J. H. Zeilin & Co., Phila., Pa. DENVER'S CHIEF OF POLICE

A Complaint Filed Asking for His Arrest and Imprisonment. Denver, April 27.-Mrs. Emma G. York has filed a complaint in the district court against Chief of Police John L. Russell, asking for his arrest and imprisonment, until he shall turn over $1,300, which it is alleged he took from her and now refuses to return.

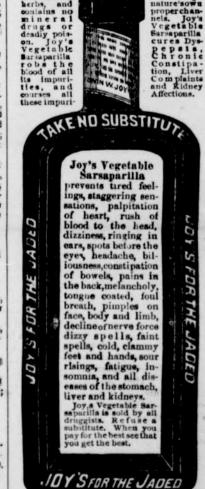

The complaint recites that Mrs. York was passing through Colorado on her way to New Brunswick, Canada, when she was, without warrant of law, arrested, and $1,300, which was on her person, forcilby taken from her against her will. Mrs. York was arrested by Russell on a telegram from San Francisco, alleging that she had stolen $22,-000 worth of diamonds from the estate

A messenger arrived from San Francisco with a requisition for the return of Mrs. York, but the matter was fought on habeas corpus proceedings before Judge Hallet, in the United States district court, and the prisoner was freed. After her discharge the money, it is alleged, was demanded, but was not forthcoming.

Bishop, Cal., April 27.-Sheriff Given and a posse, pursuing William McCarty, the murderer of J. E. Lewis, found his trail and followed it until they found his body about 12 miles west of Teal's marsh, in Esmeralda county, Nevada. He had been dead about 18 hours. He had only one biscuit, his boots were worn out and there was no hope of escape. He shot him-self with a rifle, blowing the entire top

Colonel Brown, who has published the Basin Times for the past two years, has decided to remove to Butte and will pulbish the Butte Times.
