

Nothing can be substituted for the Royal Baking Powder and give as good results.

No other leavening agent will make such light, sweet, delicious, wholesome food.

If some grocers urge another baking powder upon you, it is because of the greater profit upon it. This of itself is evidence of the superiority of the "Royal." To give greater profit the other must be a lower cost powder, and to cost less it must be made with cheaper and inferior materials, and thus, though selling for the same, give less value to the consumer.

To insure the finest cake, the most wholesome food, be sure that no substitute for Royal Baking Powder is accepted by you.

Men's Underwear in England.

An amount of luxury is now put into summer dannels which not so long ago would have been deemed fabulous. The greatest advances have been made in the intermixing of silk with the wool, either in toto or used for the colored striping upon the white woolen ground. The beauty of these goods has permitted the nightshirt to regain much of the ground taken from it by the extraordinary popularity which pajama suits have enjoyed of late years.

Swivel dressers, or rather underdresses, have quite abandoned the linen night shirt in favor of either silk or flannel, at the present moment, giving the preference to such as I have named above. In underwear there is not much change except in that patterns and fabrics are very quiet. Little silk is being shown, because there are so few Americans here to buy it. Englishmen going in much more for light gray "natural wools."

The English system of making drawers is somewhat more elaborate than ours, inasmuch as they go in for a sort of abdominal supporting waistband or "belt," as it is called, buttoning with as many as eight buttons in front, and lacing through eyelet holes behind. The idea of a tight abdominal bandage comes, like pajamas, from England, but other specialties, from England's hot exotic possessions. Returning colonists bring a good idea home with them and it speedily becomes the rage for hot weather wear.—London Cor. Clothier and Furnisher.

Cethold Toothpicks.

The latest toothpicks look precisely like quill picks, but are made of sheets of cellulose sharpened at one end and then rolled up into a cylinder. Hotel keepers have their advertisements printed on them before they are rolled into quills.—New York Sun.

It does not seem possible to emphasize too strongly the importance, which indeed amounts to a necessity, of freeing the body of some of its waste products by physical exercise performed daily.

Photographers have begun to use storage battery plants, which operate a ruby colored incandescent light in the darkroom, and the effect on their health has been very beneficial.

"German Syrup"

My acquaintance with Boschee's German Syrup was made about four years ago. I contracted a cold which resulted in a hoarseness and cough which disabled me from filling my pulp for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a physician, without obtaining relief I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received quick and permanent help. I never hesitate to tell my experience. Rev. W. H. Haggerty, Martinsville, N. J.

Now is Your Blood?

I had a malignant breaking out on my leg below the knee, and was cured sound and well with two and a half bottles of S.S.S. Other blood medicines had failed to do me any good. W. C. FEATY, Yakima, S. C.

TRADE MARK
I was troubled from childhood with an aggravated case of Tetter, and three bottles of S.S.S. cured me permanently.
