C. B. Frissell has a yard of Laced Wyandottes consisting of three hens and eleven pullets that seem to be doing all they can toward keeping up Charley's reserve fund. During October they laid 105 eggs, November 160 and December 180. Charley says he saved eggs to the amount of the above numbers and he knows that a worthless egg got away with some at different times.

A letter received last week by Mrs. M. J. Townsend from Mrs. Anna R. Riggs, matron of the Refuge Home in Portland, acknowledged the reception of a box sent them Christmas morn by Newberg W. C. T. U. She writes "I desire to thank each of the dear friends for this kind remembrance which gladdened the hearts of our large household, and gave such a happy closing to the day for the dear girls that are shut up here and see so little of the great cheery outside holiday.

An Old Soldier's Recommendation.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea. Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours Truly, A. E. Bending, Halsey, Oregon. For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

The Harford Controversy.

The editor of the Graphic has heard something of both sides in the Harford controversy and is convinced that as usual in such cases rumors have made the case appear worse than it was. The family seem to have adjusted the matter among themselves and consequently the public should let the matter rest here.

Married.
