During the process of Lillian Ashley's suit against E. J. Baldwin for $75,000 for seduction, in San Francisco, Emma Ashley, a sister of Lillian, tried to shoot the millionaire defendant. She fired at Baldwin, but the bullet missed. Emma Ashley is believed to be insane. During the trial she has spent her time in court reading the Bible. When taken to jail she sang "Nearer My God, to Thee" in a loud voice. Baldwin was crazy with rage and wanted a chance to fight some one. His hair was singed by the powder and the bullet passed within an inch of his head. His escape is ascribed to the woman's inexperience with firearms. The pistol was thrown upward by recoil after the trigger was pulled.

Wheeling Injures Women.

A remarkable circular has been issued by the Women's Rescue League of Washington, D. C. It is signed by Charlotte Smith, president, and Virginia N. Lount, secretary of the legislative committee, and it calls attention in a most sensational manner to what she considers the manifold, moral and physical ill effect of the riding of bicycles by women. The occasion of the issuance of the circular at this time is that next week there will be a bicycle parade in Washington in which it is thought that fully 40,000 wheels will participate. Of the 45,000 bicyclists in the city at least 15,000 are women.

Squadron Drills.

Washington, July 6.—In the execution of the broad plans for the instruction of our naval officers in squadron drills and combined maneuvers, formulated by Secretary Herbert, the summer drills of the North Atlantic squadron, which will begin on the 15th inst., will find their counterpart in a series of squadron movements, target practice and fleet drills, to be conducted by the Pacific station by Admiral Beardsley. Because many of the ships naturally attached to his station, have been necessarily transferred to the Atlantic station, Admiral Beardsley will not have as many vessels available for his drills as will Admiral Bruce, on the Atlantic coast. Consequently, in order to be able to carry out a programme of any value, from an educational standpoint, he must make the most of such ships as he can command, and it will be impossible, therefore, this season to withdraw any of the ships, even temporarily, from the squadron to attend the local celebrations at various points on the Pacific coast, as has been customary in the past.

ON AN UPTURNED BOAT

Perilous Adventure of Two Astoria Fishermen.

BOTH BOAT AND NET WERE LOST

Capitulated in the Ocean. They Were Rescued by Men on Board the Lightship.

Astoria, Or., July 7.—Simon Pakkalo and his brother, Erik Paso, two fishermen working for Elmore, disappeared in this city today after an absence of several days, having been brought in from the lightship. Their boat was capsized on Thursday night, when a number of men ventured too far out and were caught in a heavy swell. Pakkalo's boat was the only one capsized, and he and his companion managed to cling to the upturned craft until seen by the men on board the lightship, when they were quickly rescued. Both boat and net were lost. Their escape from death was a narrow one, and was only due to the fact that they reached the vicinity of the lightship about daybreak.

The corner today brought down from Bear creek the body of Samuel Farley, who died in a drunken spree. The man, with several companions, had a gallon jug of whisky, and in the evening laid out in the road. The others left him, and the man rolled down a hill, landing face down. It is supposed he smothered in that position. He was 30 years old, unmarried, and was employed in Fraser's logging camp.

FRASER RIVER FLOOD.

Canadian Pacific Tea Train Went Into the River.

Vancouver, B. C., July 7.—The first fatality as a result of the high water in the Fraser river, occurred last night, about 11 o'clock, when a portion of a Canadian Pacific freight train, laden with tea, went into the river near Agassiz, and Edward Dearden, a brakeman, was killed.

It seems that the water had washed away the bank, leaving the rails and ties in place. The engineer in the dark did not notice this, and ran into the fatal spot, with the result that a revolution has broken out at Sucre, an important city, which was the capital of Bolivia until 1899. Election troubles are supposed to be the cause of the uprising.

Reports from Fraser river points state that the river is steadily rising. At Chilliwack, where the water has been down to 100 ft. on low lands, and the steamer Glady's has been busily engaged for the past few days in running cattle and settler's effects to high ground.

Northern islands also suffering from high water, and all down the river on both sides, wherever the low levels are not fully protected by high dikes, they are under water.

The Mission City townsites will also be under water in many parts if the hot weather continues. At New Westminster the water at high tide is two feet two inches below the mark made during the floods of 1894.

A ROYAL WEDDING.

An Event That Will Soon Demand All of London's Attention.

London, July 7.—The wedding of Princess Maud of Wales to Prince Charles of Denmark, has finally been fixed for July 23. The queen will attend the ceremony, and it has been practically decided that the young couple will travel London while on their way to Sandringham, in order to enable the masses to greet them.

It would take columns of space to briefly describe the host of charming costumes which have been prepared for the popular princess. The costumes are chiefly tailor-made, and include a bicycling costume of fawn-colored Venetian cloth with a narrow skirt, having little pockets at the hem to hold shot, intended to keep the dress in place. The Princess of Wales, among other gifts, has presented her daughter a superb circular cape of purple velvet lined throughout with the finest sable and having a deep sable collar.

A Deadly Duel
 Russellville, Ky., July 7.—A deadly duel took place near Adairville late yesterday afternoon. Dick Younger went to the town drunk, and as he rode out of town he fired his pistol. H. H. Harmon, the town marshal, mounted a horse and started after Younger. An hour later both men were found dead a mile from town. Both had been shot through the heart, and only one chamber in each revolver had been discharged. There were no witnesses. Younger was a relative of the famous Younger outlaws. Harmon killed two men in Tennessee several years ago. He was the only man in the town of Adairville who could keep order.

A Fisherman Drowned

The Dalles, July 5.—Jackson Gullick, a fisherman, aged 30 years, was drowned this morning, while repairing a fishwheel near town. The body has not yet been recovered. Gullick was an industrious young man, and the son of an old resident here. He leaves a wife.

Turkish Reserves Called Out

Salonica July 7.—All the Turkish reserves in the district have been called out.

"Three Friends" Fused

Key West, July 8.—The steamer Three Friends passed here at 9 A. M., pursued by the Spanish warship Alfonso XIII. Both vessels were under full steam. The Friends was between eight and ten miles ahead of the warship. Observers say the warship fired upon the Three Friends. The warship is cutting the three mile limit very close, and is trying to head off the Three Friends. It is reported the United States warship Maine, and United States cutters are getting up steam preparatory to intercepting both vessels. Great excitement prevails.

Ugly Feeling Prevailing

Cleveland, July 8.—Contrary to police fears, there was no violent demonstration last evening after the funeral of William Rettger, the striker at the Brown Hoisting & Conveying Company who was shot by a nonunion man. There was, however, a great deal of feeling manifest, and the authorities think the prospect for trouble tonight, when the men in the works go home, are fully equal to those of the preceding nights. The militia is still in its armories waiting orders. The funeral was an immense affair, fully 10,000 union men being in line.

General Young Dead

Washington, July 8.—A dispatch was received by the state department today announcing that General Pierce B. Young, United States minister to Guatemala and Honduras, died at New York at 11:30 today. General Young arrived in this country June 21. He submitted to an operation at the Presbyterian hospital, New York, and never recovered. He was a native of Georgia, and had a distinguished record for service in the Confederate army.

London, July 8.—A dispatch to the Standard from Athens says that the Cretans yesterday elected a provisional government, and decided to proclaim the union of the island with Greece, and, if pressed hope that autonomy will be granted to the island under surveillance of the powers.

Horrible Double Murder

San Francisco, Cal., July 8.—A horrible double murder has been committed here. The bodies of Mrs. H. R. Richardson, aged 60, and her daughter, Ethel, were found. They had been stabbed and beaten with a club, intense excitement prevails. There is no clue to the murder.

Newport, Ky. July 8.—Alonso J.

Walling, convicted of the murder of Pearl Bryan, was sentenced today to be hanged on August 7.

The School Population

Washington, July 7.—The total enrollment in educational institutions of all kinds in the United States for the school year of 1895-96 was nearly 16,000,000, according to the report for the year just promulgated by Commissioner of Education Harris. Of these all but 400,000 were in the regular schools, an increase of about half a million for the year. The percentage of total population enrolled in the schools was 20.63. School property gained in value during the year over $26,000,000, and 1,103 more schoolhouses were in operation. In the past twenty years the South has increased 64 per cent in population, but its school attendance has increased 130 per cent, more than twice as fast as the population. In the twenty years from 1874 to 1894, the value of school property in the South increased from $16,000,000 to $51,000,000.

Higher education has also made a good record. The report includes Special Agent McDonald's criminological investigation. The latter states that there can be no rational treatment of crime until the causes are investigated. He estimates nine-tenths of the crime to be due to social conditions.

Turkey's Policy Condemned

Philippopolis, July 7.—The consuls of the European powers are sending pessimistic accounts of the way in which hostilities are being conducted in Crete. The situation is such that should the ports insist in its conduct, French men-of-war may land troops on the island. The Armenian patriarch, Iemian, has asked permission to resign. Further outbreaks seem inevitable. The Turkish battalions at Jeddah, who mutinied on account of receiving no pay, have deserted their arms. There are no troops available to put down this revolt. The ports, foreseeing complications in Greece, Macedonia and Syria, is about to mobilize all the troops of the bedi, or landwehr.

The bones of the skull are arched because in that form the greatest strength is combined with the least weight and quantity of material.

Savelli's Successor

Rome, July 7.—According to a newspaper statement, Bishop Falconio, of Aconera, will replace Cardinal Savelli as papal legate to the United States. Bishop Falconio was once engaged at St. Buenaventura college, Albany, N. Y.

The New Ablegate

Bradford, Pa., July 7.—Bishop Falconio, now of Aconera, Italy, who has been appointed to succeed Monsignor Savelli as papal representative in the United States, was for several years professor of philosophy and later president of St. Buenaventura college at Albany, California, county, N. Y. Bishop Falconio is fully in touch with American affairs, a splendid English scholar and orator. He is a native of Italy.

Cleveland, July 8.—The strike at the Brown Hoisting Company's works has reached a point where the authorities, as well as the strikers, are in no
