Local Events.

Go to W. T. Macy's for furniture. Call at Hill's barber shop and take a bath. Cakes made to order at the Star Bakery. Millinery and dressmaking in the bank building. Go to the Star Bakery for candy, nuts and cigars. Fresh meats of all kinds and fowls at Evans & Clemenson's. Jesse Edwards visited the county seat on business on Wednesday. Pipe fittings, threading and cutting from quarter inch up at Frank Storey's. A good five-room house and four lots for sale at a bargain. Call at this office. A new lot of Garland Heating and Cook stoves expected at any time at Mount's. David Crosbie of Scotts Mills in Marion county is over for a week's stay in Newberg. Charley Smith is bringing some fine bunches of a mammoth new variety of celery. Marshal Joe Woods spent three or four days in and about Portland last week on business. Say! You had better see J. T. Smith's new stock of goods before you make your fall purchases. Several of our young people yanked taffy at the residence of Jimmy Vestal, Tuesday evening. Have you been to see Mrs. M. E. Baldwin's nice stock of Fall Millinery in the bank building? Mrs. I. M. Parker Misses Ella Macy and Lisa Wilson visited the exposition last Saturday. John Davis is making some decided improvements in the appearance of his house on Meridian street. Sea-moss and Oregon coast bouquets made by Delphina Ellis the invalid, for sale at J. T. Smith's store. J. H. Bowerman informs us that we were mistaken last week in stating that he was agent for Mr. Carson's evaporator. Columbus Mackey and John Goodrich with their families from above Dayton, were down during the week visiting relatives. The Yamhill Land Co. sold lots in Deskins' third division, last week to Wm. Mitchell of our town and to Nellie J. McCulley and A. J. McCulley. Oragin Haworth who was mentioned a week or two ago as being out of college on account of poor health, is back again and up with his studies as usual. A gentleman and his family named Campbell who are relatives of G. M. Bales arrived here last Monday from Kansas. Mr. Wm. Harrison and wife, of Crawford county, Ill., have been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity the past week. Mr. Harrison is a cousin of the Mills boys. A gentleman here last week upon being told that there were five meat markets in Newberg, said he either hadn't seen near all the town, or else the people were a wonderfully carnivorous outfit. John Wortman, formerly of McMinnville, has sold his interest in the Olds & King dry goods establishment at Portland. He is contemplating the banking business for the future we understand. Noah Heater's residence is greatly improved in appearance by the application of the paint brush. We failed to discern in the distance across the canyon who the man at the end of the brush was. The ladies of Newberg and country are cordially invited to examine our stock of Jackets just received direct from Chicago, and we assure them that the styles are the latest and of good quality. MORRIS, MILES & CO. C. F. Connelly, the marshal of Coffeyville, Kansas, who was killed in that city a short time ago, when the Dalton gang was wiped out of existence, was formerly from Parke county, Indiana, and was well known to several of our citizens. Mrs. Woodward went to school to him when she was a girl. President Newlin who is vice-president of the state Sunday school convention went to Portland Tuesday to attend a meeting of the executive committee. Don't forget that the next state convention will be held in Newberg, that make preparation to take care of the visitors in royal style. The man who refused to subscribe to the fund for graveling the streets last summer, giving as his reason that it was simply a scheme to assist the blacksmiths, as it would compel people to keep their horses shod, still rides a barefooted horse on First street. "And the simple go on and are unopposed." We know from personal experience that, aside from a higher course in school or college, there is nothing that will yield greater returns for the time and money expended than a course in the Chautauque Scientific and Literary Circle. There are surely a number about town who could profitably take this course, and our advice would be to do so.

Go to W. T. Macy's for carpet. A new lot of Bird cages at Mount's. Have you seen Will Macy's big sign? Star Bakery for shaving and hair cutting. For a first class shave or hair-cut go to J. L. Myers. Storey handles the largest assortment of Pumps in the city. The best cook stove for the price is found at J. H. Townsend's. WANTED—A few Oregon maple trees, suitable for street planting, at this office. Ying Kee has leased Sam Kee's wash house, and is prepared to do laundry work in first class style. J. S. Long has returned from his trip up the country and is building Mr. Stambrough's house on Mill street. All kinds of dressed lumber of No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 grades, direct from Portland at the Depot Lumber Yard. Carl Borgen has been up from Portland during the week, visiting his parents. Likewise Bert Weerner. WANTED—Some dry oak wood in exchange for Milliner goods. Mrs. M. E. Baldwin, in the bank building. The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms Thursday, Oct. 27th, at 3:30 p. m. Jesse Ballenger from western Washington is visiting his sister Miss May Ballenger and his uncle Jesse Edwards. 40 acres good fruit land, 10 acres in cultivation. 2 miles east of Newberg. Price $2,500 on easy terms. P. GARR. The amount of wood corded up about town this fall as a "reserve fund," will certainly prevent a fuel famine during the winter. Mr. Stambrough has torn his old house away and is building a new one on the same site. The main part will be 18x21 with a wing 14x16. Seventy-one feet of new black board bought of C. F. Weber & Co., of Portland through W. T. Macy, for the college, is appreciated by professors and students. B. C. Miles and wife returned from their visit at Scotts Mills last Tuesday and report a pleasant visit. When they left, the foot hills were white with snow. John Brown, Will Reece and daughter, N. C. Christenson and wife, Miss Della Leavitt, Mrs. A. W. Rees and daughter and Mrs. F. A. Morris took in the exposition Wednesday. J. E. Durham of McMinnville and Miss Ella Olds were married on Friday, Oct. 12th. The bride has a number of schoolmates and friends in Newberg who will congratulate her with a hearty good will. We are pleased to announce that we have received an elegant line of Jackets in THIS YEAR'S style. These jackets are made up with care and skill and will please the most artistic taste. MORRIS, MILES & CO. J. D. Tarrant & Son have a large force of hands at work on their new dam and will soon have it in readiness to control the turbulent waters of the raging Chualar. They have been running partly by water during the past week. The first number of the Crescent for this year will appear in a few days. Amos Stambrough will be the editor in chief which insures a well edited college paper for the year. Harry Allen will have the financial management in charge. Don't fail to subscribe for two or three copies to send to your friends. During the past two weeks while the clouds have obscured the rays of the hot and withering October sun, Ed Holt has been busily engaged in the cultivation of a mustache. His success has been moderate and with the continuance of favorable weather his friends have hope of his ultimate success in this hazardous undertaking. Emmor Hall is a jolly good fellow who always looks on the bright side of life and consequently, favors no difference how small, are always thankfully received by him. Last Thursday when a tiny girl baby arrived at his home, Emmor was jubilant as usual although the other sex had been fully arranged for. Mrs. Hall and babe doing well. S. M. Calkins has bought Whitmore's feed store including the entire building on the corner, a part of which is occupied by Macy's furniture stock. He will keep a full stock of flour and feed and will always be ready to give his customers prompt attention. Mr. Calkins has made many friends since his sojourn in Newberg, who will be pleased to see him in business again. Solomon Haworth who is agent for all kinds of marble and granite monuments and headstones has placed a number of headstones in the cemeteries here lately. He has sold some high priced monuments in the county, some running as high as $250. He has an order from Judge Ramsey of McMinnville for a handsome monument for the grave of his wife. We acknowledge the receipt of cards announcing the marriage at Chicago on Wednesday, Oct. 12, 1892, of Levi M. Gilbert and Miss Josephine M. Patty. Mr. Gilbert is a gentleman in every respect and is worthy of a womanly woman for a wife, which he no doubt has well. To say that the newly married couple have the best wishes of the Gazette in every duty that a long life of usefulness may unfold, is putting it mild. Here is our

Go to Storey for Pumps. Six leaves bread for 25 cents at the Star Bakery. R. H. Tyson of Middleton, was in town Wednesday. For all tinning, plumbing and repairing go to F. H. Storey. New Millinery goods at Lamb & Woodward's, direct from New York. J. T. Smith has just stocked up for the fall and winter trade. Better see him. Our carpenters are all busy and it seems difficult to get a man on short notice. Mr. Fitzgerald representing the firm of Goldsmith & Lowenberg of Portland, was in town yesterday. Bright! Bright! Bright!!! First-class foundation brick for sale at Newberg brick yard. JAS. HAMBERT. John Means and wife, of Skamokawa, Washington, were here a few days ago visiting with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Heston. Mr. Perkins of LaFayette, was in town Wednesday on business with L. F. Hall, administrator for the estate of Robert Atkinson deceased. Look out for the Crescent in a few days and encourage the college boys by giving them your name with a year's subscription in advance. A gentleman and his family, named Stevens, who came here from some point in Washington, have moved into the Fred Rogers' house on River street. A very interesting letter from Germany, written by Will A. Hadley, who has a number of acquaintances around Newberg, will be found in this issue. The college students appreciate the new side walk on north Meridian street and the new crossing opposite the entrance to the college grounds. Mr. Patton appreciates the latter especially. Mr. Kinney who is president of the sugar pine sash and door factory at Grants Pass, was in town Wednesday soliciting an order for lumber for the inside finishing on the Friends church. The partial eclipse of the sun yesterday from 8:45 to 9:15 a. m., was visible from our streets, the fog having lifted just in time. F. H. Howard was on hand with a smoked glass to accommodate his friends. Dr. P. A. Skinner, of Terarkana, Ark., is an enthusiast in the praise of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He used it for rheumatism, and says: "I found it to be a most excellent local remedy." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. Probably the Cheapest Line of Ladies' Suitings, Broadcloths, etc., can be found with the undersigned. Also the most complete assortment of Dress Goods, from the cheapest Alpaca to broadest Bedford. Examination kindly asked. M. M. & Co. Appropriate exercises will take place at the college this morning in commemoration of the doings of the old man Columbus. The public school will hold their exercises, first at the school grounds and later at Armory hall. If anybody don't believe the gravel on the streets is a great success, let them start out of town with a good load. When they strike the end of the gravel they will very easily see the difference between a solid road bed and a soft one. MARRIAGE—At the residence of G. M. Bales, in Newberg, the father of the bride, Wednesday evening, Oct. 19, 1892, Charles L. Judd and Miss Laura Bales, Mrs. Osborn officiating. That happiness and prosperity may attend them is the sincere wish of the Gazette. A card has been received from Rev. Thomas Brown, stating that he would be three days later in starting from the east than he had expected. This will make him that much later in arriving here, and consequently the reception announced for him at the residence of Jesse Edwards on Saturday night is recalled. Mrs. Lulu Nightingale of Spokane Falls, Washington, is here visiting her father A. M. Hadley, proprietor of the Newberg House. The little grandchild brought along is the pride of the Hadley household of course, this being the first baby McKee or Miss Ruth would cut no figure at all in comparison. Mr. J. C. Adams, of Riverville, Wash., county attorney of Adams county, stopped off here over Sunday. He found many former Iowa friends here, with whom he spent the time pleasantly. He has been looking over the valley and informed us that he had about decided to locate at Dallas. Two crop failures on account of dry weather is a little more than he can stand. It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small amount? This remedy is intended especially for colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. S. Brutscher who came in last Monday to renew his subscription to the GAZETTE, informed us that he was expecting his son George A. Brutscher, down from Weston, Umattilla county, to take charge of his farm. Mr. Brutscher has been arranging for some time to give up the management of the farm which is one of the best in the valley. He was among the earliest settlers in the valley and feels that he has followed the plow as long as is prudent for one of his age.

The national convention of the W. C. T. U. to be held next week at Denver, will be attended by Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Harford and Mrs. Cox of our town. The two latter who are in the lecture field are probably near Denver now and Mrs. Edwards will start next Monday. The first kiln of brick put up by the pressed brick factory containing 125,000, is now cooling off and will be ready to open in a few days. This will not be a fair test of course of what may be done when everything is in running order, but the opening of the kiln will be attended with interest. Walter F. Edwards attended the state meeting of the Christian Endeavor held at Eugene last week, as a delegate from the Endeavor of Friends church. He reports a most excellent meeting. Two hundred and sixty visiting delegates beside fifty from Eugene, were in attendance. The next meeting will be held at Portland. A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co. Three or four young fellows thought to take their girls to the exposition last week and arranged to go Friday in order to get advantage of reduced rates. Friday came, but one of the aforesaid young men being a little off his feed, as his friends supposed figured that it was only Thursday, and there at his best girl dressed up in her new gown made exhibition for the occasion, thinking of the presents and taffy, sadly waiting, while the forgetful youth went about his poultry yard telling the big fat hens and the bantam rooster what a fine time was in store for him on the day following. The matter has been fixed, so that a "breach of promise" suit will hardly follow, but the young lady insists that the youth shall carry Ayer's Almanac in his pocket in the future and have his "ma" help him remember dates.

Class in Elocution.
In the study of elocution we "educate the body with reference to the soul," until
"The tongue be framed to music
And the hand be armed with skill.
The face be the mould of beauty,
And the heart be the throne of will."
Those wishing to join Miss Howard's private elocution class can learn particulars by meeting her at the boarding hall, Saturday, Oct. 22, at 4:30 p. m. The larger the class the smaller the fee, for each member, so those interested will act wisely by interesting their friends.
