TO PAPA.

I have a tale to tell you
Of my cousin and his wheel—
Of the wheel he fain would sell you,
If your so disposed to feel.
He had taken from a wagon,
Two gigantic rusty tires,
That were heavy as a dragon,
And would go through floods and fires.
And he beat them on the edges
With a mallet ringing peal,
And he beat them with his sledges
Till he made them shining steel.
Then he made a trusty racer
That was noted for its speed,
And would outrun any pacer
That was ever called a steed.
'Twas a splendid summer morning
When he made the trial trip,
And the people looked with longing
At the captain and his ship.
For you see they had no money,
And could not make one themselves;
So they stood and just looked funny,
Like a lot of startled elves.
But their wonder changed to panic
When he put on all his steam,
And they saw the great machine
Was an expert with his team.
For he took a sudden rally
And he steered right through the crowd,
Till he filled Chehalis Valley
With a mighty dusty cloud.
Chorus:
O, the wind blew through his whiskers
As he strode the magic wheel!
O, he was the king of triskers,
When he strode the flying wheel.
—James A. Clemenson.

The people of Newberg and surrounding country are earnestly invited to be present and participate in the exercises on decoration day. All persons having friends buried in the cemetery, whether old soldiers or not, are especially invited to bring flowers and decorate their graves.
Col. C. C. Winslow, of Minnesota, a cousin of Mrs. Wm. Stratton, has been visiting her this week. He attended the meeting of Indian War Veterans, held in Portland last Monday, arriving in Newberg on the Monday evening train. Col. Winslow has been in Oregon before, having served in the Rogue river war in 1855.
Judge Wm. Townsend, formerly of LaFayette, and well known throughout Yamhill county, is visiting with his son-in-law George Christenson. Mr. Townsend is editor of the Lakeview Examiner and also county judge of Lake county. He has not been here for five years and time is beginning to show its marks in the increased whiteness of his hair and beard. He is still hale and hearty however.
The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists.
The Crescent Society held a mock trial at the college last Friday night. Ben Patton was the prisoner at the bar, charged with unlawfully appropriating a coat and vest belonging to Ed Hampton. C. J. Edwards occupied the judge's chair and Miss Ella Macy was clerk of the court. O. J. Hobson and W. F. Edwards were attorneys for the prosecution while Amos Stanbrough defended the prisoner. Witnesses were examined after the most approved fashion by the attorneys. Much that was laughable took place but it was a good drill for the students. Patton was found guilty.
G. T. Wardlaw of Corvallis, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Oregon Pacific railroad company, was in town last Tuesday in the interest of the merchants excursion to San Francisco which leaves Yaquina tomorrow by steamer. He was also interviewing some of the business men with reference to freight business by way of the river. D. P. Stratton has been having a good run on road machinery of late. He recently set up and put in running order the new rock crusher at North Yamhill, which is giving excellent satisfaction. During the past two weeks he has also sold an engine and rock crusher at The Dalles, one road machine to Linn county and two to Lane county. He has ordered another car of machinery from the east.
Kimball Organs are reliable. L. V. Moore.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years—four bottles in all—as occasion required, and always keep a bottle of it in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best liniment I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, Ohio. 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists.
The LaFayette Seminary boys came down last Saturday and played a game of ball with the college nine. The "track" was heavy owing to the rain and the boys were all pretty well plastered up with soil before the game was over. A moderate sized crowd backed up against the fence while their teeth chattered in the cold wind, as they watched the progress of the game. The score stood 19 to 20 in favor of the home nine, with one inning in their favor that was not played. The Pacific University nine of Forest Grove will be over tomorrow for a game and our boys will have something to do if they come out with a long string of extra scores.
At the close of the missionary meeting held at the residence of Jesse Edwards last Saturday, the ladies organized a "Friends Aid Society." The following officers were elected: M. E. K. Edwards, president; Vannie Martin, secretary; Mary E. Allen, Treasurer. Every lady belonging to the church is considered a member. A committee of five were appointed to select and purchase enough carpet and matting for the restroom and aisles of the new church. A meeting will be called to sew the carpet, of which due notice will be given. The society will aid you an afternoon with your sewing or tag tacking for one dollar.

A nine year old grandson of J. D. Tarrant fell into the mill pond last Monday while playing on a raft, and came near drowning before he was seen and rescued by Mr. Tarrant, who fished him out with a pike pole.
It is a sad sight to see a man so wrecked in mind that he has to be transferred on the railroads placarded like a dumb animal, and yet such a sight might have been seen at the depot one day last week.
J. E. Todd left last Tuesday for Spearfish, South Dakota for a visit to his father who is quite aged and in poor health. He will be gone about a month and may possibly take in the Worlds Fair while he is east.
John Maris and Rob Bell got home from California last Thursday. They said the mercury had been as high as 93 and 100 in the San Joaquin valley where they were working, and they preferred hunting a cooler climate this early in the season.
Marshal Mills has been making a round of the town nudging people in the short ribs and inviting them to clean up about their premises. Everybody ought to take pride enough in the appearance of their homes to make a general clean up at this time in the year without notification.

We suggest to the mayor that he issue a proclamation calling on the dear people to cease from their arduous labors this afternoon and take a half holiday and build a bonfire on the commons in the evening, in commemoration of the fact that Smith's old cow, the gate opener and general tormentor of our citizens, has been placed on the butcher's block.
While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drugstore to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists.

LOUIS D. VANDERWERE,
One of the best known business men in Chicago, representative of the great Bradstreet Co. HEADACHE, SLEEPLESSNESS, NERVOUS PROSTRATION.
Dr. J. H. Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
Gentlemen: I take pleasure in informing you of the very beneficial results which have followed the use of Dr. J. H. Medical Co. Resolvent Nervine in the case of myself and wife. For a year I was subject to a distressing ailment in the form of the brain and upper portion of the spinal cord. I was unable to rest and was greatly troubled with sleeplessness. Your Resolvent Nervine was highly recommended to me. My case had been so chronic that I had no confidence in the efficacy of any medicine. Yet as a last resort I consented to give it a trial. Much to my surprise, I experienced marked benefit; my sleeplessness disappeared; my headache was removed; my spirits and general health improved. I am now a well man and feel that I have gained twenty thousand dollars. I have no hesitations in recommending it to all who are afflicted with similar ailments. I have no hesitations in recommending it to all who are afflicted with similar ailments. I have no hesitations in recommending it to all who are afflicted with similar ailments.
