The nineteenth session of the Oregon legislature met in Salem Monday, and failed to organize completely, because of disagreement between factions FREE METHODIST.-PRAYER MEETING in the senatorial fight. The evident purpose seemed to be to delay the election of United States senator for two weeks and they were successful. The enate organized without friction, but the house not at all. A vote for senator can not now be taken until Tues-Multnomah, was chosen president of the senate without opposition.

> Monday at Olympia, and promptly proceeded to organize. W. H. Plummer, of Spokane, was elected temporary chairman of the senate; Dudley Eshelman, of Spokane, secretary of the senate. The election of minor employes was proceeded with until a number of places were filled. The house was called to order at noon by Assistant Chief Clerk Alexander of the last session. The election of officers and employes followed, and C. E. Cline, of Whatcom, was chosen speaker, and Judge Carusi, of Clallam, chief clerk. A committee was appointed to test the contested places, and the house ad-

A thousand warring Poles, in Bay City, Mich., were determined that Father Bogacki should not officiate as their priest. They attacked the parsonage of St. Stanislaus' church, and stormed it for over an hour. They demolished the edifice and one man was hot and several others wounded with lubs. The priest finally surrendered, and the police quelled the riot.

The Pacific cable conference will meet within a fortnight in London to sign the report already agreed upon. It is semi-officially stated that the report unanimously recommends that a cable be built, as it is practically feasible and commercially and politically necessary. There is some difference of opinion regarding the relative share of expense to be borne by Great Britain and the colonies concerned, but the delegates have agreed finally to recommend that less be paid by Great Britain and more by the colonies than originally considered necessary. The sum asked from Great Britain is understood to be considered financially feasible by Secretary Chamberlain.

Drowned in Colville Lake. Sprague, Wash., Jan. 12.-Two boys, Fritz and Con Veven, aged respectively 19 and 17 years, were drowned yesterday in Colville lake, two miles east of this place. They left home in the afternoon, telling their mother they were going on a fishing expedition. They had not returned at a late hour and a searching party set out. The body of the younger was brought to the surface 100 yards from shore; that of the older boy was not recovered. They went out on the lake in a sailboat, and the boat was evidently overturned by the wind. The father is employed in the railroad shops in Spokane.

Washington, Jan. 11.-The house committee on territories today agreed to report the bill which has passed the senate authorizing the secretary of the interior to use his discretion to lease twenty years, for the purpose of propagating the silver fox. At present, the ease can be for but one year, which is not sufficient for the purpose proposed.

Against a Reduction. Massillon, O., Jan. 11.-A convention representing 1,800 independent coal miners of the Massillon district decided today that the miners would not accept the ten cents reduction ordered by the operators. The operators are firm and a strike is probable. The United Mine Workers will probably take similar action tomorrow.
