

NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1896.

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Newberg, Oregon.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Oregon state Women's Christian Temperance Union has been in session at Friends church in Newberg during the week, presided over by Mrs. Kinney of Astoria as president.

On Tuesday night the church was filled with an audience gathered to listen to the participants in the Democratic gold medal contest, eight in number, and on Wednesday night the church was again well filled, the principal event of the evening being an enthusiastic address on temperance by the president, Mrs. Kinney.

The Graphic will contain a detailed account of the work of the convention next week.

An "honest dollar" is what the country wants.

Down with the man who has by careful management laid by a dollar for a rainy day!

It looks now like Wm. McKinley's name would be the only one presented to the St. Louis convention.

County clerk Asa McKern has made one of the most accomplished officials Yamhill county has ever had.

Say, it was because Coxey and his "army" failed to "behave properly" that they were called down. Did you know that?

A vote for Prof. J. C. Hodson for school superintendent is a vote for a man of progressive ideas along educational lines.

Jasper L. Hewitt is a fine penman and well able to keep the recorder's books in the same efficient manner that Capt. Wyatt Harris has kept the records during his official career.

The cool cloudy weather tends to keep the blood of the hot headed street politician down to normal, but it has been hard on prune growers and farmers who are kept behind with their seedling.

The free and unlimited amount of rainfall during the past month at a ratio of 29 to 1—that is 29 rainy days to 1 without rain, seems to have even discounted Pague's forecasts for a late cold spring.

Competitive examinations in the Federal service which were first introduced by President Grant have been extended from time to time until the number of places filled by these examinations now reaches 85,135.

The imported "Cyclones" and "Blizzards" speak for the populists in other parts of Oregon but when they reach Yamhill they are billed for the binets. Some of the boys wince when these speakers refer to "us populists."

"The editor of at least one paper at this late day" is engaged in kicking himself at odd spells since he realizes that he got his foot in it badly when he tried to create dissensions among the republicans and made such a signal failure of it.

The editor of the McMinnville Bee said in the first issue, "we are indifferent as to whether we are called populist, bi-metalist, anarchist or socialist." It is safe to infer that the Bee considers that the above named terms mean one and the same thing.

If the editor of the "only" had known how soon lightning was going to strike at his own door, that weighty editorial endorsement of Stanley would never have appeared of course, so his brethren should not lay it up against him. He won't do it any more.

Prof. J. C. Hodson announces that he will, if elected to the office of county school superintendent, devote his entire time to visiting the schools and looking after their interests, and that he will ever strive to make the public schools of Yamhill county second to none in the state.

Mr. J. C. Hodson, republican candidate for school superintendent, was in the city last Saturday, forming new acquaintances. Mr. Hodson is one of our brightest Yamhill boys, receiving most of his education from schools in this county, and got his first diploma from Prof. L. H. Baker, since which time he has been at the head of our best institutions of learning. Mr. Hodson will add dignity to the educational interests of Yamhill.—Transcript.

Just as we are beginning to get a little sunshine and we had about concluded that all would be lovely in a few days, here comes Mr. Rindford of the weather service with the following scientific reasons for the continuance of the rains: There is a succession of winter storms in the British Northwest, moving between the latitudes 50 and 55 degrees. This is a condition which obtains in the winter season. So long as storms move south at such a latitude, the weather of the Pacific coast will be influenced by them. When storms move north at a high latitude, the prevailing high barometric pressures of the California coast also move north up the coast to about latitude 50 and 52 and then pass eastward. Such a movement of high barometric pressure would indicate approaching spring and decreasing rainfall, since the winds blow from them southward and give us northerly winds when they have obtained a sufficiently high latitude. Sometimes this action on the part of high barometric pressures occurs early in April; then again toward the latter part of May; but it is safe to assert that there will be no generally fair and springlike weather until the first appearance of an area of high barometer which moves north in the manner set forth above. As for snows in the mountains, they are altogether too local to affect any such general conditions. They are felt by people who live near enough to them, but they bear no more relation to the areas of barometric pressure, as a means of influencing weather conditions, than the stars do to the sun as a means of furnishing light to the earth.

In view of the great scarcity of money so many are complaining about, it strikes one as a little singular that there should be $166,000 of deposits lying in the two banks of McMinnville. That is the showing made by their last public statement, published in the local paper on or about March 13th. There are four other banks in the county and it is difficult to say how much more they represent of a similar condition. This money is deposited by the people for convenience and safe keeping. The depositors are receiving no interest on it and the banks are loaning very little, so the money is lying idle. Some say the bankers are at fault in keeping the money locked up, but they do not stop to consider that the people to whom it actually belongs are equally culpable. Both without question would be only too glad to have the money safely invested and returning a nice profit. Whatever else the facts indicate, they show clearly that there is more money in the country than is necessary to transact the business and that something is needed besides more money to make times prosperous. That something is the restoration of conditions under which the country prospered up to and during 1892, when profitable employment was given to 5,200,000 persons in the manufacturing industries and farmers received double the amount for their wool and other products that they command at present. The return of those conditions will not be brought about by coining the products of the silver mines owned by a handful of millionaires.—Reporter.

It would be a great thing for some people and for the country if they could get hold of the truth that their woeful and wretched life is unfounded and wasteful. They are gratuitously expending their money, themselves, and for others as far as they can by lying awake nights for fear some ghost may carry them off. Are they not able to see, what many millions of "the plain people" have seen all the time, that the money question is rendered harmless and empty by making the tariff the controlling issue? Give the millions prosperity, good wages and plenty of work, and the agitation about money dies of starvation. Put into the Treasury a sufficient revenue to meet all public expenditures, with a reasonable surplus for exigencies or for reduction of the Nation's debt, and there is no reason to fear that the ability of the Government to maintain good payments. Give the people ample employment for their funds in active business, and they are not going to lock them up in idleness by hoarding gold, or by sending it away to any other country where it cannot be as profitably employed.—New York Tribune.

After a lapse of fifteen centuries Greece has seen the revival of her Olympic Games, and in this revival it is gratifying to national pride to be able to chronicle that American athletes were more successful than those of any other country. The Olympian Games were the most prominent of many similar periodic celebrations or festivals in other places. The Olympic Games were first held in 776 B. C. in Olympia in Elis. The festivals were celebrated at intervals of four years in honor of Zeus. The importance of the games was so great that the Greeks computed time by them, the period being called an "Olympiad." For the country at large the festival ministered to the selfish and malignant passions of rival cities, each of which felt its honor to be concerned in the success of the individual. To the winner, however, the games brought lifelong honor, for when he returned to his city the walls were thrown down to give him entrance, he was crowned and borne in triumphant procession and he was freed from all taxes. The games were finally abolished in A. D. 394 by the Emperor Theodosius.

It has been a good while since Newberg had a celebration on July 4. Why can't we have one this year? The smoke of the battle of June 1 will be cleared up by that time, and no difference who comes out on top we will all rejoice over the fact that we live under the stars and stripes.

Watt Henderson has attended to his duties as sheriff during the past two years in a way that has made him solid with the people and on every hand the remark is heard, "Henderson will succeed himself all right."

The first bright day a fellow was heard to growl after this fashion: "Now I reckon it will be as dry as a bone in a few days and remain so all summer." That fellow needs a spanking.

Had Newberg only known that the white ribbon convention would bring such nice weather it would have been arranged for some time ago.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Yamhill County Reporter. The supreme court has just decided in a case appealed from Union county that women are ineligible to the office of county superintendent in this state. There are, at present, fifteen women running for that office. Yamhill furnishes one of them in the person of Mrs. Helen Hartford of Newberg, the prohibition nominee.

A down east farmer who had bought a farm with a piece of marshy ground back of the house, was strongly persuaded from the amount of shouting that greeted his ears that he would have a large crop of bullfrogs to dispose of. Knowing that frogs commanded a high price in the city, he went down and engaged a couple of carloads to a wholesale dealer. A month or so after, the time having come for the delivery of the goods, the rural citizen once more appeared at the place of business, and holding out a string upon which about a dozen of the amphibious kickers were strung, he said the same in fulfillment of his contract. "How is this," said the city man, "you agreed to bring me two carloads of 'very true,'" replied the farmer, apologetically, "but you see, mister, from the amount of noise they made down in the back lot I was sure there was a million of them, but they fell short, they were only a couple of hundred." The Daugherty of Sheridan. He says that is just the way the populists fooled us two years ago, and he is of the opinion it is about the way they will go out in June.

Wyatt Harris, Granville Baker and Dr. Goucher have gone to Southern Oregon to look after their interests. Development of their claims has progressed encouragingly so far, and has now reached a point that they determine in a short time whether they are to be called plutocrats.

The bi-populists are circulating a false charge against A. O. Durham, republican nominee for treasurer. They accuse him of being an infidel and identified with the secular organization. Nothing could be farther from the truth, and Mr. Durham authorizes a positive denial. He has never seen the inside of the secular hall, and in no respect shares or sympathizes with their belief. On the contrary, he is a member of the Methodist church and a believer in the doctrine it upholds.

The Straight Road. It would be a great thing for some people and for the country if they could get hold of the truth that their woeful and wretched life is unfounded and wasteful. They are gratuitously expending their money, themselves, and for others as far as they can by lying awake nights for fear some ghost may carry them off. Are they not able to see, what many millions of "the plain people" have seen all the time, that the money question is rendered harmless and empty by making the tariff the controlling issue? Give the millions prosperity, good wages and plenty of work, and the agitation about money dies of starvation. Put into the Treasury a sufficient revenue to meet all public expenditures, with a reasonable surplus for exigencies or for reduction of the Nation's debt, and there is no reason to fear that the ability of the Government to maintain good payments. Give the people ample employment for their funds in active business, and they are not going to lock them up in idleness by hoarding gold, or by sending it away to any other country where it cannot be as profitably employed.—New York Tribune.

After a lapse of fifteen centuries Greece has seen the revival of her Olympic Games, and in this revival it is gratifying to national pride to be able to chronicle that American athletes were more successful than those of any other country. The Olympian Games were the most prominent of many similar periodic celebrations or festivals in other places. The Olympic Games were first held in 776 B. C. in Olympia in Elis. The festivals were celebrated at intervals of four years in honor of Zeus. The importance of the games was so great that the Greeks computed time by them, the period being called an "Olympiad." For the country at large the festival ministered to the selfish and malignant passions of rival cities, each of which felt its honor to be concerned in the success of the individual. To the winner, however, the games brought lifelong honor, for when he returned to his city the walls were thrown down to give him entrance, he was crowned and borne in triumphant procession and he was freed from all taxes. The games were finally abolished in A. D. 394 by the Emperor Theodosius.

It has been a good while since Newberg had a celebration on July 4. Why can't we have one this year? The smoke of the battle of June 1 will be cleared up by that time, and no difference who comes out on top we will all rejoice over the fact that we live under the stars and stripes.

Watt Henderson has attended to his duties as sheriff during the past two years in a way that has made him solid with the people and on every hand the remark is heard, "Henderson will succeed himself all right."

The first bright day a fellow was heard to growl after this fashion: "Now I reckon it will be as dry as a bone in a few days and remain so all summer." That fellow needs a spanking.

Had Newberg only known that the white ribbon convention would bring such nice weather it would have been arranged for some time ago.

NEW FIRM

When the signal gun announced the approach of the winner all rose from their seats and strained their gaze toward the entrance to the Stadium. The cavalry dashed down the street, clearing the way for the runner. He was righted approaching the goal with weary, panting strides. In an instant there arose a mighty cry of "We win!" The athlete was seized by the two princes, and the passer the king making a proud salute. Hats and flowers were thrown into the arena, and it seemed as though the applause would never cease. Then followed, according to the custom of ancient Greece, the bestowal of the much coveted olive crown, which were presented by the king with a diploma.

The American athletes were charmed with the after honors which they received at the hands of the king and Crown Prince George. They were banqueted several times in the palace of the king and were entertained in various ways. When leaving Greece they were surrounded by the people over whose line from Athens to Patras. It is almost needless to say the American athletes were enthusiastically received at their various colleges on their return.—Scientific American.

Real Estate Transfers. These transfers are furnished by the Yamhill County abstract company, McMinnville, Oregon. They have the only set of abstract books for Yamhill county and do a general title transfer business, and general correspondence and orders. Frank C. Ferguson, Manager.

Rasmus Nelson w d to W G Henderson by lot 4 and tract 5 and 6 blk 22 John's add to McMinnville 1 00 W G Henderson w d to Rasmus Nelson 1st lot 1 and tract 7 and 8 blk 22 John's add to McMinnville 1 00 F W Drake et al q d J H Post all s e 1/4 sec 17 3 5 1 00 Henry Westerman w d to F W Drake s e 1/4 sec 17 3 5 600 00 J R Smith and w f d to Henry Clemmens undiv 1/2 lot 7 and s blk 15 Central add to Newberg 1200 00 Isaac F Emery and E G Artman w d to Mary Shuck e 1/2 sec 10 3 5 500 00 Mary C Warren and Lizzie A Callison w d to Henry Johnson 31 acres of N B beam d 1 c 4 4 350 00 Ida Fletcher to W B Bray w d lots 1 2 blk 21 Newby's add to Rowland's add to McMinnville. Patent 70 00 U S to Isaac Agee, patent, d 1 e of Isaac Agee 70 00 W G Henderson sheriff a d to J L Davis pt lot 2 blk 7 H & L add to Newberg 70 00 Sam Hobson and A T Blair ex d John W and Vina Hodson 13 acres O J Walker d 1 c 1000 00

The Chautauqua Assembly. The third annual meeting of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly will be held at Oregon City July 7 to 17 inclusive. Great preparations have been made for this meeting and it is expected that it will be the greatest literary treat ever offered in the northwest. The following is the program of the list of popular lectures that will be delivered during the assembly: The Devil in Politics, Dr. Carlos Martyn, Chicago. The Science of Art, (illustrated) Edward Davis, Oakland, Cal. The Age We Live In, Mrs. Marion B. Baxter, Chicago. Humorous Lectures, Frank Lincoln, New York City. The Monroe Doctrine and the Nicaragua Canal, Pres. W. C. Hawley, Salem. Chemistry Related to Agriculture, Prof. G. W. Shaw, State Agricultural College. Physical Culture, (illustrated) by Prof. J. R. Werberber, State University. Cause and Effect, Mortimer Whitehead, New Jersey. The Building of a Man, Elbert R. Dille, San Francisco. Husbands and Wives, Dr. Carlos Martyn, Chicago. Shakespearean Reading, Alice Howell-Handcock, Chicago. The Public Libraries, Rev. Anna Shaw, Philadelphia. From New York to Jerusalem, Selah Brown, Los Angeles. A Pilgrimage to American Shrines, Elbert R. Dille, San Francisco. New America, Edward Davis, Oakland, Cal. Original Poem, Ella Higginson, New Whitcomb, Wash. Away down South to Dixie, Selah Brown, Los Angeles. Woman and the Ballot, Susan B. Anthony, New York. Our Duty toward Cuba, Pres. W. C. Hawley, Salem. Organization for Farmers, Mortimer Whitehead, New Jersey.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the undersigned for the construction of the following bridges in accordance with plans and specifications now on file in the office of the County Clerk, to-wit: Bridge over Panther creek on the Carlton road near Mr. Alberts. Bridge across Gully near Clem Scotts farm. Bridge across creek near Wirfs place on the Newberg road. Bridge across a creek at Whiteson. Bridge across the North Yamhill river in Moores Valley on the Titamont road. Bridge across the North Yamhill river at McLoys in Moores valley. All bids to be for work and material. Bids to be opened Wednesday, June 3, 1896, at one o'clock p. m. The right to reject any and all bids reserved. By order of the board of County Commissioners. A. E. MCKERN, County Clerk.

The Great Falls Tribune states that the cattle ranges of Montana are yearly becoming more restricted as the state settles up, and there are now only two or three large pasture ranges left open to cattlemen in that state. The Rocky Mountain Husbandman says that there is no industry which it can so heartily recommend to a man of small means just starting in Montana as cattle raising. This man must start with no more cattle than he can provide winter feed for. It is evident that the cattle business in Montana is changing from the range system to the farm system.

Pat Churchman, Dick Churchman, G. G. Guild, Hon. Thomas Faulconer, Geo. Bradley, Geo. Neely, B. F. Danahoe, B. B. Branson, J. S. Wilson and W. T. Raleigh, came down from Sheridan on Tuesday morning's train expecting that the Texas Cyclone would speak in the afternoon. They returned on the evening train.

Did you ever think how readily the blood is poisoned by constipation? Bad blood means bad health and premature old age. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, overcome obstinate constipation.

NEW FIRM PARKER & HODSON, AT THE Newberg Clothing House Are "In It" for Trade.

Gold, Silver, Greenbacks, Bank notes, or M. & M. due bills taken at par in exchange for goods.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE GREAT BATTLE. First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may be a trial which, though it is a blessing, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word a tender look will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom.—To this we would add always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by A. T. Hill. Pronouncement. In accordance with a custom long established, the 30th day of May will be observed by the old soldiers of Newberg and vicinity as Decoration Day. This beautiful custom of strewing flowers upon the graves of our dead may with equal propriety be observed by all. We therefore suggest that the people of Newberg, as far as practicable, join with the old soldiers in this paying respect to the dead, and that the business hours of the city be closed between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m. on said day. OAM C. EMERY, Mayor. Notice. Our price for washing Carnets is three cents per yard instead of four cents. After April 18, 1896, our price for Laundrying Ladies Hair Warts will be 15c. instead of 10c. NEWBERG STREAM LAUNDRY. For Sale. Beautiful property to give away, with a pony thrown in. See Mrs. SUE HOLLOWAY. For the Lungs. Elder Alson W. Steers writes from Portland, Or.: "There is no medicine for the throat and lungs that I can recommend to ministers, public speakers and singers, with the confidence that I can the S. B. Cough Cure." 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists. For Sale. A 40 acre farm, six miles from Newberg. Half in cultivation, fine water. Price $600. For particulars inquire at Graphic office. 11-11 A. L. Wooster, a prominent citizen of Oasco, Mich., after suffering excruciatingly from piles for twenty years, was cured in a short time by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, an absolute cure for all skin diseases. More of this preparation is used than all others combined. A. T. Hill. For Sale. Eggs for setting, from choice Silver Laced Wyandottes. E. H. WOODWARD. Eczema is a frightful affliction, but like all other skin diseases it can be permanently cured by applications of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It never fails to cure Piles. A. T. Hill. No fruit or wren can afford to let the slugs injure his cherries and peaches. Air-slaked lime or ordinary dust will kill them. In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of—DeWitt's Little Early Risers, for they always cleanse the liver, purify the blood, and invigorate the system. A. T. Hill. The annual wool production of Africa is 132,000,000 pounds of which Cape Colony, Natal and the Orange Free State furnish 97,500,000 pounds. DIRECTORS: J. C. COLCORD, N. E. BRITT, J. E. EDWARDS, E. H. WOODWARD, B. C. MILES, S. E. BRITT.

W. P. HEACOCK, DEPT LUMBER YARD, NEWBERG, OREGON. FANCY CASINGS IN CEDAR, FIR, REDWOOD, YELLOW PINE ETC., ETC. DOORS, LATH, GLASS, WINDOWS, LIME, SASH, MOULDINGS, SAND, WEIGHTS, SHINGLES, HAIR, CORD. Builders Hardware. PACIFIC COLLEGE. Newberg, Ore. College Classes, Normal Course, Book-keeping, All the Grammar School Studies, Music and Art.

BANK OF NEWBERG. CAPITAL STOCK, $30 000. DIRECTORS: J. C. COLCORD, N. E. BRITT, J. E. EDWARDS, E. H. WOODWARD, B. C. MILES, S. E. BRITT. Jesse Edwards, President. N. E. Britt, Vice Pres. B. C. Miles, Cashier.

OUR FRIENDS! The Hens have been the salvation of Oregon during these free trade times. You want the best breed. Try THE SILVER LACED WYANDOTTES. Eggs for Sale. E. H. WOODWARD. JOHN A. BECK, WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER, 270 Morrison St. PORTLAND, OR. DENTISTRY. I. L. SCOFIELD, Newberg, Oregon. Seamless gold crowns, bridge work, gold silver and bone fillings, aluminum and rubber plates; teeth extracted without pain. Prices reasonable. DENTISTRY. E. P. DIXON, Newberg, Oregon. Gold filling, seamless gold crowns and bridge work a specialty. All kinds American, Swiss and Silver filling done. Also artificial teeth with gold fillings at bedrock prices. All work warranted. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. CLARENCE BUTT, Newberg, Oregon. Prompt attention given to all legal business. OFFICE—second floor Bank of Newberg Building.

DEWITT'S LITTLE EARLY RISERS. The editor of the Fruit Grower's Journal of Cobden, Ill., who has had many years' experience as a fruit grower, has this spring, although 78 years old, planted 500 fruit trees. May both he and his trees live long and prosper. Mrs. R. DeYoung, Mickleberg, Iowa, writes, "I have used One Minute Cough Cure for six years, both for myself and children, and I consider it the quickest acting and most satisfactory Cough Cure I have ever used." A. T. Hill. There are a great many farmers who do not seem to appreciate the value of sweet corn for family use. In the west portion of Oregon good corn can be had usually from the first of August until the end of October. Young mothers dread the summer months on account of the great mortality among children caused by bowel troubles. Perfect safety may be assured by those who keep on hand DeWitt's Colic & Cholera cure, and administer it promptly. For cramps, bilious colic, dysentery and diarrhea. It affords instant relief. A. T. Hill.