The annual reunion of the Yamhill county pioneer association will be held at Dayton next Wednesday. Hon. W. D. Fenton, of Portland, will deliver the address. These annual gatherings of the old pioneers, when they get together and live the past over again, are very interesting times to young as well as old.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Gardner Deceased

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Gardner, wife of Asahel Gardner, died at their home near Newberg on May 23, 1897 after a short illness.

The deceased was born July 15, 1832—married to Asahel Gardner, Oct. 3, 1850. Eleven children were born to them, five of whom are living. Mrs. Gardner was a lifelong and active member of Friends church, she having served the church as an elder for many years.

She was greatly interested in W. C. T. U. and missionary work up to the time of her death. The Funeral was conducted from the home on Sunday afternoon by Rev. A. T. Ware the pastor.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hours time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and she finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she has used ever did her as much good. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by A. T. Hill.
