Miss Mattie Overman, of San Francisco, of the celebrated Brown case fame, has at last confessed to the intimacy with the ex-congressional minister that finally caused his downfall and retirement from the church. The confession is in her own handwriting, covering many sheets of legal cap, and for the present is in the safe keeping of Rev. W. W. Scudder, of Alameda, chairman of the Congressional committee on credentials.

A thrashing engine, together with its driver and a team of horses, went through a bridge over Kriese creek, about nine miles west of Oregon City. The driver was slightly injured and one of the horses so badly wounded that it was found necessary to kill it.

John J. Brough, a well-known merchant from a trip around the world which consumed exactly a year. Mr. Brough traveled on a bicycle wherever possible. Of the 60,000 miles covered by him, 40,000 were by water; 12,000 on his wheel and the rest by railroad in the different countries.

Advices have been received by the war department from General Wheaton stating that three prisoners, supposed to be Yagui Indians, were brought from Tabaco, Ariz., to Nogales, Ariz. They will be taken before the United States commissioner on a charge of violating the neutrality laws. They are believed to be members of the raiding party that attempted to loot the Mexican custom-house.

According to private advices received in Philadelphia ten of the crew of twenty-one of the British bark Flora Stafford, burned at sea several weeks of the Adams Express Company employes in New York. General Agent McWilliams says he has received more than forty applications for each place vacated by the strikers. The strikers say delegates have been sent to Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Baltimore to urge the men employed by the company in the cities mentioned to join the strikers. Some of the new men engaged by the company have quit work at the request of the strikers.

A Fatal Campaign Quarrel.

A curstome discussion of the coinage question in Columbus, O., led to a shooting which may prove fatal. Joseph Rath, a retired manufacturer and advocate of free coinage, engaged in warm discussion with Horace Wayman, an Englishman. They separated, but Rath got a revolver and when Wayman returned, he fired three shots at him. As Wayman is an old man the injuries he received will prove serious.

WHY HOKE RESIGNED

Had Promised to Support the Chicago Ticket.

RELATIONS WITH THE PRESIDENT

His Successor Will Probably Be a Gold Democrat From the Middle West.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The news that Secretary Hoke Smith had resigned, and that his resignation had been accepted by the president, has made a considerable stir in political circles here, although the probability of Mr. Smith's retirement had been, in a measure, anticipated since his paper, the Atlanta Journal, declared that it would support Bryan and Sewall. Mr. Smith still declined to discuss the subject today, but it is known that the personal relations between the president and Smith have in nowise been disturbed.

Mr. Smith's resignation, his friends say, grew out of his differences with his chief on the question of Virginia policy, and his desire not to embarrass the president at such a time. Beyond the question of his party loyalty in acquiescing in the will of the majority, Mr. Smith, during his campaign for the gold standard in Georgia, with ex-speaker Crisp, had given a personal pledge that he would, if defeated, support the nominee of the majority. It is an honorable man, his friends say, he felt it his duty to redeem that pledge. He informed the president of his position and intentions, and to avoid embarrassment, he placed his resignation at his disposal. It is said Mr. Cleveland remonstrated. The correspondence on the subject, if published, would no doubt be interesting, but it is doubtful whether it will ever be given out.

It can be stated, however, with great positiveness, that the step which Secretary Smith felt himself compelled to take has not in any way affected the warm regard the president and Mr. Smith entertain for each other.

There has been a good deal of gossip about Mr. Smith's successor today. It seems altogether unlikely that John M. Reynolds, the assistant secretary, will be promoted. It is regarded as much more probable that a new man will be selected, probably from the Middle West, Indiana, Illinois or Missouri. The name of ex-Governor Francis, of Missouri; Rymon, of Indiana, and Cable, of Illinois, are those around whom gossip most persistently clings. All are pronounced good Democrats.

THE FRENCH EXPOSITION.

An American Commissioner Has Not Yet Been Named.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The French government is rapidly perfecting details for the international exposition to be held in Paris in 1900, commemorating the birth of the century, and in this connection, has asked the state department for the name of the commissioner-general who will represent the United States, and for such other information available as to the participation of this country. To this, Acting Secretary Rockhill has replied that the commissioner-general has not yet been named, as the American congress has not yet taken up its recent session to provide for American representation at the exposition. He expressed the belief, however, that the approaching session of congress will bring about an acceptance of the invitation of the French republic.

President Cleveland called the attention of congress to the invitation in his annual message last December, and expressed the most earnest hope that steps would be taken for an adequate representation by the United States.

But congress acts slowly on these affairs, and no measure was considered, the idea being that there was plenty of time before 1900. It appears, however, that Great Britain, Germany and other leading powers have been quick to accept, and the French government is allotting space to these countries. American exhibitors are beginning to make inquiries as to where their goods will go, but no answer can be given them.

The prospect is that the best space will be taken before the United States accepts the invitation and makes application for space. This was the case at the late exposition, when American exhibitors were at much disadvantage in point of location.

It is expected in official circles here that when congress acts, it will provide for a commissioner-general and an assistant. This was the case with the last French exposition, when General Franklin was commissioner-general at a salary of $10,000 and the assistant commissioner received $5,000. The opinion prevails that as the appointee will serve after the present administration ends, President Cleveland will not make the appointment, even though congress passes the act before March 4 next. Aside from the direct emoluments attached to offices, a fund is provided for office and living expenses. In the case of General Franklin, the French government conferred on him the exceptional honor of the cross of the Legion of Honor.

Over a Bluff.

Los Angeles, Aug. 25.—This morning at Santa Monica, J. B. Bojorques and his young son were riding along a high bluff overlooking the sea. Ovid, Martial and Horace all refer in their poems to the use of artificial veths as common in their time.

Shot Out Their Quarrel.

Madison, Fla., Aug. 26.—George Page and Will Morgan, young men living near here, last night fought a duel, considered to be one of the most remarkable on record. They were rivals for the affections of a pretty young lady. They both attended a dance at which the young lady was present. Her conduct drove them to desperation. Finally Page invited Morgan to accompany him for a walk. Morgan consented, and as soon as they were outside Page proposed that as each was armed, they take each other by the left hand and shoot out the quarrel, the survivor to take the girl. Morgan agreed, and then with left hands clasped they drew pistols and began firing. Each man fired five shots. When friends arrived Morgan was found dead and Page was dying.

Ex-Mayor Frank's Death.

Portland, Or., Aug. 26.—Hon. Geo. P. Frank, ex-mayor of this city, is dead. He died last night at Long Beach, but the sad news was not received here till this morning, when Mrs. Frank wired it from Ilwaco. The remains will arrive here tomorrow morning, and will be conveyed from the steamer to the late residence of the deceased on Fifteenth and Yamhill streets. While Mr. Frank's death was not in the strictest sense unexpected, the announcement of his passing away provoked many expressions of sincere regret all over the city today.

Brakes Did Not Work.

Frederick, Md., Aug. 26.—Forty persons were more or less injured by the brakes of a trolley car failing to work last evening on the steep incline on the Frederick & Middleton electric railway. There were over 100 passengers on board, many more than its capacity. The brakes refused to hold, and the car after going wild for a distance of two and one-half miles turned completely over. People who had witnessed the disaster rushed to the rescue and the bruised and maimed passengers were removed to their homes.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

Pittsburg, Aug. 26.—The through Chicago mail, No. 14, on the Pittsburg & Western railroad, was wrecked at Valencia station, twenty-two miles from this city. Fifteen or twenty persons were badly injured. The wreck occurred through a collision with a wreck train.

Passed Bogus Coin.

St. Louis, Aug. 25.—John R. McMahon, of Ottumwa, Ia., was arrested in the corridor of the postoffice yesterday afternoon by United States secret service agents, who had been waiting there for him for a week or more. He is alleged to have been passing counterfeit silver coin. McMahon will be held until the Ottumwa officials arrive or are heard from.

Charged With Her Husband's Murder.

Guthrie, O. T., Aug. 25.—Mrs. Dell Manning, the wife of a farmer, murdered last Monday, has been arrested and charged with complicity in the murder. The officers state they have evidence to prove that Mrs. Manning and Grove Huntley, who is also in jail, were in love, and conspired to put the husband out of the way. Mrs. Manning is a handsome woman of 22.

A Railroad Town.

Astoria, Or., Aug. 25.—The first railroad train to leave this city started for Seaside at 11 o'clock this morning, with 1,000 people. There was the greatest rejoicing, hands playing, tin horns blowing and people shouting. The second train was run at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Excursions were given under the auspices of the Astoria Football Club. The formal opening of the railroad company will occur later.

Weyler's Intentions.

Havana, Aug. 25.—Captain-General Weyler announces his intention, as soon as reinforcements arrive from Spain, to concentrate his forces and sweep the island from end to end. By this means he hopes to speedily put an end to the present insurrection.

Reports have been received that the band of the leader Zarraga had attacked an exploring train in the province of Pinar del Rio. Twelve soldiers were killed.

Yesterday the insurgents attacked Fort Los Mangas. The insurgents were repulsed, but two of the members of the garrison were wounded.

In consequence of the recent attack by the insurgents on Guira Melena, a large number of Cubans have been imprisoned on the charge of being concerned in the movement.

Colonel Tort, learning that the insurgents were encamped in the vicinity of Gomez, in the province of Matanzas, ordered a cavalry charge on the part of the Spanish forces. The result according to the official advices, was a decisive victory over the insurgents. The Cubans were compelled to fly for their lives. They left nineteen dead on the field, including Dr. Bacallao and Lawyer Gavilan. Two prisoners and a large quantity of ammunition were captured.

Captain-General Weyler is about to issue a decree placing certain limitations upon the next sugar and coffee crops. By this plan he hopes to deprive the insurgents of their resources and bring the planters to the support of Spain.

Over a Bluff.

Los Angeles, Aug. 25.—This morning at Santa Monica, J. B. Bojorques and his young son were riding along a high bluff overlooking the sea. At a point where the bluff is over 200 feet high Bojorques suddenly announced that he was tired of life and springing over the bluff, was dashed to pieces at the bottom.

TROUBLE FOR SPAIN

In a Fair Way to Lose the Philippine Islands.

A CONSPIRACY IS DISCOVERED

Japan Said to Be at the Bottom of the Trouble—Aim to Secure Complete Independence.

Madrid, Aug. 24.—An official dispatch from Manila announces the discovery in the Philippine islands of a separatist conspiracy, the object being to secure independence from Spain. According to the official advices, twenty-one persons have already been arrested, several being Free Masons. The news has caused great excitement in Madrid, and the police in consequence tonight raided the Hispano Philippine Club and seized a large quantity of papers.

It is suggested by some of the papers that Japan is endeavoring to foment trouble in that part of the Spanish possessions for the purpose of extending the jurisdiction of her island empire over the Philippine islands. The islands lie only about 250 miles south of the newly acquired Japanese possessions of Formosa, a number of small islands intervening. Spain's army in the Philippine islands is estimated at seven regiments of infantry and one of artillery, with a squad of cavalry, the effective force being 854 officers and about 20,000 men.

While commenting on the outbreak in the Philippine islands in the senate today, Senor Castellano, minister for the colonies, read several telegrams from the governor of the islands, Captain-General Blanco. These telegrams were that the conspirators aimed to secure the complete independence of the Philippine islands.

Senor Montero Rio declared that the liberal party was prepared to support all government measures for the maintenance of Spanish integrity. Nearly all of the opposition leaders in the chamber made similar promises.

A BALLOON KITE.

Interesting Experiment Made at Portland, Maine.

Portland, Me., Aug. 24.—Charles L. Lamson performed a feat here yesterday practically demonstrating that a large airship or kite capable of carrying a man can be floated successfully and steadily. He raised his ship with a dummy man on 600 feet. The retaining rope broke when the ship was at that altitude. Had it not been for this break Mr. Lamson would have sent up a man to navigate his ship. As it was, W. A. Eddy, an authority on aerial experiments, declared that Lamson's achievement was the greatest step toward solving the problem of aerial navigation of the age. Two records, at all events, Lamson made. He flew the largest kite or airship ever floated; he carried by means of this kite the heaviest weight to the greatest altitude on record.

The kite when in the air resembles two large boxes parallel to each other and attached in the middle. It took fifteen men to carry the ship into the field from which it was to be sent up. The retaining cord was a large braided window cord, tested to pull 600 pounds. This was made fast to a huge reel, and four men attached to it.

About 400 feet of the rope was run out along the ground and at a signal from Lamson the ship was released. It quivered a moment, and then steadily rose skyward. Seated on the car of the ship was a dummy, weighted to 150 pounds. The ship carried it without any perceptible jar. It rose to an altitude of 600 feet, and was rising steadily when, with a sudden gust of wind, snap went the rope, showing what a tremendous pressure was brought upon it by the ship. The ship floated out a half mile and descended as easily and gracefully as it went up. Had a man been
