A most enjoyable occasion last Friday evening was the social given by the Knights and Ladies of Security. The absence of the expected speaker was somewhat of a disappointment, but Charley Frissell, Charley Hodson and other members of the lodge so ably explained the work of the order that all were enabled to understand the object and aims of the association. After the music and speaking a social hour was spent, refreshments served, and all felt that they had been pleasantly entertained.

The exposure to all sorts and conditions of weather that a lumberman is called upon to endure in the camps often produces severe colds which, if not promptly checked, result in congestion or pneumonia. Mr. J. O. Davenport, ex-manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., an immense institution at Fort Bragg, Cal., says they sell large quantities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the company's store and that he has himself used this remedy for a severe cold and obtained immediate relief. This medicine prevents any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia and insures a prompt recovery. For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

COUNCILMAN LASHIER CANED.

The Council Grinds out the Usual Batch of Bills—Other Business.

The city fathers were greeted by a full house last Monday evening when the Mayor rang up the curtain on Act I, Comedy of '96. The recorder called the roll of actors and supes, and found all present; read the prelude and the play was on for the year.

The first thing to attract attention was a petition for a sidewalk, commencing at the intersection of Main street and the Dayton road, running east on Fifth to Blaine street, north to Third, east to College. Referred to committee on streets.

W. H. Mears petitioned the council to rebate taxes for this year on his property, saying the burning of the Arlington hotel had depreciated the value $763, and through an oversight he had neglected to bring it before the County Board of Equalization. Referred to county court.

The Judiciary committee reported that the tax levy for 1893 was illegal; that the deeds in question should not be recorded; that money paid to city by private parties be returned. Accepted and action taken as advised by committee.

The water committee reported that the spring was paid for and deed in possession of city.

The street committee reported that the city was relieved of all damages incurred in opening streets through block 17, Central add.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

The mayor appointed the following standing committees for the ensuing year:

Ways and Means: Smith, Lashier and Terrell.

Streets and Public Property: Terrell, Tallman and Elwood.

Health and Police: Clark, Lashier and Tallman.

Elections: Elwood, Smith and Terrell.

Judiciary: Lashier, Clark and Smith.

Fire and Water: Tallman, Elwood and Terrell.

The council then proceeded to elect the following officers:

Acting Mayor, H. F. Lashier.
Health Officer, H. J. Littlefield.
Marshal, W. T. Macy.
Surveyor, Miles Reece.

The mayor then "recommended" the judiciary committee to investigate the the fee and salary question, not only as the "statutes made and provided" but to learn what other towns of Newberg's size paid for Marshal and Recorder's work.

After this the mayor in a neat and appropriate speech presented Councilman Lashier, in behalf of the Third ward, with an elegant, gold headed cane. It came in the nature of a surprise to Mr. Lashier, who was very much effected by this tribute of esteem from his neighbors.

A Pioneer Gone.

Alexander Mathias Townsend, was born in Kentucky, Aug. 1, 1813. Died at the home of his son-in-law, John Shearer in Newberg, Feb. 2, 1896, aged 82 years, 6 months.

When an infant his parents moved to Indiana, where he grew to manhood and was married to Mary A. Craighead May 6, 1838, the latter dying Nov. 29, 1845. March 7, 1847, he was united in marriage with Miss M. E. Reynolds who died Jan 17, 1876.

In 1871 he moved to California and in 1872 to Oregon. About 60 years ago the deceased united with the Primitive Baptist church and was a consistent christian until his death. The last thirty years of his life he was totally blind, yet he enjoyed good health until 1893, when he met with an accident which rendered him helpless.

He raised a family of eight children, five of whom are left to mourn his loss. He also left thirty-eight grandchildren and twenty great grandchildren. Of the former there are Mrs. John Trapp of Topeka, Kansas, Mrs. T. L. Butler of Dallas, Mrs. Jas. Shearer of Forest Grove, Mrs. Sarah Foster of Cavel, California and Mrs. John Shearer of Newberg.

The deceased was the father of the late Hon. Wm. M. Townsend, formerly judge of Yamhill county and later of Lake county, Oregon.

The remains were buried from the residence of his son-in-law, John Shearer of Newberg, with whom he has made his home for many years.

COLLEGE ITEMS.

A Mr. Folger late of Illinois, visited college Tuesday.

Ask that Junior German student what "frechen fuszen" means.

Wiley Snyder has been missed the last few days on account of bad cold.

Oratorical contest tonight in college chapel, at 8:00 o'clock. Admission 15c.

There has been quite a prevalence of colds and stiff necks among the students of late.

The Y. M. C. A. is arranging to give a social for the new members in the near future.

Oh yes! Oh yes! all ye that love oratory and have 15c. be on hand at the college tonight.

Miss Elva Osborne an ex-member of the class of '98 visited college Wednesday afternoon.

There was a greatly increased attendance at last Sunday afternoon's Y. M. C. A. prayer meeting.

Example is better than precept. Lewis, never again entrust the ringing of the bell to a Freshman!

Miss Mendenhall who has been absent from the schoolroom for a week or two is now in attendance again.

Will some one please explain how opposite forces meet and unite at the exchange table in the chapel every noon?

Some of the boys occasionally use the ladies' Indian clubs on an improvised bowling alley in one of the upstair rooms.

During the recent good weather, the boys have renewed the old football game of "kick" under the captaincy of Wiley Snyder.

The Freshman have received the names of several books upon which they are to write paraphrases, instead of the regular class orations.

Miss Edna Newlin has been compelled to absent herself from the school room for the past few days on account of an attack of the neuralgia.

Pres. Newlin made some very hitting and much needed remarks in chapel exercises Thursday morning. It is to be hoped they will be heeded.

Miss Emma Hanson of Silverton, a former student of the college, has been visiting with her cousin Miss Myrtle Gardner during the past week.

Surely the German professor might have been allowed a private introduction to that nice gentleman who visited the class. But such are the contingencies of life.

The program committees of the Crescent literary society should be complimented for the good programs they are giving the society, and the members for carrying them out so well.

Fred Scott and his sister Laura drove down from Salem last Friday and visited with their many young friends in Newberg, returning on Monday. They were in attendance at chapel Monday morning.

While the revival meetings of Friends church have been in session, joint prayer meetings of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. have been held every day at 1 o'clock. Hereafter they will be held every Thursday at 12:55 p. m.

The annual primary contest of the oratorical association will be held this evening. There will be five contestants, all of whom are well qualified to entertain the audience with good orations. Come and hear them.

Although some rather poor lessons have been recited within the last week or two, the students have lost nothing by attending the revival services. Many have been converted and all enlivened, so that new zeal has been added to the work of the college christain associations. Let the good work go on.

The maid taketh her place in the college chapel at the twelfth hour and anxiously awaiteth the coming of the bonny lad with the flaxen bangs. *

* * Lo he cometh not. He seeketh other verdant pastures. Verily I say unto you he will return again unto her with a contrite spirit—when the other girls shake him.

Mrs. B. F. Dowell of Portland visited in town a few days the first of the week with a number of Newberg people who she knew in her younger years in Parke county, Indiana. Mrs. Dowell, whose maiden name was Campbell, came to Oregon thirty years ago, expecting to return to her former home in a year or two, but she married about a year after her arrival and has never been back since. Mr. Dowell spends a great deal of his time in the city of Washington, acting in the capacity of a claim agent, and in the past has done a great deal of business of this character for the state of Oregon.

Perry Bradley of Portland visited in town the first of the week.
