OREGONIAN RAILWAY DIVISION. PORTLAND AND YAMHILL RAILWAY. Trains arrive at Newberg as follows:

Local Events. Dr. Lewis, Dentist, McMinnville. Frank E. Vestal was in the city on business Monday.

L. M. Duncan, the LaHayette druggist, was in town last Monday. John A. Beck for watch repairing, 270 Morrison street, Portland.

C. Schmeltzer of Laurel, Washington county, was in town last Tuesday. Prof. Stanbrough and wife left for Whittier, California, last Monday.

Prof. Stanbrough and wife left for Whittier, California, last Monday. Joe Cook, of Salem, was in town the first of the week on his way home from McMinnville.

Professors J. C. and Charley Holston went to North Yamhill last Saturday to attend the teachers institute. The Misses Myrtle Taylor and Anna Storey of Oregon City visited with Mrs. Lizzie Patton's last Sunday.

Charley Johnson will do your saw gumming and bling at his shop on Main street near Myers' barber shop. Hon. J. W. Gowdy and wife of Dayton prairie visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. Palmer on Tuesday and Wednesday.

J. L. Hoskins and J. M. Atkinson bought a young thoroughbred Jersey bull of R. N. Snell of Dayton last Tuesday. Remember the old reliable watch maker, John A. Beck, of Portland, when you want first class work done on your watch.

Carl Stanley visited at home a few days the first of the week, previous to his departure for Heppner, Morrow county. J. B. Mount has the largest line of stores displayed in his store room ever seen in Newberg. It will pay any one to look at them.

Mrs. H. Hurley, of Portland, has been in town during the week, looking after her property interests and visiting her mother, Mrs. Pettyjohn. Mrs. G. W. Mitchell, who has been at Portland for some time taking treatment for a lame foot, is reported to be improving nicely and she thinks she will soon be able to use her foot again in walking.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Miles left for San Jose, California, on last Monday for a visit with her brothers and her aged mother. She will probably attend California Yearly Meeting of Friends church before she returns. Dr. J. H. Miller, a Portland dentist, was in town Wednesday and Thursday, arranging to make semi-monthly trips to Newberg. Read his announcement in the advertising columns of this issue of the Graphic.

While swinging an ax in the woods one day last week Will Heston cut his foot pretty badly. The ax caught on a twig at his back and the full force of the stroke was spent on his foot, almost completely severing two toes. What did you say about the Newberg Meat Market? It would not be closed long if you were right. It is now open and we are ready to supply you with good meat. Don't forget us when you want anything in our line.

STANLEY & COOPER. Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. S. Ong of Scotts Mills came over the first of the week and visited with relatives in town until Wednesday. John says there is big mining talk at Scotts Mills and he expects a big rush to the mines early in the spring. Bud Tolson, a brother to George who is in college here, has returned from a trip into the mining district out in the southern part of the state and reports that he sold a mining claim out there for the snug little sum of $15,000. At least this report has been circulated here during the past few days and it is given for what it is worth.

T. P. Callison, of Salem, who will represent Willamette University in the oratorical contest at Portland, was in town Wednesday visiting his brother, attorney B. W. Callison. While here he conferred with the college students with reference to running a steam-boat excursion, to carry those who may want to attend the contest at Portland. In a recent editorial the Salem, Oregon, Independent says: "Time and again have we seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy tried and never without the most satisfactory results. Whenever we see a person afflicted with hoarseness, with a cough or cold, we invariably advise them to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; and when they do, they never regret it. It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

J. D. Carter was in the city Thursday. The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

A new line of Perfumes at Hill's drug-store. Flour and feed of all kinds at Spaulding's feed store.

Jesse Edwards was in McMinnville on business Wednesday. All kinds of repairing by Charley Johnson on Main street.

J. Stanbrough was in the city of Portland the first of the week. A. P. Oliver has been in Portland on business during the week.

Read the announcement of the poultry meeting called for Saturday afternoon. You will find a splendid quality of syrup at a low price, at Wilson's grocery.

Mrs. J. B. Mount, F. A. Morris and L. M. Parker were in the city Wednesday. Call on Bert Weesner when you want your garden plowed or general team work done.

Miss Mina Cox went to Scotts Mills on Thursday, to visit with her sister, Mrs. M. Nicholson. Charley Johnson is closing out a small stock of groceries cheap at his place of business on Main street.

The Whittier (Cal.) Register announces the birth of a daughter in the family of E. C. Armstrong on Feb. 11. Rev. Martin Cook, of Dundee, was in town Monday trimming up the berry vines on his property on Wynooki street.

If you don't believe people read the advertisements, just announce through the Graphic that you want to buy a cow and then watch for results. A ride to McMinnville on last Saturday, in company with F. H. Storey, revealed the fact that the roads are not as good as they might be made with gravel.

Lee Shields has sold his property near the fair grounds to Mr. Bouvard and is arranging to go to Frankfort, Indiana, where his brother has offered him a good job. W. T. Macy will be in Newberg Saturday and anyone wishing to solicit for books at $2 per day can call at his residence Saturday afternoon and receive instructions.

There will be a Demorest Silver Medal Contest at Armory Hall Tuesday evening Feb. 25, 7-9. Everybody invited. Good music, good program. No admission charged. The farmer has to sell his stock cheap and it is cheap meat that you want, while it is your money I want. Take advantage of the supposed short life of the Central Meat Market and buy meat at hard time prices. J. S. Bacon.

Smith the photographer finds that it always pays to satisfy his customers by doing first class work at prices to suit the times. Photos 3x4 inches for 35 cents per dozen. All other work as cheap as any gallery in town. Mr. and Mrs. John Green of Des Moines, Iowa, who have been visiting with relatives here for some time, left for Grants Pass on Thursday morning where they will visit with a brother of Mrs. Greens.

If you contemplate a trip east, call at the Graphic office and get rates over the great Northern Pacific road. Maps, time card and all information furnished. For first class accommodations, and a clean comfortable route, the Northern Pacific excels all other lines. N. E. Britt and his surveying crew arrived home from their trip into the Bohemian mining district east of Cottage grove, the first of the week. They report a lighter fall of snow in the mountains than usual and the trip rather an easier one than they had anticipated.

WANTED:—Several trustworthy gentlemen or ladies to travel in Oregon for established, reliable house. Salary $780 and expenses. Steady position. Enclose reference and self addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Third Floor, Omaha Bldg., Chicago, Ill. 11-8

Gord Dorrance arrived home from his trip to San Francisco last Saturday. He said on his trip down he went to bed when up in the Siskiyou mountains with a deep snow on the ground and the air cold and chilly, but in the morning when he got up they were down in the Sacramento valley where the fruit trees were in bloom. A successful buyer changes business houses occasionally to see how he is being treated in regard to prices, quality of goods, etc. Look to the main chance and save all the money you can. To do this, when in "McMinnville," go in and see "Howorth" the Leading Drug Man of Yamhill Co. Cash talks. Examine his prices. Can't be beat. First door east of post office. 2-74

L. H. Woodcock with his wife and two children arrived here from Murray, Idaho, Wednesday evening, and are stopping for the present with D. Tallman's. They will rent a house for the present until a house can be put up on a piece of land near the river which Mrs. Tallman's brother who is mining in Idaho, owns in partnership with Mr. Tallman. Mr. Woodcock is a carpenter, and consequently he will build the house himself. He has also followed cabinet making and mill-wrighting.

The exposure to all sorts and conditions of weather that a lumberman is called upon to endure in the camps often produces severe colds which, if not promptly checked, result in congestion or pneumonia. Mr. J. O. Davenport, ex-manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., an immense institution at Fort Bragg, Cal., says they sell large quantities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the company's store and that he has himself used this remedy for a severe cold and obtained immediate relief. This medicine prevents any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia and insures a prompt recovery. For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

A Recommendation from Los Angeles. 632 Castelar St., Los Angeles, Cal.—After having suffered for a long time from acute rheumatism without obtaining relief, I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was almost immediately relieved. I highly recommend this as the best medicine known. D. M. Hamilton. For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

You will find the Esmond hotel to be a good place to stop when in the city. The bright warm sunshine has brought out a number of straw hats during the week.

Dr. J. W. Vogel, the Salem oculist, will be at the Newberg Hotel, February 25 to March 1. Jack Stevenson of Butteville was in town Wednesday laying in some supplies. He is busy on his new land clearing out a farm.

Mr. Hendershott, of Butteville, was in town Wednesday, shipping hops on an advance of a cent to a cent and a half per pound. Charley Spaulding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Spaulding, and Mrs. Spaulding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sease, were down from Dayton for a day or two's visit the first of the week.

The amount of snow in sight on the Coast mountains is unusually light, which would seem to indicate an early spring, but Pague, the weather man, predicts a wet spring. In response to the question asked him on Wednesday as to whether there was anything new down their way, Ed Robinson said, no, nothing except his old cow was looking after the interests of a pair of bran new twin calves.

The town cow raiseth her tail and hurrieth across the commons as the wordles begin to move themselves aright, the young man cometh forth with a straw hat upon his pate, and the maiden with rosy cheek singeth, "Springtime is coming, Susan Jane." There will be a social Saturday evening, February 22, at Old Fellows hall. Everybody invited to attend. Guests are requested to represent a state or territory, in costume or by motto. A good musical program has been arranged and refreshments will be served. No charges. Come one, come all.

Jim Duncan came home from Columbia county last week, where he went some time ago to assist in caring for Dr. J. A. Blanchard who died on December 19, at the age of 79. The deceased who was well known to many of the old settlers in this community, came to Oregon many years ago with U. S. Grant, who was stationed at different points on the coast as an officer in the regular army.

Of the young fellows who went to Portland last week, with a view of enlisting in the service of Uncle Sam, only Van Leavitt and Ellis Hall took the examination. The latter passed the examination all right, but being under age, his father L. F. Hall, is making an effort to get him out. Van failed to pass a successful examination and consequently he is at home again. He seems to regret his inability to get in.

Wedding Bells. TOWNSEND-BALL. The marriage of the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Townsend, Miss Ethel, to Dr. F. I. Ball was solemnized at their residence, 235 Twelfth street, Portland, on the night of the 12th by Rev. Dr. J. Morrison of the Calvary Presbyterian church, in the midst of a large assembly of relatives and friends.

At 8 o'clock the Mendelsshon wedding march, played by Mrs. Harmon at the piano, and Mr. Russell, violinist, announced the approach of the wedding party to the parlors, preceded by the bride's little sister, Ione, strewing rose-leaves for their path way. The party stood beneath an exquisite canopy consisting of a large floral wishbone, surmounted by a true-lovers' knot of evergreens, and were met at the altar by Dr. Morrison and little Leland Townsend, who held the silver tray, containing the golden marriage band. The impressive service of the Episcopal church was read, and as soon as the ring was placed on the bride's finger they knelt and received a blessing. Dr. Morrison laying his hands on each head in a most devout manner, filling each heart with the sacred obligation imposed upon the twain. The bride was charmingly attired in a brocaded cream silk gown, tastefully decorated with chiffon and ostrich tips, with tulle veil festooned with orange blossoms. They were attended to the altar by Miss Ethel Skinner, bridesmaid, and Mr. Cusick of Salem, groomsmen. The bride and bridegroom carried bouquets of bridal roses. After congratulations, Dr. and Mrs. Ball with the guests were taken to the dining room by Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, where a sumptuous repast was served in elaborate style to about 100 guests. The spacious parlors were artistically decorated with graceful festoons from chandeliers to corners of rooms, palms and exotic plants, while many beautiful calla lilies, roses and carnations added to the beauty and fragrance of the rooms. The numerous and elegant presents were evidence of the high esteem in which the wedded pair are held by their many friends. At 9:30 the happy couple donned their traveling suits and were whirled away for a trip through California. They will reside in Portland.

COLLEGE ITEMS. A great deal of amusement was caused Friday morning by the annual comic valentine.

Everett Weesner is now a student. He comes to school in the afternoon and recites book-keeping. We are glad to say that the gymnasium is now almost completely under cover, many of the boys having worked faithfully last Saturday.

Not long ago the boys "chipped in" and made the purchase of a good-sized looking glass, which made its welcome appearance in the boys hall Thursday morning. Ben Patton, in company with a cousin and a lady friend of Oregon City who have been visiting in town lately, were in attendance at chapel exercise Monday morning.

Some of the members of the Zoology class have found and prepared some very nice specimens of frogs eggs in several stages of incubation. The class is doing good work. Although it is strictly proper to send valentines, before certain students send them around promiscuously they should wait until they know the difference between the comic and the obscene ones.

Van Leavitt, who it was stated last week went to join the regular army, did not pass the examination. He stood it all right until a slight derangement of the heart was discovered of which he was unaware. Mr. Callison of Willamette University in company with his brother, R. W. Callison, visited chapel exercises Thursday morning. Mr. Callison will represent the University in the state oratorical contest, to be held at Portland.

Carl Stanley, an old student who has been working in the Portland Oil Mills this winter, has been visiting with the home folks lately. He left for Heppner, Eastern Oregon, Tuesday, where he will work on a ranch for N. C. Maris. An odoriferous quadruped has taken up his abode in the college basement, under the chapel. From all indications he seemed a little uneasy Monday morning during chapel exercises and the effect was extremely disagreeable.

John H. Green, a member of the Board of Managers of Puum College, Oskaloosa, Iowa, who with his wife has been visiting her brother, Matthew Terrell, the last few weeks, led the chapel exercises Tuesday morning. The delegates elected by the different classes to attend the oratorical contest at Portland, the 28th, are as follows: Seniors, O. K. Edwards, chairman of delegation, and H. F. Ong; Juniors, W. G. Allen and O. L. Price; Sophomores, O. L. Cox and W. C. Woodward; Freshmen, Miss Jessie Britt and W. S. Parker. Last Saturday evening Canyon Hall was the scene of a very enjoyable occasion. The old members of the Y. M. C. A. gave the new members an oyster supper. Crokinole and many other games were features of the evening's entertainment. Music was also rendered on the piano, organ, autoharp, accordion and mouth organ. All had a very pleasant time.
