Alice Longpole the Indian girl who came from the Indian school at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, a short time ago to live with Mrs. Bowerman died of consumption Monday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted from Friends church Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

The German population of Dundee seem to be having a high time among themselves of late. Every few days one or more of them appears before Judge Hadley with a long list of complaints respecting the abuses inflicted on them by their neighbors. Lager beer seems to be the principal cause of all the disturbance.

Miss Prindle Miles who has been teaching in the Indian school at Salem visited with her sister Mrs. Abbie Edwards last Saturday and Sunday. She has accepted the position of assistant matron in the Indian school at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and will go on immediately and take up the work. This is the largest Indian school in the United States.

A. P. Oliver has in contemplation a trip to Honolulu next winter. It does look a little discouraging we admit, for a fellow, when the harvest seems to be about past and the summer is ended and nearly all the good looking damsels of marriageable age have joined that innumerable company about Newberg, but we had hardly expected such a turn of affairs in Fred's career. Come to think about it though two tickets may be required for the trip when the time comes for his departure. How about it old man?

Kenneth Bazemore had the good fortune to receive a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when three members of his family were sick with dysentery. This one small bottle cured them all and he had some left which he gave to Geo. W. Baker, a prominent merchant of the place, Lewiston, N. C., and it cured him of the same complaint. When troubled with dysentery, diarrhoea, colic or cholera morbus, give this remedy a trial and you will be more than pleased with the result. The praise that naturally follows its introduction and use has made it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. T. Hill.

"I have sold the remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints." 25 and 50 cent bottles of this remedy for sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

E. C. Armstrong has about decided to move to southern California where he has invested with one of his brothers in land. Mr. Armstrong is a man who is always alive to the best interests of the community in which he lives and we shall be sorry to see him leave Newberg. He says he likes the people here and the country as well, but his relatives who are now mostly in California are anxious for him to come to them and as he has property there he thinks best to go. May success attend his efforts wherever he may go.

The Steamer Modoc while passing through the locks at Oregon City Tuesday on her way to Portland ran afoul of a rock and a good sized hole was stove in the side of her hull causing the steamer to quickly settle down.

The stone by some means had rolled into one of the water chambers. The water was let out of the chamber and the hole repaired so the steamer could be moved to Portland where the damage could be permanently repaired. Very little damage was done to the freight on board.

Justice Hadley was kept pretty busy Wednesday settling differences between a couple of Germans from Dundee. Earnest Nauman charged two boys 8 and 9 years old respectively, sons of C. T. W. Theilman with assault and battery and Mrs. Nauman charged Mr. Theilman with assault. Deputy prosecuting attorney Vinton appeared for the state and D. R. Jackson for the defendants. The evidence showed that the two families had been having a high time generally. Theilman and one of the boys were found guilty and fined five dollars each, which with the costs footed up a little more than $75. On Theilman's refusing to put up, they were taken to McMinnville to be held out with the sheriff.

J. S. BAKER.

The Salvation Army people have rented the building known as the Dorance hall and have purchased the seats belonging to the Presbyterian church to seat it with. They will hold a meeting next Tuesday evening when they propose to organize.

A Presbyterian minister from Portland named Kenneth Duncan was in attendance at Friends Quarterly Meeting here last Saturday and preached a very able sermon at the morning service. On the previous evening he gave a very good talk on temperance. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Townsend.

J. M. Talliferro of Omaha, Nebraska, was here a day or two during the week taking a look at the country with a view of investing in fruit land. He works with an electric light company in Omaha and has laid by a few hundred in hard cash that he desires to invest where he may reasonably expect something in return. He was very much pleased with what he saw here.

Hops—You will get a better price and be at less expense each year by getting a first class outfit. F. H. Storey has the best and heaviest hop stove made. The half inch bolts are all on the outside, it is put together with fire proof asbestos cement, has large draft, interchangeable grate bars, protected bottom plate, etc. Call and examine the stove and also make arrangements for your hop pipe. Mr. Storey puts out nothing but heavy steel pipe closely riveted which with this stove will make an outfit that will last you for years.

The river boats are being put in shape for business which will open up as soon as the rains set in to raise the water to a safe boating stage. The Wm. M. Hoag has been chartered by the O. R. & N. Mr. Kerralla's Talk.

The talk on temperance by Abraham Kerralla the Syrian who was here last week was quite interesting. Americans have become so accustomed to saloons that to hear of a land where liquors are not sold publicly is a surprise. Mr. Kerralla said they had no saloons in Syria and that if a man ever became intoxicated his evidence was never taken in court afterwards.

He knew of one instance where a man set up a shop with a stock of liquors but the people avoided the place and would buy nothing of him. He then concluded to peddle out his fire water through the country. His liquors he put into a leather bottle which he placed astride a mule and started out for business. Before going far the donkey became frightened, kicked the leather bottle full of holes and also kicked the traveling muleman to the death. The natives refused to touch the body but threw a few shovels of dirt on it where it lay after each one had thrown a stone on it. Those who pass that way are pointed to the spot where the bad man died.

Died.

KENNEDY—Jennie Prentiss Kennedy, sister of G. A. Prentiss of Newberg, Oregon, was born in Almond, N. Y.; died August 9, 1894, at 9:30 p. m., aged 47 years, 1 month and 5 days.

She was married in 1869 to R. F. Kennedy who died in 1890. About two months ago she came to Oregon for her failing health. The funeral was preached at her brother's residence, after which she was taken to Portland and buried in the Lone Fir cemetery.

POLLY.

Memorial Service in Honor of Mrs. Sarah I. Terrell.

The W. C. T. U. met July 31st, at the Presbyterian church to pay a tribute of respect to Sister Terrell.

Again we are called upon to mourn the loss of another sister beloved, who has been so suddenly snatched from our ranks. So short a time does it seem since we were called upon to part with Sister Boyd, that we are led to wonder, who next will be promoted from works to rewards. The following program was rendered:

Song, "Blest rock of Ages I'm hiding in Thee." Rev. Elwood Scott.

Prayer, "What a Gathering that will Be." Introductory remarks were very appropriately given by the president followed by a responsive Bible reading which was participated in by many of the members both active and honorary.

Prayer, Sisters Harford and Osburn. Song, "My Lord as Thou Wilt." Addresses, Sisters Harford and Whitmore. Remarks and Resolutions, M. E. Allen. Poem, Dacia Macy. Solo, Miss Satchwell.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we deplore most deeply the sad circumstances in connection with her taking away, but with that resignation that becometh His children we bow in submission to God's will.

Resolved, That we cherish her memory as a beloved sister, true to every line of God's work, and especially helpful and interested in the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, whose cause she most heartily espoused.

Resolved, That as a neighbor and friend she was kind and sympathetic and as such we loved her; and while we shall sadly miss her from our midst and from our work, we realize that upon her stricken family the blow falls most heavily and the pangs of separation are most keenly felt, therefore

Resolved, That we tender to them our heartfelt sympathy in their great affliction but we can only point them to our blessed Savior, who has promised to supply all our needs according to his riches in grace, and while her place in her earthly home is left so vacant, we trustfully believe that she is safe at home with Jesus, and

We turn our eyes to this fair shore Through faith in God, we see Thy soul at rest forevermore And cease to weep for thee.

We'll meet thee by and by, where care And sorrow never come. The light is breaking over there We too shall soon reach home.

HEART DISEASE.

Fluttering, No Appetite, Could not Sleep, Wind on Stomach.

"For a long time I had a terrible pain in my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and am happy to say it has cured me. I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. Its effect was truly marvelous."

MRS. HARRY E. STARR, Fortville, Pa.
