For all kind of stove repairs, on short notice, see J. B. Mount. Emmor Hall's will move to their country home west of town today.

Orin Renne shipped as deck hand on board the steamer Toledo Wednesday. Orville Hodson and family of McMinnville visited with A. M. Hoskins last Sunday.

The Newberg post office has been advanced from a fourth class to a third class office. Buy your groceries of Porter—nice and fresh. The best of everything—the best is always the cheapest.

Mrs. A. W. Walker, her son Morris and W. N. Davis, of Portland, visited with C. B. Frisells last Sunday. A few loads of fine clover hay came to town this week from the J. A. Jones hay fields on Chehalum mountain.

It will pay you to read the article in this issue on the early settlement of Chehalum Valley from the pen of Mrs. Dr. Calbreath. Dr. H. R. Littlefield and wife, of Portland, stopped over here on Thursday of last week with Dr. Littlefield Jr., when on the way to Lafayette.

Prof. J. C. Hodson was elected superintendent of Friends Sunday school last Sunday to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Prof. J. J. Jessup. Clyde Hobson arrived home last week after a visit of several days with relatives at Marquam, Marion county. His grandfather Enos Blair came over with him.

In the mile bicycle race at McMinnville on the fourth, O. K. Edwards came in six inches behind Ogie, first man in 2:28, while in the novice race Oscar Cox fell only a foot behind the winner in 2:32. The farmer has to sell his stock cheap and it is cheap meat that you want, while it is your money I want. Take advantage of the supposed short life of the Central Meat Market and buy meat at hard time prices. J. S. Baker.

Boys who go bathing in the river should hunt for a secluded spot, in case they think the financial depression occasioned by "the crime of '73" will not admit of the purchase of bathing suits to cover their nakedness. Fresh colors are not appreciated this season. Henry Morris and wife, E. D. Elwood and wife, Tom Bryan and wife, Jim Barrie and mother, Orrie Burnett and Sam Lashier spent the fourth at Meadow Lake. The yarns that have been told since their return respecting the catch of fish would fill a moderate sized school primer.

The people of Newberg will be pained to read in another column a notice of the death of Mrs. L. C. Washburn, which occurred at her home near Woodville, Jackson county, July 3. The Washburn family were residents of Newberg for several years and the deceased has a large circle of friends here who will sympathize with the bereaved.

Prof. Edwin Morrison came up from Oregon City on the boat Wednesday morning and returned in the afternoon with supplies to fill out the Pacific College exhibit at the Chautauqua Assembly. He said he thought our college headquarters would when arranged, rank well with the other college tents on the grounds. The outlook is promising for the largest crowds and the best time ever had on the grounds.

A. M. Hadley left here on Wednesday morning for Spokane, Washington, where he has secured a place with a prominent insurance firm. A. M. will be at home in this business as he has followed writing insurance for many years and he is probably as conversant with the various details of the insurance business as most of the best insurance men in the west. He will be at home in time to cast his vote for McKinley and Hobart.

The fond mother who admonished her son to "never, never go in bathing until he had learned to swim" has been laughed at all these years, but she was not much out of the way after all, especially if she lived in reach of the Willamette river where small boys are risking their lives daily. The under current of the river is very cold and the lad who undertakes to swim this stream without a boat going along for assistance in case of accident, really takes his life in his own hands. A case of drowning makes a real good newspaper local but the little fellows will please spare the Graphic this season for the sake of their anxious mothers.

W. N. Sutton arrived home from his trip out south last Sunday. Miss Gertrude Craven has been visiting with friends at Middleton during the week. E. H. Skinner will have a pretty fair crop of prunes on his mountain-side fruit farm. Rev. Jas. P. Price took Thursday morning's boat for the Chautauqua Assembly.

Prof. J. J. Jessup and family and Herbert T. Cash left on Monday morning for Whittier, California. A. P. Oliver was the victim of a sprained ankle last Monday and has been going on crutches since. Miss Lizzie Truchlood returned to her home in Portland last Monday after a visit of three weeks with friends in town. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds, croup and whooping cough. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by A. T. Hill, druggist.

Little Lella, the daughter of Dr. Littlefield, fell from a table one day last week and broke her collar bone. The fracture is getting on nicely. Pass the good word along the line. Piles can be quickly cured without any operation by simply applying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A. T. Hill.

At the council meeting last Monday night Henry Morris was elected city marshal to fill the unexpired term of W. T. Macy, resigned. Bills amounting to $84.56 were allowed. The orchestra will give an open air concert and ice cream festival on the lawn between Jos. Wilson's store and Vestal's barber shop, on Friday evening, July 10. Good vocal and instrumental music. Everybody invited.

The statement made many years ago that "man cannot live by bread alone" is as true as it ever was—he must have a nice juicy steak or a roast of meat to go with it. Stanley & Cooper are always ready to furnish their customers with the best of fresh and smoked meats. Mrs. L. E. Minthorn and daughters left here on Monday for Kitchikan, Metlakatla Island, Alaska. It will probably be some time before the girls will see many young pale faces but they have their wheels with them for company.

Clyde Atkins, of Laurel, Washington county, has been reaping a pretty rich harvest lately from the sale of strawberries grown on the north side of Chehalum mountain, where berries ripen several days after the berries grown in the valley are gone. He has been marketing some very fine berries in town during the week. The Yamhill County Horticultural Society will hold the annual meeting at Lafayette, Tuesday, July 14, at 10 a. m., with the following program: 1:30 p. m. Secretary's report, president's annual address, discussion, election of officers, evaporators, exhibit of models by inventors. 8:00 p. m. Propagation and development of new fruits, by C. E. Hoskins, recitation, music.

J. H. Bees, Sec'y. C. E. Hoskins is down on the program for a paper on "Breeding Cherries" to be read at the midsummer meeting of the State Horticultural Society to be held at Corvallis, June 16th to 17th. Mr. Hoskins is the man who demonstrated the fact several years ago, that cherries could be grown successfully in the valley, although the old settlers shook their heads and said no. He will no doubt read an interesting and instructive paper. Mr. Wilson of Dundee came in from the mining regions of the Cascades about thirty-five miles east of Scotts Mills last week, where he had been prospecting. He staked a placer claim the prospects of which he is highly elated over. He will leave today for the mine prepared to do hydraulic mining, as he has plenty of water near by with a fall of eighty feet. His claim is farther back in the mountains than any of the other claims and he thinks it is much richer than any of them.

Frank Hanna received a Denver, Colorado paper a few days ago giving a picture of his father, Levi Hanna, and the residence near Greeley where he is living. The old gentleman is in his nineteenth year but he is still hale and hearty. His former home was in Ohio and in his younger days he was quite intimate with the McKinley's. Frank Hanna of Newberg and Mark Hanna, the manager of the McKinley campaign are first cousins. Of course Frank is solid for McKinley and Hobart.

Miss Kate Glen of Dayton has been employed to take the place of instructor in music in Pacific College, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Lula G. Sargeant. Miss Glen is quite well known to the people of this community and needs little recommendation as a teacher of music. Beside her excellent qualifications as a musical instructor, her ladylike bearing will be an excellent example to the young lady students of the college and there is little question but that a good selection has been made. Good results may be expected from Miss Glenn's work.

One year ago Mrs. C. J. Skinner was a bride; today she sleeps beneath the sods of the South Yamhill cemetery. Her death occurred yesterday afternoon and at 4 o'clock yesterday her remains were laid to rest. To be cut down in the prime of life when the future looks bright and cheerful, is sad indeed, especially when it casts a gloom about a new home. The sympathies of the entire community go out to the young husband who is thus sadly and suddenly bereft. Deceased was aged 28 years and was married to Mr. Skinner on June 29, 1895.—Transcript.

The deceased was a sister of Mrs. J. G. Hadley of Newberg. Hay Wanted. Chas. K. Spaulding wants 40 tons of timothy and 60 tons of cheat hay, baled and delivered in Newberg. 7-104f

Mrs. Isaac Miles and daughter left for their home on Bruno Ridge above Scotts Mills, Wednesday. S. Harris and family left here last Sunday by way of Salem for Canyon City, Grant county. Dr. Littlefield and family spent the fourth on Panther creek in the foothills of the Coast mountains. Ah, and Charley Moore with the latter's family started at an early hour Wednesday morning for Nestucca. O. V. and Will Allen have been running a confectionery stand at the Spiritualist's camp meeting at New Era.

Mrs. George Christensen and little daughter returned from a visit at Portland on last Tuesday by steamer Toledo. Columbus Mackey's arrived home from Meadow Lake last Monday where they had been rusticated for several days. Before leaving for California, Herbert Cash sold his six acre tract of land out on the side of Chehalum mountain to Thomas Herd. Lewis Hanson and Calva Martin attended a picnic above Salem near Marion on the fourth. They report a "most elegant time."

Dr. G. W. McConnell went to Portland on the steamer Toledo, Wednesday, to attend the meeting of the state board of medical examiners. Alberry George went up to The Dalles last week where he has a friend who wrote him he could get a summers job with a hay baling crew. A friend of Howard Williams' named Townsend, who was on his way from Portland to Dundee on a real estate deal, stopped over here last Friday night.

Joel P. Geer's scow, loaded with 100 yards of gravel, was sunk at the lower end of Ash Island Wednesday morning. The scow was being used to haul gravel to Champag. A number of the neighbors from the Chehalum Center community north of town congregated in the shade on the banks of the beautiful Willamette where they waved the stars and stripes and celebrated in basket dinner style. J. L. Davis, of West Chehalum, who was in town Wednesday said that hay harvesting was well under way and that wheat cutting would probably begin in a week or ten days. The dry hot weather is working a hardship on spring sown grain and much of it will be cut short.

A letter has been received here from Salem stating that Rev. Elwood Scott had been prevailed on by the Friends church in that city to remain until fall and that it was possible that he would put off his trip until spring. This decision was reached after a sale had been made of his personal property. President Newlin and family, Mrs. Woodward and children, Mrs. F. A. Morris, Prof. Morrison, Miss Maggie Ingles, Miss Emma Deskins, Mrs. Jane B. Votaw, Moses Votaw and Miss Florence Cook are in attendance at the Chautauqua Assembly at Oregon City. Others are intending to go so that it appears Newberg is to be pretty well represented.

J. B. David returned home last week from a point some fifteen miles from Glendale, Douglas county where he has mining interests. He with others have a mine bonded that has in the past been worked only by slow methods, but it promises good results and consequently they are arranging to spend some capital in putting things in shape to do more efficient work on the mine. Herbert T. Cash, who left here this week for California, anticipates returning to England in the fall where he has friends who are anxious to have him take special training for missionary work in India. He has had this field in mind for the past year or two and now that the opportunity offers he will enter on the necessary preparation. Herbert is an active, earnest christian, full of zeal for the missionary work and his many friends here feel hopeful that good results may attend his work in this foreign field.

Wm. Everest was in town Wednesday marketing some very fine Royal Ann cherries at five cents per pound. The crop is short but the price makes up pretty well for the shortage. Speaking of prices for fruit reminds one of a story Mr. Everest tells of selling apples from his father's orchard during the gold mining excitement in California. He says they had a basket which held a bushel and every time it was emptied of apples into the buyers wagon which stood in the orchard they received in return $15.00 in gold. It paid to be an Oregon orchardist those days.

A Lin Satted. Consumption and bronchitis are not by any means the same, although it is hard to distinguish one from the other. Bronchitis is an inflammation of the lining of the wind tubes or air vessels of the lungs, causing soreness of the same, cough, sore throat, hoarseness, difficulty of breathing, spitting of matter and sometimes blood. Thousands die annually with this dread disease. Wibber's Cough Cure will cure. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

There seems to be no end to the new ways of celebrating Fourth of July. The Youth's Companion special number for this year has three stories of exciting celebrations each of which is different from any other celebration. This special issue is so attractive that every member of the family will read it.

For the Kidneys. "I am 65 years old; have had kidney disease and constipation for 25 years. I am now well—used your S. B. Headache and Liver Cure one year. Used 6 bottles at 50 cents each. J. H. Knight, Rutledge, Or." For sale by all druggists.

Avoid Consumption. By stopping that cough. We know of no lozier remedy for coughs and colds than the S. B. Cough Cure, 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

Chautauqua Assembly. Gladstone Park, July 7, 1896. ENTOR GRAPIC: Nicely ensconced in our tents in the delightful tenting ground at Gladstone, we take up our pen to tell our friends at home something of what we have already heard, and something of what is yet in store for us. Yesterday afternoon campers began to arrive and before night there were about three hundred already on the grounds, and they are coming in rapidly today. At 11 o'clock this morning the program opened with music by the Coryvian Ladies' Band, Invocation, Pres. Thomas Newlin, Chairman, Col. Robert A. Miller then welcomed the Assembly. Col. Miller said that this is not a money making scheme, but is a plan to benefit unnumbered thousands. That the program for Gladstone Assembly is unrivaled by any eastern program for literary or musical talent. Look up the program in the University, responded in a very appropriate speech. The president then introduced Heads of Departments, all of whom made brief responses, all of whom were being opened with a reading, "The Song of the Bird," by Mrs. Alice Hamill-Handcock, of Chicago.

Mrs. Handcock is the famous daughter of a famous father, Prof. S. S. Hamill, one of the best known elocutionists in the United States. This was followed by a lecture, "The Devil in Politics," by Rev. Carlos Martyn, of Chicago. The speaker said, by way of apology for ministers making political speeches, that we better policies because politics bores us, and that so far as moral question becomes political, just so far must they as good citizens, discuss it or abdicate. That the political world is largely dominated by the Devil. The speaker told something of how Chicago tried to rid herself of the threefold evil—the drug shop, the brothel and the gambling den, by electing in 1837 the first prohibition for city Mayor, one of whom they are so proud that they had him photographed in a dozen different ways so that they might see how he looked all round. Today they have not an open gambling den, the harlots are driven back to their dens, and grog shops are closed on Sunday. Dr. Martyn asked why Portland could not be cleaned as well as Chicago, and said that men are too busy discussing the silver question and women in studying the fashion plate, to bring about a reform. Woman must look up from the fashion plate to the saving of the boys and girls. Then, unlike so many preachers, Dr. Martyn told us the way out—that the party for law and order must get together and must together, and woman must be given the ballot. He hopes that America may be turned upside down that it may be turned right side up.

Among the celebrities yet to arrive were the names of Rev. A. A. Shaw, Rev. Elbert Dille, Rev. Edwards Davis, the boy preacher, and Mr. Frank Lincoln, the humorist, but we will call attention to the one that gives the greatest pleasure than that of Mrs. Ella Higginson, our "Ella." Mrs. Higginson will read two poems Saturday afternoon, July 11, one entitled, "Satanism in the Willamette," the other, "God's Great." We hope to continue this report next week. 10:15 p. m. The oratorio was all it was announced to be. Rerunna.

American Poisons. The Frenchman, not without reason, calls our lead drinks "American poisons." As a matter of fact, cool spring water will alley thirst much better than lead water; but it is very difficult to convince those addicted to the lead-water habit of this fact. The grave harm caused by lead water is from swallowing it quickly and in large quantities. If sipped slowly and held in the mouth for a moment, the temperature is raised appreciably before it reaches the stomach, and its cooling effects reach that part of the body where they are most needed—the head, throat, and upper part of the chest. For this reason, lead water is much less dangerous than lead water; we eat it slowly, and it is not only entirely melted, but also perceptibly warmed, before it enters the stomach. This well known fact, which every one can verify for himself, is entirely ignored by those alarmists who draw so harrowing pictures of the internal organs, representing the stomach and its contents as almost paralyzed by the suddenly congealing influence of the introduction of a mass of frozen cream. (Of course, if this were so, the danger would be immense, for when the stomach is attending to its appointed duties—actively engaged in the process of digestion—it is a little further, and any impurities in its first results in the immediate discomfort of its owner and overseer. When you deglut it with lead drinks you put out the fire, and arrested digestion means put out the fire, and arrested digestion means put out the fire, and arrested digestion means put out the fire.) Don't ask it to do so much work when the thermometer goes above 80°; then the fire will not have to be so hot, and you will not suffer from indigestion, which is a consuming thirst.—From "Summer Hygiene," in Demorest's Magazine for July.

Obituary. Mrs. Charlotte E. Washburn, nee Meyer, was born near Erie, Pa., January 23, 1848, and died at her home near Woodville, Ore., July 5, 1896, of congestion of the bowels. She was confirmed in the Lutheran church when sixteen years of age and on the 1st day of January 1868, she was married to L. C. Washburn. They came west the following year and settled in Iowa. In 1873 she was baptized and united with the Christian church at a school house in O'Brien county, Iowa, since which time she has lived a sincere Christian life, reading her Bible daily and praying often. In 1883 the family moved to Oregon. She was a member of Hope Lodge, I. O. O. F. and Integrity Chapter, O. E. S. The funeral services were held in the Christian church at Grant's Pass by Elder Jewell. She was buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, the Order of the Eastern Star conducting the services. Every one who knew her loved her and her whole life was one of unselfish devotion to her loved ones and friends. Even during her last hours, while suffering with pain she was thoughtful for the comfort of those about her, and so patient. Not a murmur when her body was racked with pain. A husband, two daughters and two sons are left to mourn their loss.
