.

In the case tried before Justice Wright last Monday, in which Mrs. Vanose brought suit against George Bryan, the jury brought in a verdict in favor of Mrs. Vanose, for twenty-nine head of sheep valued at $3.00 per head.

Ferguson, the great democratic prophet of La Fayette, was in town last Monday admonishing the brethren to be faithful even unto the end. Furg has a reputation for talking the arm right off of a man if he gives him half a chance.

Mr. Baker, the jovial Democratic candidate for county recorder was in town Tuesday and dropped in on us to relate a few fish stories. Some of the other hopefuls on the same ticket were in town but they kept shy of the GRAPHIC office.

The friends of a certain young man in town, are getting anxious to know why he wants so much house room back of the store. It can't be possible he wants to store away a lot of kitchen furniture along with other household furnishings.

Prof. G. N. Hartley left on the afternoon train last Monday for Poughkeepsie, New York, where he will attend New York Yearly Meeting of Friends church. A little later on he will attend a like gathering for the New England states at Providence, Rhode Island. Mrs. Hartley will go to their old home at Fountain City, Indiana, in a short time where she will visit and rest with her friends and relatives. The students of the college and a number of others went to the train to see the professor off and bid him Good speed in his work for the college. We noticed several eyes among the students that were not entirely dry when the train rolled away.

For pure paints and oils go to J. H. Townsend's.

If you get Storey to do your work, you will always be good-natured.

Come and see that new lot of pocket cutlery, the best ever brought to Newberg, at Mount's.

Jesse Edwards and Dr. Jessup looked in on the Presbyterian Assembly at Portland on last Tuesday.

If you think of going east you will find it to your interest to call at the GRAPHIC office for information.

Go to Storey's for all tinning and plumbing. He is rushed, but can find time to accommodate you.

Before you start east to grow up with the country, call at this office and get rates over the Northern Pacific.

Newt Bolton, deputy assessor is now making a tour of the surrounding country "seeking whom he may devour."

Pasture. Can pasture a few more cattle.

EDMUND ROBINSON. Doors and windows, all sizes and thicknesses, either sugar, pine or cedar.

DEVOT LUMBER YARD. For Sale. A good fresh milk cow and first class timothy hay.

H. C. PAULEN. Charley Smith will read a paper on "Vegetable and Small Fruit Raising," at the horticultural meeting next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Jo Cook has been here for the past ten days visiting with relatives. Jo came up last Saturday and remained over Sunday.

Mr. Johnson, who has been here during the past three months visiting relatives, started for his home at Abilene, Kansas, last Monday.

Mrs. Cyrus Buel, of Sheridan, stopped off here over Sunday with Mrs. Edwards, while on her way to the W. C. T. U. convention at Pendleton.

Say! Have you seen the views of the Charleston and Baltimore on sale at Hobson's gallery? Better go and see them, they are first class.

F. H. Storey is furnishing Dr. Clark with water tight casing for his well. This does away with unhealthy surface water, and is a good idea.

The dry weather dropped down on us so suddenly after the rains ceased that a grand rush has been necessary to get ground in order for planting.

Mr. Simms, of LaFayette, Indiana, spoken of in last week's paper as having sent for his family, informs us that he expects them in about three weeks.

S. Hobson, the photo man, will accept the thanks of this office for a couple of photos of the big war ships. You can't get any better pictures in Portland.

Frank Wood, who got the contract for cleaning up the fair grounds, is at work on the job. All Frank asks for in this world, is a chance at a job and he is happy.

J. M. Tice is ready for all kinds of work in his line, including painting, staining, graining, paper hanging, etc. All work guaranteed first class or no pay. Prices reasonable.

Leonard Myers, the popular Main street barber, has bought the Scarce property occupied at present by Dr. Littlefield. This is good property and will make a pleasant home.

The depot building shines with a fresh coat of paint. The lower part was thoroughly sanded, which makes it wonderfully convenient for scribblers. It will be real handy however for the depot loafers to scratch their backs against.

Allen Cook, who accepted the proposition of the Pope Manufacturing Co., and wrote an article on "Good Roads," received word Tuesday evening that he has been awarded a $90.00 bicycle. This is the second prize essay that he has written.

A company of young people gathered at the residence of Prof. Hartley, between the hours of nine and ten o'clock on last Saturday night, and gave them a serenade. The singing was appreciated not only by those for whom it was intended, but by others who heard it.

Don't forget that Delphina E. Ellis still keeps Stationery and Notions for sale, all so pretty sea-wool and shell bouquets and Oregon coast foliage bouquets, fifteen varieties in each box. Call and see them at one of the cottages near Friends' boarding hall, Newberg, Oregon.

The local W. C. T. U. of Newberg, was represented at the state meeting held at Pendleton, by Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Harford, Mrs. Townsend and Mrs. Allen. We understand that Mrs. Cox, who has been lecturing in eastern Washington and Oregon, was also there. Taken altogether we doubt if any town in the valley sent a stronger delegation.

A. H. Carson, of Grants Pass, the most prominent fruit grower of southern Oregon, stopped over here a couple days last week to see our country. He expressed himself as being highly pleased with the country, finding a much better place than he anticipated. It is expected that Mr. Carson will be secured to deliver an address before the meeting of our horticultural society in the near future.

Don't believe it when you here it reported that Lamb & Baldwin have sold about all their hats and are not going to get any more. We get new ones every week and expect to until after the Fourth. Next week we expect from the east as large a lot of goods as we have had any time before this spring. Wait until you see these before buying elsewhere.

Elwood Wessner and Mrs. Leiter left the first of the week for Portland with the intention of leaving there on Thursday for Tacoma, where they were to take the steamer for Alaska. Mr. Wessner goes to assist in putting up additional buildings for Friends mission on Douglas Island and will be gone from home about three months. His friends may expect to hear from him through the columns of the GRAPHIC during his stay in that far off land.

See the Nobby Neckwear at Kay & Todd's.

Lin Parker reports a very pleasant trip to Astoria last week.

Bring out your duster. We are now in it for the rest of the season.

D. P. Stratton sold a road grader to parties at Eugene last week. J. B. Mount, A. P. Oliver, N. E. Britt and Mrs. F. A. Morris went to the city yesterday.

A brother of Lin Parker, who is a minister in the United Brethren Church, located on the Sound, is here visiting.

Quite a number of Newberg people will attend the prohibition rally at McMinnville Saturday. J. H. Calderwood, of Washington, will be the speaker for the day.

The Misses Nellie Larkin and Vinnie Williams, as delegates from the Baptist church, are attending the Sunday School and Young Peoples convention at Salem this week.

D. P. Stratton returned from a trip to Bay City last Saturday, where he went on business connected with his agency for road graders. He reports every thing very dull at Bay City.

Dr. Jessup will occupy the pulpit at Friends church next Sunday at the usual hour. Those who attend, expecting to hear an interesting and instructive sermon, will not be disappointed. Every body invited.

The small college boys and a fine made up of boys from the town played a very exciting game of base ball Wednesday evening. The college boys were victorious, but the others say they will do them up yet.

Alva Cook and Miss May Cottle were married at the residence of F. S. Cottle, the father of bride, at Carlton, yesterday. A number of the relatives went over from here to witness the ceremony. The young couple have a large circle of friends in Newberg who join in wishing them a long and happy life together.

Miss Lida Hanson, a late arrival from Kansas, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Vannie Martin. She had a school engaged in Kansas, but a gentle zephyr blew the school house away, and she concluded to come west. The same storm blew the church down, where her father expected to preach, and he thinks of seeking this as a more congenial climate.

Dr. Elias Jessup arrived last week, and has been busy since, greeting his old acquaintances and forming new ones. He looks a little older than he did four years ago when he was last here, but he is still active and full of life as a public speaker.

He preached to a large audience at Friends church on Sunday night, to the delight and edification of those present. He will have a still larger house next time it is announced that he will speak.

The closing exercises of the college will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday next week. On Tuesday the time will be occupied by the athletic club in field day sports of various kinds. A large number of premiums will be given as prizes in the different contests, and a splendid time is expected. The boys promised us a program of the exercises for publication, but have failed to show up with it. The Crescent Society will give an exhibition on Tuesday evening, and the preparatory students on Wednesday afternoon. All are invited to attend these exercises.

Miss Grace Littlejohn is a little girl aged eleven years, residing in Baltimore, Ohio. Read what she says: "I was troubled with rheumatism for two years, but could get nothing to do me any good. I was so helpless that I had to be carried like a babe, when I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I got it from our druggist, Mr. J. A. Kumbler, and in three days I was up and walking around. I have not felt any return of it since. I have used it as limber as they ever were." 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

John Maris made a tour of the country across the river in Marion County, last week, with a view of getting a road out from the river to the county road, and putting in a ferry. He found everybody enthusiastic for a ferry as it was the universal verdict among the people that they could buy more with a dollar in Newberg, than at any town on their side of the river. He secured the right of way for a road for five years, and will go to work at once to open the road and put in a ferry. If our people are asked to assist in the matter they ought to respond, as the increased trade a ferry will bring to the town, will benefit all lines of business.

In a recent letter to the proprietors, Mr. H. M. Bangs, the druggist at Chatsworth, Ill., says: "I am very much pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the epidemic of la grippe here it took the lead and was very much better liked than other cough medicines."

The grip requires precisely the same treatment as a very severe cold, for which this remedy is so efficient. It will promptly loosen a cold and relieve the lungs, soon effecting a permanent cure, while most other medicines in common use for colds only give temporary relief. 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

J. R. Hutchinson, just over the river east of the town, had an encounter with Flint Martin's Jersey bull Wednesday afternoon, in which he was probably more lucky to come out as well as he did. He was in the barn with the animal when he charged him, and he attempted to escape by jumping upon a manger. In doing so he overbalanced and fell into the manger, leaving his feet and legs below the knees on the outside. In the awkward situation of his body, and the vigorous onslaught of the bull, Hutchinson was unable to extricate his limbs from the exposed position, and they were pretty thoroughly bruised and barked. He is able to get about by the aid of a stick.—Reporter.

Brick! Brick! Brick!!! First-class foundation brick for sale at Newberg brick yard. JAS. HANSEIT.

Mayor's Proclamation. Whereas it has become customary, on the 30th day of May of each year, to show some mark of esteem for the dead who fought for an inseparable union and to maintain human liberty for all, by the holding of appropriate services and decorating the graves of these departed, therefore I, Orm. C. Emery, Mayor of the town of Newberg, by the authority in me vested, earnestly request that the citizens of the town, so far as is practicable, shall close their places of business between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock p. m. of said 30th day of May, A. D. 1892, and properly observe the occasion.

Dated at Newberg, Ore., May 25, 1892. ORM. C. EMERY, Mayor.

A. O. U. W. will Celebrate. In response to a call, representatives from Amity, Carlton, Newberg, Dayton, LaFayette and McMinnville, met at Littlefield's hall, to arrange for the first annual celebration of all the lodges of the Ancient Order United Workmen, of Yamhill county. LaFayette was chosen as the place, and Wednesday June 1st, as the date for holding the celebration. Considerable enthusiasm was manifested, and it was decided to continue to hold annual celebrations in the future at different places in the county. The executive committee composed of members of LaFayette lodge, was instructed to secure the best of music and the best of speakers. H. R. LITTLEFIELD, Chairman. CHAS. GUINNESS, Secretary.

A General Meeting. Inasmuch as the Yearly Meeting for Friends in the northwest which was granted last year will be opened here in June of next year, it has been thought advisable to hold a general meeting of like character this year, with the exception that no business will be done, the meetings being entirely devotional. The time fixed on for the opening of the meeting is June 16th and the meetings will continue probably a week. While everybody will be invited, a special invitation is extended to all scattered members of the church the country over to attend. Anyone having friends or who know of members any where in reach of Newberg will do well to send them a pressing invitation to be present. The meetings will be held on the fair grounds where splendid opportunities may be had for camping out where good shade, fine water and abundant wood are of easy access. Our people should make the most of the opportunity to show that hospitality to the strangers who may come among us, which will be well calculated to make them feel glad they were here and want to come again. It stands our people in hand to make an extra exertion in this particular by making some preparation before-hand.

Enroute. N. P. R. R., EASTERN WASH., May 24, 1892. THE GRAPHIC.—I went from the Narrows gauge depot to the Northern Pacific office and found everything in good shape as they had promised. Soon had all arranged and was ushered into a car, such as makes one feel easy. I found the managers of the trains lively and pleasant, especially the conductor who seemed so cheerful and rather an extraordinary man for the place. I passed over the road in 1889 and I thought it was good then but I believe it has improved or else it is because I have passed over others since and have forgotten how this one was then. I am writing as the train is speeding on its way, so you see it must be a smooth road. I have advised a number of persons to come over this road and they have made good reports of kind treatment and comfortable trips and if the accommodations are as good the remainder of the journey as they have been this far I shall feel free to advise others to come this way.

Three fine mountain peaks have presented themselves to our view since we started. Hood and Helens stand out with their magnificent snow-covered heads and this morning Mt. Tacoma gave us a cheer, reminding us that a hoary head is a crown of glory, for it suggests to us that it has always done right. We passed Chehalis in the night so we could not see the effects of the fire. Five blocks burned. A saloon did it. Respectfully, G. N. HARTLEY.

Judge Galloway has gone out of the trotting horse business, having sold his remaining interest in McMinnville Maid to Mr. Parker of Portland. He realized $2,000 for the Maid. He still owns a half interest in a yearling colt, which paces, and has been offered $800 for it.—Reporter.

A New Book by Hon. James G. Blaine. A new illustrated history of our country, under the title of "Columbus and Columbia, the Man and the Nation," is announced elsewhere in this paper. It is published by the Historical Company, of St. Louis, Mo., four books in one volume, under the combined authorship of Hon. Jas. G. Blaine, Sec. of State, J. W. Buel, the celebrated author, John Clark Ridpath, the famous historian, and Hon. Benj. Butterworth, Secretary and Solicitor-General of the World's Fair Association. The publishers announce it as the greatest book of the greatest century; and a new history of our country with Mr. Blaine as one of the authors, is certainly an event in literature worth considering. See advertisement elsewhere.

Notice. To my honest patrons and to whom it may concern: You will please call and settle all old accounts which are due, and past due, as I must have money immediately. Respectfully, J. B. MOUNT.

For Sale. One block of eight lots, size of lots 50 x120 feet. Two blocks north of the Bank of Newberg, and adjoining the new College grounds. At a great bargain if taken within ten days. Terms one-third cash, balance easy payments. 5-202. J. K. WRIGHT.

Notice to Taxpayers. Notice is hereby given that the school taxes for District No. 29, Yamhill County, Oregon, are now due and payable at the office of the clerk. Unless paid before June 6, 1892, the same will be deemed delinquent. ORM. C. EMERY, Clerk.

Sealed Bids. Sealed proposals will be received up till two o'clock p. m., Friday June 3rd, 1892, for the grubbing, grading and site-ditching of Church street between First street and Third street, and 2nd street from lot 21 in block B. In Hobson's addition to the town of Newberg, east to corporation line. Box culverts to be placed across 2nd street. Specifications for the above work can be seen at the Recorder's office. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved. A. C. COX, Street Com.

Free Excursions to the World's Fair. For all Agents who sell COLUMBIA and COLUMBIA. THE MAN AND THE NATION. By Hon. Jas. G. Blaine, Sec. of State, J. W. Buel, the celebrated author, John Clark Ridpath, the famous historian, and Hon. Benj. Butterworth, Secretary and Solicitor-General of the World's Fair Association. The great Quadri-Centennial History of our country, a complete book in one immense volume, a quartette of world-famous authors, nearly 500 quarto pages, 40 splendid historical illustrations and colored paintings, constituting a grand pictorial panorama of our country's history. Also a complete pictorial description of the great World's Fair at Chicago, with maps, charts, etc. The greatest book of the greatest century.
