 Those pneumatic water fountains for poultry yards at Wilson's grocery catch the eye of poultry fanciers. No filthy water and no drowning of chicks.
 The smokers in town have been in high glee for the past few days as one of the local candidates for a county office has been sending up the cigars quite freely.
 Henry Str. Clair has bought a small tract of land on the south side of the Willamette, this side of Oregon City, where he will move his family at an early day.
 Dr. Rickard of Sherwood brought Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hogan's little child up here last Saturday and he and Dr. H. J. Littlefield amputated the middle finger on one hand.
 Did you say you wanted a job? Well, you had better drop in at Parker & Hodson's and let them fit you out in a neat, serviceable spring suit before you start out in search of work.
 Hon. Wallace McCamant who will speak at Armory hall on next Monday night is an interesting speaker and well able to interest an audience.
 Several persons in town felt very confident that Sheriff Henderson was off on the date in his notice posted last week, calling attention to the election to be held June 1, but the sheriff was right in his date.
 Take a dose of DeWitt's Little Early Risers just for the good they will do you. These little pills are good for indigestion, good for headache, good for liver complaint, good for constipation. They are good. A. T. Hill.
 Smith the photographer finds that it always pays to satisfy his customers by doing first class work at prices to suit the times. Photos 3x4 inches for 35 cents per dozen. All other work as cheap as any gallery in town.
 Attorney Clarence Butt went to La Fayette last Tuesday night and delivered an address, the subject of which was "Launched but Withier Bound." This has been commencement week at the seminary and he filled a place on the program.
 The members of the Catholic church held a meeting at the residence of Wm. McLaughlin one day last week to canvass the matter of building a church on the piece of land bought by the church out northwest of town a year ago, and it is reported that they will build at an early day.
 The regular monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor will be held at 8 o'clock next Saturday evening at the Friends church. Pres. Newlin will give a short address on "Our Special Field," and Rev. James Price will tell "How We May Assist the Church." Everybody welcome whether members of the society or not.
 The preliminary field day of the college will be held on the college campus Saturday, May 2. The events will consist of foot races, distance from one-half to one mile in length; jumping, pole vaulting, etc. There will also be bicycle races in which some visiting men from McMinnville will participate. The program will open with a bicycle parade in which all gentlemen and lady cyclists are invited to take part. Don't leave your wheel at home because it is old style. A ten cent admission will be charged to pay the expenses of the day. Ladies free.

The Graphic and the Oregonian for $2.00.

 J. E. Todd of McMinnville was in town a day or two last week taking a very active part in the canvass of the political situation.
 O. M. Coffin of the Graphic office visited with Charley Johnson's at Salem last Saturday, returning on the steamer Ramona Sunday morning.
 Prof. Lewis has moved to the Hastings property on River Street. Mrs. Lewis, who has been sick for several weeks, is now gaining strength very nicely.
 A few of Charley Wilson's friends astonished him somewhat on Thursday night of last week by walking in and assisting him to properly celebrate his 21st birthday.
 Joseph Porter, a Sheridan merchant, has rented the store room on Main street formerly occupied by Sutton & Christenson and will move his stock here at an early day.
 J. H. Townsend has a prospect of making a contract with the new immigration board of Portland to go east with his stereoscopic and a selection of views to be furnished by the board, and in this may advertise Oregon.
 The farmer has to sell his stock cheap and it is cheap meat that you want, while it is your money I want. Take advantage of the supposed short life of the Central Meat Market and lay meat at hard time prices. J. S. Baker.
 Oliver McClure, the fourteen year old son of Newton McClure, who lives near the fair grounds, died of fever on last Saturday after a few days sickness. He was taken very sick from the start and it seemed that nothing could be done for him.
 Marcus Blair left here last week with his horse and buggy for an overland trip to Eastern Washington where he expects to spend the summer canvassing for the sale of a book. He took a load of dried prunes with him to dispose of on the road.
 B. C. Miles went to Salem last Friday to meet his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Miles, who arrived there that day on her way home from California. Mrs. Miles reports a pleasant visit among her relatives and friends, and comes home in good health.
 For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question everyone must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of those quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with. For sale by A. T. Hill.
 Hon. Presley Denny and wife of Salt Lake City visited with N. E. Britt's one day last week. They were neighbors and intimate friends in the Mormon country some fifteen years ago. Mr. Denny, who is a brother of Judge Denny of La Fayette, is speaker of the House in the Utah legislature. He is a prominent attorney in his home city and was one of the counsel in the great John D. Lee trial.
 Rev. A. M. McCart, who was pastor of the M. E. church in Newberg two years ago, died of quick consumption in the city of Portland on Wednesday, April 29, 1896. By request of the deceased the burial will be made here today. Funeral services were announced to be held at the M. E. church last night at 8 o'clock. The deceased made many friends while engaged in pastoral work in Newberg, who will mourn his death in early manhood.
 A resident here who owns land in western Kansas received a letter recently from the agent who has charge of the place, saying that considerable of the land had blown away and that other soil which was covered by mortgage had been moved onto it. The agent seems to think, however, that the party holding the mortgage will not be able to give any trouble. This is one of those cases, probably, where a suit is necessary to "quiet" land in place of the title.
 Dr. Goucher of McMinnville was in town last Friday in consultation with Dr. Eather Barnard respecting the condition of Miss Ella Bond who has been sick for some time with fever. This has been a very aggravated case and as there is some lung trouble developing the physicians have decided to try the aseptic remedy. The effect will be watched with much interest and Miss Bond's friends sincerely hope that the new remedy will restore her to health again.
 A musical entertainment was given last Friday night over the wires of the Willamette Valley Telephone Company in which Portland, Middleton, Newberg, Dayton, LaFayette and McMinnville participated. The music from the Newberg office was furnished by the Newberg orchestra, composed of Charley Holson, organ; Samuel Lasher, violin; Mrs. Nellie Jones, guitar, and Luther Charles, violin. Sibyl Woodward also gave a piano solo from the residence. The McMinnville brass band furnished excellent music, Pete Olds of LaFayette, sang "The Fatal Wedding" to good effect and Portland's high class music was very entertaining.

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING.
 The Hon. Wallace McCamant of Portland will speak at Armory hall on Monday night, May 4, from a republican standpoint. A general invitation is extended to all parties to attend and hear this speech.
Pension Allowed.
 A dispatch was received here Thursday morning giving the information that J. P. Thomas' pension had been increased to $12 a month and back pay to the amount of $400 allowed. This comes in answer to a very lengthy petition forwarded in his behalf to Washington a few months ago.
 The many friends of Mr. Thomas and his family will rejoice with them over this good news. He has long been a sufferer from paralysis and if there is an old soldier in the country who deserves a pension he is one of them. While justice has been tardy in reaching this case, the money is none the less welcome and it will be put to good use by the family. Long may they live to enjoy it.
Bicycle Club Formed.
 Twenty-five bicycle riders, including ladies, old men and boys, met at Morris & Miles store on Thursday evening of last week and organized a bicycle club. F. A. Morris was elected president; C. B. Friswell, vice-president and captain; Miss Maggie Inglis, secretary; E. D. Elwood, treasurer.
 The question of the proper conduct of bicycle riders on the walks was discussed and a committee appointed to formulate rules governing the same. The club will meet again at the same place on Saturday evening when new names will be added to the roll, a name to be chosen for the club and other business to be considered. Every bicycle rider in the community, young or old is invited to join the club.
Cures Croup.
 "My three children are all subject to croup; I telegraphed to San Francisco, got a half dozen bottles of S. B. Cough Cure. It is a perfect remedy. God bless you for it. Yours, etc., J. H. Crozier, Grants Pass, Or. 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.
Notice.
 Bills will be received up to 4 o'clock, p. m., May 18th, for sixty cents of fuel to be corded in the boards of school building. Also bills received for janitor work for the ensuing year. Right reserved to reject any and all bids.
 M. Voraw,
 Clerk School District No. 29.
For the Kidneys.
 "I am 65 years old; have had kidney disease and constipation for 25 years. Am now well—used your S. B. Headache and Liver Cure one year. Used 6 bottles at 50 cents each. J. H. Knight, Rutledge, Or." For sale by all druggists.
Comic Picture.
 James Conie has leased the Stanley & Cooper meat market for the summer and has taken possession. Call on him for a nice juicy steak or roast.
Avoid Consumption.
 By stopping that cough. We know of no better remedy for coughs and colds than the S. B. Cough Cure. 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.
Free Hack.
 The O. C. Transportation Co. has made arrangements with Everett Weener to run a free hack to carry passengers to the steamers Altona and Ramona. A boat each way every day. First class accommodations and quick time.
For sale.
 Eggs for setting, from choice Silver Laced Wyandottes. E. H. Woodward.
 The old Vanouse house on the place on the side of Parrett mountain now belonging to Mrs. Clarinda Ward caught fire on Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock and burned to the ground. Mrs. Ward's sons were batching in the house and they had left a fire burning and the house was not worth much but the other losses come pretty heavy on the boys just at this time.
 Dr. H. J. Minthorn who has been engaged in the practice of medicine at Muscatine, Iowa, for the past two years writes to his relatives in Newberg that he has contracted to go to Metlakatla, Alaska, to engage in the practice of medicine among Mr. Duncan's Indians on that island. Mrs. Minthorn is expected here soon and the doctor will come a little later. They will be at home in the Indian way as they have spent a considerable part of their lives among the Indians.
 The republicans are arranging for a number of speeches in Newberg by prominent men of the party between this and election day the first Monday in June, and the campaign will be closed by a big speaking and a grand blow out on Saturday night previous to the election. Look out for posters.
WANTED—Several trustworthy gentlemen or ladies to travel in Oregon for established, reliable house. Salary $750 and expenses. Steady position. Enclose reference and self addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Third Floor, Omaha Bldg., Chicago, Ill. 11-8
 What did you say about the Newberg Meat Market? It would not be closed long? You were right. It is now open and we are ready to supply you with good meat. Don't forget us when you want anything in our line.
 STANLEY & COOPER.
 Word comes from Heppner, Morrow county, that Rev. E. P. Greene, the pastor of the M. E. church at that place, was married on Friday, April 24, 1896, to Miss Jessie Cox, who is well known in Newberg.

COLLEGE ITEMS.
 Attention! Field day tomorrow. A little brother of Roy Smith was a visitor Tuesday.
 Guy Metcalf could not stand the pressure. He rides a new Crescent.
 The Misses Lora and Dema Reece were visitors Wednesday morning.
 Gid Larkin made a short call on the Biology class Wednesday afternoon.
 Nelson Morrison of Salem, brother of Prof. Morrison attended college Monday morning.
 For rent.—George's seat in the study room, he having been called higher to the joy of his—
 Hugh Nelson is all right for the 220 yard race. He made it the other evening in 25 seconds.
 Rev. Krause, of Sheridan, a late graduate of Yale college, conducted chapel exercises Monday morning.
 Its getting pretty desperate Lewis, when the C. E. flower committee has to furnish—two-lips—for your lady.
 Lally delegate to Y. W. C. A. convention: "Oh, I had the nicest time. I got to ride on the street car just lots and lots."
 Freshman Roy, what couldst thou have been dreaming of that thou shouldst have forgotten thine algebra recitation?
 Perhaps Wiley will be more careful in the future how he fools with the Juniors in school hours. If not the next dose will be more bitter still, Wiley.
 If there is anything in sweet and pleasant memories that will some of our students have when in after years they chance to think of the library.
 O. K. Edwards and O. L. Cox were in Portland Saturday and Sunday. Sunday afternoon they took charge of the Portland University Y. M. C. A. meeting.
 The field day exercises tomorrow will consist of bicycle racing, foot racing, vaulting and jumping. McMinnville men will participate in the bicycle races. Admission 10 cents; ladies free.
 Herbert Cash and S. T. Stanley took about a ten mile run up the mountain and back in the rain Monday evening after school. If they keep this up they will surely have the endurance.
 Miss Pearl Cummings spends a part, and a pleasant part, of her time in riding a bicycle. Miss Pearl has not been riding long but she is quite proficient already and will no doubt make a splendid rider.
 Remember the bicycle parade tomorrow at the college track. Let everybody in the country who has a wheel, or can borrow one, no difference if it is an old model, come and ride. Both gentlemen and ladies will ride.
 The Misses Sargeant, Newlin, Cox, Bond and Lambright went to Portland Friday to attend the convention of the Pacific coast Y. W. C. A. They returned Monday on the boat and reported a most pleasant time.
 Prof. Lewis has been bothered the past week with a bad cold and was so hoarse Tuesday he could not carry on recitations. He got along very well however with Miss Hinchman to act as spokesman occasionally.
 Chapel exercises Wednesday morning were taken up by Miss Sargeant and Miss Bond with the report of the Y. W. C. A. convention held in Portland. We would like to have also heard from the younger members of the delegation.
