For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

The bones of a human being are nearly one quarter water during the life of the individual. They are chiefly composed of phosphate of lime, but contain a good deal of animal matter and other elements. In the skeleton of a man nearly four pounds of the metal calcium which is many times more valuable than gold, being worth $3000 an ounce. Thus in the osseous framework of the average man may be found material with a market value of about $18,000, but the trouble is to separate it from substances with which it is combined; that is what makes calcium costly and traps valueless.—Oregon City Enterprise.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing so good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having lagrippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 50 cent bottles for sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshon, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea, long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to five permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

Billy McLaughlin is good on a jump when necessity demands alacrity. Wednesday while sitting in front of the Hoskins' brick stack of canned tea in Holt's store window toppled over against the plate glass, and Billy thinking the whole building was coming over, made a jump for the street that was a record smasher. No damage except to Billy's nerves.

Cure for Crippled Children.
The National Surgical Institute, Pacific Branch 310 Bush street, San Francisco, successfully treats all cases of Orthopedic Surgery, Diseases of Spine, Hip and Knee Joints, Paralysis, Piles, Fistula, Neuralgia, Bow Legs, Knock Knees, all Catarrhs and Chronic Diseases. Their success in treating these cases is shown by the thousands of references from trustworthy people all over the country.

One or more of these surgeons will be at the St. Charles Hotel, Portland, Monday, November 12, one day, to examine cases. Send for circular. Reference may be had to Judge Strahm, Albany; Judge Thos. L. Davidson, Salem; R. B. Miller, Dayton; T. W. Thompson, Gaston; Gov. E. P. Ferry, Olympia, and hundred of others.

Debating Club.
The debating society which meets at the Brutscher school house had a very interesting meeting on last Friday night. The question debated was: Resolved that sprinkling or pouring is not water baptism according to the teaching of Christ and his apostles. The judges were Albert Heater, J. Eizwiler and M. McKern. After debating the question for an hour and a half a short recess was taken and in the meantime the judges brought in their report which was two for the affirmative and one for the negative. Editor Bill Watkins read a paper called the Poggon, published at Wilsonville which was quite interesting. Gilbert Graves will edit the next paper which will be read in two weeks. The question to be debated, this Friday night is: Resolved that if women were given the electoral franchise they would do away with the saloon. The leaders in the debate will be Amos Graves and Bill Williams. REPORTER.

Mine Located.
G. W. Mitchell of Newberg, John Brown of Scotts Mills and Thomas White of Portland have located a mine in the Cascade mountains east of Scotts Mills, which they say promises to be very rich. They have made a number of trips to the mine during the past year and after a thorough investigation, they are convinced that there is something in it. Mr. White has had considerable experience in mining and he feels assured that they have struck a bonanza. Mr. Mitchell and Mr. White will join Mr. Brown at Scotts Mills where they will lay in a stock of provisions and tools and then go to the mine prepared to make a thorough test of their find. They will probably not get out before Christmas. Their friends hope their most sanguine expectations will be realized.
