Posters are out announcing a camp meeting to be held at Scott's Mills, commencing August 22nd. Mrs. Komick and Mrs. Osmond, and other evangelists will be in attendance.

Our friend Shepard Ong is now proprietor of a new hotel at Scott's Mills, and reports that he is ready to take care of those who will attend the camp meeting to be held there the last of this month.

Rob. Cooper and wife, Rev. Thos. C. Brown, Miss Annie Brown and Charley Wilson went up to Scott's Mills last Friday. Rev. Brown returned the next day, and the rest of the party will return this week.

Mr. Eckman, of the Reporter, was in town last Sunday night and attended the temperance meeting at Friends church. He got away along with the early bird on Monday morning before we got sight of him.

Alfred Moore was exhibiting a four legged chicken just out of the shell, Monday evening, which he brought in from A. E. Moore's place. The chick was silent in death and seekers after monstrosities need not apply.

The last lecture in the course at the M. E. church, which would naturally follow on next Tuesday night has been postponed for the present and will come later. Holders of tickets will retain them and wait for the announcement of the lecture.

A very good temperance program consisting of music, declamations and a half hour's address by Rev. Thomas C. Brown was rendered at Friends church on last Sunday evening. Similar meetings under the charge of the temperance committee of the church will be held from time to time, we understand.

Amos Smith sold his property on Fifth street last week to Allen S. Craven, of Middleton. Mr. Smith has the property rented for three months, after which he will seek other quarters. Mr. Craven will probably occupy the property during the winter and send their daughter Gertrude to the college.

Judge Ward, formerly of Indiana, took the place of Rev. C. C. Cline at the M. E. church, on last Monday evening, and lectured on the subject, "Are We Safe as a Nation." The lecture was a good one and full of subject matter for any one interested in the future of our government.

Joe Woods received a card from Harvey White last week written at the home of his parents in Indiana, saying that he was slowly improving. He reported times dull in Indiana and that Oregon was good enough for him. His friends here will be glad to hear that he is in a fair way to recover and hope he will be with us again.

A little push on the part of some young men about town, who are apparently waiting for something to turn up, might enable them to find work in some of the fields of golden grain out in the valley. There is no charge for this suggestion, but farmers can get help now without running after it, and the fellow with snap is the one that gets the job. See!

Train No. 12 from Natron to Woodburn and Train No. 13 from Woodburn to Silverton will run on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays only.

One of Wm. Stratton's boys picked up a large tooth at the river last Tuesday, that no doubt belonged to an elephant some thousands of years ago. The number of such remains that have been found about the mouth of Chehalis creek would indicate that long before Chehalis valley became famous as a prune growing district, it was a favorite resort for animals of enormous size. Who knows but that Chehalis creek once had as wide a reputation as a summer resort for these monsters, as the salt, salt sea now has as a resort for the more brainy inhabitants of the valley? Some one ought to hint to our fossil hunters that this field is much nearer home than the "John Day" country and far easier of access.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be overpraised and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by C. F. Moore & Co., Druggists.

Work was commenced in earnest on the new brick the first of the week. The company has decided to use pressed brick from the Newberg Pressed Brick Works for the front which will add greatly to the appearance of the building. When completed this will be one of the finest appearing business houses in town.

Superintendents of the various departments of the fair occasionally ask us to urge people to make preparation for a display in their special departments. We think this is hardly necessary, as all the departments ought to be well worked up and we think a general shaking up all along the line is more to the point.

Mother's meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday, August 16, at 2:30 p. m. Subject, "Exalted Womanhood for Our Girls," to be presented by Mary Hobson. All ladies are earnestly invited to be present, indeed they cannot afford to be absent, as the object of these meetings is to benefit all.

Frank Vestal and young Roberts, who have been working on the new mountain road running from McMinnville to Tillamook, came home the first of the week. Work under the present management has been suspended and the remainder of the work will be done by contract. The boys look hale and hearty from their outing in the mountains.

Prof. C. E. Vance left for the east yesterday. His intention was to go to Chicago and spend a few days seeing the World's Fair and then go on to New Providence, Iowa, and get acquainted with the people before the time for opening the academy. The Graduate will follow the professor and keep him posted with reference to Newberg affairs. He leaves a large circle of friends here who have the best wishes for him in his new field of labor.
