Letters remain in the post office for Miss Lizzie Gray and Simon Schmeer.

The city election passed off on last Monday without interest, there being but one ticket in the field.

L. M. Parker says he is running from the sheriff and invites you to take advantage of his misfortune.

Portland merchants make a point of English Worsted Suits at $12.50. Barrie & Barrie sell same for $8.50.

J. H. Townsend has a prospect of returning from Southern California and going into business in Newberg.

The Graphic and the great New York Tribune one year for $1.50. Copies of the Tribune may be seen at this office.

Rev. Anson Cox, from above Salem, occupied the pulpit in Friend's church last Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

The Graphic and the Youth's Companion one year for $2.50. It must be strictly new subscriptions for the Companion however.

Prof. Edwin Morrison went to Portland last Saturday to attend a meeting of the professors of chemistry in the different colleges of the state.

Amos Graves left for Minnesota Lake, Minnesota the first of the week, loaded with lantern and slides ready to commence his tour of advertising the beauties of the great Northwest.

Why don't some of the gang suggest the name of the ex-mayor for state railroad commissioner, as he has had considerable experience lately in railroading—in connection with the Jones water proposition.

Constable Carey of LaFayette passed through town last Tuesday on the hunt of a young fellow who was charged with the crime of stealing a suit of clothes, a hat and pair of shoes from a dwelling near LaFayette.

The janitor at the public school building is offering a prize of a dollar's worth of candy to the room that keeps the cleanest floor during the term and he already notes quite a difference in the amonnt of dirt carried in.

Now is the time to arrange for your winter's reading. These long winter evenings it gets very monotonous sitting around the fire with nothing to amuse or instruct. The Graphic and the Weekly Oregonian for only $2.

Dr. A. Mills of Dundee passed through town on Tuesday on his way to Portland to attend the poultry show. As the roads are a little soft for driving just now Dock was counting the railroad ties, and being something of a walker he made the trip all right of course.

A prominent Portland firm in advertising butter and eggs has a line in the Oregonian which reads, "shirt tail butter 20 cents per roll." It is quite likely that some of the Newberg butter of which the Graphic has had occasion to speak in times past, is in this way making for itself a name in the metropolis.

Miss Emma Philipps, who was a teacher in our public schools a few years ago, is doing missionary work in a Friends mission at Matamoras, Mexico. The Graphic will visit her in that far off land, the price of subscription having been paid in good dollars bearing Uncle Samuels's stamp.

A. M. Mauritzen, the fish dealer has salt salmon on sale, some pieces of which measure eleven inches in width. They were cut from salmon of about sixty-five pounds weight, caught at the falls of the Little Nestucca by Mr. Mauritzen last season. Finer fish were never shown in this market.

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowls, of Holland, Va., has to say below, will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had la grippe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by A. T. Hill druggist.

Musical concert.

Concert at the college on Saturday night.

A. M. Mauritzen was in the county seat on business Wednesday.

Special rates on candies to teachers, Sunday schools and like institutions at Star Bakery.

Walter Kirk and Luther Newlin are assistants at the state poultry show at Portland this week.

An occasional stir of the water works question seems to be a profitable stir for the hotels. Quite a herd of strangers were in town on Monday.

A little thing like calling in question the honesty of fifteen or twenty of one's neighbors is nothing to be ashamed of. Certainly not, "we are the people."

The mercury bobbed up to 100 in the sun on Wednesday. This is something different from the blizzard weather of the Mississippi valley of the past week.

The issue of tariff vs. free trade is to be discussed at the Brutscher school house on Saturday night. Lee Jones and Charley Mitchell are expected to champion the cause of free trade.

Nate D. Elliott came up from Portland last Saturday evening and stopped over here on his way to Salem. He has a job in the office of the state printer during the session of the legislature.

L. M Parker is closing out his stock of clothing at prices that will discount any Portland auction house. His suits are all clean and new. Just from the eastern factories and the latest styles.

Farmers who have fat stock to sell will find Stanley & Cooper in the market ready to buy, and families who like juicy steaks and tempting roasts will always find the best the market affords at their meat market.

Nature seems to be doing all she can for the ancient bachelors and maidens of Newberg, by planting mistletoe in various trees about town, apparently with a view of making it just as easy as possible for them.

The old lady was right when she said, the child might die if they waited for the doctor. She saved the little one's life with a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. She had used it for croup before. A. T. HILL.

Miles and Spaulding came to the front with a bid on the construction of the water works and also deposited certified check with the recorder for $1500, but then they were just a foolin. They did'nt mean it of course.

W. H. Barnard, of Verdigre, Nebraska arrived here last Sunday to attend the bedside of his sister, Dr. Esther Barnard who has been very sick for the past three weeks. Since his arrival she seems to be improving slowly.

Miss Maggie Inglis, teacher in the primary department in the public school thinks she has the best behaved set of little tots she has ever had under her care. She says they all try their best to be good and of course they succeed.

Mrs. J. T. Smith has taken the place of Prof. J. H. Douglas in the college for the present, owing to the absence of the latter on account of sickness. Mrs. Smith drops into the place very naturally as the work is not at all new to her.

For a pain in the chest a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of the pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, will afford prompt relief. This is especially valuable in cases where the pain is caused by a cold and there is a tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by A. T. Hill.

At the twelfth annual meeting of the State Horticultural Society held in Portland Friday and Saturday, January 8-9, W. K. Allen of Newberg will read a paper, the subject of which is, "Some truths about the evaporating problem." Mr. Allen has made a close study of this question and he will without doubt read a paper that will command the attention of those present at the state meeting.

Rev. Atkins, pastor of the M. E. church, has been called by the presiding elder to take the pastorate of the Clark street church in the city of Portland. This change is agreeable to Rev. Atkins, as it puts him in easy reach of Portland University where he is taking a course in theology. His short stay here has endeared him to the church and the public as well, and all are sorry to see him go. He will move with his family to the city in about two weeks. His place will probably be filled here by a minister from some point in Washington.

Two young girls of about fourteen yeers of age, daughters of Sam Westfall and Pete Heater of Sherwood, respectively, visited in Newberg on Monday night with Mrs. M. C. Bristow. On Tuesday morning they took the boat for Portland and during the afternoon the chief of police of Portland telephoned to the office here that the girls had been found wandering on the streets, and consequently they were being cared for at the police station and unless their parents called for them they would be turned over to the Boys and Girls Aid Society. Their parents were notified of their whereabouts.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Newberg was held on last Monday, at which the same directors and officers were re-elected. The annual statement, which will be found elsewhere in this issue, was highly satisfactory to the stockholders. It shows the bank to be in a prosperous condition, with business increasing, in spite of the long drawn out business depression. The careful business management of cashier, B. C. Miles, tends to increase the confidence of the public in the bank and this with the ability of the bank to accommodate the public at a time when such accommodations are specially appreciated, is tending to largely increase the business. The Bank of Newberg enters on the business of the new year with bright prospects.

Charley Redmond, of McMinnville, who stopped out of college last term on account of sickness, is back again this term.

Clarence Hendershott of McMinnville is visiting for a few days with A. M. Mauritzen.

Miss Florence Brown, of Scotts Mills, is visiting with relatives about Newberg this week.

Mrs. W. N. Sutton and children returned to Portland on Wednesday after a few days visit with relatives in town.

Mrs. Frank Taylor of Centralia, Washington arrived here on Wednesday and will remain here for the present and assist in caring for her brother Prof. J. H. Douglas.

Wm. Townsend is about trading his large farm of some seven hundred acres, situated out west of town, for a livery stable in Portland and two pieces of land out east of Portland.

The fellow who never does anything he is ashamed of seems to have adopted the custom of those who have no argument to offer, which is simply to give the other fellow the lie.

Milt Nicholson came over from Scotts Mills on Tuesday, bringing Mrs. A. W. Rees and the children for a visit. A. W. is working in a saw mill at Rossland, B. C. as sawyer at good wages.

Yes "the only" pays its debts. Of course it does. Only last summer it paid them at one fell swoop, but it took the whole plant, from the printers devil to shooting stick to do it, as a number of stockholders will testify.

The atitude of the editor of "the only" toward the Bank of Newberg is so well known that comment from his pen was entirely unnecessary, but it was expected that when he was called down he would squeal like a stuck shoat.

Prof. J. H. Douglas, who was prostrated last week from an attack of cerebral apoplexy seems to be slowly improving. Dr. Byrd of Salem counseled with Dr. Littlefield in the case on last Friday and there was no difference of opinion between them respecting the trouble.

Remember that there is not an old style or shelf worn suit in my stock of clothing that I am closing out. You will never have another opportunity to buy the goods at the prices I am now offering them. Come early and get first choice at Newberg Clothing House.

F. H. Storey, D. D. G. M. of the I. O. O. F. has been installing the officers of the different lodges in the county during the past week. He reports the various lodges of the Order in good condition and despite the hard times, improvements are going ahead and the membership is materially increasing.

Too Sweet To Live.

The Star bakery has just received a big shipment of fine candies direct from the east, which will be sold at prices never before heard of in Newberg.

Farewell Social.

A farewell social will be given Rev. Mr. Atkins and wife at the M. E. church Thursday evening, Jan. 14. The public kindly invited. Cake and coffee 10c.

California Land.

Forty acres of Southern California fruit land for sale, or will trade for Newberg property or land in this community. JOSEPH WILSON.

Concert.

A musical concert will be given on Saturday night, Jan. 9th, in the college chapel by Miss Glen, director of music, and her class. A first class entertainment for all lovers of music is assured. Admission 15 cents.

Births.

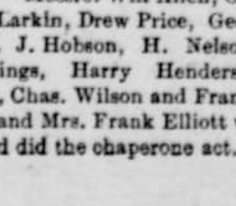
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Granville Everest on Saturday Jan. 2, 1897, a daughter.

To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper on Sunday, Jan. 3, 1897, a son.

Leap Year Party.

A leap year party is always a gathering of interest to young people, and those given at the coming in of leap year and then again at the close, are especially interesting. The party given at Armory hall on Thursday night of last week by a number of the young ladies of Newberg was no exception to the rule. Much time was put in and considerable expense incured in arranging the hall, but when all the arrangements were complete the scenery was very attractiee to the eye. The arrangements were such as to represent a summer scene and lunch was served on the grass, picnic fashion. The evening was spent in playing games and all went merry as a marriage bell.

This occasion being the last opportunity of the year when the ladies present could have an opportunity to get in their work on the bashful young things of the other sex, and realizing that eight years more would probably place them beyond the time limit, no opportunity was lost during the evening to make an impression.



The above cut fairly well represents the earnestness with which the young ladies plead their cause during the evening.

There were present the Misses Nellie Larkin, Myrtle Gardner, Anna Hendershott, Clara Hadley, Leona Sims, Gertie Craven, Myrtle McDaniel, Stella Smith, Lola Hendershott, Pearl Cummings, Mettie Morris, Ione Hill and Florence Cook. Messrs. Will Allen, Ore Price, John Larkin, Drew Price, George Larkin, O. J. Hobson, H. Nelson, Claud Cummings, Harry Hendershott, E. Stoner, Chas. Wilson and Frank Vestal.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott were present and did the chaperone act.

THE TUSSLE WITH THE PIGSKIN.

It was the Game of the Season—Yale and Princeton not in it in Comparison—Score 0-0.

The football game of the season was played on the college grounds on last Friday, and great was the enthusiasm of the crowd in evidence on that auspicious occasion. It had been announced as a game to played by teams made up of fellows about town who had never crossed the gridiron and of course everybody wanted to see the fun.

When the game was called the teams lined up as follows, with H. R. Morris and A. T. Hill as the respective captains.

J G Hadley	center	Ellis Hall
J Jones	r guard	F Granboy
C Johnson	l guard	E Stoner
Will Bond	r tackle	Lon Hill
H Miller	l tackle	J C Colcord
S Terrell	r end	W Edwards
W Mills	l end	F Hobson
H Morris	q back	A T Hill
S Calkins	l half	M Heater
H Clemmens	r half	F Elliott
Dr Dittlefield	f back	Dr Dixon

It was a hot game from the word go and as the game proceed ed and the boys on both sides renewed their strength, it was seen that they were pretty evenly matched, and consequently

The fellow whowent out to toot his horn for the winners was much at a loss to know where to begin to pucker his mouth.

The boys tumbled about after the most approved fashion, yet the crowd was a little bit disappointed at the skill shown, as it was apparent that the Morris team had been taking some lessons on the sly. They showed up with much the strongest line and had it not been for the sky scraping punting of Dr. Dixon of Hill's team they would probably have scored.

The way Sherry Calkins went through the line and made gains was a surprise to the natives, and no one need be surprised if he is with the Stanford's next season.

Dr. Littlefield made some star plays but was almost knocked out toward the end of the game. Nothing kept him on the field but a heartless remark dropped by Hugh Nelson to this effect: "Say Dock don't let up for a little thing like that, for remember that you told me there were not enough men in town to touch you on the gridiron."

The game closed without a single touchdown being made, everybody went home in high glee,

And the tooter tooted his horn for both teams.

Avoid Consumption.

By stopping that cough. We know of no better remedy for coughs and colds than the S. B. Cough Cure. 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Yamhill County Reporter.

Frank Brown, superintendent of the Ladd & Howe stock farm at North-Yamhill, was a caller on Wednesday. He informs us of the recent arrival of four head of blooded sheep—two Cotswolds and two Southdowns—direct from England. Six head consigned to Mr. Ladd left England on the 20th of June. Two died in the transit and the others arrived December 16th, being nearly six months making the journey.

Sheriff Henry's prisoners did not have a turkey dinner on Christmas, but the sheriff gave them a little better provender than usual by setting up the apples. Some of the boys asked Hunger, the sugar thief, if he would'nt like to go over to the fair grounds to attend the foot ball game. Of course he wanted to go, and exclaimed "Oh. if you let me go, I'll be sure to come back!"

A new combination of legal talent has been effected, to go into operation today. The parties to it are James McCain, O. H. Irvine and W. T. Vinton. This new firm combines an array of legal ability second to none in the state, and will undoubtedly command a large practice. The rooms at present occupied by Mr. Irvine will be its place of business.

Recorder Macy has bought the Mason residence property near the west end of First street and has carpenters at work putting it into habitable shape.

Preparing For Christmas.

"John," she said, when his after-dinner cup of coffee had been placed before him, "John Christmas is coming."

"You don't say," replied the heartless man. "You surprise me; I thought it was going."

"Now don't try to be so funny John. You know very well what I mean.

"I mean that it is only a little more than a month off."

"I guess you are right."

"Well, I am going to buy you a lovely present. Now, what is your want?"

"I hav'nt any idea: only of course, don't buy me any cigars, and I have two smoking jackets already."

"You'll leave it entirely to my taste, John?"

"I will, my dear; with the exceptions I have named."

"I'll get you something real nice." Then silence, which was broken with

"And, John dear?"

"Yes?"

"Don't you think you had better double my allowance so I can buy you something real nice?"—Chicago Times Herald.

Absolutely pure, perfectly harmless, and invriably reliable are the qualities of One Minute Cough Cure. It never fails in colds croup and lung troubles. Children like it because it is pleasant to take and it helps them. A. T. HILL.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at A. T. Hill's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
