A gentleman named Barnes, from Jamestown, N. D. is inspecting this section with a view to locating. He is especially pleased with what he has seen of Newberg and vicinity, and will probably locate here.
Supt. Stillwell was greatly pleased with what he saw of our public school while here last week, and remarked that there were no suggestions that he could make for its improvement. This much for a good corps of teachers and a good school board.
While at Middleton Monday we found Messrs. Poole & Ashpole the general merchants still in the ring, though like everybody else, complaining of hard times. They have everything their own way now, and are having as good a run of business as could be expected.
Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's Pain Balm and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.
Dr. J. B. Moore and family have moved to their fruit farm near Laurel, the doctor finding it pretty expensive to pay rent in Portland and big money to get his trees properly cared for. His drugstore in Portland is left in the hands of a reliable party, and the doctor will run down occasionally to see that everything is O. K.
Rev. Z. C. Batty, of Sheridan, and Levi Wright, of Willamina, were in attendance at Friends quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday. Frank Hastings will try his fortune in Lane's logging camp this summer. He left for the camp Wednesday.
Frank Mills and sons are running a stump puller on the site for the new tile mill, taking up trees by the roots.
John Wright's new residence is enclosed and with the force of hands at work on it he will soon have the cage ready for occupancy.
If the twitter of the bluebirds and the appearance of snowdrops and crocuses may be taken as a sign, "It will be summertime, by and by."
Mitchell & Moore have bought the timber between town and the railroad north of town and are having it cut for furnace wood at the tile works.
Deputy Sheriff Conner was in town again the first of the week. It occurs to us that his visits down this way are getting rather too numerous.
Mr. Wades new house northeast of the public school building is enclosed. It is a story and a half and will when finished make a very neat residence.

Wilson has had a good supply of mustard greens at his grocery this week. Grass has been perfectly green all winter and with a few warm days it will begin to grow in a way to make the town cows smile. Pity the sorrows of those who live beyond the Rockies where people are freezing to death.
O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Wm. Garland, living in the gap of the mountain, was in town a few days ago with a sample of water from a mineral spring on his place. He says it possesses powerful medicinal qualities, and he feels quite confident that if he can interest some one with enough capital in the enterprise, it will prove to be a great find. The water has a peculiar, sweetish taste and is never clear, having a milky look with small white atoms floating in it. A bottle of it may be seen at the office of Maris & Colcord.
Charley Mitchell returned last Monday from his trip to Illinois and Indiana. From a business standpoint of view it was not a success, though he enjoyed meeting his old friends there. He reports poor sale for prunes, and was compelled to leave a part of his carload in the hands of a commission firm. He could only get offers of from four to six cents for the same grades of prunes that were being retailed at from twelve to twenty cents. He thinks that section has passed the hardest period of financial stringency, and reports marked evidences of improvement in many lines. We hope he may be correct in this, and that it may become contagious and spread as far as this coast, and the quicker the better.

SUNSTROKE IN BATTLE!
THE MILES MEDICAL CO. FURNISHES THE CURE FOR THE SUNSTROKE IN BATTLE!
FOR YEARS I HAVE NOT FELT AS WELL AS NOW.
The starting point of my disease was a sunstroke received in battle before Fort Hudson, Louisiana, June 16th, 1862. I HAVE BEEN CURED BY DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE. I KNOW YOUR REMEDIES HAVE CURED ME, and that the cure will be permanent. Several of my friends have been cured by your THOUSANDS.

John Hutchinson and wife are now comfortably located in their home on the mountain, having moved up there Wednesday.
A concert will be given at East Chehalis Evangelical church on Friday evening Feb. 23, by the mountain choral society. Admission free.
Uncle John Edwards has been sick for the past week and is gradually growing weaker. The probabilities are that he will not be alive when this reaches our readers.
The Quarterly Meeting of Friends church held here last Saturday and Sunday was very well attended although the attendance has been larger at other times. The only business of importance was the granting of the request for a church organization at Chehalis Center north of town. On Saturday evening an educational session was held at which the following papers were read, viz.: Mrs. Leiter, Education in the Home; J. C. Hodson, Public Schools; Colleges, Matthew Charles; Church, Rev. Elwood Scott. The papers were all excellent and well calculated to arouse a deeper interest in education along all lines. Sunday afternoon was taken up with a very good program arranged by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and on Sunday night a gospel temperance meeting was held at which Rev. Elwood Scott preached a very excellent sermon.

Midwinter Fair Rates.

Rate from Portland to San Francisco and return will be $25.00 plus $2.50 for five admissions to the Fair. Rates from other stations in Oregon will be made in like manner. Tickets will not be on sale until the Midwinter Fair opens."
Those Milkmaids.
As advertised, the milkmaids convention was held Tuesday evening at Armory hall. If, as has been stated in our hearing once or twice, "a little nonsense, now and then, is relished by the best of men," then those milkmaids served a savory menu. And to judge by the applause it was appreciated. Some of the methods of conducting the convention were old to those who understand anything about modern political conventions, but they were true to life. A number of papers were read relative to best breeds and latest shades in cows, their care and preparation of food. After a program of an hour's length had been given, refreshments and an hour spent in social enjoyment followed. At 10 o'clock the company dispersed, all apparently well pleased with the entertainment. The proceeds of the evening were $21.85, which will be used to help along the work of the W. C. T. U.
Washington's Birthday.
On Thursday, Feb. 22, at 2 p. m. exercises will be held at the college in commemoration of Washington's birthday. The principal feature of the program will be an address by Pres. Newlin. To the patrons and friends of the college an earnest invitation is extended to add to the interest of the occasion by giving their presence. Come and bring your friends with you and let us celebrate the birth of the father of our country together.

LAFAYETTE ITEMS.
George M. Perkins is having a severe tunnel with rheumatism, having been confined to the house for three or four weeks. J. W. Martin had the misfortune to cut his wrist very badly the other morning. He was carving a dead hog and the knife slipped and cut his hand severely. Jim seems to be out of luck, having only just got up from a spell of sickness.
Billy Moore who has been foreman of a gang of bridge carpenters on the Northern Pacific for the last seven years has come home and brought a wife with him. Billy will build a nice house on his lots here this summer and be one of us again.
F. S. Harding has been appointed post master at McMinnville. We think Frank will make a good post master and his friends in LaFayette congratulate him. It is not always those who make the most that get the plans. Frank has evidently been on the still hunt.
The McMinnville papers claim that their town draws a large portion of their trade from the vicinity of LaFayette. It is likely that they have got a better quality of whisky over there than we have. We admit they can beat us on quantity when it comes to that article and we will not quarrel with them about the quality.
There is going to be a new sidewalk built around the seminary block, something that is very much needed.
If any one knows of a better man for governor than Judge O. N. Denny let them speak up for we want to get out the best material we have got, as we don't want to be fooled on the Thanksgiving business again this year. Posey.

SPRINGBROOK ITEMS.
Mills Bros. sold their crop of dried apples last week in Portland at 7 cents per pound.
The sale of Milton Newlin's property south of the railroad to Will Shires, reported recently, was a mistake. Will having changed his mind, which is nothing new for him.
Seth Mills and family were visiting in our community Saturday night and Sunday.
Milton Heacock was quite sick the first of the week with something like a gripe or a severe cold. The attack came on him very suddenly Sunday afternoon.
Will Shires and family moved into Mr. Hunter's house, near Levi Sander's, last Monday.
Charley Mitchell returned from his eastern trip last Monday.
After two unsuccessful attempts to organize a singing class here, the project was finally given up on account of the indifference manifested by some of our people.
BRO. JONATHAN.
Tonight, Tonight!
Mr. J. W. Fairbank, superintendent of the Puget Sound Chautauque Assembly, will give an illustrated stereoscopic reading of leading parts of Low Wallace's great book "Ben Hur," at the College this evening. More than sixty elegant views will be used of which the following is a synopsis:
Stato, the Christ; In the desert; Prayer in the desert; Jappa Gate, exterior and interior; Cave in the Kahn, Bethlehem; Light in the sky; Angels appearing to the shepherds; Birth of Christ; In the cave; Wise men arriving at Jerusalem; Herod; Wise men find the child; A Judean home; Strange things Ben Hur wishes to know; Tirzah; Accident to Gratus; The galley slave; Arriving going to sea; Sea fight; Rescue of Arris; Arris adopts Ben Hur; Warehouse of Simonides; Interview between Ben Hur and Simonides; Esther; Grove of Daphne; Procession in the grove; Stadium in the grove; Hiderim's home at Orchard of Palms; Hiderim's Arabs; Iras; Circus of Antioch; The race; Chariot race won; Mossala carried away; The Hall of Idemee; Combat; Tower of Antonia; Dungeon in the tower; Ben Hur's mother and sister; Jerusalem; The Lepers; Lepers dwelling place; Amrah; At Bethabara; The Good Shepherd; Ben Hur arrives home; Healing of the lepers; Ben Hur meets his mother and Tirzah; Betrayed; Christ taken prisoner; Going to Calvary; Nailing to the Cross; Christ on the Cross; It is finished; Interior of Ben Hur's house; Scene from the terrace; Catacombs on Calixto; Ecco Homo; Mater Dolorosa.
The Victoria Colonist says of the lecture:
"There was not a vacant place in the large schoolroom of the Metropolitan Methodist church last evening, on the occasion of Hon. J. W. Fairbank's lecture on 'Ben Hur, a tale of the Christ.' The discourse was illustrated with seventy or more views, all of them absorbingly interesting and many of them surpassing beauty. The lecturer made a running commentary on this now famous book, outlining with pleasant facility the leading points and most stirring episodes. As each event came on for consideration the faithful lantern showed it to the audience in words much more plainly than the tongue is capable of doing. Principal among the pictures in point of realism were that of the battle at sea, and the Arab horses which Ben Hur drove to victory."

Then sister Boyd read a very instructive paper on the Mothers of the Bible, followed by some interesting remarks in regard to the motherhood of the present time. There were 32 present. The superintendent read some interesting sketches in regard to mothers. We feel the Lord has blessed us. Will meet in two weeks with Sister Jane B. Votaw at 2:30 p. m.
