When the water system is in there ought to be at least two public watering troughs put up. One located at the corner of First and Main streets and another at the corner of First and Teridian would be a great convenience to the traveling public.

A card received from Edmund Robinson, who started home from Southern California with his family, overland, some time ago, states that they have stopped at Ft. Jones, Siskiyou county, where they will spend the summer. In company with a friend he is delving in to the earth for the yellow metal with prospects quite flattering for making at least good wages.

On the closing of Miss Glen's work as musical instructor with the graduating exercises in connection with her department in the college, on Tuesday night, the public had an opportunity to judge of her work, during the year, and many expressions of commendation have been heard. In her work during the year she has shown herself to be a competent instructor, both in vocal and instrumental music, and while she will engage in work elsewhere next year she will be pleasantly remembered by the people of Newberg.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. Va., and one of the most widely known men in the state was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co. recommended Chamberlain's Pain Expeller. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Expeller the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured." For sale by A. T. Hill.

Mr. A. says I paid $12.50 for this worsted suit in Portland, we sell same for $8.50. Our money has same value with Eastern factories, as has Portland money, and sensible ones buy from Barrie & Barrie.

Farmers who have fat stock to sell will find Stanley & Cooper in the market ready to buy, and families who like juicy steaks and tempting roasts will always find the best the market affords at their meat market.

Terrible accident.—It is a terrible accident to be burned or scalded; but the pain and agony and the frightful disfigurements can be quickly overcome without leaving a scar by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

Emory Hodson, of Seattle, has been in town during the week visiting with his brothers Charley and J. C. Hodson. Emory was a Newberg lad several years ago and tooted a horn with the first band organized in this neck of the woods.

John Crawford, of Dayton, who lived in Newberg a couple of years ago is making a tour of the east on a voyage of pleasure, and as is supposed with one eye out for the selection of a helpmeet. The last heard of him he had crossed the line and was carrying the war into Canada. John has the native ability to drive a good bargain and he will no doubt return with a prize worthy of the effort put forth in foreign lands.

For three years we have never been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house," says A. H. Patter, with E. C. Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., "and my wife would as soon think of being without flour as a bottle of this Remedy in the summer season. We have used it with all three of our children and it has never failed to cure—no slimp y stop pain, but cure absolute y. It is all right, and anyone who tries it will find it so." For sale by A. T. Hill.

The attendance at the various commencement exercises during the week was better than ever before in the history of the college, which indicates that the people of Newberg and the surrounding country are becoming more and more interested in the work of this educational institution as the years go by. The public recognizes the fact that Pacific College has a faculty second to none in the country and this is a great factor in increasing the loyalty of the people to the school. The outlook is bright for next year's work.

A couple of specimens of one of the remnant tribes of the "noble red men" read in the school books, passed through town Wednesday on the way home from Oregon City to Grand Ronde. One of them was old and gray with years and b-ozy from the effects of Oregon City fire water. The younger of the two appeared embarrassed at passing through a prohibition town under such circumstances, and made a diligent search for the tender spots along the flanks of his lagging cayuses and called as best he could to get out of sight.

Notice to Stock Holders. The annual meeting of the stock holders of Pacific College will occur on Thursday evening, June 24, at 7:30 in the college chapel. All stock holders are earnestly requested to be present.

The Glorious Fourth. That Newberg will celebrate has been fully settled. All the necessary committees have been appointed and they are now actively at work making arrangements for a big day. As soon as a speaker is secured, bills will be out giving details. In the mean time lay in a big stock of enthusiasm and firecrackers for the occasion. Saturday July 3 will be the day.

Joseph Vandervort, of Ohio, an old time railroad conductor who has been seeing the great Northwest country since some time in April, visited with his old friend and neighbor Wm. Hendershot on Wednesday and Thursday. They were neighbors together in Ohio years ago and the time spent in living the past over again went by all too quickly.

The Portland High School athletic team which met the home team on the fair grounds last Saturday were a gentlemanly set of fellows, and conducted themselves in a way which reflected credit on the school which they represented. They were unable to stand up against our boys but they made many friends while here. Prof. McKinley, president of the association and a fine gentleman, came up with them.

Rev. A. Rogers, of Forest Grove, who delivered the splendid lecture on "Honesty" by invitation of the Crescent Society on Monday evening, left Portland for San Francisco, Wednesday, where he has a prospect of engaging in journalistic work on a religious paper. Rev. Rogers has been identified with educational and religious work in Oregon for several years and he will be missed if he leaves the state.

Rev. Krause, pastor of the Congregational church of Sheridan, who delivered the very excellent address before the members of the christian association of the college on last Sunday evening, remained over until Wednesday evening and in the meantime attended the various commencement exercises. Being a graduate of Yale College he is quite competent to judge of the merits of orations, and it is gratifying to note that he spoke in very high terms of the orations delivered by the senior graduating class.

Hay Thresh. Sale may be found for a ton of clover hay by calling at the telephone office.

Notice to Stock Holders. The annual meeting of the stock holders of Pacific College will occur on Thursday evening, June 24, at 7:30 in the college chapel. All stock holders are earnestly requested to be present.

Letter From Astoria.

EDITOR GRAPHIC—I write you from the top of the hill back of Astoria where we are pleasantly located at the end of a good walk, with good neighbors, most of whom have made a call on us and we find them pleasant people. Have had showers every day, but most of the day is very pleasant. Although cloudy most of the time it seems warm and nice and not so cold and damp as at the coast.

One man down on the wharf who has traveled much said, Astoria has the best climate and the most beautiful scenery of any harbor he knew of in his travels.

Fish are beginning to run and business is starting up good. I find the market is good for all kinds of fruits, strawberries, gooseberries and cherries and all California fruits are moving readily at good prices.

I believe we made a wise choice in our selection of a resort at this time of the year. The trip by boat from Newberg is a pleasant enjoyable trip compared with any of the other methods of getting to the coast. Mrs. Colcord was quite sick the morning we left home and had to go to bed as soon as she got on to the boat. At Portland we only had to step from one boat to the other, and the next morning got up at the wharf in Astoria well rested and feeling much better for the trip.

As previously announced, Flower Mission Day was observed by Newberg Union June 9, Jennie Cassaday's birthday Miss Elsie Maey is the efficient superintendent of this work, and under her supervision, quite a number of bouquets were sent out.

"They are dandies!" said Thos. Bowers, of the Crocket, Texas, Enterprise, while writing about DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pill for sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver. A. T. Hill.
