weather.

A series of free lectures has been arranged for by the professors of the college which will no doubt be fully appreciated by our people. Last season a small admission fee was charged to cover the traveling expenses of the lecturers from abroad, but owing to the necessity for the strictest economy on the part of everybody this season, the professors have consented to give the people the advantage of a course of lectures without charge.
This is a generous offer which we hope our people will properly appreciate. The first in the course will be by President Newlin on next Tuesday evening on "The Development of Character."

Arm Broken.

One of L. S. Heacock's boys who is attending school at the Springbrook school house, met with an accident on Thursday last week that laid him by for a few days for repairs. While at play a larger boy threw him down in such a way as to dislocate the joints of the arm and at the same time break one of the bones of the arm. Dr. McConnell was called and set the limb.

Cracked Again.

Last Tuesday morning, when section foreman Martin Downs arrived at the depot he found one of the windows pried open and other evidences of a nocturnal visit by burglars. When station agent Frissell arrived a few minutes later, it was found that the safe had been opened and about a hundred dollars taken. The knob had been knocked off and the tumbler drilled into and the whole interior mechanism disarranged by means of a strong punch driven by the blows from a blacksmith's sledge hammer, which, together with the punch and a bar, was found near the safe. The drill had been taken by the thieves, probably for future reference. The whole work seems to have been very deliberately done. Something over a year ago the safe at the depot here was broken into in a very similar manner, and about the same amount of money taken. Neither job indicated the work of a professional, and stranger things have happened than that the perpetrator or perpetrators, if found at all, are found to live not far from Newberg.
