

NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1897.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise has been enlarged to an eight column folio. Who said times were not getting better?

The football season is about over, so there will now be room for a report of the doings of the Oregon legislature in the newspapers.

Governor Altgeld of Illinois seems to be endeavoring to break the record made by our Sylvester in the matter of granting pardons. On Jan. 5 he pardoned 29 convicts, 12 of whom were charged with murder.

Which had you rather have, a dinner without an appetite or an appetite without a dinner?—Albany Democrat.

Well, in most cases if you will put up the dinner the appetite may very safely be left to shift for itself.

With the prospect of another senatorial squabble before the legislature, the people of Oregon on a vote being taken, would without doubt give a three fourths vote in favor of the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

The fellows that are "too poor" to take a county paper are in clover. The drug stores have received their supply of almanacs for 1897. They will line up and help themselves to the fodder, and fill up on stale jokes.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Charley Nickel, who has been on the Jacksonville Times for the past twenty-six years, and who has been quite successful as a money maker in Jackson county, is just now having to put up a pretty handsome fortune as bondsman for a county official.

One of our exchanges has come to a wise, profound and sensible conclusion when it says: "The longer we run a newspaper and write about people and events, the more we realize how utterly impossible it is to scratch every man on the spot where it itches the most."

Hon. George W. Riddle, of Douglas county, who is a prominent candidate for speaker of the house, has been in the legislature a number of times and during one session wielded the gavel. He is a man of good horse sense and the republicans could do much worse than to elect him as speaker.

The Albany Democrat very truthfully says: You can't give a boy too good a start in life. The future depends upon the boy of today, and the Democrat never mentions a subject of more importance to the people of the United States than that of getting the children on the right road. Before twenty you can tell almost for certain what a boy will make.

Jonathan Bourne has leased one whole building, beside other rooms elsewhere in Salem, during the session of the legislature. Jonathan is evidently arranging to carry out his old scheme of pulling members for their influence through the region of the stomach. The dispensing of boodle from these quarters will no doubt be a favorite pastime also.

In justice to Governor Wm. P. Lord a word of warning is sent him in advance. The ex-mayor of Newberg, who enjoys the distinction of posing as political boss, where rolls the mighty Chehalms, will go over to Salem this week and unless the governor is on his guard the ex-mayor is liable to drop into his seat, on his arrival, and begin the dictation of affairs of the state. Better look to your laurels governor.

Since lynching in the South has been encouraged by the people and the press generally that section for the past thirty years, it is little wonder that this favorite pastime has increased to such an alarming extent that the people are finally becoming alarmed at the prospect and the press of the South is now crying out against the custom and refer to it as murder at the hands of those who engage in it.

Since Li Hung Chang's return home from his visit to England and the United States, the Pekin government has issued instructions to the viceroys and governors of the provinces of the empire, to establish schools for the teaching of the English language and the sciences in all of the public schools of the country. It may very truthfully be said of Li that he is one of the heathens who knows how to profit by a good thing when he sees it.

Two years ago the Graphic favored the election of Hon. J. N. Dolph to the United States senate, believing that with the experience of twelve years in the senate he was better able to look after the interests of the state than any new man that could be elected. The same view is held at this time with reference to the candidacy of Hon. J. H. Mitchell, who has had long experience in the senate. Senator McBride is an active, energetic worker and is making a good record for a new senator, but with two new men to represent Oregon in that body, our influence would not be up to the standard.

KANSAS AT SCHOOL.

Another Lecture From Its Emporia Professor.

They say that all wealth comes from the soil. Yet Kansas, which had the largest crop of any American state, is the hardest up. And the New England states, where they don't raise much, are all right. It doesn't come from the soil. It comes from brains. The man who works with his hands and uses only muscle isn't in it. He hasn't been in it for a generation; he never will be in it again. Laws won't put him in it. The thing is the result of the law of nature. Free silver won't do it; free riot won't do it. Brains have the call over muscle; cunning is master of brute strength. The individual must work out his own success and he must use his head more than his hands.

The trouble in Kansas is that the people have been taught that the law can "do something for them." They have been told that this, that or the other law would help them out. The truth is that nothing but hustling will help a man out of any scrape. The people have been told that somebody or something outside of themselves is responsible for their failures, and that the something must be put down. The something in question is some one else's brains. Kansas has been trying to legislate against brain. To earn money and save it requires brains. Money earned and saved is capital. Capital is the money power. Kansas has been talking against the money power. She has been abusing men with shrewdness enough to have capital. In trying to legislate against brains, Kansas has been going against the natural order of things. Therefore, in a state with the largest crops in the world, are unnatural order, hard times, prevail.

There will be hard times so long as we fool with the unnatural order. We once encouraged capital and prospered. The very day we stopped encouraging brains we began to fail. The thing for the present administration to do is to repeal the present stay law, to cease dallying with the bogus reforms that can only hurt the poor man, and to show the world that Kansas is in line with civilization. The minute you try to hamper capital, you hamper the man who is trying to accumulate a little capital. You can't make a law that will strangle the man with a million and not strangle the man with 50 cents. The law that tackles $1,000,000 in a lump will tackle half a dollar by itself. If you talk against the man who is well-to-do you must give up all hope of getting well-to-do yourself. If it is free for all you stand as good a show of winning as the next man.

Kansas should turn around and help the man with the 10 talents and let the fellow with his little, old, measly one talent wrapped in a napkin take care of himself. The Bible justifies such a course, and that is the wisest guide the world knows. Ad astra per aspera means translated freely into the American language, "The hustler gets there."—Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.

SENATOR MITCHELL ENDORSED.

There are those who are making themselves ridiculous. They are like the Israelites of old—they want a sign. Senator Mitchell must say something. Now those people forget that the senator not only has said that something, but has done it. One year ago he served notice upon Teller & Co. that he is not of them. He voted for the Dingley tariff bill, which was a test on the financial question. That was a time before the prominence was attached to currency that it has since obtained. Later Senator Mitchell endorsed the St. Louis republican platform and made not one, but many speeches in support of McKinley and Hobart. Not once did he sulk in his tent. What more can a man do to entitle him to be recorded as a republican? He has always voted the republican ticket—from 1860, if he was then old enough—down to 1896. He has always supported republican measures in congress by his voice and vote. Can some of his interrogators say as much.—Hillsboro Independent.

When the sound money republicans went into caucus at Washington all the silver republicans failed to put in appearance. We are pleased to note that Hon. J. H. Mitchell was there all right. He was taking in Oregon before the election, and he is acting as he talked.—Yaquina Bay News.

As the time for the assembling of the legislature draws near, it becomes more imperative for those who take part in its deliberations to formulate action to be taken during the session. The most prominent action, and the one that should be the most speedy, is to elect a United States senator on the first ballot to be reached, and place that disturbing element out of the way of necessary legislation. There is but one course to pursue in the matter and that is to follow the wishes of the people and elect Senator Mitchell at once, without allowing the quibbles and schemes that are being sprung to have any influence in the matter.—Malheur Gazette.

Senator Mitchell has done more for Oregon than any other man that has gone to Washington and he should be kept at his post another term.—Waco News.

An Oregon paper says that "work is to be resumed upon the Astoria and Goble road at an early date." Uncle Sam will also do some gobbling on Western railroads pretty soon. The same view is held at this time with reference to the candidacy of Hon. J. H. Mitchell, who has had long experience in the senate. Senator McBride is an active, energetic worker and is making a good record for a new senator, but with two new men to represent Oregon in that body, our influence would not be up to the standard.

The Salem Statesman persists in asking for a tariff of six cents a pound on prunes, and says that a tariff of that amount would materially help toward turning the treasury deficiency into a surplus and would make all the orchards around Salem worth $500 an acre. We would all favor a six-cent tariff on prunes if it would do all this, but the fact is that a six-cent tariff will not help us any more than a tariff of two and one half cents per pound, which is the amount for which the California fruit growers are working. The Oregon fruit growers will not make themselves ridiculous by asking for a tariff of six cents. The United States will hereafter raise its own prunes if the growers are only protected to a sufficient extent to shut out foreign importations of cheap prunes. Two and one half cents per pound would do this, and nothing would be gained in asking for more in view of the fact that prunes will have to be sold at retail for from four to eight cents per pound in order to use up what we will raise in this country. The prune raisers of Oregon, Washington and Idaho should add their efforts to those of California to secure this amount of protection.—Rural North-west.

Council Proceedings.

At the council meeting on Monday night business was transacted as follows: There being no straight bids for the water bonds, the matter of selling bonds was postponed until the next regular meeting. The bids for the works were returned to bidders without being opened. A donation of $10. was made to petitioners for help toward building a bridge across the gulch west of depot. On motion a committee was instructed to look after the bridge on First street in the east part of town.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

Table listing various claims allowed with amounts, including C. P. Butler street work, H. R. Morris marshal, Allen Smith car fare, etc.

A Lie Told.

Consumption and bronchitis are not by any means the same, although it is hard to distinguish one from the other. Bronchitis is an inflammation of the lining of the wind tubes or air vessels of the lungs, causing soreness of the same, cough, sore throat, hoarseness, difficulty of breathing, spitting of matter and sometimes blood. Thousands die annually with this dread disease. Wilbur's Cough Cure will cure. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

Yamhill Horticultural Society.

The regular meeting of the Yamhill County Horticultural Society will be held in Newberg, Tuesday Jan. 12th, at 10 o'clock a. m. and 1:30 p. m. The forenoon session will be devoted to discussion on the sale of fruit. Other subjects in the afternoon will include a very valuable paper by Mr. Lowdale on "Yellow Prune Trees"; "A Commercial Orchard," by E. S. Craven, with other matters which may claim our attention.

Our papers are not only worth hearing, but are worth coming to hear.

J. H. Hess, Sec.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat—Semi Weekly—Tuesday and Friday—Eight pages each issue—Sixteen pages every week—only one dollar a year, is unquestionably the biggest, best and cheapest national news journal published in the United States. Strictly republican in politics, it still gives all the news, and gives it at least three days earlier than it can be had from any weekly paper published anywhere. It is indispensable to the farmer, merchant or professional man who desires to keep promptly and thoroughly posted, but has not the time to read a large daily paper; while its great variety of well selected reading matter makes it invaluable as a home and family paper. Remember the price only one dollar a year. Sample copies free.

Address, GLOBE PRINTING CO., ST. LOUIS, MO.

The following swindle is being worked in Oregon; Swindler No 1 calls upon a farmer with a patent wagon tongue and informs him that he is on his way home, having made a good thing out of it, and has only one county to sell. He tells the farmer that he can have it for one hundred dollars, and if he wants it to write to him. In a few days swindler No. 2 comes along. He has heard that the farmer has the right of the county for the patent wagon tongue, and as he has made a big thing out of it in Pennsylvania, he wants to buy the right of the county and offers the farmer $250 and pays $10 to bind the bargain. The farmer writes to No 1 and sends him his note for $100. He never hears of either of the men again, but this note comes up for collection in a neighboring town, and he is out $80.

To cure all old sores, to heal an indolent ulcer, or to speedily cure piles, you need simply apply DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve according to directions. Its magic-like influence will surprise you. A. T. HILL.

Blood Will Tell.

The many different skin diseases such as ring worm, tetter, salt rheum, erysipelas, eczema, itching or an eruption of pimples, postules, blotches, chaps or cracking open of the skin, scrofula, are directly the cause of impure blood. Wilbur's Blood Purifier is acknowledged to be the best medicine known for any of these unsightly complaints. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by all Druggists.

"Are these the portraits of members of your college football team?" "Oh no; those are only the professors."—Chicago Record.

Oil of Gladness.

Is a pleasant, palatable preparation, entirely free from all oily taste, and may be administered internally or applied externally. It will remove all pain that "human flesh is heir to," if properly applied, and might be rightly termed "a panacea for all ills." Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

"Mrs. Cheesecake, is your son doing well at college?" "Well? He can kick a foot ball forty yards."—Chicago Record.

For the Lungs.

Elder Alton W. Steers writes from Portland, Or.: "There is no medicine for the throat and lungs that I can recommend to ministers, public speakers and singers, with the confidence that I can the S. B. Cough Cure." 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

Wheeler—What makes you think she loves you? "Tyre—Oh, she's been hinting of late how much she likes my bicycle—Philadelphia North American.

For the Kidneys.

"I am 65 years old; have had kidney disease and constipation for 25 years. Am now well—used your S. B. Headache and Liver Cure one year. Used 6 bottles at 50 cents each. J. H. Knight, Rutledge, Or." For sale by all druggists.

Marble Dealer—Shall I put on the tombstone, "We Mourn Our Loss?" "Chorus of Heirs (left out of will)—Yes and spell "Loss with poster sheet letters."—Buffalo Times.

"Excuse me," observed the man in spectacles, "but I am a surgeon, and that is not where the liver is." "Never you mind where his liver is," retorted the other. "If it was in his big toe or his left ear DeWitt's Little Early Risers would reach it and shake it for him. On that you can bet your gig-lamps." A. T. HILL.

"Why do you think Bixon is either henpecked or crazy?" "I heard him say yesterday that he really regarded his mother-in-law as an estimable woman."—Cleveland Leader.

Cures Cramp.

"My three children are all subject to cramp; I telegraphed to San Francisco, got a half dozen bottles of S. B. Cough Cure. It is a perfect remedy. God bless you for it. Yours, etc., J. H. Crozier, Grants Pass, Or. 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

"Well, I'm even with Rackey at last." "How's that?" "Induced him to join a foot ball team, and he's a light weight you know."—Detroit Free Press.

The old way of delivering messages by post-boys compared with the modern telephone, illustrates the old tedious methods of "breaking" colds compared with the almost instantaneous cure by One Minute Cough Cure. A. T. HILL.

"Why do you beg?" asked the kind hearted woman. "I can't help it ma'am," said the beggar. "My wife's a widder with five children, and they looks to me for support."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Scaly eruptions on the head, chapped hands and lips, cuts, bruises, scalds, burns are quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is at present the article most used for piles, and it always cures them. A. T. HILL.

The island of Cuba is somewhat larger than the state of Indiana, and has 2,000,000 population. From the standpoint of productive capacity it is said to be the richest spot for its size on the globe. So far, not one fourth of its productive area has been put to use.

Soothing, and not irritating, strengthening, and not weakening, small but effective—such are the qualities of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. A. T. HILL.

"An aged lady in Boston recently ripped an old pin cushion that had been in the family for years." "And she found 2,000 old needles in it, I suppose." "No; she found only nine. All her children had been boys."—Chicago Record.

Many political speakers, clergymen, singers and others who use the voice excessively, rely upon One Minute Cough Cure to prevent huskiness and laryngitis. Its value as a preventive is only equalled by its power to afford instantaneous relief. A. T. HILL.

A nonsensical man who died recently in Massachusetts was buried with twenty-three coffin-plates which he had collected. When he is dug up at some future period he may be mistaken for the man who accepted all the Popocratic Presidential nominations of 1896.
