Newberg has not celebrated the glorious "Fourth" for several years. It appears that it is about time the scream of the American bird should be heard in this end of the valley again. Who will take the lead in this matter?

The new prices being made in our store embraces everything we have. We can offer such bargains as cash buyers are now looking for. Will be pleased to convince you in just one minute when you get ready to buy. MORRIS & MILES.

Some for ten, some for twenty and some for thirty years have suffered from piles and they have been quickly and permanently cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great remedy for piles and all skin diseases. A. T. HILL.

It will no doubt be gratifying to the public to learn that there will be no changes made in the faculty of Pacific College for next year. The teaching force will remain the same, all the professors having already been contracted with for another year. This action insures another year's successful work for the college.

Foster, the ten year old son of Zim Mills of Springbrook fell from a tree last Sunday afternoon and broke one leg, up close to the hip. He was climbing an old snag and when about twenty feet from the ground it broke, letting him fall heavily to the earth. Dr. Littlefield set the broken bone and the unfortunate lad is getting along nicely.

Charles K. Spaulding returned to town the first of the week after a trip of several days up the river, where he has more than a hundred men at work in his logging camps. Charley is fearful lest the snow shall get out of the Cascade mountains early this season, and consequently he has stopped cutting logs and will begin at once to put his supply into the streams that lead into the Willamette, and begin a big drive. He expects to come down the river with the largest drive that has ever yet appeared on the Willamette.

Marvin Blair was awarded the scholarship offered by the Pacific College board to the student of the graduating class of the public school showing the highest grade. Miss Jennie Garland was a very close second, she being only a sixth of one per cent behind him.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old resident of that place: "Frank McAvoy, for many years in the employ of the L. N. A. & C. Ry. here, says: I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer—am never without it in my family. I consider it the best remedy of the kind manufactured. I take pleasure in recommending it." It is a specific for all bowel disorders. For sale by A. T. Hill.

Miss Florence Sims, of Chicago, international secretary of College Y. W. C. A. work, who is making a tour of the west in the interest of the work, was here last Monday. Besides holding a meeting with the young ladies of the college in the afternoon, she gave an excellent address to a good sized audience at Friends church in the evening. Miss Sims is a very pleasant speaker and seems to be an earnest worker.

Presumably on account of items being a little scarce this week Bert Weesner's mare, while on the way to the barn, Wednesday noon, turned the corner at Morris & Miles store while going at a rate of speed that would cause a member of the city council to hold up his hands in horror. The wagon was turned over and Bert dusted up a little but no serious damage was done. This particular wagon has had an up and down experience ever since coming to town as a delivery rig, but it is still in the ring.

Don't thin your blood with sassafras or poison it with blue-moss; but aid Nature by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pill for constipation, biliousness and stomach and liver troubles. They are purely vegetable. A. T. Hill.

The freshmen class recital given at the college on last Saturday evening was well attended and the class showed up with very creditable orations. All the recitals given at the college during the year have been of a good grade, showing that the students are making good advancement along literary lines.

The complaint seems to be general that fruit is dropping pretty badly, so that the crop will not be as large as has been anticipated. French prunes have probably suffered most. The opinion prevails that the exceedingly hot weather—just as fruit was blooming caused the trouble. Oregon will still have plenty of fruit to sell.

On Wednesday afternoon Van Leavitt and Rube Conlee walked outside the city limits and proceeded to settle an old grudge with bare knuckles. Van tapped Rube about the head pretty lively and Rube chewed the thumb of Van's right hand like a mastiff. The same effort put forth in the woods with axes would have been much more creditable to the participants as well as to the community.

Prof. J. F. Hewitt of Portland Academy, will address the men's meeting next Sunday afternoon and will also speak in Friends church at 8 p. m. on the Student Volunteer Movement. Prof. Hewitt is a graduate of Princeton University, and a man of great power. The Y. M. C. A. of the college was instrumental in securing him, and will have charge of the services. Every one is cordially invited to hear Mr. Hewitt.

The last card received from Edmund Robinson and family, which was mailed at Red Bluff, California, said they were going to come by the way of Linkville and Klamath, and the military wagon road to Eugene, instead of coming up through the Rogue river country. They are out by team to see the country, and are apparently covering all the new territory possible on their return journey from Southern California.

It has been the custom of Pacific band to serenade any member who succumbs to cupid's wily darts, and as James Barrie Jr. recently fell by the wayside, the band boys gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barrie, the parents of the groom, on Wednesday evening, and played several selections. A number of friends of the bride and groom were present and enjoyed the evening's entertainment. Excellent ice cream, lemonade and cake were served to all, and everything went merry as a marriage bell in the month of May, with the roses in bloom.

Money Lost. Lost, on Tuesday morning, a purse containing a $10 gold piece, one $5 gold piece and two nickles. The finder will please leave it with A. M. Mauritzen and be suitably rewarded.

Happily Married.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barrie of this city was the scene on Friday evening, of a wedding as pretty as it was private. It was the marriage of Miss L. Grace Nason of Marshfield Wis., to J. W. Barrie Jr., of the firm of Barrie & Barrie of this city, Rev. J. E. Day performing the ceremony. Mr. H. A. Balmer of La Grande Oregon, acted as best man, while the bride was attended by her sister Miss E. Adelaide Nason. Decorated with English ivy, dogwood blossoms and roses, the rooms were a pleasing picture to look at, especially after the guests had arrived. At 8:30 the bridal pair entered the parlor, preceded by the bridesmaid and best man, who, just within the archway stepped aside, allowing the train to pass beneath the ivy canopy where they were made one.

The bride looked charming in a dainty gown of white organdie and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore white organdie over sea green and carried flush carnations.

Only relatives and very intimate friends were present. Quickly and pleasantly the evening slipped by. At ten, the guests gathered about the table while the bride deftly "carved" the cake which looked so tempting wreathed in smiles and roses. Very beautiful, as well as useful, were the many pieces of silver and china presented as tokens of love and esteem by the friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrie left Saturday morning amidst a shower of rice and old shoes, for a short trip up the Columbia river.

They will be at home to their friends at the Christenson cottage on Hancock street after June 1.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register. Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hours time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and she finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she has used ever did her as much good. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by A. T. Hill.
