Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colcord on Sunday, May 27, 1894, a daughter. All the interested parties doing well, and prices on real estate have an upward tendency. The lightning flashes that were kept up for some time on last Friday night were ahead of ordinary fourth of July fireworks as well as a great surprise to native born Oregonians.

Owing to the high water at Portland the evening train on Wednesday did not make the usual run. The trestle between Fulton Park and the city is weighted down with loaded cars to keep it from raising. The warm weather is bringing the snow out of the mountains and the Columbia is booming. The rise at Portland is back water from the Columbia of course. It bids fair to be the highest ever known.

McCoy, president of the island, his daughter and half-sister, and Henry Christian. All are descendants of famous mutineers. Pitcairn is a little speck in the Pacific 4,000 miles south of San Francisco, and this little company has come here to learn modern methods of education. The Pitcairn settlement forms one of the most curious colonies in the world, and although volumes have been written about it another is soon to be published. From a colony of pirates and mutineers, of drunkenness, treachery and murder, it has changed to one as peaceful and religious as any in the world. It numbers 130 souls. Although the island is entirely free in the management of its own affairs it is under the protection of Great Britain.—Statesman.

"And we can find no comfort in our sorrow, For they are not whose love our hearts beguile. Till from thy word this ray of light we borrow— 'Jesus called unto Him a little child!'" COLLEGE NOTES. S. T. Stanley is on the sick list this week. Misses Ola White and Ora Terrell visited college Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Elwood Scott conducted chapel exercises last Thursday morning. Many of the students attended Decoration day exercises Wednesday afternoon. By some mistake last week Miss Rider's name was printed as secretary of the Y. M. C. A. It should have been secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Two half holidays in less than a week is almost more than we can stand, but of course college students are expected to be equal to emergencies. The college picnic was pronounced a complete success by all present. We think the lunch committee deserves a vote of thanks for their efforts to make that part of the program a success. The chapel was well filled Saturday evening at the Freshman class social. We hope that the curiosity of all the classes is sufficiently aroused, so that we may have some better class revivals next year. STUDENT.

FINE TAILORING! The country is loaded with agencies for so-called custom tailor made clothing. While in Winona I was agent for such and know whereof I speak, twelve thickensens of cloth are laid upon a table one above the other, patterns of the different sizes are laid upon and chalked around them, a manager of the rolling cutter steers it around the chalk mark and sixty suits are cut in sixty minutes, which are given to sewing girls to be made up, and then to a Bohemian who runs a pressing machine to finish.

WE CUT SUITS TO MEASURE. MEN TAILORS ONLY TOUCH THEM.
