

NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1906.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

And Hanna keeps on booming the price of wheat.

There is a general demand from all over the state for a registry law.

Curry county is finally heard from but the result is not changed as the vote was a tie.

An extra session of congress will no doubt be called soon after the inauguration of McKinley.

The dinner pail appears to be in the ascendency throughout the manufacturing districts of the whole country, since the election.

Uncle Sam is a prominent and successful dealer in real tape. It took twenty-two years to complete the Cascade locks on the Columbia.

Hon. W. S. Holman, known as the "watch dog of the treasury," is again returned to congress from the fourth Indiana district, after a vacation of one term.

It is quite evident that there is nothing small about the young man who edits the Washington county Hatchet, when it comes to laying claim to political influence in that county.

People who maintain that our presidents ought to be elected by popular vote, ought to sleep pretty well over McKinley's popular majority of something like one million five hundred thousand votes.

Oregon is the only state in the Union where a voter is permitted to deposit his ballot at any polling place in the state. The demand for a registry law will certainly be met by the legislature this winter.

E. H. Flagg, of Salem, is being urged as a Cleveland democrat of about the right caliber to grace the office of register in the Oregon City land office, in place of the present incumbent who is looked as an offensive partisan on account of his 16 to 1 ideas.

A good many people will eat turkey next Thursday without returning many thanks, while on the other hand many others who can't afford the turkey will be profuse in their thanks for the many blessings they are receiving, daily, in "glorious country of ours."

After having made some hundreds of sales on the financial question, in recent campaign, Bryan is still fearful that the people don't understand him, and consequently he is now writing a book on bi-metalism, which is to appear about the first of the year.

In the recent election, 291,000 were cast in North Newberg precinct, this being the largest vote cast in any precinct in the county. Of this number, 134 votes were cast for McKinley, which is the highest number of votes McKinley received in any precinct, except Willamina, where he received 151 votes.

Mark Hanna is being urged to take the place of secretary of the treasury in McKinley's cabinet. Mr. Hanna has managed his own affairs well, his management of the recent republican campaign is highly commended and the opinion prevails that he would make a strong man at the head of the treasury department.

Relic collectors carried off everything about McKinley's home that could be broken loose, during the campaign of Canton visiting, but such a number of presents of various kinds were bestowed that the Major might go into the junk business or start a circus. His menagerie includes coons, eagles, lears and other species of wild beasts too numerous to mention.

The Milwaukee Wisconsin is authority for the statement that there is a plan on foot to send Bryan to the United States senate from Washington in place of Watson C. Squire whose term expires in March. The only requirement of the Washington state law is that a senator shall be a resident of the state, and it is suggested that Bryan can very easily move into Washington.

The house in Washington in which Abraham Lincoln died, is now the property of the United States. The house has lately been occupied by the Lincoln Memorial Association as a museum of relics of the martyred president, and it was for the purpose of perpetuating this museum that Congress appropriated $30,000 for the purchase of the property. The price paid was about $12.50 per square foot.

The Inter Ocean says: Bryan made speeches in 92 cities in the campaign, and it has been shown by simple addition that, while these cities gave Cleveland a plurality of 155,765 four years ago they gave McKinley a plurality of 450,092 November 3, making a republican gain of 605,817. Mr. Bryan is an orator, but oratory is not always convincing to voters. They want facts and logic, as well as high sounding phrases.

R. G. Dun's Weekly Review of Trade issued Nov. 14 says: Never before has business shown so great a change within a single week. Dispatches telling of about 1,500 establishments which have opened or materially enlarged their forces, give only part of the facts and the gain has been surprising even to the most hopeful. The orders which have been accumulating for months will keep the force employed for some time.

WHAT REV. D. L. MOODY SAYS. Rev. D. L. Moody said recently, in speaking on the political outlook: "I believe the class feeling that is arising in this country is a very dangerous thing. Why, I heard a man say if the workmen were paid better wages, it would make no difference, except, perhaps, that there would be more strikes. This sort of thing is wrong, and it is wrong for the poor to array themselves against the rich. We should all live in brotherly peace and love."

"We cannot afford to have a class feeling, where one section is arrayed against the other and the poor against the rich. I think the rich men have made a mistake in accumulating so much wealth, but the men of wealth who are being so roundly abused and misrepresented are much better men and have the best interests of the government more at heart than a good many of their detractors. Because a man has great wealth does not necessarily imply that he is a villain and a scoundrel. On the contrary, see what Rockefeller has done for the Chicago University. He has given millions of dollars to found a great educational institution, and in so doing has conferred an inestimable benefit upon mankind. Then look at the Crerar and Newberry libraries and other large public benefactions of rich men right here in Chicago, and those of Andrew Carnegie, in Pittsburgh. This vast sum of money has been voluntarily given back to the people in a manner that cannot help but benefit the people. Why, bless you, the rich man can only buy clothes, food and so forth with his money, and some millionaires do not wear much better clothes than yours. They cannot take their wealth with them when they die, and knowing this they use their wealth as though they were merely stewards and endeavor to do the greatest good to the greatest number. Take the bankers, for instance. There is not a better class of men in the country. A man, to be president of a bank, has not only to be a good business man but he must also be a man of strict integrity and high morals; in fact, must be such a person as will command the respect and confidence of the community in order to induce people to deposit their funds in his bank, and when these are the requirements of a banker, how can it be possible for them to be other than among our very best citizens? Of course, it is true that there are sometimes exceptional cases where a banker is not all that he should be, but it is of bankers as a class that I speak. And the railroad men, who are also coming in for such a large amount of abuse, as I have found them, they are fully the equals of the bankers in all that goes to make a good citizen."

Sliding Mountain Won't Stop. The sliding mountain just below the upper cascades is one of wonders of the Western world. It has the slides this year worse than usual, and its movement has rendered necessary the relocation of the O. R. & N. Co's. railway for a distance of some 1200 feet. The new line will be moved some sixty feet back, and will be eighteen feet higher than the present line, which has gone away below grade, owing to the sinking and sliding of the land. The railroad engineers have become so accustomed to the antics of the sliding mountain that they just let it slide, and when it gets the track too far down they move it up again.

Blood Will Tell. The many different skin diseases such as ring worm, tetter, salt rheum, erysipelas, eczema, itching or an eruption of pimples, pustules, blotches, chaps or cracking open of the skin, scrofula, are directly the cause of impure blood. Wilbur's Blood Purifier is acknowledged to be the best medicine known for any of these unsightly complaints. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by all Druggists.

Sixty Miles Of Locusts. The African steamship company's steamer Winnebago, which lately arrived from West Africa at Liverpool, had a most unusual experience when steaming between the latitudes of Cape Verde and St. Louis, Senegal. For sixty miles the vessel steamed through locusts, which were so thickly packed together on top of the water that they completely covered the surface for miles around. Indeed they appeared to be lying on the sea. They resembled gigantic grasshoppers, and one which was secured was five inches in length. Of course, all the locusts had drowned.

A Lie Nailed. Consumption and bronchitis are not by any means the same, although it is hard to distinguish one from the other. Bronchitis is an inflammation of the lining of the wind tubes or air vessels of the lungs, causing soreness of the same, cough, sore throat, hoarseness, difficulty of breathing, spitting of matter and sometimes blood. Thousands die annually with this dread disease. Wilbur's Cough Cure will cure. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

Food Store. When wanting anything in the line of flour and feed, land plaster, oil meal, clover or timothy seed, cheat, vetches or other seeds you will do well to call on J. G. WILBY.

For the Lungs. Elder Alson W. Steers writes from Portland, Or.: "There is no medicine for the throat and lungs that I can recommend to ministers, public speakers and singers, with the confidence that I can the S. B. Cough Cure." 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Valley Transcript.

Prof. Snuffer, of Anity, was in the city over Sunday. By the way, the Prof. is getting to be quite a joker. To a reporter he said: "The papers are making a great blow about mills starting up; but not a word about the great mill in Nebraska closing down." "What mill do you mean?" asked the reporter. "Why, the Bryan wind mill, of course," said he. And then we all laughed and went to see how much the water had risen in the Yamhill.

A concern of McMinnville that is doing a rushing night and day business to fill orders, is the McMinnville Broom Factory, run by E. Smith. The reason of the rush is that Mr. Smith is turning out a No. 1 quality of broom that takes in the market.

Dayton Herald.

Dayton is now assured of one great improvement in the business property of this town. John Bradley, who ever since the nomination of McKinley, has declared that if McKinley was elected president that Messrs. Bradley would put up a large and commodious new livery barn, on the site of the building now occupied by them as a barn. It is the intention he says, before a great while to commence work on the new building. A large two story building, with an attractive front will be a great addition to the business part of Dayton.

The high water has, it is thought, almost ruined S. J. Hibbert's big cabbage patch, on the Willamette river bottom, just below Weston landing. It was overflowed and the water has spoiled much of the cabbage, and what is left will be full of sand. We are informed that Hibbert estimated his crop worth $1000.

Yamhill County Reporter.

The mill of Pate Bros., located about 7 miles above Willamina on R. L. Booth's place on East creek, was wrecked by the washing out of the dam last Saturday night. Mr. J. Pate, who was in the city yesterday, says the machinery of the mill can be saved, but the building and the dam are a total loss. These with the loss of 50,000 feet of logs amount to about $1400. The firm has not decided to rebuild. The mill was not insured.

Major McKinley by this time is the recipient of a fine collection of Oregon roses, forwarded him by express last Saturday accompanied by the compliments of the ladies auxiliary McK & H club of McMinnville. The flowers were embedded in Oregon moss and protected by a tin box, and it is hoped they reached him in a good state of preservation. It is probable that Major McKinley and his excellent lady have seen "doodles" of handsome roses in the past few weeks, but these will awaken fresh interest from the fact that they were blooming in Oregon dooryards on the 7th of November and have traveled two thousand miles on their patriotic mission, not from the sunny south, but from a region of considerably higher latitude than Ohio.

Oil of Gladness. Is a pleasant, palatable preparation, entirely free from all oily taste, and may be administered internally or applied externally. It will remove all pain that "human flesh is heir to," if properly applied, and might be rightly termed "a panacea for all ills." Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

Cut this out and keep it: The Scientific American gives this recipe which the whole world should know: At the first indication of diphtheria in the throat make the room close; then take a tin cup and pour into it an equal quantity of tar and turpentine, then hold the cup over the fire so as to fill the room with the fumes. The patient on inhaling the fumes, will cough out the membranous matter and diphtheria will pass off. The fumes of the tar and turpentine loosen the throat and thus affords relief that has baffled the skill of physicians.

Cure Croup. "My three children are all subject to croup; I telegraphed to San Francisco, got a half dozen bottles of S. B. Cough Cure. It is a perfect remedy. God bless you for it. Yours, etc., J. H. Crozier, Grants Pass, Or. 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

He grasped the gun recklessly fingered the trigger, at the same time blowing down the barrel. It didn't go off. "It's no use," he muttered hoarsely. "I must live on. I knew it was loaded."—Ex.
