See Frank P. Baum's call under the head of "wanted" in this issue. Frank knows where to go when temperance men are wanted.

Alf Moore and wife and Alva Macy and family, of Dayton, are arranging for a trip to the coast in a few days. They go by wagon.

Miss May Barton and Dr. Burgen's family who were piloted to Little Nutcrack by Marcus Blair and son Clint, are home again and report a glorious time.

It is so seldom that Joseph Wilson leaves the corner grocery that we note the fact that he donned his Sunday best and visited the city yesterday.

The Free Methodists have pitched a tent back of the public school grounds on the north side of the railroad, where they are holding camp meeting.

Miss Lizzie Trueblood whose home is at Millwaukie, and who has been visiting here for the past few weeks, returned home the first of the week.

If we don't get up a little political excitement in Newberg soon we are liable to forget who the candidates for presidential honors are before the election comes off.

J. M. Tice is ready for all kinds of work in his line, including painting, staining, graining, paper hanging, etc. All work guaranteed first class or no pay. Prices reasonable.

Clark, the horse mover, is buying a lot of wood along the line of the railroad and says he intends keeping it up. A good thing for woodmen to have another buyer beside Poppletton.

Milt Nicholson has sold his black saddle horse to the Baker boys who will use him for bringing in cattle. This is the best cattle horse that ever handled an unruly steer in this part of the county.

Moses Votaw has been at his old stand at the cashier's desk in the Bank of Newberg, the past week, looking better for his vacation. He and Mrs. Votaw enjoyed their trip to Tacoma very much.

A couple of ladies in company with gentlemen escorts, rode out from Portland last Saturday afternoon on bicycles, to visit with Mr. Wheeler and family who live out northwest of town a couple of miles.

When a young man makes purchases of kid gloves and other toggery to correspond, outside of regular business hours, it begins to look like he was contemplating assuming the responsibilities of a benedict very soon.

W. P. Samms, of Enterprise, Willowa county, came down last week to attend Friends quarterly meeting and visit his half brother Jonathan Votaw. He returned home the first of the week much pleased with his visit.

Don't forget to notify all your young friends that Pacific college opens September 21st, and that it is very important that they enter the first week in order to get the best results from the years work.

Miss Ethel Townsend, of Portland, who attended the college last year, in company with her brother drove up last Saturday and remained over Sunday, visiting the family of their uncle J. H. Townsend.

Charley Spaulding arrived here the latter part of last week with his big drive of logs which is the largest ever taken down the river. He let the contract for taking them on to Oregon City to three of his men and broke camp.

L. W. Harger and A. H. Pape, of West Chehalis, were in town last Tuesday on business connected with the Newberg Clydesdale Horse company. A notice of the public sale of several shares of stock in this company will be found in this issue.

A letter from Prof. Hartley states that M. M. White, president of the Fourth National Bank of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be in the northwest soon and that he will visit Newberg. A letter directed to Prof. Hartley at 70 Rock street, Fall River, Mass., will find him at present.

L. J. Miles, of Pawluska, Indian Territory, who has been taking a vacation seeing the northwest, was here Saturday and Sunday visiting with his brother B. C. Miles. Mr. Miles has been in the Indian service in the Territory for a number of years. His stay was short as he opens his school the first of September.

Difficulties have continued to arise in connection with the transportation of gravel by barge from the island, until we understand Mr. Perkins has abandoned the barge business. The present program is to make the road to the gravel bank on the north side of the river good and haul direct by wagon. This is certainly the most feasible plan.

At a meeting of the College board last Monday, president Newlin presented to the college a microscope and outfit worth $100, on condition that the board would appropriate $100, for adding to the library. The proposition was accepted, and the board decided to add another $100, making $200 for the purchase of reference books.

The present man filth his wood house with dry wood in August while the gentle "scizzle, scizzle," cometh not, but the foolish go on and are punished by having to carry in soggy wood in winter and blow their brains out trying to start a fire. The above text is respectfully "dedicated" to those who have in the past said they wanted to furnish us wood on subscription.

Rev. J. H. Douglas left for Salem yesterday to attend Friends quarterly meeting at that place. Early next week Mrs. Douglas will join him at Portland when they will start for their home at Des Moines, Iowa. Their labors for the church here have been greatly blessed and they will always be kindly remembered by our people, and gladly welcomed when they may return again.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.

Ed. Hobson will occupy the Mrs. Graham property on River street in the future. There is a big demand for houses to rent and the outlook is that every house in town will soon be taken. Our real estate men complain that property owners fail to keep their houses in good repair. Those who pay rent want, at least reasonable accommodations, and it pays to keep houses in good repair as they always rent first.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Prof. J. J. Jessup to Miss Lissie Hammer, which will take place at Villa Park, California, Aug. 23rd, at 12 m. They will start for home about the first of September. On their arrival here they will find a host of friends who will gladly welcome them and who will join in wishing them a long life of happiness together. The larch string of the Gracine office will always hang out for them.

Dr. E. Jessup left last Monday for southern California where he will attend his son, Prof. J. J. Jessup's wedding and arrange for sending his family here. He is on his way to the east where he will attend Iowa, Western, Indiana and Kansas Yearly meetings of Friends church. It is uncertain how long he will be away but arrangements were made for his return to Newberg to continue to act as financial agent for the college.

The committee having the matter in charge is corresponding with Rev. Thomas C. Brown, of Kokomo, Indiana, with reference to his taking the place of pastor of Friends church here. He was heard by many of our people last winter when he held a few meetings here. He is good on a discourse and also has the reputation of being one of the best pastors in the church in Indiana. It is to be hoped that he may be secured for the place.

Reports come that F. A. Morris has been spending his vacation harvesting in Indiana, but whether he will permanently enlist in the army of Hoosier hayseeders or return to Oregon deponent sayeth not. The probabilities are, however, that the charms of rural life with the mureurs at 90 ten o'clock at night, will soon melt away, and he will return to the land where the slumbers of the weary are so peaceful that sleep is termed "death twin brother."

Dr. McConnell will move to his elegant new residence near his office on First street this week. Dock declares this is the last house he will ever build, as he is not only tired of building, but Mrs. McConnell is entirely satisfied with her home in Newberg and they are here to stay. A good sized barn on a back lot is being built which with his new residence will save about $24.00 per month in rents. The doctors friends will be glad to see him and his estimable wife and healthy boys permanently settled in a good home in Newberg.

Reports from the Christian Endeavor social of Friends church, held in Prof. Hartley's park Tuesday evening, indicate that this was one of the most pleasant and enjoyable occasions of the kind held this season. About a hundred and fifty were present to assist in disposing of the ice cream, cake and other good things that had been prepared by the hands of the young Endeavors. The evening was spent pleasantly in games of different kinds and everybody went home happy. Credit is due the social committee on the evening's entertainment.

Ab. Hill, our genial young P. M. arrived home from his trip to Indiana last week and is again behind the pigeon hole smiling as sweetly as of yore on the rosy checked damsels who call at the office four times a day to inquire for letters from "Paw." Ab's friends, who are legion, are glad to see him back again looking better for his vacation. He says he had a glorious time but thinks there is no place like Newberg. On his return he stopped off and chased jack rabbits for a day or two with his brother over the breezy plains of western Kansas.

While at Big Island, Va. last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies such as blackberry wine, paregoric and lanthanum without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. B. C. Tinsley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved.—O. G. Barford, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

The quarterly meeting of Friends church held last Saturday and Sunday was well attended, especially the Sunday morning meeting and the meeting of the Christian Endeavors at night. An unusual amount of important business was transacted on Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. H. Douglas and Dr. Jessup will attend some of the eastern Yearly meetings and look after the interests of our Yearly meeting house building fund. The membership of the quarterly meeting only falls about a half dozen short of 800. Delegates appointed to attend Iowa Yearly meeting to commence September 6th, Dr. E. Jessup, Jesse and Mary Edwards, Jane B. Votaw, Jesse Edwards and E. H. Woodward. Rev. J. H. Douglas preached a big sermon Sunday morning that was well received by the large audience present. An unusually interesting meeting of the Endeavor society was held Sunday night.
